

Social Justice Education Opportunity for District Leaders

Authors Ozlem Sensoy and Robin DiAngelo discuss the most common obstacles to addressing social justice in educational settings. This text will explore key concepts by definition but also by exploration.

What to Expect

Who: Superintendents and school leaders to learn and discuss issues about equity and social justice education

What: Book study over the text, Is Everyone really Equal?: An Introduction to Key Concepts in Social Justice Education. Facilitation by Dr. Renae Azziz.

Dr. Renae Azziz is the Founder and Director of Virtuoso Education Consulting. Renae is the author of several articles and professional development resources geared to supporting educators with developing awareness, knowledge, and skills to meet the needs of all students. Renae received an Ed.S. in School Psychology, an M.S. in Educational Psychology, and a B.A. with honors in Psychology from Indiana University and earned her Doctorate in Education at the Johns Hopkins University specializing in Entrepreneurial Leadership in Education.

When: August 25 - November 17 (13 weeks)

- Zoom meetings biweekly on Thursdays @ 4:30 p.m. ET starting August 27
- Self-paced discussion board posts during non-meeting weeks

How: Self-guided weekly discussion posts via Google Classroom and biweekly Zoom meetings

Registration link:

<https://form.jotform.com/202085856159967>