1.3 PURPOSE OF THE RFP

The purpose of this RFP is to select a vendor that can satisfy the marketing and outreach efforts that will increase enrollments and completions in high demand, high-value certificate programs as part of the state's Next Level Jobs Workforce Ready Grant program using a budget of $750,000 over one year.

With an initial marketing investment of about $1.1M over about two years, 15,280+ Hoosiers have enrolled in these certificate programs. These results are promising and demonstrate growing momentum around the state's Next Level Jobs Workforce Ready Grant program. With a strategy more focused on direct targeting and retargeting individuals in key populations, we believe there is great potential to build from success to-date and grow the number of enrollments and completions in these high-value programs.

1.4 BACKGROUND

Indiana has adopted a bold goal for 60 percent of its working-age population to have some type of credential beyond a high school diploma by 2025. Currently, about 43.4 percent of Hoosiers have earned some credential beyond a diploma. Gov. Holcomb's Next Level Jobs Workforce Ready Grant puts a sharp focus on helping Indiana meet that 60 percent goal by helping connect working-age Hoosier adults and recent high school graduates to high-demand certificate programs that will lead to better paying jobs.

How it Works:

The NextLevelJobs.org online portal asks job seekers five simple questions, collects information about their job interests and connects them directly with Ivy Tech Community College, Vincennes University or another approved training provider. Those who submit their information on the portal receive a follow-up email immediately and a call from someone at an education or training provider within two to three days.

Eligible adults receive the Next Level Jobs Workforce Ready Grant, which covers tuition and mandatory fees for Hoosiers to enroll in high-demand, high-value certificate programs. Beyond the Next Level Jobs Workforce Ready Grant, the NextLevelJobs.org online portal connects Hoosiers to other available workforce and postsecondary grants and opportunities.

Target Populations for Next Level Jobs Workforce Ready Grant:

- Those who have visited the NextLevelJobs.org online portal but have not submitted their information for follow-up (About 350,000)
- Those who have visited the NextLevelJobs.org online portal and submitted their information but have not enrolled in eligible programs. (About 35,600)
- High school students who are not following a graduation pathway that leads to a four- or two-year degree program (About 36,000)
- High school students pursuing Career & Technical Education (CTE) pathways (About 25,000)
- High school graduates who did not enroll in a postsecondary education or training program (About 28,016)
- Students who began work at a two- or four-year institution using state financial aid but left before completing. (10,000+)
- Students enrolled in institutions on a two- or four-year path who are facing dismissal for academic reasons. (Unknown)

- Our current enrollment performance according to our website:

404,300+ users have visited the website.

50,870+ users completed the application.

15,280 have actually enrolled in a training program.

5,760 have completed a training program.

The services sought in this RFP are to support the Commission with its obligations under this project and this law, including the targeted outreach, triage of responses and the reporting of data to the General Assembly.

1.5 SUMMARY SCOPE OF WORK

RETARGETING

Using the existing data from NextLevelJobs.org, implement a strong retargeting strategy that increases the following:

- Number of prospects who begin the application
- Rate of prospects who finish the application
- Percentage of completed applications
- Percentage of enrollments

Selected agency will have demonstrated ability to perform this work in-house or work closely with a vendor that specializes in data analytics in the higher education space.

TARGETING NEW PROSPECTS

Using data from the Commission and higher education institutions to target the following populations to drive application completion and enrollment in eligible programs:

- Students who began work at a two- or four-year institution using state financial aid but left before completing.
- Students enrolled in institutions on a two- or four-year path who are facing dismissal for academic reasons.

Selected agency will have demonstrated ability to perform this work in-house or work closely with a vendor that specializes in data analytics in the higher education space.

CREATIVE AND COLLATERAL

- Refresh existing collateral and digital creative to reflect new targeted populations and current industry trends

- Create new collateral to support outreach to college advisors, high school counselors and WorkOne offices

NEXT LEVEL JOBS PORTAL

- Review and offer recommendations to refresh the Next Level Jobs website to improve and simplify the user experience and incorporate more state financial aid programs targeting learners in high-demand and high-wage sectors—incorporate a broader approach that accommodates the full spectrum of postsecondary credential options.

COMMUNICATIONS AND MARKETING

Include a communications and marketing plan that will be deployed for at least 12 months from contract start date that incorporates a strong focus on digital marketing to refine and improve messaging.
