INSTRUCTIONS

For Completing Life, Accident and Health Annual Statement Blank

FOREWORD

Line titles and column headings of the various statement items and lines are in general self-explanatory and as such constitute instructions. Specific further instructions are prescribed for items and lines about which there might be some question as to content. Make any entry for which no specific instruction appears in accordance with sound insurance accounting principles and in a manner consistent with related items and lines covered by specific instructions. The Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual is one reference for guidance concerning statutory accounting principles.

For U.S. branches of non-U.S. insurers:

In completing the annual statement blank, report all business done by the U.S. branch in the United States. The difference between the amounts reported on the Assets page, Total line, Net Admitted Assets, Current Year column and the Liabilities page, Total Liabilities line shall be reported on the Liabilities page, Line 18.

The format of the annual statement facilitates data capture. Therefore, do not change the captions for pre-printed items, lines, or columns and do not insert write-ins between pre-printed items, lines or columns (however, these requirements do not apply to the signature lines on the Jurat Page). An entry for which no specific pre-printed line title appears (for example, Deferred Option Income) should be included in the appropriate write-in line for each schedule or applicable page. Include an identifying title with each entry. Report write-in lines in descending order. The statement provides a limited number of lines for write-ins in each applicable section. Do not modify these pre-printed write-in detail schedules. If there is not sufficient room in a write-in detail schedule to accommodate all write-ins to be reported therein, report the write-in detail overflow on pages sequentially numbered beginning with Page 55 (Overflow page), followed by 55.1, 55.2, etc. In such instances, carry the summary of write-in overflow lines from this page to the prescribed line in the write-in detail schedule.

ASSETS
DETAILS OF WRITE-INS AGGREGATED AT LINE 25 FOR OTHER-THAN-INVESTED-ASSETS

2501.	Write-in caption aaaa	$ 500,000
2502.	Write-in caption bbbb	350,000
2503.	Write-in caption cccc	250,000
2598.	Summary of remaining write-ins for Line 25 from Overflow page	300,000
2599.	TOTAL (Lines 2501 through 2503 plus 2598) (Page 2, Line 25)	$ 1,400,000

2504.	Write-in caption dddd	$ 100,000
2505.	Write-in caption eeee	75,000
2506.	Write-in caption ffff	50,000
2507.	Write-in caption gggg	50,000
2508.	Write-in caption hhhh	20,000
2509.	Write-in caption iiii	5,000
2597.	Summary of remaining write-ins for Line 25 (Lines 2505 through 2596) (Page 2, Line 2598)	$ 300,000

More than one detail overflow section may appear on one page. However, the items should remain in page number order. Notwithstanding the prohibition against changing the captions of pre-printed items or columns and against inserting write-ins between pre-printed lines or columns, certain portions of the annual statement may require more lines than are provided. When additional lines are required within any of these statement areas, companies shall continue the sequence of either the pre-printed line number range, or the line number range described in the appropriate instruction area.

When the use of such additional lines requires more room than exists on the pre-printed page, the continuation should be presented on a page, inserted immediately following the pre-printed page, designated as page n.1, n.2, etc. For instance, if Schedule BA, Part 1, Other Long-Term Invested Assets requires more lines, the continuation would be presented on Page E07.1, E07.2, etc. Adequately caption all such additional pages to enable ready identification.

Pre-printed subtotal, total, and grand total lines have specific line numbers assigned. The prescribed subtotal line numbers are set forth in the instructions for the respective annual statement page or part thereof, to which they pertain.

In most instances, the information appearing in the various sections of the statement will be sufficient to meet examination needs. However, each company must maintain adequate records and work papers to support the detail of all accounting transactions, enabling verification of the year-end statement values. Company management should perform a periodic review to determine that these records are accurate, sufficiently detailed, and retained in orderly, safe storage with appropriate retention periods.

INDEX

The annual statement shall contain an alphabetized index on the last page of the hardcopy statement, which references the title and page number of all of the pages that are required to be included in that filing. The NAIC shall maintain, and place on its Website at www.naic.org/cmte_e_app_blanks.htm, the alphabetized index for all statement types that is required to be included in the hardcopy of the statement. The above is only required on the March 1 filing, and specifically excludes any supplements.

GENERAL

The annual statement is to be completed in accordance with the Annual Statement Instructions and Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual except to the extent that state law, rules or regulations are in conflict with these publications. In cases of conflict, the life, accident and health annual statement will be filed pursuant to such state's filing requirements. The domiciliary state's insurance regulatory authority shall maintain full discretion in determining which NAIC annual statement blank must be filed. The annual statement blank filed with the domiciliary state shall be the blank submitted to, and maintained by, the NAIC, and barring conflict as described above, should be filed with all jurisdictions in which the reporting entity is licensed.

1. Health Statement Test:

If a reporting entity is licensed as a life and health insurer and completes a life, accident and health annual statement for the reporting year, the reporting entity must complete the Health Statement Test.

The Health Statement Test is designed to determine whether a reporting entity reports predominantly health lines of business. Health lines include hospital or medical policies or certificates, comprehensive major medical expense insurance and managed care contracts and include other health coverage such as credit insurance, disability income coverage, automobile medical coverage, workers' compensation, accidental death and dismemberment policies and long-term care policies.

Passing the Test:

A reporting entity is deemed to have passed the Health Statement Test if:

The values for the premium and reserve ratios in the Health Statement Test equal or exceed 95% for both the reporting and prior year

AND

The entity passing Health Statement Test is licensed and actively issuing and/or renewing business in five states or less

AND

At least seventy-five percent (75%) of the entity's current year premiums are written in its domiciliary state

OR

The values for the premium and reserve ratios in the Health Statement Test equal 100% for both the reporting and prior year, regardless of the number of states in which the entity is licensed.

If a reporting entity is a) licensed as a life and health insurer; b) completes the Life, Accident and Health annual statement for the reporting year; and c) passes the Health Statement Test (as described above), the reporting entity must complete the health statement beginning with the first quarter's statement for the second year following the reporting year in which the reporting entity passes the Health Statement Test and must also file the corresponding risk-based capital report and the life supplements for that year-end.

Variances from following these instructions:

If a reporting entity's domestic regulator requires the reporting entity to complete an annual statement form and risk-based capital report that differs from these instructions, the domestic regulator shall notify the reporting entity in writing by June 1 of the year following the reporting year in which a Health Statement Test is submitted.

2. Date of filing:

The statement is required to be filed on or before March 1, unless otherwise provided.

3. Companies are required to file the quarterly statement 45 days after the end of the quarter and the annual statement on or before March 1 for the preceding calendar year, unless otherwise required.
4. The reporting date and the legal name of the company must be plainly written or stamped at the top of all pages, exhibits and schedules (and duplicate schedules) and also upon all inserted schedules and loose sheets. Where permitted, the assumed name can accompany the legal name.
5. It is the responsibility of the company to prepare and utilize the barcodes correctly. See the Appendix within these instructions for use of specific barcodes.
6. Printed statements or copies produced by some duplicating process on the actual blanks required by this Department, will be accepted if:
 - a. Bound in covers similar in color to the blanks required by this Department;
 - b. Printed or duplicated by a process resulting in permanent black characters on a good grade of paper of light color; and
 - c. Such statements and all supporting schedules contain all the information required, with the same headings and footnotes, and are of the same size and arrangement, page for page, column for column, and line for line, as in the blanks required by this Department and the company is otherwise instructed.

State insurance departments, other than the state of domicile, must choose to receive certain detailed investment schedules (as listed below) in hardcopy. The state filing instructions will serve as notice regarding the requirements. However, even if the detailed investment schedules are required by a state other than where the reporting entity is domiciled, those detailed pages may be included in a separate bound statement, provided some reference to the fact is included with the regular filing and on the location where those pages would be included.

The following schedules are to be filed in paper copy with the state of domicile only, unless specifically requested by other admitted states. The state filing checklist and instructions will serve as notice regarding the paper filing requirements.

- Schedule A
- Schedule B
- Schedule C
- Schedule D, Parts 1 – 6 (excluding Part 1A)
- Schedule D, Part 1
- Schedule DB, Parts A-D
- Schedule DL, Parts 1 and 2
- Schedule E, Parts 1, 2 and 3
- Credit Insurance Experience Exhibit

- Life, Health and Annuity Guaranty Association Model Act Assessment Base Reconciliation Exhibit
- Adjustment to Life, Health and Annuity Guaranty Association Model Act Assessment Base Reconciliation Exhibit
- Long-Term Care Insurance Experience Reporting Forms
- Medicare Supplement Insurance Experience Exhibit
- Trusted Surplus Statement

If the reporting entity is filing with the NAIC, that filing shall be via the Internet only.

Photocopied or faxed pages are not acceptable.

Printing Standards

- a. Commercial printers must be furnished with original laser printer output generated at appropriate laser settings to give the highest print quality (no photocopied or faxed pages).
- b. No font smaller than 8-point type for the annual statement or 6-point type for the Long-Term Care Experience Reporting Forms 1 through 5 and all investment schedules may be used. Ornate fonts may not be used.
- c. Present numbers in non-bold, non-italic type.
- d. Numbers must be non-proportionally spaced.
- e. The annual and quarterly statements must be printed at 9 lines per inch.
- f. Unobtrusive dotted leader lines shall be printed across the page to guide the eye to the reported figures. They should not touch the reported figures.
- g. Slashed zeros (Ø) shall not be used.
- h. The number of detail write-in lines printed in any detail write-in section shall be three (3). Remaining detail write-in lines, if any, shall be reported on the overflow page.

These rules do not apply to pre-printed line captions, column headings, or footnotes.

If a reporting entity utilizes a software package other than the annual statement vendors' package for producing variable line schedules, the reporting entity is responsible for ensuring that such package(s) meet all of the aforementioned printing standards.

All annual and quarterly statements and all filing forms associated with the annual and quarterly statement filings are to be 8 ½" x 14" unless otherwise specified by state(s).

7. Blank schedules will not be considered properly filed. If no entries are to be made, write "None" or "Nothing" across the schedule in question or complete the appropriate interrogatory of the Supplemental Exhibits and Schedules Interrogatories page of the annual statement blank. If a reporting entity chooses not to file allowable investment schedule detail, the schedule must be stamped, "Details filed with the state of domicile, state of commercial domicile and the NAIC." Companies should account for every page of the annual statement in consecutive page number order. If several consecutive pages are "None", (or in the case of some investment schedules that are not filed in hard copy in all states), the appropriate page numbers with exhibit or schedule headings may be listed on one page. Insert that page in the appropriate location in the annual statement.
8. If additional supporting statements or schedules are added in connection with answering interrogatories or providing information on the financial statement, the additions should be properly keyed to the item being answered.
9. Amounts that cannot be readily classified under one of the printed items must be reported with an identifying title (for example, Deferred option income) in the appropriate write-in section for each applicable page, or section thereof. The statement provides a limited number of lines for write-ins, but companies may add as many lines as necessary.
10. The "include" and "exclude" are examples only and are not intended to be all-inclusive.
11. If this report does not contain the information asked for in the blanks or is not prepared in accordance with these instructions, it will not be considered filed.

12. Report all amounts in whole dollars only, except for designated schedules where 000's are omitted. Companies may elect to report the amounts to the nearest dollar or may truncate digits below a dollar. (Examples: $602,543.52 may be reported as $602,544 by rounding or as $602,543 by truncation.) It is expected that the failure of items to add to the summary totals will reflect this treatment.
13. Report all amounts in U.S. dollars only, except for nominal information included in description fields that may be expressed in a foreign currency. Refer to SSAP No. 23—Foreign Currency Transactions and Translations for accounting guidance.
14. Effective 01/01/2001, all dates must be reported in the format of MM/DD/YYYY. For investments purchased prior to 01/01/2001 (or where complete dates are not available for activities prior to 01/01/2001), and if the company does not have sufficient information to report month or day, 01/01 should be used.
15. The company should not change the page numbers designated in the association blank. If extra pages are needed, for other than sections entitled "Details of Write-Ins" use decimals after the page number, like 52.1, 52.2, etc. For example, General Interrogatories, Part 1 – Common Interrogatories 20, 20.1, 20.2, etc., and Part 2 – Life Interrogatories 21, 21.1, 21.2, etc.

16. Unless otherwise specified, report all alphabetic code and YES/NO responses to interrogatories, exhibits and schedules in solid capital letters.
17. While there are instances where the filing of an amended annual statement may be necessary (in which case all related filings including electronic filing are resubmitted), the restatement of prior years' results is generally prohibited. The reporting entity should submit such changes with a new Jurat Page, completed in all respects, along with an amended annual statement.
18. Assets and liabilities should be offset and reported net only when a valid right of setoff exists and if it is not prohibited by specific statements of statutory accounting principles. Refer to SSAP No. 64—Offsetting and Netting Assets and Liabilities for accounting guidance concerning the offsetting and netting of assets and liabilities.
19. Except in situations where a merger has occurred, amounts reported for assets, liabilities, surplus, revenues, and expenses for prior years in the current year's annual statement shall be identical to the amounts that were reported in the annual statement of the prior year. However, amounts reported in prior years may need to be adjusted in the current year as a result of the following:

- Changes in accounting principles or practices or changes in the methods of applying accounting principles or practices.

