CURRENT PROJECT UPDATES

- i. Spray Contractor: Completed two weeks ago, haven't received final bill, Josh was there today and will check again next week to ensure everything is dead, everything looks good. Checked down south but couldn't spray due being within a mile of tomatoes and possibility that the spray could drift to the tomatoes.
- ii. (25) Kennel Williamson Tile: Fixed it and got all hooked up. Worked with all land owners who think they want to do reconstruction. Might be closer to winter as far as paper work and meetings, hopefully by next summer. 13000 foot worth of tile which will be close to over $800 per acre.

OTHER BUSINESS.

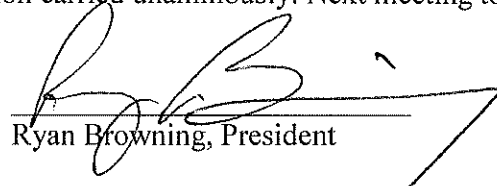

Road Usage Agreement: Gas line from Buffalo landfill to Nipsco, 4 inch. All open ditches, 6 foot from the bottom. Tiles will be found, going 3 foot beneath the tiles to avoid issues with gas lines. Two year warranty possibly to change to 5 year warranty.
