

What is Title I, D?

Title I, D is used to serve at-risk students who have come into contact or are at risk of coming into contact with the juvenile justice system.

This funding allows for children and youth to have equal opportunity to meet the challenging State standards needed to further their education or become productive members of society.

Title I, D is made of up two subparts

Subpart 1

Serves state agencies.

The only eligible agency in Indiana is the Indiana Department of Corrections. IDOC has three secure detentions that receive funding.

Subpart 2

Serves local educational agencies and associated facilities.

LEAs receive the funding on behalf of the neglected/delinquent facility and manage/oversee the program and funding. There are roughly 35-40 facilities currently.