- Changes in accounting estimates as a result of new events or new information.

- Corrections of errors in previously filed information.

- A merger.

If changes are required for amounts reported in prior years, such changes should be included in the amounts reported for the current year and the effects of such changes should be reported as follows, unless these instructions or the Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual specifically provide for a different treatment:

- A. The cumulative effect of a change in accounting principles or practices, or a change in the method of applying accounting principles or practices, should be reported on the Summary of Operations page, Line 49 Cumulative Effect of Changes in Accounting Principles. The cumulative effect of changing to a new accounting principle is the difference between the amount of capital and surplus at the beginning of the year and the amount of capital and surplus that would have been reported at that date if the new accounting principle had been applied retroactively for all prior periods. An example of a change in accounting principles would be a change in the method of accounting for pensions or other post-employment benefits.

- B. The effects of changes in accounting estimates are included in income and expenses in the Summary of Operations for the current year. For example, a change in estimate for reserves for accident and health claims related to prior years should be included in the Summary of Operations in disability benefits and benefits under accident and health contracts.
- C. The effects of changes resulting from corrections of errors in previously filed information (for example, mathematical mistakes, misapplication of accounting principles, or oversight or misuse of facts) should be reported as an adjustment to surplus in the current year. Such adjustments to surplus should be reported with an appropriate identifying title as a write-in item for gains and losses in surplus, Summary of Operations Page, Aggregate Write-ins for Gains and Losses in Surplus line.
- D. In the case of a merger, prior years' amounts reported for assets, liabilities, surplus, revenues and expenses, as well as those amounts reflected in supporting annual statement schedules, should be reported on a merged basis consistent with the current year's post-merger reporting basis.
- E. Changes that do not affect assets, liabilities, revenues, expenses, or surplus but that materially affect historical information in the financial statement supplemental schedules (e.g., Schedule O) should be reflected in the current years' schedules with appropriate notations made in the Notes to Financial Statements.
20. Related parties are defined in SSAP No. 25—Affiliates and Other Related Parties as entities that have common interests as a result of ownership, control, and affiliation or by contract. Refer to SSAP No. 25 for accounting guidance regarding the principles and disclosure requirements for related party transactions.
21. A "person" is an individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, or any other legal entity. A "parent" is any person that, directly or indirectly, owns or controls the reporting entity. A "subsidiary" is any person that is, directly or indirectly, owned or controlled by the reporting entity. An "affiliate" is any person that is, directly or indirectly, owned or controlled by the same person or by the same group of persons that, directly or indirectly, own or control the reporting entity. The term "affiliate" includes parent and subsidiaries. Control shall be presumed to exist if a person, directly or indirectly, owns, controls, holds with the power to vote or holds proxies, representing 10% or more of the voting securities of any other person.
22. All reported amounts less than zero shall be represented by the use of parentheses. Parentheses shall also be used to denote those instances in which the reported figure is contrary to what would normally be expected.
23. The Notes to Financial Statements are provided to disclose pertinent information, including comments on items or transactions that are unusual or not self-explanatory or that might otherwise be misunderstood.
24. If the company has separate accounts, a statement should appear in the Notes to Financial Statements that the amounts reported pertain to the entire company business including, as appropriate, its separate accounts business.
25. Unless otherwise specified, reinsurance assumed should be included, reinsurance ceded should be deducted, and net figures entered in the statement. Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance and Servicemen's Group Life Insurance are to be treated as reinsurance, except that in the case of the Exhibit of Life Insurance each company, including the administering companies, is to treat its share as direct business. FEGLI and SGLI figures should be included in the annual statement in accordance with the instructions distributed by the administering companies.
26. All reinsurance transactions involving separate accounts business, if any, must be reported as reinsurance transactions in the general account annual statement, including reinsurance premiums, deposits, benefits, withdrawals, Schedule S (for separate accounts modified coinsurance reserves), Schedule T and, where applicable, the Notes to Financial Statement and Schedule Y, Part 2.

ACTUARIAL OPINION

1. There is to be included on or attached to Page 1 of the annual statement, the statement of the Appointed Actuary, entitled "Statement of Actuarial Opinion" (Actuarial Opinion), setting forth his or her opinion relating to contract reserves and other actuarial items. The Appointed Actuary must be a Qualified Actuary. Requirements regarding the Appointed Actuary and Qualified Actuary are prescribed by VM-30, Actuarial Opinion and Memorandum Requirements, of the Valuation Manual authorized by Section 3 of the Standard Valuation Law (#820) as amended by the NAIC in September 2009.
2. A separate Actuarial Opinion is required for each company filing an Annual Statement. The Actuarial Opinion must follow the requirements for statements of actuarial opinion prescribed by VM-30, Actuarial Opinion and Memorandum Requirements, of the Valuation Manual authorized by Section 3 of the Model #820 as amended by the NAIC in September 2009. The Actuarial Opinion should include the general account and the separate accounts.
3. The Appointed Actuary must report to the Board of Directors or the Audit Committee each year on the items within the scope of the Actuarial Opinion. The minutes of the Board of Directors shall indicate that the Appointed Actuary has presented such information to the Board of Directors or the Audit Committee.

ANNUAL AUDITED FINANCIAL REPORTS

All states have a statute or regulation that requires an annual audit of their insurance companies by an independent certified public accountant based on the NAIC Annual Financial Reporting Model Regulation (#205). For guidance regarding this model, see Appendix G of the NAIC Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual.

The reporting entity shall require the independent certified public accountant to subject the information included in the Supplemental Schedule of Assets and Liabilities (illustrated below) to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the current statutory financial statements to determine whether such information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic statutory financial statements taken as a whole and agrees to the reporting entity’s annual statement filed with the state insurance departments and the NAIC.

The supplemental schedule should be included with the audited annual statutory financial statements. The auditor should issue a report on the supplemental information as to whether the information is fairly stated in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS¹

Reporting entities are required to file a supplement to the annual statement titled "Management's Discussion and Analysis" (MD&A) by April 1 each year.

MD&A Requirements:

Discuss the reporting entity's financial condition, changes in financial condition and results of operations. The discussion shall provide information as specified in paragraphs that follow and also shall provide such other information that the reporting entity believes to be necessary for an understanding of its financial condition, changes in financial condition and results of operations. Discussions of liquidity and capital resources may be combined whenever the two topics are interrelated.

Introduction

1. The MD&A requirements are intended to provide, in one section, material historical and prospective textual disclosure enabling regulators to assess the financial condition and results of operations of the reporting entity. There is a need for a narrative explanation of the financial statements, because a numerical presentation and brief accompanying footnotes alone may be insufficient for regulators to judge the quality of earnings and the likelihood that past performance is indicative of future performance. The MD&A is intended to give the regulator an opportunity to look at the reporting entity through the eyes of management, providing both a short-term and long-term analysis of the business of the reporting entity.
2. The MD&A shall be of the financial statements and of other statistical data that the reporting entity believes will enhance a regulator's understanding of its financial condition, changes in financial condition and results of operations. Generally, the discussion shall cover the two year period covered by the financial statements and shall use year-to-year comparisons or any other formats that in the reporting entity's judgment enhance a regulator's understanding. However, where trend information is relevant, reference to the five year selected financial data schedule may be necessary.
3. The purpose of the MD&A shall be to provide regulators with information relevant to an assessment of the financial condition and results of operations of the reporting entity as determined by evaluating the amounts and certainty of cash flows from operations and from outside sources. The information provided pursuant to this MD&A need only include that which is available to the reporting entity without undue effort or expense and which does not clearly appear in the reporting entity's financial statements.
4. Management should ensure that disclosure in MD&A is balanced and fully responsive. To enhance regulator understanding of the financial statements, entities are encouraged to explain in the MD&A the effects of the critical accounting policies applied, the judgments made in their application, and any subsequent changes in assumptions or conditions which would have resulted in materially different reported results. Analytical discussion of significant accounting policies in the MD&A should not include information already reported in the significant accounting policies section of the notes to the financial statement.
5. The discussion and analysis shall focus specifically on material events and uncertainties known to management that would cause reported financial information not to be necessarily indicative of future operating results or of future financial condition. This would include descriptions and amounts of (a) matters that would have an impact on future operations and have not had an impact in the past, and (b) matters that have had an impact on reported operations and are not expected to have an impact upon future operations.

6. Reporting entities are required to prepare the MD&A on a non-consolidated basis, unless the following conditions are met:
 - a. The entity is part of a consolidated group of insurers that utilizes a pooling arrangement or one hundred percent reinsurance agreement that affects the solvency and integrity of the entity's reserves and such entity ceded substantially all of its direct and assumed business to the pool. An entity is deemed to have ceded substantially all of its direct and assumed business to a pool if the entity has less than $1,000,000 total direct plus assumed written premiums during a calendar year that are not subject to a pooling arrangement and the net income of the business not subject to the pooling arrangement represents less than 5% of the company's capital and surplus.

Or

 - b. The entity's state of domicile permits audited consolidated financial statements.

If a group of insurance companies prepares the MD&A on a consolidated basis, the discussion should identify and discuss significant differences between reporting entities (e.g., investment mix, leverage, liquidity, etc.).

Results of Operations

7. Reporting entities should describe any unusual or infrequent events or transactions or any significant economic changes that materially affected the amount of reported net income or other gains/losses in surplus and, in each case, indicate the extent to which net income or surplus was so affected. In addition, describe any other significant components of income that, in the reporting entity's judgment, should be described in order to understand the reporting entity's results of operations.
8. Reporting entities should describe any known trends or uncertainties that have had or are reasonably probable to have a material favorable or unfavorable impact on premium, net income or other gains/losses in surplus. If the reporting entity knows of events that will cause a material change in the relationship between expenses and premium, the change in the relationship shall be disclosed.
9. To the extent that the financial statements disclose material increases in premium, reporting entities should provide a narrative discussion of the extent to which such increases are attributable to increases in prices or to increases in the volume or amount of existing products being sold or to the introduction of new products.

Prospective Information

10. Reporting entities are encouraged to supply forward-looking information. The MD&A may include discussions of "known trends or any known demands, commitments, events or uncertainties that will result in or that are reasonably likely to result in the reporting entity's liquidity increasing or decreasing in any material way." Further, descriptions of known material trends, the reporting entity's capital resources and expected changes in the mix and cost of such resources should be included. Disclosure of known trends or uncertainties that the reporting entity reasonably expects will have a material impact on premium, net income or other gains/losses in surplus is also encouraged.
11. In the event that a reporting entity does supply forward-looking information, the reporting entity may disclaim any responsibility for the accuracy of such information and condition the delivery of such information upon a waiver of any claim under any theory of law based on the inaccuracy of such information; provided that the reporting entity supplied such information in good faith.

Material Changes

12. Reporting entities are required to provide adequate disclosure of the reasons for material year-to-year changes in line items, or discussion and quantification of the contribution of two or more factors to such material changes. An analysis of changes in line items is required where material and where the changes diverge from changes in related line items of the financial statements, where identification and quantification of the extent of contribution of each of two or more factors is necessary to an understanding of a material change, or where there are material increases or decreases in net premium.

13. Repetition and line-by-line analysis is not required or generally appropriate when the causes for a change in one line item also relate to other line items. The discussion need not recite amounts of changes readily computable from the financial statements and shall not merely repeat numerical data contained in such statements. However, quantification should otherwise be as precise, including use of dollar amounts or percentages, as reasonably practicable.

Liquidity, Asset/Liability Matching and Capital Resources

14. The term "liquidity" as used in this MD&A refers to the ability of the reporting entity to generate adequate amounts of cash to meet the reporting entity's needs for cash. Except where it is otherwise clear from the discussion, the reporting entity shall indicate those balance sheet conditions or income or cash flow items, which the reporting entity believes, may be indicators of its liquidity condition. Liquidity generally shall be discussed on both a long-term and short-term basis. The issue of liquidity shall be discussed in the context of the reporting entity's own business or businesses.
15. The discussion of liquidity shall include a discussion of the nature and extent of restrictions on the ability of subsidiaries to transfer funds to the reporting entity in the form of cash dividends, loans or advances and the impact such restrictions may, if any, have on the ability of the reporting entity to meet its cash obligations.
16. Generally, short-term liquidity and short-term capital resources cover cash needs up to 12 months into the future. These cash needs and the sources of funds to meet such needs relate to the day-to-day operating expenses of the reporting entity and material commitments coming due during that 12-month period.
17. The discussion of long-term liquidity and long-term capital resources must address material expenditures, significant balloon payments or other payments due on long-term obligations, and other demands or commitments, including any off-balance sheet items, to be incurred beyond the next 12 months, as well as the proposed sources of funding required to satisfy such obligations.
18. Reporting entities should identify any known trends or any known demands, commitments, events or uncertainties that will result in or that are reasonably likely to result in the reporting entity's liquidity increasing or decreasing in any material way. If a material decline in liquidity is identified, indicate the course of action that the reporting entity has taken or proposes to take to remedy the decline. Also identify and separately describe internal and external sources of liquidity, and briefly discuss any material unused sources of liquid assets.
19. Reporting entities should describe any known material trends, favorable or unfavorable, in the reporting entity's capital resources. Indicate any expected material changes in the mix and relative cost of such resources. The discussion shall consider changes between equity, debt and any off-balance sheet financing arrangements.
20. Reporting entities are expected to use the statement of cash flows, and other appropriate indicators, in analyzing their liquidity, and to present a balanced discussion dealing with cash flows from investing and financing activities as well as from operations. This discussion should address those matters that have materially affected the most recent period presented but are not expected to have short-term or long-term implications, and those matters that have not materially affected the most recent period presented but are expected materially to affect future periods. Examples of such matters include:
 - a. Discretionary operating expenses such as expenses relating to advertising;
 - b. Debt refinancings or redemptions;
 - c. Dividend requirements to the reporting entity's parent to fund the parent's operations or debt service; or
 - d. Future potential sources of capital, such as a parent entity's planned investment in the reporting entity, and the form of that investment.

