

REGIONAL LABOR ANALYST SERVICES

Front line services of Research and Analysis

Examples of information provided:

- Area Data Profiles
- Census Population data
- Census Race/Gender data
- Commuting to work data
- Customized Reports
- Education related data
- Employer Data aggregated
- Industry Earnings data
- Industry Employment data - QCEW
- Labor force data / Unemployment Rates
- Nonfarm Industry Employment data - CES
- Occupational Skill sets
- Plant closing information
- Short / Long-term Occupational Projections
- Standard DWD data products
- Starting Wage Reports
- State and Area Wage survey data
- Unemployment Benefit data
- Various Historical Trend data

Regional data users and information usage:

- ❖ Company Managers / Owners – use our data products in understanding the area labor market, determining the competitive atmosphere of their locations, and planning for the future, etc.
- ❖ Counselors / Placement Specialists – use our data products in assisting job placement and directing individuals to training.
- ❖ DWD Decision Makers – use our products in writing reports, giving presentations, and supporting policy decisions.
- ❖ Economic Developers / Chamber of Commerce – use our data products to promote economic growth, attract business establishments, etc.
- ❖ Education Providers / Institutions – use our data for program alignment with occupations that are growing and in demand.
- ❖ Government Planners / Consultants / Legislators – use our data products in formulating policy and developing economic proposals, etc.
- ❖ Grant Writers – use our data products to support requests for project funding.
- ❖ Human Resource Managers – use our data products in determining labor availability, doing wage comparisons, developing wage inflators, and structuring wage scales; in developing affirmative action policies; and in fulfilling government reporting requirements.
- ❖ Market Analysts – use our data to do economic research for company or branch site location, judging the strength of the local economy, forecasting, etc.
- ❖ Media People – use our data products in directly reflecting local economic conditions and in researching articles and stories.
- ❖ Students / Educators – use our data products for career and occupation exploration, research papers, course work supplements, concept illustration, professional journal articles, etc.
- ❖ Workforce Development Boards – use our data products in writing regional plans and structuring training and employment programs, etc.

Data applications and resources (other than DWD):

ALMIS database

BLS online resources

BLS news releases

Publications as Monthly Labor Review

Burning Glass

Business / economic publications

Census Bureau online resources:

ACS- American Community Survey

American Factfinder

FedStats

LED - Local Employment Dynamics

On-The-Map

Chamber of Commerce industrial directories

College / University libraries

Emsi - Economic Modeling Specialists Inc.

HWOL - Help Wanted On-Line

NAICS & SOC manuals

News Networks Online

News Publications

O*Net - Occupation website

State Library resources

STATS Indiana

WDB Internet sites

Regional Labor Analysts

Kathy Jaworski

1575 Adler Circle, Ste A

Portage, IN 46368

(219) 762-6592 ext 228

KJaworski@dwd.in.gov

Regions 1 & 2

Kent Sellers

200 E. Main St. Ste. 910

Fort Wayne, IN 46802

(260) 469-4313

WSellers@dwd.in.gov

Regions 3 & 6

Cassie Janes

709 S. Reed Rd.

Kokomo, IN 46901

(765) 459-0571 ext 3036

CJanes@dwd.in.gov

Regions 4 & 8

TBD

10 N. Senate Ave.

Indianapolis, IN 46204

(317) 232-1920

Region 5

Kim Stevenson

30 N. 8th Street, 5th Fl.

Terre Haute, IN, 47807

(812) 242-6427

Kstevenson@dwd.in.gov

Regions 7 & 11

Jillian Gregory

500 Industrial Dr. Ste. 1305

Lawrenceburg, IN 47025

(812) 537-2485

JGregory@dwd.in.gov

Regions 9 & 10

Key Resources

Hoosiers by the Numbers – www.hoosierdata.in.gov

Indiana Career Connect – www.indianacareerconnect.com

Indiana Workforce Development – www.in.gov/dwd