

County level estimates for Miller trusts

The Family and Social Services Administration (FSSA) has prepared the below estimates of the currently enrolled Medicaid members receiving services in nursing homes or on Medicaid home and community based waivers, who need to establish a valid Miller trust by June 1, 2014 in order to maintain Medicaid eligibility after this date. This list represents an estimate of these members by county as of March 2014 and is intended as reference material only. All current Medicaid members who need to establish a Miller trust, and their designated authorized representatives, will be individually notified.