21. MD&A disclosures should not be overly general. For example, disclosure that the reporting entity has sufficient short-term funding to meet its liquidity needs for the next year provides little useful information. Instead, reporting entities should consider describing the sources of short-term funding and the circumstances that are reasonably likely to affect those sources of liquidity. The discussion should be limited to material risks, and, as with the MD&A generally, should be sufficiently detailed and tailored to the entity's individual circumstances, rather than "boilerplate."
22. If the reporting entity's liquidity is dependent on the use of off-balance sheet financing arrangements, such as securitization of receivables or obtaining access to assets through special purpose entities, the reporting entity should consider disclosure of the factors that are reasonably likely to affect its ability to continue using those off-balance sheet financing arrangements. Reporting entities also should make informative disclosures about matters that could affect the extent of funds required within management's short- and long-term planning horizon.
23. Reporting entities are reminded that identification of circumstances that could materially affect liquidity is necessary if they are "reasonably likely" to occur. This disclosure threshold is lower than "more likely than not." (See guidance provided in SSAP No. 5R—Liabilities, Contingencies and Impairments of Assets.) Market price changes, economic downturns, defaults on guarantees, or contractions of operations that have material consequences for the reporting entity's financial position or operating results can be reasonably likely to occur under some conditions. Material effects on liquidity as a result of any reasonably likely changes should be disclosed.
24. To identify trends, demands, commitments, events and uncertainties that require disclosure, management should consider the following:
 - a. Provisions in financial guarantees or commitments, debt agreements or other arrangements that could trigger a requirement for an early payment, additional collateral support, changes in terms, acceleration of maturity, or the creation of an additional financial obligation, such as adverse changes in the reporting entity's credit rating, financial ratios, earnings, cash flows, stock price or changes in the value of underlying, linked or indexed assets;
 - b. Circumstances that could impair the reporting entity's ability to continue to engage in transactions that have been integral to historical operations or are financially or operationally essential, or that could render that activity commercially impracticable, such as the inability to maintain a specified claims paying ability or investment grade credit rating, level of earnings, earnings per share, financial ratios, or collateral; and
 - c. Factors specific to the reporting entity and its markets that the reporting entity expects to be given significant weight in the determination of the reporting entity's credit rating or will otherwise affect the reporting entity's ability to raise short-term and long-term financing.

Loss Reserves (Property & Casualty Companies only)

25. The MD&A should include a discussion of those items that affect the reporting entity's volatility of loss reserves, including a description of those risks that contribute to the volatility.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

26. Reporting entities should consider the need to provide disclosures concerning transactions, arrangements and other relationships with entities or other persons that are reasonably likely to affect materially liquidity or the availability of or requirements for capital resources. Specific disclosure may be necessary regarding relationships with entities that are contractually limited to narrow activities that facilitate the reporting entity's transfer of or access to assets. These entities are often referred to as structured finance or special purpose entities. These entities may be in the form of corporations, partnerships or limited liability companies, or trusts.

27. Material sources of liquidity and financing, including off-balance sheet arrangements and transactions with limited purpose entities should be discussed. The extent of the reporting entity's reliance on off-balance sheet arrangements should be described fully and clearly where those entities provide financing, liquidity, or market or credit risk support for the reporting entity; engage in leasing or hedging services with the reporting entity; or expose the reporting entity to liability that is not reflected on the face of the financial statements. Where contingencies inherent in the arrangements are reasonably likely to affect the continued availability of a material historical source of liquidity and finance, reporting entities must disclose those uncertainties and their effects.
28. Reporting entities should consider the need to include information about the off-balance sheet arrangements such as: their business purposes and activities; their economic substance; the key terms and conditions of any commitments; the initial and ongoing relationships with the reporting entity and its affiliates; and the reporting entity's potential risk exposures resulting from its contractual or other commitments involving the off-balance sheet arrangements.
29. For example, a reporting entity may be economically or legally required or reasonably likely to fund losses of a limited purpose entity, provide it with additional funding, issue securities pursuant to a call option held by that entity, purchase the entity's capital stock or assets, or the reporting entity otherwise may be financially affected by the performance or non-performance of an entity or counterparty to a transaction or arrangement. In those circumstances, the reporting entity may need to include information about the arrangements and exposures resulting from contractual or other commitments to provide investors with a clear understanding of the reporting entity's business activities, financial arrangements, and financial statements. Other disclosures that reporting entities should consider to explain the effects and risks of off-balance sheet arrangements include:
- Total amount of assets and obligations of the off-balance sheet entity, with a description of the nature of its assets and obligations, and identification of the class and amount of any debt or equity securities issued by the reporting entity;
 - The effects of the entity's termination if it has a finite life or it is reasonably likely that the reporting entity's arrangements with the entity may be discontinued in the foreseeable future;
 - Amounts receivable or payable, and revenues, expenses and cash flows resulting from the arrangements;
 - Extended payment terms of receivables, loans, and debt securities resulting from the arrangements, and any uncertainties as to realization, including repayment that is contingent upon the future operations or performance of any party;
 - The amounts and key terms and conditions of purchase and sale agreements between the reporting entity and the counterparties in any such arrangements; and
 - The amounts of any guarantees, lines of credit, standby letters of credit or commitments or take or pay contracts or other similar types of arrangements, including tolling, capacity, or leasing arrangements, that could require the reporting entity to provide funding of any obligations under the arrangements, including guarantees of repayment of obligors of parties to the arrangements, make whole agreements, or value guarantees.
30. Although disclosure regarding similar arrangements can be aggregated, important distinctions in terms and effects should not be lost in that process. The relative significance to the reporting entity's financial position and results of the arrangements with unconsolidated, non-independent, limited purpose entities should be clear from the disclosures to the extent material. While legal opinions regarding "true sale" issues or other issues relating to whether a reporting entity has contingent, residual or other liability can play an important role in transactions involving such entities, they do not obviate the need for the reporting entity to consider whether disclosure is required. In addition, disclosure of these matters should be clear and individually tailored to describe the risks to the reporting entity, and should not consist merely of recitation of the transactions' legal terms or the relationships between the parties or similar boilerplate.

Participation in High Yield Financings, Highly Leveraged Transactions or Non-Investment Grade Loans and Investments

31. A reporting entity, consistent with its domiciliary state's law, may participate in several ways, directly or indirectly, in high yield financings, or highly leveraged transactions or make non-investment grade loans or investments relating to corporate restructurings such as leveraged buyouts, recapitalizations including significant stock buybacks and cash dividends, and acquisitions or mergers. A reporting entity may participate in the financing of such a transaction either as originator, syndicator, lender, purchaser of secured senior debt, or as an investor in other debt instruments (often unsecured or subordinated), redeemable preferred stock or other equity securities. Participation in high yield or highly leveraged transactions, as well as investment in non-investment grade securities, generally involves greater returns, in the form of higher fees and higher average yields or potential market gains. Participation in such transactions may involve greater risks, often related to credit worthiness, solvency, relative liquidity of the secondary trading market, potential market losses, and vulnerability to rising interest rates and economic downturns.
32. In view of these potentially greater returns and potentially greater risks, disclosure of the nature and extent of a reporting entity's involvement with high yield or highly leveraged transactions and non-investment grade loans and investments may be required, if such participation or involvement has had or is reasonably likely to have a material effect on financial condition or results of operations. For each such participation or involvement or grouping thereof, there shall be identification, consistent with the Annual Statement schedules or detail, description of the risks added to the reporting entity; associated fees recognized or deferred; amount, if any, of loss recognized; the reporting entity's judgment whether there has been material negative effect on the entity's financial condition; and the reporting entity's judgment whether there will be material negative effect on the entity's financial condition in subsequent reporting periods.

Preliminary Merger/Acquisition Negotiations

33. While the MD&A requirements could be read to impose a duty to disclose otherwise nondisclosed preliminary merger or acquisition negotiations, as known events or uncertainties reasonably likely to have material effects on future financial condition or results of operations, the NAIC does not intend to apply the MD&A in this manner. Where disclosure is not otherwise required, and has not otherwise been made, the MD&A need not contain a discussion of the impact of preliminary merger negotiations where, in the reporting entity's view, inclusion of such information would jeopardize completion of the transaction. Where disclosure is otherwise required or has otherwise been made by or on behalf of the reporting entity, the interests in avoiding premature disclosure no longer exist. In such case, the negotiations would be subject to the same disclosure standards under the MD&A as any other known trend, demand, commitment, event or uncertainty. These policy determinations also would extend to preliminary negotiations for the acquisition or disposition of assets not in the ordinary course of business.

Conclusion

34. In preparing the MD&A disclosure, reporting entities should be guided by the general purpose of the MD&A requirements: to give regulators an opportunity to look at the reporting entity through the eyes of management by providing a historical and prospective analysis of the reporting entity's financial condition and results of operations, with particular emphasis on the reporting entity's prospects for the future. The MD&A requirements are intentionally flexible and general. Because no two reporting entities are identical, good MD&A disclosure for one reporting entity is not necessarily good MD&A disclosure for another. The same is true for MD&A disclosure of the same reporting entity in different years. The flexibility of MD&A creates a framework for providing regulators with appropriate information concerning the reporting entity's financial condition, changes in financial condition and results of operations.

Refer to the Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual for accounting guidance on these topics.

Companies should refer to the Purposes and Procedures Manual of the NAIC Investment Analysis Office to determine the filing requirements and the procedures for valuation of bonds and stocks owned or held as collateral for loans.

The Notes to Financial Statements are an integral part of this statement. Certain Notes are required regarding the valuation of invested assets. See instructions herein for Notes to Financial Statements.

Assets owned at the end of the current period that were not under the exclusive control of the reporting entity, including assets loaned to others as shown in the General Interrogatories, are to be individually identified in the investment schedules by placing the codes found in the Investment Schedules General Instructions in the Code Column of the appropriate investment schedule.

For statements with Separate Accounts, Segregated Accounts or Protected Cell Accounts: Exclude receivables from the Separate Accounts Statement, Segregated Accounts or Protected Cell Accounts from the assets of the General Account Statement. CASH FLOW

The Statement of Cash Flow is prepared using the direct method consistent with the Summary of Operations, excluding the effect of current and prior year accruals. All revenue, expenditures, purchases and sale transactions involving cash should be entered gross. Pursuant to SSAP No. 69—Statement of Cash Flow, for purposes of the Cash Flow Statement, cash is defined to include cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments. Refer to SSAP No. 69 for accounting guidance regarding the disclosure of non-cash operating, investing and financing transactions.

The following worksheets are provided to facilitate completion of the Cash Flow Statement. The format reflects common reporting practices. Reporting entities may need to make adjustments to various lines consistent with their operations. For example, changes in the asset for foreign exchange rates is typically associated with the investment portfolio and shown as an adjustment to investment income. Alternatively, the adjustment could be made to insurance operations if appropriate. The Worksheets exclude certain non-cash activities; (e.g., change in nonadmitted assets and change in Asset Valuation Reserve for life and fraternal companies), since the offset is to surplus and has no effect on cash, but adjustments are needed to remove other non-cash transactions. While the worksheets do not take into account the cumulative effect of changes in accounting principles, the appropriate lines of the Cash Flow Statement need to be adjusted for this change. Note that the Worksheets are designed to take into account all lines of the Assets and Liabilities, Surplus and Other Funds pages, as well as the Summary of Operations.

Premiums Due and Unpaid Over Three Months for all Other Lines of Business, if nonadmitted.

SECTION D – INVESTMENT EXPENSE

Distribution of expenses to investment activities shall be made on the same principles as used for subdivision of insurance expense by major line of business. Investment expense (Exhibit 2, Column 5 and Exhibit 3, Column 4) shall include all amounts reported as Real Estate Expense (Exhibit 2, Line 9.1), Investment Expenses Not Included Elsewhere (Exhibit 2, Line 9.2), Real Estate Taxes (Exhibit 3, Line 1) and all other costs incurred in connection with the investing of funds, servicing of investments and the obtaining of investment income, or chargeable against investment income.

SECTION E – STANDARDS AND RULES FOR ALLOCATION OF RECEIPTS AND EXPENSES

1. General Instructions

It is the responsibility of each reporting entity to use only such methods that will produce a suitable and equitable distribution of receipts and expenses by lines of business. The methods of allocation and the application thereof shall be subject to review on examination.

