

IUPUI COMMUNICATION OUTCOMES

[Outcomes:] Core communication skills are demonstrated by the student's ability to

- a. express ideas and facts to others effectively in a variety of formats, particularly written, oral, and visual formats;
- b. comprehend, interpret, and analyze ideas and facts;
- c. communicate effectively in a range of settings;
- d. make effective use of information resources and technology.

Specific Course Goals for W131: Elementary Communication 1

- Discover, explore, and analyze ideas in order to write with a strong sense of ownership
- Participate productively in discussions about writing
- Create a clear focus or strong thesis and provide sufficient support
- Use sources effectively by synthesizing ideas, integrating them smoothly, and documenting them correctly
- Learn to reflect on one's writing practices to improve them
- Shape, revise and edit one's writing to meet the concerns of purpose and audience