Each reporting entity shall maintain records with sufficient detail to show fully:

- (1) The system used for allocation of receipts and expenses;
- (2) The actual bases of allocation;
- (3) The actual monetary distribution of the respective items of receipts, salaries, wages, expenses, and taxes to:
 - (a) Units of activity or functions, if any such distribution is made,
 - (b) Lines of business,
 - (c) Companies, and
 - (d) A recapitulation and reconciliation of items (a), (b) and (c) with the company's books of account and annual statement.

Such records shall be classified and indexed in such form as to permit ready identification between the item allocated and the basis upon which it was allocated, and shall be maintained in such a manner as to be readily accessible for examination. These records shall bear a date and shall identify the person responsible for the preparation thereof.

Bases of allocation shall be reviewed periodically to ascertain their suitability for continued use.

2. Premium Receipts

Premiums or considerations shall be allocated directly, either through the books of account or by memorandum records, to major lines. In the case of insurance on the debit basis, the total premiums may be distributed among the several lines of business on the basis of the relative proportions of premiums in force, properly weighted to reflect premium collection frequency.

Premiums on secondary lines of business which are not allocated directly to such lines of business may be distributed on the basis of: (1) the premiums in force, or (2) actual analyses of premium receipts covering test periods of sufficient length of time to assure the reliability of the sample. When the distribution is made on the basis of premiums in force:

- (1) The in force records shall segregate first-year, single, and renewal premiums,
- (2) The distribution shall be made separately for the first-year and renewal premiums, and
- (3) Adequate controls shall be maintained to assure the accuracy of the in force records.

3. Net Investment Income

The cost of printing and servicing premium notes and policy loans and liens shall be allocated to investment expense. The resulting net income on premium notes and policy loans and liens may be distributed to those lines of business that produced such income. In making such distribution, due consideration shall be given to the variation in the interest rate and incidence of expense on such notes, loans and liens.

Net investment income, after adjustment, if any, as permitted by the preceding paragraph shall be distributed to major lines and may be distributed to secondary lines of business in proportion to the mean contract reserves and liabilities or the mean funds of each line of business, after suitable adjustment, if any, on account of policy loans, except that any miscellaneous interest income arising from policy or annuity transactions may be allocated directly to the line of business producing such income.

In lieu of the methods referred to above, a reporting entity may distribute net investment income by an investment year method that recognizes periodic variations in the yield on new investments, and the varying contributions of the various lines to the funds invested. If a year of investment method is used to allocate net investment income by line of business, complete Note 7 of the Notes to Financial Statements.

4. Other Receipts

Reserves and reserve adjustments received from reinsurers shall be allocated directly to the appropriate line of business. All other sundry receipts and adjustments shall be allocated to the appropriate line of business consistent with the nature of the transaction.

5. Commissions

Commissions on premiums and considerations shall be allocated directly to major lines of business. In the case of debit business, the total commissions paid may be distributed among the several lines of business on the basis of the relative proportions of such premiums in force, properly weighted to reflect the commission fees payable.

To the extent practicable, commissions on secondary lines of business shall be allocated directly. Where not practicable, the distribution to such lines of business may be made separately for first-year and renewal commissions in proportion to the respective first-year and renewal premiums for each such line of business.

6. General Expenses, Taxes, Licenses and Fees

In distributing costs to lines of business, each company shall employ those principles and methods that will reasonably reflect the actual incidence of cost by line of business. The relative time spent, the extent of usage and the varying volume of work performed for each line of business shall be considered in distributing cost to major lines of business and, to the extent practicable, to secondary lines. The costs of any unit of activity in performing work for one line of business and only incidentally for other lines may be allocated entirely to the single line of business.

In the application of the principles stated herein, special consideration may be given to a new line of business with respect to the costs of service departments and of executive departments responsible for the general administration of the company to the extent that such costs have not been increased by the addition of such new line of business and to the extent justifiable; special treatment also may be given to combined operations in connection with group business. Operational costs incurred for entering a new line of business, such as calculation of premium rates, preparation and printing of policy forms and rate books, etc., should be allocated directly to the new line of business whether incurred before or after beginning the new line.

In the distribution of a specific category of cost to lines of business, an appropriate index of the activity or activities giving rise to such cost shall be used. Such index should fluctuate with the specific category of cost and be capable of measurement. For example, as illustrations of principles only and not of required procedures:

- (1) Clerical salaries of operating departments may be distributed to lines of business on the basis of time or salary ratios, the former used where approximately the same average rate of compensation is paid to clerks whose salaries are being distributed.
- (2) The cost of service departments may be distributed to other departments in proportion to the value of the service rendered each department, e.g., the cost of a personnel department may be distributed to other departments on some general basis such as number of clerks; a photostat section on a unit cost basis; or, in the case of a central tabulating unit, on an hourly rate reflecting the cost for each type of machine used.
- (3) Supervisory costs may be distributed to lines of business in the same proportions as the distribution of the salaries of the persons supervised.
- (4) The cost of executive departments responsible for general administration of the company, including the salaries of the executive officer or officers, may be distributed to lines of business in the same proportions as the salaries of all other officers and employees.

- (5) Social Security taxes may be distributed to lines of business in proportion to the corresponding distribution of taxable salaries.
- (6) Departmental rent charges may be made in proportion to the amount of floor space occupied and distributed to lines of business on some appropriate basis, such as salaries.
- (7) Costs, such as meals for employees, telephone, telegraph, postage, office forms, stationery and supplies may be distributed first to departments on the basis of usage or on an appropriate general basis, and then distributed to lines of business on some appropriate basis, such as salaries.
- (8) In using number of transactions as a basis for distributing cost to lines of business, each type of transaction within an organizational unit may be weighted to reflect its relative cost. The average clerical time or average clerical cost per transaction may be used as a weight or, in special situations such as the approval of death and disability claims, the relative weights may be determined by case studies.

Estimates of time spent on activities may be used in the distribution of costs to lines of business, only where such activities by their nature are not susceptible of objective measurement, or where the cost of making time studies is disproportionate to the expenses being distributed, or where estimates of time are otherwise clearly appropriate. Where such estimates are made, they shall be made by a person or persons familiar with the nature of the activity and shall be reviewed by an executive responsible for expense allocations.

General indices such as premium volume, number of policies, and insurance in force shall not be used as bases for distributing costs among major lines of business, except where the incidence of cost is closely related to such general indices, or except where there is no more appropriate basis for measurement. Such general indices may not be used in distributing claim costs to secondary lines of business.

The ratio of investment income to total receipts, the ratio of direct investment expense to total expenses, and any similar formula shall not be used in allocating costs between insurance and investment expense, except where there is no more appropriate basis for distribution.

ANALYSIS OF INCREASE IN RESERVES DURING THE YEAR

This exhibit analyzes the development of life policy and contract reserves by showing how the reserve may be traced mathematically from one year-end to the next by taking account of its various theoretical components:

Reinsurance – Ordinarily, it will be satisfactory to compute all items net of reinsurance ceded. However, companies will generally find it more useful to compute gross and reinsurance ceded separately, unless the latter is not material.

Coinsurance – For the ceding company, all items are computed similarly to its own direct business. For the assuming company, all items are included with its direct business and are similarly computed.

Modified Coinsurance – For the ceding company, there is no deduction from reserves for reinsurance ceded.

Yearly Renewable Term Reinsurance – For the ceding company, items are computed on the same basis as its direct business. For the assuming company, all items are included with its direct business and are similarly reported.

A company shall not omit the columns for any lines of business in which it is not engaged. All figures for the ordinary or group variable life insurance business of the company, excluding separate accounts items, shall be included in Columns 3 or 7, as applicable.

This analysis applies to items reported in Exhibit 5.

Lines 2 through 6 and Lines 9 through 11 do not include amounts related to the VM-20 Deterministic/Stochastic portion of the reserves, which are reported on Line 6.1.

An Analysis of Increase in Reserves is done by annual statement line of business, and within each line according to these formula types: insurance, annuity, and contracts with life or disability contingencies. The instructions specify that the various items are either to be derived from basic data or derived by formula. One item is always to be derived as the balancing item in its reserve analysis formula. Thus, the accuracy of the analysis for each line of business and formula type should be verified by the reasonableness of the various balancing items.

The balancing item for life insurance, accidental death benefit, and active life disability reserves is tabular cost. Tabular cost for life insurance can be expressed as the summation of the products of mortality rates times the excess of the face amount over the reserve. Using the tabular cost that was derived in the reserve analysis, the amount of insurance in force, and the reserves, the average mortality rate that is implied by the reserve analysis can be determined. This rate should be reasonable considering the nature of the in force and should show a reasonable progression from year to year.

The balancing item for annuity, supplementary contracts with life contingencies, and disabled life reserves is tabular less actual reserve released. This item reflects the relationship between the mortality and claim termination rates used for the reserves and the corresponding company experience. The level of this item and its variation from year to year should be reasonable in terms of these factors.

EXHIBIT 2 – GENERAL EXPENSES

General expense items must be itemized and entered in sufficient detail to indicate their precise nature. Expenses shall not be reported on a functional basis, except to the extent specifically permitted herein and only if: (1) services are independently organized, (2) rent, salaries and wages, and other major items of expense directly incident thereto, but not necessarily including the cost of employee benefit plans and Social Security taxes, are charged to function, and (3) adequate accounting thereof is maintained. Whenever personnel or facilities are used in common by two or more companies, or whenever the personnel or facilities of one company are used in the activities of two or more companies, each company shall assign its share of the expense to the same expense classification as if it had incurred the entire expense. This latter requirement shall not apply to activities such as administration of jointly underwritten group contracts and joint mortality and morbidity studies.

Expenses for accident and health activities must be allocated between cost containment expenses, Column 2 or all other, Column 3. For guidance on cost containment expenses, refer to SSAP No. 55—Unpaid Claims, Losses and Loss Adjustment Expenses.

A company that pays any affiliated entity (including a managing general agent) for the management, administration, or service of all or part of its business or operations shall allocate these costs to the appropriate expense classification item (salaries, rent, postage, etc.) as if these costs had been borne directly by the company. Management, administration, or similar fees should not be reported as a one-line expense. The company may estimate these expense allocations based on a formula or other reasonable basis.

If the total of such expenses included equals or exceeds 10 percent of the total General Expenses Incurred (Line 10), the company shall allocate these costs to the appropriate expense classification item as if these costs had been borne directly by the company.
- b. Payments for services other than claims handling or adjustment services shall be allocated to the appropriate expense classifications as if these costs had been borne directly by the company, if the total of such fees paid to the non-affiliate(s) equals or exceeds 10 percent of the total General Expenses Incurred (Line 10). If the total is less than 10 percent, the payments may be reported on Line 7.1.

The total management and service fees incurred attributable to affiliates and non-affiliates shall be reported in the footnote to Exhibit 2, General Expenses in the annual statement blank, and the method(s) used for allocation shall be disclosed in the Notes to Financial Statements. EXHIBIT 5 – AGGREGATE RESERVES FOR LIFE CONTRACTS

Refer to SSAP No. 50—Classifications of Insurance or Managed Care Contracts, for life, accident and health and deposit-type contract definitions and SSAP No. 51R—Life Contracts. Reserves should be computed on a “gross” basis, i.e., direct and reinsurance assumed combined. Then, deductions for reinsurance ceded should be computed, using the same assumptions for mortality and interest and using the same valuation method, but reflecting the actual mode of reinsurance. If the assuming reinsurer uses different valuation assumptions or methods (e.g., reinsurer uses net level, but ceding entity uses CRVM), then deductions for reinsurance ceded by the ceding reporting entity will not necessarily equal reserves established by the assuming reporting entity. No deductions should be taken for reserves ceded under a modified coinsurance arrangement.

If necessary, companies may add lines to report each reserve basis used.

Column 1 – Valuation Standard

State table of mortality, disability, etc. rate of interest; distinguish between (1) net level premium, and (2) preliminary term, modified preliminary term and select and ultimate standards. Valuation assumptions for mortality, morbidity and other contingencies, interest, and the valuation method should be indicated by years of issue. For annuities, indicate whether immediate, deferred, or both.

Describe how differences in such provisions affect dividends or refunds.

Does the dividend or refund scale contain any provision for varying the amount of dividend or refund in accordance with the extent to which an individual contract’s loan provision is utilized? If yes, indicate the blocks of business where this treatment pertains, and describe the basis of variation used.

- IX. Does the reporting entity pay termination dividends or refunds on its contracts? If yes:
- Are they payable on death, surrender, and maturity?
 - Are they payable or credited either upon the commencement of nonforfeiture insurance or upon termination thereof by death, surrender, or maturity?
 - Do they reflect the incidence, size, and growth of amounts that may be attributed to the contracts in question?

If the answer to a., b., or c. is no, describe the basis used.

- X. Does the reporting entity maintain separate participating and non-participating accounts? If yes, describe the basis.
- XI. Are any transfers made from a participating account to another participating, non-participating, or shareholders' account? If yes, describe the basis for the transfers.
- XII. Does the undersigned believe there is a substantial probability that, because of expected deterioration of experience or for any other reason, the dividends or refunds illustrated on new or existing business cannot be supported for at least two years? If yes, explain why.
- XIII. Describe any aspects of the determination of the dividend or refund scale not covered above that involve material departures from the Actuarial Standards of Practice issued by the Actuarial Standards Board applicable to the determination of dividends or refunds.
- XIV. Describe any material changes in the basis of determination of the dividend or refund scale that are not covered above.

The actuarial opinion should include a paragraph such as the following regarding dividends and refunds:

Actuarial Opinion

I, (name, title), am (relationship to Reporting Entity) and a Member of the American Academy of Actuaries. I have examined the actuarial assumptions and methods used in determining dividends or refunds under the dividend or refund scale for the individual participating life insurance contracts of the reporting entity issued for delivery in the United States. The dividends or refunds encompassed by this scale include:

- Apportioned for payment during (year following year of statement); and
- In effect as of January 1, (year following year of statement) that are illustrated for payment on new or existing business in (second year following year of statement) and later that are authorized for illustration by the reporting entity.

My examination included such a review of the actuarial assumptions and methods of the underlying basic records and such tests of the actuarial calculations, as I consider necessary. In my opinion, these dividends or refunds have been determined in accordance with Actuarial Standards of Practice issued by the Actuarial Standards Board applicable to the determination of dividends or refunds, except as described above.

Interrogatory 3

This interrogatory relates to the determination of nonguaranteed elements in individual life insurance and annuity contracts that provide for the adjustment of benefits, premiums or charges from time to time. For purposes of this question, the term “determination” shall mean both determination at issue and subsequent redetermination.

For the purpose of this interrogatory, “Individual Contracts” includes contracts issued under the “group” umbrella of any trust that does not have the discretion to select the insurer(s) on behalf of all the individual insureds.

The specific types of business encompassed by this question include, but are not limited to, the following types of contracts if they contain nonguaranteed elements:

1. Single and periodic premium deferred annuities.
2. Universal Life contracts providing for fixed and/or flexible premiums.
3. Adjustable periodic premium life contracts, also known as indeterminate premium life contracts.
4. Single and periodic premium life contracts.
5. Renewable and convertible term insurance contracts which do not guarantee the premiums payable upon renewal, or which provide for renewal on the then current premium basis.

The term “nonguaranteed” does not apply to charges or benefits that contractually follow a separate account result or a defined index.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ACTUARIAL OPINION

Determination Procedures

For all contracts subject to this interrogatory which were first introduced during the current year and for any other such contracts not previously reported, define the reporting entity policy to be used in the process of determining nonguaranteed elements, with particular reference to the degree of discretion reserved for the reporting entity, together with the general methods and procedures which are expected to be used.

Actuarial Interrogatories

- I. Since this statement was last filed, have there been any changes in the values of nonguaranteed elements on new or existing business authorized for illustration by the reporting entity? If yes, describe the changes that were made.
- II. Since this statement was last filed, have there been any changes in the values of nonguaranteed elements actually charged or credited? If yes, describe the changes that were made.
- III. Indicate to what extent any changes described in I or II varies from the contract and/or general methods and procedures last reported for the affected contracts.
- IV. Are the anticipated experience factors underlying any nonguaranteed elements different from current experience? If yes, describe in general terms the ways in which future experience is anticipated to differ from current experience and the nonguaranteed element factors that are affected by such anticipation.
- V. State whether anticipated investment income experience factors are based on: (a) a portfolio average approach, (b) an investment generation approach, or (c) other. If (b) or (c), describe the general basis used, including the investment generation groupings.
- VI. Describe how the reporting entity allocates anticipated experience among its various classes of business.

- VII. Does the undersigned believe there is a substantial probability that illustrations authorized by the reporting entity to be presented on new and existing business cannot be supported by currently anticipated experience? If yes, indicate which classes and explain.
- VIII. Describe any aspects of the determination of nonguaranteed elements not covered above that involve material departures from the Actuarial Standards of Practice issued by the Actuarial Standards Board, applicable to the determination of nonguaranteed elements.

The actuarial opinion should include a paragraph such as the following regarding nonguaranteed elements:

ACTUARIAL OPINION

I, (name, title), am (relationship to Company) and a Member of the American Academy of Actuaries. I have examined the actuarial assumptions and methods used in determining nonguaranteed elements for the individual life insurance and annuity contracts of the reporting entity used for delivery in the United States. The nonguaranteed elements included are those:

- i. Paid, credited, charged or determined in (year of statement); and
- ii. Authorized by the Reporting Entity to be illustrated on new and existing business during (year of statement).

My examination included such review of the actuarial assumptions and methods of the underlying basic records and such tests of the actuarial calculations, as I considered necessary. In my opinion, the nonguaranteed elements described above have been determined in accordance with Actuarial Standards of Practice issued by the Actuarial Standards Board applicable to the determination of nonguaranteed elements, except as described above.

Interrogatory 7

For purposes of this footnote disclosure, a synthetic CFC is defined as a contract or agreement in which the insurance entity guarantees specified payouts under the terms of an employee benefit plan from assets not owned by the insurance entity

Interrogatory 8

For purposes of this footnote disclosure, a Contingent Deferred Annuity is defined as an annuity contract that establishes a life insurer’s obligation to make periodic payments for the annuitant’s lifetime at the time designated investments, which are not owned or held by the insurer, are depleted to a contractually defined amount due to contractually permitted withdrawals, market performance, fees and/or other charges.

Interrogatory 9

For purposes of this footnote disclosure, a Guaranteed Lifetime Income Benefit is defined as a fixed deferred annuity contract, agreement or rider in which the insurance entity guarantees specified payouts during the lifetime of the insured(s) regardless of the performance of a contractual account value that is used to determine cash surrender values and traditional withdrawal benefits.

EXHIBIT 5A – CHANGES IN BASES OF VALUATION DURING THE YEAR

Increase or (decrease) in the actuarial reserves or liability included in Exhibits 5, 6 or 7 due to changes in the valuation bases during the calendar year should be included if the change is applicable to policies or contracts issued prior to January 1 of the current year. Show changes in bases separately by lines of business (increases as a positive amount and decreases as a negative amount).

If necessary, reporting entities may add lines to report each change in each reserve in basis used.

The total (increase) or decrease should be excluded from the income section of the Summary of Operations page and the Analysis of Operations by Line of Business page.

Include supplementary contracts set up on a basis other than that used to determine benefits.

Life Contract subtotal should agree with Analysis of Increase in Reserves During the Year on the Increase in Reserve on Account of Change in Valuation Basis line.

Life Contracts changes in basis of valuation during the year come from Exhibit 5. Similarly, Accident and Health Contract changes come from Exhibit 6 and Deposit-Type Contract changes come from Exhibit 7.

EXHIBIT 6 – AGGREGATE RESERVES FOR ACCIDENT AND HEALTH CONTRACTS

Refer to SSAP No. 50—Classifications of Insurance or Managed Care Contracts, for life, accident and health and deposit-type contract definitions and SSAP No. 54R—Individual and Group Accident and Health Contracts for guidance regarding the bases for such additional contract reserves. The net amount should agree with the appropriate items in Schedule H – Accident and Health, and also Page 3, Line 2.

Reserves or other amounts relating to uninsured accident and health plans and the uninsured portion of partially insured accident and health plans should be excluded from this exhibit.

Column 3 – Credit Accident and Health (Group and Individual)

Include: Business not exceeding 120 months.

Refer to SSAP No. 59—Credit Life and Accident and Health Insurance Contracts for accounting guidance.

Column 9 – All Other Individual Contracts

Include: All Medicare Part D Prescription Drug coverage, whether sold on a stand-alone basis or through a Medicare Advantage product and whether sold directly to an individual or through a group.

Line 2 – Additional Contract Reserves

A reserve must be carried in this line for any contract or block of contracts:

- (i) with which level premiums are used, or
- (ii) with respect to which, due to the gross premium structure at issue, the value of future benefits exceeds the value of appropriate future valuation net premiums.

A reserve must be carried for any block of contracts for which future gross premiums when reduced by expenses for administration, commissions, and taxes will be insufficient to cover future claims or services.

A company that enters the entire active life reserve (other than the reserves required for Line 4) in a single sum must enter such amount in Line 2. Provide a statement as to the valuation standard used in calculating this reserve, specifying reserve bases, interest rates, and methods.

Line 3 – Additional Contract Reserves – Asset/Liability Analysis

Include: Premium deficiency reserves.

Line 4 – Reserve for Future Contingent Benefits (Active Life Reserve) or Line 12 – Reserve for Future Contingent Benefits (Claim Reserve) }

A reserve must be carried in either of these lines or in Exhibit 8, Part 1, Line 3 for any contract that provides for the extension of benefits after termination of the contract or of any insurance thereunder. Such benefits, which actually accrue and are payable at some future date, are predicated on a condition or actual disability which exists at the termination of the insurance and which is usually not known to the insurance entity. These benefits are normally provided by contract provision but may be payable as a result of court decisions or of departmental rulings. This reserve is required in addition to the Present Value of Amounts Not Yet Due on Claims, Line 10.

An example of the type of benefit for which a reserve must be carried is the coverage for hospital confinement after the termination of an employee’s certificate but prior to the expiration of a stated period. This example is illustrative only and is not intended to limit the reserve to the benefits described. Some individual Accident and Health contracts may also provide benefits similar to those under the Extension of Benefits section of a group contract.

Line 5 – Reserve for Rate Credits
Reserves for rate credits, or experience refund reserves, should be included in Page 3, Line 9.2 of the statement with a parenthetical “including $ _____ on Accident and Health.”

It will still be acceptable to indicate “none” or “not applicable” for the whole disclosure or specific parts of the disclosure, as appropriate, as long as the numbering format of the disclosure is preserved. Following the presentation of the illustration is not meant to preclude reporting entities from providing additional clarification before or after the illustration to enable users to better understand the disclosure.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Going Concern

Instruction:

Refer to SSAP No. 1—Accounting Policies, Risks & Uncertainties, and Other Disclosures for accounting guidance regarding disclosure requirements. The major disclosure requirements are as follows:

- A. This note (including a table reconciling income and surplus between the state basis and SAP basis) is required to be completed, even if there are no prescribed practices or permitted practices to report.

Indicate that the statement has been completed in accordance with the Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual. If a reporting entity employs accounting practices that depart from the Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual, including different practices required by state law, disclose the following information about those accounting practices.

Include:

- A description of the accounting practice;
- A statement that the accounting practice differs from NAIC statutory accounting practices and procedures (NAIC SAP) identifying whether the practice is a departure from NAIC SAP or from a state prescribed practice and include the financial statement reporting lines predominantly impacted by the permitted or prescribed practice. (Although most practices impact net income or surplus, direct reference to those lines should be avoided. The intent is to capture the financial statement lines reflecting the practice which ultimately impacts net income or statutory surplus.)
- The monetary effect on net income and statutory surplus of using an accounting practice that differs from NAIC statutory accounting practices and procedures; and
- If an insurance enterprise's risk-based capital would have triggered a regulatory event had it not used a prescribed or permitted practice, that fact should be disclosed in the financial statements.

In addition, disclose the following information about accounting practices when NAIC statutory accounting practices and procedures do not address the accounting for the transaction:

- A description of the transaction and of the accounting practice used; and
- A statement that the NAIC statutory accounting practices and procedures do not address the accounting for the transaction.

A table reconciling income and surplus between the state basis and NAIC SAP basis for the current reporting period and the prior year-end shall be provided. The reconciliation table is required even if the reporting entity does not have any permitted or prescribed practices to report.

The reconciliation shall include:

Brief description of the prescribed or permitted practice;

SSAP # Enter the SSAP numbers to which the permitted or prescribed practice primarily pertains.

For example use “43R” for SSAP No. 43R or “19” for SSAP No. 19. If multiple SSAPs are needed for the prescribed or permitted practice, separate with a comma (19,43R).

For permitted practices from state regulations, use “00”.

If multiple SSAPs are needed for the prescribed or permitted practice, separate with a comma (19,43R,00).

Financial statement pages (F/S pages) primarily impacted by the permitted or prescribed practice.

Only the following pages should be referenced.

2 – Assets

3 – Liabilities, Surplus and Other Funds

4 – Summary of Operations

5 – Cash Flow

Use “N/A” for permitted or prescribed practices that do not impact the financial statements pages above.

If multiple pages are needed for the prescribed or permitted practice, separate with a comma (3,4).

Financial statement reporting lines (F/S lines) of the key financial statement page primarily impacted by the permitted or prescribed practice

(References to the financial statement reporting line for net income or statutory surplus should be avoided. The intent is to capture the financial statement line reflecting the practice which ultimately impacts net income or statutory surplus.)

If “N/A” was used for the F/S page, use “N/A” for the F/S line.

If multiple lines are needed for the prescribed or permitted practice, separate with a comma (1,8).

Below are examples of permitted and prescribed practices the reporting entity may or may not be using which could be disclosed. The reporting entity may have others not shown below.

Differences in the accounting and reporting of:

- Goodwill

A. Accounting Practices

The financial statements of XYZ Company are presented on the basis of accounting practices prescribed or permitted by the ABC Insurance Department.

The ABC Insurance Department recognizes only statutory accounting practices prescribed or permitted by the State of ABC for determining and reporting the financial condition and results of operations of an insurance company, for determining its solvency under the ABC Insurance Law. The National Association of Insurance Commissioners’ (NAIC) Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual (NAIC SAP) has been adopted as a component of prescribed or permitted practices by the state of ABC. The state has adopted certain prescribed accounting practices that differ from those found in NAIC SAP. Specifically, 1) goodwill arising from the purchase of a subsidiary, controlled or affiliated entity is written off directly to surplus in the year it originates by ABC domiciled companies. In NAIC SAP, goodwill in amounts not to exceed 10% of a reporting entity’s capital and surplus may be capitalized and all amounts of goodwill are amortized to unrealized gains and losses on investments over periods not to exceed 10 years, and, 2) 100% of all fixed assets are admitted by ABC domiciled companies. In NAIC SAP, fixed assets are not admitted. The Commissioner of Insurance has the right to permit other specific practices that deviate from prescribed practices.

The Company, with the explicit permission of the Commissioner of Insurance of the State of ABC, records the value of its home office building at fair value instead of at depreciated cost required by the NAIC SAP. If the home office building were carried at depreciated cost, home office property and statutory surplus would be decreased by $_____ and $_____ as of December 31, 20__ and 20__, respectively. Additionally, net income would be increased by $_____ and $_____ respectively, for the years then ended. Finally, if the Company had not been permitted to record the value of its home office building at fair value, the Company’s risk-based capital would have triggered a regulatory event.

A reconciliation of the Company’s net income and capital and surplus between NAIC SAP and practices prescribed and permitted by the State of ABC is shown below:

THIS EXACT FORMAT MUST BE USED IN THE PREPARATION OF THIS NOTE FOR THE TABLE BELOW. REPORTING ENTITIES ARE NOT PRECLUDED FROM PROVIDING CLARIFYING DISCLOSURE BEFORE OR AFTER THIS ILLUSTRATION.

B. Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Statutory Accounting Principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities. It also requires disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenue and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

C. Accounting Policy

Life premiums are recognized as income over the premium-paying period of the related policies. Annuity considerations are recognized as revenue when received. Health premiums are earned ratably over the terms of the related insurance and reinsurance contracts or policies. Expenses incurred in connection with acquiring new insurance business, including acquisition costs such as sales commissions, are charged to operations as incurred.

The amount of dividends to be paid to policyholders is determined annually by the Company's Board of Directors. The aggregate amount of policyholders' dividends is related to actual interest, mortality, morbidity, and expense experience for the year and judgment as to the appropriate level of statutory surplus to be retained by the Company.

In addition, the company uses the following accounting policies:

- (1) Short-term investments are stated at amortized cost.
- (2) Bonds not backed by other loans are stated at amortized cost using the interest method.

The company holds three (3) SVO-Identified bond ETFs reported on Schedule D-1. Two of these ETFs are reported at fair value, and the company has made an irrevocable decision to hold one of the ETFs at systematic value. The company has elected to utilize different measurement methods for the SVO-Identified bond ETFs for the following reasons:

The company previously utilized systematic value for the reporting of an SVO-Identified bond ETF reported on Schedule D-1. On June 1, XX, the company sold all interests in the SVO-Identified bond ETF (entire CUSIP). On October 30, XX, the reporting entity reacquired the SVO-Identified bond ETF (same CUSIP) and did not elect to utilize the systematic value for this SVO-Identified bond ETF. Pursuant to the guidance in SSAP No. 26R, a different measurement method is permitted as the reacquisition occurred 90 days after the sale of the SVO-Identified investment.

The Company previously utilized systematic value for the reporting of an SVO-Identified bond ETF reported on Schedule D-1. As of Dec. 31, XX, the SVO-Identified bond ETF was no longer included on the SVO listing an SVO-Identified bond ETF. Therefore, this ETF was no longer captured within the scope of SSAP No. 26R and permitted to be reported on Schedule D-1. Pursuant to the statutory accounting guidance, this ETF is now captured within scope of SSAP No. 30 and is reported at fair value on Schedule D-2-2.

The company previously utilized systematic value for the reporting of an SVO-Identified bond ETF reported on Schedule D-1. As of Dec. 31, XX, the SVO-Identified bond ETF had an NAIC designation of 3. Pursuant to the guidance in SSAP No. 26R, a non-AVR reporting entity is only permitted to utilize systematic value for SVO-Identified bond ETFs with an NAIC designation of 1 or 2. As this ETF no longer qualifies for systematic value, but is still on the SVO-Identified list, it is captured within scope of SSAP No. 26R, reported on Schedule D-1, but is now reported at fair value.

- (3) Common Stocks are stated at market except that investments in stocks of uncombined subsidiaries and affiliates in which the Company has an interest of 20% or more are carried on the equity basis.
- (4) Preferred stocks are stated in accordance with the guidance provided in SSAP No. 32—Preferred Stock.
- (5) Mortgage loans on real estate are stated at the aggregate carrying value less accrued interest.
- (6) Loan-backed securities are stated at either amortized cost or the lower of amortized cost or fair value. The retrospective adjustment method is used to value all securities except for interest only securities or securities where the yield had become negative, that are valued using the prospective method.
- (7) The Company carries ABC Non-insurance company at GAAP equity plus the remaining Goodwill balance of $ _____.
- (8) The company has minor ownership interests in joint ventures. The company carries these interests based on the underlying audited GAAP equity of the investee.
- (9) All derivatives are stated at fair value.
- (10) The Company anticipates investment income as a factor in the premium deficiency calculation, in accordance with SSAP No. 54R—Individual and Group Accident and Health Contracts.

- (11) Unpaid losses and loss adjustment expenses include an amount determined from individual case estimates and loss reports and an amount, based on past experience, for losses incurred but not reported. Such liabilities are necessarily based on assumptions and estimates and while management believes the amount is adequate, the ultimate liability may be in excess of or less than the amount provided. The methods for making such estimates and for establishing the resulting liabilities are continually reviewed and any adjustments are reflected in the period determined.
- (12) The Company has not modified its capitalization policy from the prior period.

2. Accounting Changes and Corrections of Errors

Instruction:

Describe material changes in accounting principles and/or correction of errors. Include:

- A brief description of the change, encompassing a general disclosure of the reason and justification for the change or correction.
- The impact of the change or correction on net income, surplus, total assets and total liabilities for the two years presented in the financial statements (i.e., the balance sheet and statement of income).
- The effect on net income of the current period for a change in estimate that affects several future periods, such as a change in the service lives of depreciable assets or actual assumptions affecting pension costs. Disclosure of the effect on those income statement amounts is not necessary for estimates made each period in the ordinary course of accounts for items such as uncollectible accounts. However, disclosure is recommended if the effect of a change in the estimate is material.
- When subsequent financial statements are issued containing comparative restated results as a result of the filing of an amended financial statement, the reporting entity shall disclose that the prior period has been restated and the nature and amount of such restatement.

Reporting entities should complete the disclosures that are relevant to the repurchase/reverse repurchase activity they engaged within the annual and interim reporting periods. Therefore those disclosures are not anticipated to be applicable to most reporting entities.)

For initial application (year-end 2017), information about the fourth-quarter (year-end) balances should be included, without retrospective application of the quarterly detail. In 2018, the disclosure shall build each quarterly reporting period. This disclosure is required in all reporting periods (interim and annual) for all reporting entities that participate in repurchase or reverse repurchase transactions. A reporting entity that discontinues repurchase/reverse repurchase transactions during the year shall continue the disclosure (showing zero balances) in the reporting periods after discontinuing activity (retaining the quarterly detail that occurred prior to discontinuing the activity) through the annual reporting period. A reporting entity that begins participating in repurchase/reverse repurchase activity shall include the full disclosure in the quarterly reporting period for which activities began (noting zero activity in the quarters prior to engaging in the activity).

The Company included actuarial estimates of contract terminations using mortality tables published by the Office of the Actuary of the United States Bureau of Census adjusted for expected prepayments and relocations and changes in the collateral value of the residence.
- (2) Reverse mortgage loans are contracts that require the lender to make monthly advances throughout the borrower's life or until the borrower relocates, prepays or sells the home, at which time the loan becomes due and payable. Since the reverse mortgages are nonrecourse obligations, the loan repayments are generally limited to the sale proceeds of the borrower's residence, and the mortgage balance consists of cash advanced and interest compounded over the life of the loan and a premium that represents a portion of the shared appreciation in the home's value, if any.
- (3) At December 31, 20__, the actuarial reserve of $_____ reduced the asset value of the group of reverse mortgages.
- (4) The Company recorded an unrealized loss of $_____ as a result of the re-estimate of the cash flows.

D. Loan-Backed Securities

- (1) Prepayment assumptions for mortgage-backed/loan-backed and structured securities were obtained from broker-dealer survey values or internal estimates.

Sometimes, the effect of the relationship between the parties may be so pervasive that disclosure of the relationship alone will be sufficient. If necessary to the understanding of the relationship, disclose the name of the related party. Transactions shall not be reported to be arm's-length transactions unless there is demonstrable evidence to support such statement. The disclosures shall include:

- A. The nature of the relationship involved.
- B. A description of the transactions for each of the periods for which financial statements are presented, and such other information considered necessary to obtain an understanding of the effects of the transactions on the financial statements. Exclude reinsurance transactions, non-reinsurance transactions that are less than ½ of 1% of the total admitted assets of the reporting entity, and cost allocation transactions. The following information shall be provided if applicable:
 - (1) Date of transaction;
 - (2) Explanation of transaction;
 - (3) Name of reporting entity;
 - (4) Name of affiliate;

- D. Amounts due from or to related parties as of the date of each balance sheet presented and, if not otherwise apparent, the terms and manner of settlement.
- E. Any guarantees or undertakings, written or otherwise, shall be disclosed in Note 14, Liabilities, Contingencies and Assessments, in accordance with the requirements of SSAP No. 5R—Liabilities, Contingencies and Impairments of Assets. In addition, the nature of the relationship to the beneficiary of the guarantee or undertaking (affiliated or unaffiliated) shall also be disclosed.
- F. A description of material management or service contracts and cost-sharing arrangements involving the reporting entity and any related party. This shall include, but is not limited to, sale lease-back arrangements, computer or fixed asset leasing arrangements, and agency contracts that remove assets that may otherwise be recorded (and potentially nonadmitted) on the reporting entity's financial statements.
- G. The nature of the control relationship whereby the reporting entity and one or more other enterprises are under common ownership or control and the existence of that control could result in operating results or financial position of the reporting entity being significantly different from those that would have been obtained if the enterprises were autonomous. Disclose the relationship even though there are no transactions between the enterprises.

- H. The amount deducted from the value of an upstream intermediate entity or ultimate parent owned, either directly or indirectly, via a downstream subsidiary, controlled, or affiliated entity, in accordance with the Purposes and Procedures Manual of the NAIC Investment Analysis Office, “Procedures for Valuing Common Stocks and Stock Warrants.”

Refer to SSAP No. 25—Affiliates and Other Related Parties for accounting guidance.

- (3) Present summarized information as to assets, liabilities, and results of operations for SCA entities, either individually or in groups.
- (4) The material effects of possible conversions, exercises of contingent issuances.

12. Retirement Plans, Deferred Compensation, Postemployment Benefits and Compensated Absences and Other Postretirement Benefit Plans

The disclosures required for this Note shall be aggregated for all of a reporting entity’s defined benefit pension plans and for all of a reporting entity’s other defined benefit postretirement plans unless disaggregating in groups is considered to provide useful information or is otherwise required by SSAP No. 92—Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pensions or SSAP No. 102—Pensions. Disclosures shall be as of the date of each statement of financial position presented. Disclosures about pension plans with assets in excess of the accumulated benefit obligation generally may be aggregated with disclosures about pension plans with accumulated benefit obligations in excess of assets. The same aggregation is permitted for other postretirement benefit plans. If aggregate disclosures are presented, a reporting entity shall disclose:

- The aggregate benefit obligation and aggregate fair value of plan assets for plans with benefit obligations in excess of plan assets as of the measurement date of each statement of financial position presented.
- The aggregate pension accumulated benefit obligation and aggregate fair value of plan assets for pension plans with accumulated benefit obligations in excess of plan assets.

Refer to SSAP No. 11—Postemployment Benefits and Compensated Absences, SSAP No. 92—Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pensions and SSAP No. 102—Pensions for additional guidance.

Instruction:

- (4) The amount of net periodic benefit cost recognized for pension benefits, postretirement benefits, and special or contractual termination benefits, showing separately each of the below. For special or contractual termination benefits, see SSAP No. 11—Postemployment Benefits and Compensated Absences for additional information.
- Service cost
 - Interest cost
 - Expected return on plan assets for the period
 - Transition asset or obligation
 - Gains and losses
 - Prior service cost or credit
 - Gain or loss recognized due to a settlement or curtailment
 - Total net periodic benefit cost
- (5) Separately the net gain or loss and net prior service cost or credit recognized in unassigned funds (surplus) for the period and reclassification adjustments of unassigned funds (surplus) for the period, as those amounts, including amortization of the net transition asset or obligation, are recognized as components of net periodic benefit cost.
- (6) The amounts in unassigned funds (surplus) expected to be recognized as components of net periodic benefit cost over the fiscal year that follows the most recent annual statement of financial position presented, showing separately the net gain or loss, net prior service cost or credit, and net transition asset or obligation.
- (7) The amounts in unassigned funds (surplus) that have not yet been recognized as components of net periodic benefit cost, showing separately the net gain or loss, net prior service cost or credit, and net transition asset or obligation.
- (8) On a weighted-average basis, the following assumptions used in accounting for the plans:
- Assumed discount rate
 - Rate of compensation increase (for pay-related plans)
 - Expected long-term rate of return on plan assets
- (9) The amount of the accumulated benefit obligation for defined benefit pension plans.
- (10) For postretirement benefits other than pensions, the assumed health care cost trend rate(s) for the next year used to measure the expected cost of benefits covered by the plan (gross eligible charges) and a general description of the direction and pattern of change in the assumed trend rates thereafter, together with the ultimate trend rate(s) and when that rate is expected to be achieved
- (11) For postretirement benefits other than pensions, the effect of a one-percentage-point increase and the effect of a one-percentage-point decrease in the assumed health care cost trend rates on: (1) the aggregate of the service and interest cost components of net periodic postretirement health care benefit cost; and (2) the accumulated postretirement benefit obligation for health care benefits. (For purposes of this disclosure, all other assumptions shall be held constant, and the effects shall be measured based on the substantive plan that is the basis for the accounting.)
- (12) The benefits (as of the date of the latest statement of financial position presented) expected to be paid in each of the next five fiscal years, and in the aggregate for the five fiscal years thereafter. The expected benefits should be estimated based on the same assumptions used to measure the company's benefit obligation at the end of the year and should include benefits attributable to estimated future employee service.
- (13) The reporting entity's best estimate, as soon as it can reasonably be determined, of contributions expected to be paid to the plan during the next fiscal year beginning after the date of the latest statement of financial position presented. Estimated contributions may be presented in the aggregate combining (1) contributions required by funding regulations or laws, (2) discretionary contributions, and (3) noncash contributions.

- (14) If applicable, the amounts and types of securities of the reporting entity and related parties included in plan assets, the approximate amount of future annual benefits of plan participants covered by insurance contracts issued by the reporting entity or related parties, and any significant transactions between the reporting entity or related parties and the plan during the period.
- (15) If applicable, any alternative method used to amortize prior service amounts or net gains and losses.
- (16) If applicable, any substantive commitment, such as past practice or a history of regular benefit increases, used as the basis for accounting for the benefit obligation.
- (17) If applicable, the cost of providing special or contractual termination benefits recognized during the period and a description of the nature of the event.
- (18) An explanation of any significant change in the benefit obligation or plan assets not otherwise apparent in the other disclosures required by SSAP No. 102—Pensions and SSAP No. 92—Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pensions.
- (19) The amount and timing of any plan assets expected to be returned to the employer during the 12-month period, or operating cycle if longer, that follows the most recent annual statement of financial position presented.
- (20) Reporting entities are required to disclose the accumulated postretirement and pension benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets for defined postretirement and pension benefit plans in the first reporting period after the effective date of this standard and in each subsequent reporting period. This disclosure shall specifically note the funded/underfunded status of the postretirement benefit plan. Reporting entities shall also specifically note the surplus impact necessary, at each reporting date, to reflect the full benefit obligation within the financial statements.
- (21) Reporting entities electing to apply the transition guidance set forth in SSAP No. 102—Pensions and SSAP No. 92—Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pensions must disclose the full transition surplus impact calculated from applying guidance in the first quarter statutory financial statements after the transition date and each reporting period thereafter. This disclosure shall include the initial “transition liability” calculated under guidance and the annual amortization amount of the “unrecognized items” into net periodic benefit cost. This disclosure shall include a schedule of the entity’s anticipated recognition of the remaining surplus impact over the transition period.

See SSAP No. 102—Pensions and SSAP No. 92—Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pensions for details of the transition guidance.

Information about plan assets:

The objectives of the disclosures about postretirement benefit plan assets are to provide users of financial statements with an understanding of:

- How investment allocation decisions are made, including the factors that are pertinent to an understanding of investment policies and strategies;
- The classes of plan assets.
- The inputs and valuation techniques used to measure the fair value of plan assets.
- The effect of fair value measurements using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3) on changes in plan assets for the period.
- Significant concentrations of risk within plan assets.

A reporting entity shall consider those overall objectives in providing the following information about plan assets.

- B. A narrative description of investment policies and strategies, including target allocation percentages or range of percentages considering the classes of plan assets disclosed pursuant to “C” below, as of the latest statement of financial position presented (on a weighted-average basis for reporting entities with more than one plan), and other factors that are pertinent to an understanding of those policies and strategies such as investment goals, risk management practices, permitted and prohibited investments including the use of derivatives, diversification, and the relationship between plan assets and benefit obligations. For investment funds disclosed as classes as described in “C” below, a description of the significant investment strategies of those funds shall be provided.
- C. The fair value of each class of plan assets as of each date for which a statement of financial position is presented. Asset classes shall be based on the nature and risks of assets in a reporting entity plan(s).

Examples of classes of assets include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Cash and cash equivalents
- Equity securities (segregated by industry type, company size, or investment objective)
- Debt securities, issued by national, state, and local governments
- Corporate debt securities
- Asset-backed securities
- Structured debt
- Derivatives on a gross basis (segregated by type of underlying risk in the contract, for example):
 - ❖ Interest rate contracts
 - ❖ Foreign exchange contracts
 - ❖ Equity contracts
 - ❖ Commodity contracts
 - ❖ Credit contracts
 - ❖ Other contracts
- Investment funds (segregated by type of fund)
- Real estate.

These examples are not meant to be all inclusive. A reporting entity should consider the overall objectives in determining whether additional classes of plan assets or further disaggregation of classes should be disclosed.

The disclosure should include information that enables users of financial statements to assess the inputs and valuation techniques used to develop fair value measurements of plan assets at the reporting date. For fair value measurements using significant unobservable inputs, a reporting entity shall disclose the effect of the measurement on changes in plan assets for the period. To meet those objectives, the reporting entity shall disclose the following information for each class of plan assets disclosed above for each annual period:

- (1) The level within the fair value hierarchy in which the fair value measurements falls in their entirety, segregating fair value measurements using quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1), significant other observable inputs (Level 2), and significant unobservable inputs (Level 3).

NOTE: In some cases, the inputs used to measure fair value might fall in different levels of the fair value hierarchy. The level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls in its entirety shall be determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. Assessing the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgment, considering factors specific to the asset or liability.

- (2) Information about the valuation technique(s) and inputs used to measure fair value and a discussion of changes in valuation techniques and inputs, if any, during the period.

D. A narrative description of the basis used to determine the overall expected long-term rate-of-return-on-assets assumption, such as the general approach used, the extent to which the overall rate-of-return-on-assets assumption was based on historical returns, the extent to which adjustments were made to those historical returns in order to reflect expectations of future returns, and how those adjustments were determined. The description should consider the classes of assets described in “C” above, as appropriate.

E. Defined Contribution Plans

A reporting entity shall disclose the amount of cost recognized for defined contribution pension and other defined contribution postretirement benefit plans for all periods presented separately from the amount of cost recognized for defined benefit plans. The disclosures shall include a description of the nature and effect of any significant changes during the period affecting comparability, such as a change in the rate of reporting entity contributions, a business combination, or a divestiture.

F. Multiemployer Plans

Disclose the amount of reporting entity contributions to multiemployer plans for each annual period for which a statement of income is presented. A reporting entity may disclose total contributions to the multiemployer plan without segregating the amounts attributable to pensions and other postretirement benefits. Disclose a description of the nature and effect of any changes affecting comparability, such as a change in the rate of reporting entity contributions, a business combination, or a divestiture. Disclose whether the contributions represent more than 5 percent of total contributions to the plan as indicated in the plan’s most recently available annual report.

In addition to the requirements of paragraph above, the following information shall be disclosed:

- Whether a funding improvement plan or rehabilitation plan has been implemented or is pending.
- Whether the reporting entity paid a surcharge to the plan.
- A description of minimum contributions required for future periods, if applicable.
- A qualitative description of the extent to which the employer could be responsible for the obligations of the plan, including benefits earned by employees during employment with another employer.

G. Consolidated/Holding Company Plans

A reporting entity shall disclose that its employees participate in a plan sponsored by the parent company or holding company for which the reporting entity has no legal obligation for benefits under the plan. The amount of pension postretirement other than pension, postemployment and compensated absence expense incurred and the allocation methodology utilized by the provider of such benefits shall also be disclosed.

H. Postemployment Benefits and Compensated Absences

If an obligation for postemployment benefits or compensated absences is not accrued in accordance with SSAP No. 1—Postemployment Benefits and Compensated Absences because the amount cannot be reasonably estimated, that fact and the reasons thereof shall be disclosed.

The nature and effect of significant nonroutine events, such as amendments, combinations, divestitures, curtailments and settlements.

I. Impact of Medicare Modernization Act on Postretirement Benefits (INT 04-17)

- (1) Until an employer is able to determine whether benefits provided by its plan are actuarially equivalent, it shall disclose the following in financial statements for interim or annual periods:
 - a. The existence of the Act.
 - b. The fact that measures of the APBO or net periodic postretirement benefit cost do not reflect any amount associated with the subsidy because the employer is unable to conclude whether the benefits provided by the plan are actuarially equivalent to Medicare Part D under the Act.
- (2) In the interim and annual financial statements for the first period in which an employer includes the effects of the subsidy in measuring the net postretirement benefit cost, it shall disclose the following:
 - a. The reduction in the net postretirement benefit cost for the subsidy related to benefits attributed to former employees.
 - b. The effect of the subsidy on the measurement of net periodic postretirement benefit cost for the current period. That effect includes (1) any amortization of the actuarial experience gain in "a." above as a component of the net amortization called for by SSAP No. 92—Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pensions, (2) the reduction in current period service cost due to the subsidy, and (3) the resulting reduction in interest cost on the net postretirement benefit cost as a result of the subsidy.
 - c. Any other disclosures required by SSAP No. 92—Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pensions which requires disclosure of "An explanation of any significant change in the benefit obligation or plan assets not otherwise apparent in the other disclosures required by this statement."
- (3) An employer shall disclose gross benefit payments (paid and expected, respectively), including prescription drug benefits, and separately the gross amount of the subsidy receipts (received and expected, respectively).

E. Defined Contribution Plan

Insurance company employees are covered by a qualified defined contribution pension plan sponsored by the insurance company.

Contributions of ___ percent of each employee's compensation are made each year. The Company's contribution for the plan was $_____ million and $_____ million for 20__ and 20__, respectively. At December 31, 20__, the fair value of plan assets was $_____ million.

F. Multiemployer Plans

The Company participates in a qualified, noncontributory defined benefit pension plan sponsored by ABC Union. In addition, the Company provides certain other postretirement benefits to retired employees through a plan sponsored by ABC Union. The Company's share of net expense for the qualified pension plan was $_____ million and $_____ million for 20__ and 20__, respectively and for other postretirement benefit plans was $_____ million and $_____ million for 20__ and 20__, respectively. Beginning January 1, 20__, the Company's other postretirement benefit plans were amended to restrict benefit eligibility to retirees and certain retiree-eligible employees. Previously covered employees could become eligible for postretirement benefits if they reached retirement age while working for the Company. The Company's contributions to the pension plan and postretirement benefit plans were less than 5 percent of each plan's assets. There are no funding improvement or rehabilitation plans implemented or pending for any of the pension and postretirement benefit plans the Company participates in. The Company did not pay any surcharges during the reporting period ended December 31, 20__. The Company is not responsible for the underfunded status of the plan because the plan operates in a jurisdiction that does not require withdrawing participants to pay a withdrawal liability or other penalty. The collective-bargaining agreement requires contributions on the basis of hours worked. The agreement also has a minimum contribution requirement of $1,000,000 each year.

G. Consolidated/Holding Company Plans

The Company participates in a qualified, noncontributory defined benefit pension plan sponsored by XYZ Holding Company, an affiliate. In addition, the Company provides certain other postretirement benefits to retired employees through a plan sponsored by XYZ Holding Company. The Company has no legal obligation for benefits under these plans. XYZ Holding Company allocates amounts to the Company based on salary ratios. The Company's share of net expense for the qualified pension plan was $_____ million and $_____ million for 20__ and 20__, respectively and for other postretirement benefit plans was $_____ million and $_____ million for 20__ and 20__, respectively. Beginning January 1, 20__, the Company's other postretirement benefit plans were amended to restrict benefit eligibility to retirees and certain retiree-eligible employees. Previously, covered employees could become eligible for postretirement benefits if they reached retirement age while working for the Company.

I. Impact of Medicare Modernization Act on Postretirement Benefits (INT 04-17)

(1) Recognition of the existence of the Act

The Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement and Modernization Act of 2003 (the Act) was signed into law in December of 2003. The Act includes the following two new features to Medicare Part D that could affect the measurement of the accumulated postretirement benefit obligation (APBO) and net periodic postretirement cost for the Plan:

- A federal subsidy (based on 28% of an individual beneficiary's annual prescription drug costs between $250 and $5,000), which is not taxable, to sponsors of retiree health care benefit plans that provide a prescription drug benefit that is at least actuarially equivalent to Medicare Part D; and
- The opportunity for a retiree to obtain a prescription drug benefit under Medicare.

The Company is unable to conclude whether the benefits provided by the Plan are actuarially equivalent to Medicare Part D under the Act. As a result, the effects of the Act on accumulated postretirement benefit obligation are not reflected in the financial statement or the accompanying notes.

(2) Effects of the Subsidy in Measuring the Net Postretirement Benefit Cost

The Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement and Modernization Act of 2003 (the Act) was signed into law in December of 2003. The Act includes the following two new features to Medicare Part D that could affect the measurement of the accumulated postretirement benefit obligation (APBO) and net periodic postretirement cost for the Plan:

- A federal subsidy (based on 28% of an individual beneficiary's annual prescription drug costs between $250 and $5,000), which is not taxable, to sponsors of retiree health care benefit plans that provide a prescription drug benefit that is at least actuarially equivalent to Medicare Part D; and
- The opportunity for a retiree to obtain a prescription drug benefit under Medicare.

The effect of the Act was a $_____ reduction in the Company's net postretirement benefit cost for the subsidy related to benefits attributed to former employees. The Act also had the following effects on the net postretirement benefit cost; a $_____ decrease as a result of an actuarial gain; a decrease to the current period service cost $_____ due to the subsidy; and $_____ decrease to the interest cost.

(3) Disclosure of Gross Benefit Payments

The Company's gross benefit payments for 20__ were $_____ including the prescription drug benefit and estimates future payments to be $_____ annually. The Company's subsidy related to The Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement and Modernization Act of 2003 was $_____ for 20__ and estimates future subsidies to be $_____ annually.

14. Liabilities, Contingencies and Assessments

Instruction:

For disclosures related to SSAP No. 5R—Liabilities, Contingencies and Impairments of Assets, SSAP No. 35R—Guaranty Fund and Other Assessments, SSAP No. 97—Investments in Subsidiary, Controlled and Affiliated Entities and SSAP No. 48—Joint Ventures, Partnerships and Limited Liability Companies describe the nature of any material contingencies in accordance with SSAP No. 5R and report total contingent liabilities.

A. Contingent Commitments

(1) Disclose any commitment or contingent commitment to an SCA entity, joint venture, partnership, or limited liability company (e.g., guarantees or commitments to provide additional capital contributions).

Include any commitment or contingent commitment (e.g., guarantees or commitments to provide additional capital contributions) including the amount of equity contributions that are contingent commitments related to LIHTC properties investments and the year(s) that contingent commitments are expected to be paid. Refer to SSAP No. 93—Low Income Housing Tax Credit Property Investments for accounting guidance.

(2) A guarantor shall disclose the following information about each guarantee, or each group or similar guarantees (except product warranties), even if the likelihood of the guarantor’s having to make any payments under the guarantee is remote. In addition, the nature of the relationship to the beneficiary of the guarantee or undertaking (affiliated or unaffiliated) shall also be disclosed:

a. The nature of the guarantee, including the approximate term of the guarantee, how the guarantee arose, and the events and circumstances that would require the guarantor to perform under the guarantee, the ultimate impact to the financial statements (specific financial statement line item) if action under the guarantee was required (e.g., increase to investment, dividends to stockholders, etc.) and the current status (that is, as of the date of the statement of financial position) of the payment/performance risk of the guarantee. For example, the current status of the payment/performance risk of a credit-risk-related guarantee could be based on either recently issued external credit ratings or current internal groupings used by the guarantor to manage its risk. An entity that uses internal groupings shall disclose how those groupings are determined and used for managing risk.

- b. The potential amount of future payments (undiscounted) the guarantor could be required to make under the guarantee. That maximum potential amount of future payments shall not be reduced by the effect of any amounts that may possibly be recovered under recourse or collateralization provisions in the guarantee (which are addressed under 2c below). If the terms of the guarantee provide for no limitation to the maximum potential future payments under the guarantee, that fact shall be disclosed. If the guarantor is unable to develop an estimate of the maximum potential amount of future payments under its guarantee, the guarantor shall disclose the reasons why it cannot estimate the maximum potential amount.
 - c. The nature of (1) any recourse provisions that would enable the guarantor to recover from third parties any of the amounts paid under the guarantee; and (2) any assets held either as collateral or by third parties that, upon the occurrence of any triggering event or condition under the guarantee, the guarantor can obtain and liquidate to recover all or a portion of the amounts paid under the guarantee. The guarantor shall indicate, if estimable, the approximate extent to which the proceeds from liquidation of those assets would be expected to cover the maximum potential amount of future payments under the guarantee.
 - d. The current carrying amount of the liability, if any, for the guarantor's obligations under the guarantee (including the amount, if any, recognized under SSAP No. 5R—Liabilities, Contingencies and Impairments of Assets), regardless of whether the guarantee is freestanding or embedded in another contract.
- (3) An aggregate compilation of guarantee obligations shall include the maximum potential of future payments of all guarantees (undiscounted), the current liability (contingent and noncontingent) reported in the financial statements and the ultimate financial statement impact based on maximum potential payments (undiscounted) if performance under those guarantees had been triggered.

B. Assessments

Describe the nature of any assessments that could have a material financial effect, by type of assessment, and state the estimate of the liability, identifying whether the corresponding liability has been recognized under SSAP No. 35R—Guaranty Fund and Other Assessments, a liability has not been recognized as the obligating event has not yet occurred, or indicate that an estimate cannot be made.

For assessments with liabilities recognized under SSAP No. 35R—Guaranty Fund and Other Assessments, disclose the amount of the recognized liabilities, any related asset for premium tax credits or policy surcharges, the periods over which the assessments are expected to be paid, and the period over which the recorded premium tax offsets or policy surcharges are expected to be realized.

Disclose assets recognized from paid and accrued premium tax offsets and policy surcharges, and include a reconciliation of assets recognized within the previous year's annual statement to the assets recognized in the current year's annual statement. The reconciliation shall reflect, in aggregate, each component of the increase and decrease in paid and accrued premium tax offsets and policy surcharges, including the amount charged.

The financial statements shall disclose the following related to guaranty fund liabilities and assets related to assessments from insolvencies of entities that wrote long-term care contracts.

- The discount rate applied as of the current reporting date (determined in accordance with SSAP No. 35R—Guaranty Fund and Other Assessments);
- The following disclosures shall be by insolvency:
 - ❖ The undiscounted and discounted amount of the guaranty fund assessments and related assets;
 - ❖ The number of jurisdictions for which the long-term care guaranty fund assessments payables were discounted and the number of jurisdictions for which asset recoverables were discounted;
 - ❖ Identify the ranges of years used to discount the assets and the range of years used to discount the liabilities (e.g., 2-10, 5-20);
 - ❖ The weighted average numbers of years of the discounting time period for long-term care guaranty fund assessment liabilities; and
 - ❖ The weighted average number of years of the discounting time period for the asset recoverables.

Disclosures shall be made in accordance with SSAP No. 5R—Liabilities, Contingencies and Impairments of Assets when there is at least a reasonable possibility that the impairment of an asset from premium tax offsets or policy surcharges may have been incurred.

C. Gain Contingencies

Describe the nature of any gain contingencies. Gain contingencies are not recognized in a reporting entity's financial statements except as provided under SSAP No. 5R—Liabilities, Contingencies and Impairments of Assets. If subsequent to the balance sheet date but prior to the issuance of financial statements, the gain is realized, disclose the nature of the gain contingency.

D. Claims Related Extra Contractual Obligations and Bad Faith Losses Stemming from Lawsuits

Where Amount is Unknown

The Company has received notification of the insolvency of XYZ Insurance Company. It is expected that the insolvency will result in a guaranty fund assessment against the company at some future date. At this time, the company is unable to estimate the possible amounts, if any, of such assessments. Accordingly, the company is unable to determine the impact, if any, such assessments may have on the company's financial position or results of operations.

Where Amount is Known (Retrospective Example)

On _____, 20____, the company received notification of the insolvency of XYZ Insurance Company. It is expected that the insolvency will result in a retrospective premium-based guaranty fund assessment against the company of $_____ that has been charged to operations in the current period and the liability recognized.

Where Amount is Known (Prospective Example)

On _____, 20____, the company received notification of the insolvency of XYZ Insurance Company. It is expected that the insolvency will result in a prospective-based guaranty fund assessment against the company. A liability for this guaranty fund assessment has yet to be recognized as the conditions in paragraph 4 have not been met. (Pursuant to paragraph 4.b. of SSAP No. 35R—Guaranty Fund and Other Assessments, the event obligating the entity has not yet occurred.) For premium-based assessments, the event that obligates the entity is writing the premiums, or being obligated to write or renew the premiums on which the assessments are expected to be based. There is no state law that requires the entity to remain liable for assessments, even though the insurance entity discontinues the writing of premiums. As such, a liability will be recognized once this condition has been met. As no liability has yet to be recognized for this notification of insolvency, no premium tax offsets or policy surcharges assets have been recognized for this notification. Pursuant to SSAP No. 35R, the accrual of prospective premium-based assessments is based on and limited in the same manner for which the liability is recognized.

16. Information About Financial Instruments With Off-Balance-Sheet Risk And Financial Instruments With Concentrations of Credit Risk

Refer to SSAP No. 27—Off-Balance-Sheet and Credit Risk Disclosures for accounting guidance.

Instruction:

For financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk, a reporting entity shall disclose in the financial statements the following information by class of financial instrument:

- (1) The face or contract amount (or notional principal amount if there is no face or contract amount).
- (2) The nature and terms, including, at a minimum, a discussion of (i) the credit and market risk of those instruments, (ii) the cash requirements of those instruments, and (iii) the related accounting policy pursuant to the requirements of APB Opinion No. 22, Disclosure of Accounting Policies.
- (3) The amount of accounting loss the entity could incur if any party to the financial instrument failed completely to perform according to the terms of the contract and the collateral or other security, if any, for the amount determined to be of no value to the entity.
- (4) The entity's policy of requiring collateral or other security to support financial instruments subject to credit risk, information about the entity's access to that collateral or other security, and the nature and a brief description of the collateral or other security supporting those financial instruments.

Illustration:

THIS EXACT FORMAT MUST BE USED IN THE PREPARATION OF THIS NOTE FOR THE TABLE BELOW. REPORTING ENTITIES ARE NOT PRECLUDED FROM PROVIDING CLARIFYING DISCLOSURE BEFORE OR AFTER THIS ILLUSTRATION.

(NOTE: THIS DOES NOT INCLUDE THE ENDING NARRATIVE.)

- (1) The table below summarizes the face amount of the Company's financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk.

	Assets		Liabilities
	20__	20__	20__	20__
a. Swaps	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____
b. Futures	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____
c. Options	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____
d. Total	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____	$ _____

See Schedule DB of the Company's annual statement for additional detail.

- (2) The Company uses interest rate swaps to reduce market risks from changes in interest rates and to alter interest rate exposures arising from mismatches between assets and liabilities. Under interest rate swaps, the Company agrees with other parties to exchange, at specified intervals, the difference between fixed-rate and floating-rate interest amounts calculated by reference to an agreed notional principal amount. Generally, no cash is exchanged at the outset of the contract and either party makes no principal payments. These transactions are entered into pursuant to master agreements that provide for a single net payment to be made by one counterparty at each due date.

Under exchange-traded currency futures and options, the Company agrees to purchase a specified number of contracts with other parties and to post variation margin on a daily basis in an amount equal to the difference in the daily fair values of those contracts. The parties with whom the Company enters into exchange-traded futures and options are regulated futures commissions merchants who are members of a trading exchange.

- (3) The Company is exposed to credit-related losses in the event of nonperformance by counterparties to financial instruments, but it does not expect any counterparties to fail to meet their obligations given their high credit ratings. The credit exposure of interest rate swaps and currency swaps is represented by the fair value (market value) of contracts with a positive fair value (market value) at the reporting date. Because exchange-traded futures and options are affected through a regulated exchange and positions are marked to market on a daily basis, the Company has little exposure to credit-related losses in the event of nonperformance by counterparties to such financial instruments.
- (4) The Company is required to put up collateral for any futures contracts that are entered. The amount of collateral that is required is determined by the exchange on which it is traded. The Company currently puts up cash and U.S. Treasury Bonds to satisfy this collateral requirement.

The current credit exposure of the Company's derivative contracts is limited to the fair value at the reporting date. Credit risk is managed by entering into transactions with creditworthy counterparties and obtaining collateral where appropriate and customary. The Company also attempts to minimize its exposure to credit risk through the use of various credit monitoring techniques. Approximately _____% of the net credit exposure for the Company from derivative contracts is with investment-grade counterparties.

17. Sale, Transfer and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities

- (2) For all servicing assets and servicing liabilities:
 - a. A description of the risks inherent in servicing assets and servicing liabilities and, if applicable, the instruments used to mitigate the income statement effect of changes in fair value to the servicing assets and servicing liabilities. (Disclosure of quantitative information about the instruments used to manage the risks inherent in servicing assets and servicing liabilities is encouraged but not required.)
 - b. The amount of contractually specified servicing fees, net fees and ancillary fees earned for each period for which results of operations are presented, including a description of where each amount is reported in the statement of income.
 - c. Quantitative and qualitative information about the assumptions used to estimate the fair value (for example, discount rates, anticipated credit losses, and prepayment speeds). An entity that provides quantitative information about the instruments used to manage the risks inherent in the servicing assets and servicing liabilities, as encouraged by SSAP No. 103R—Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities, also is encouraged but not required to disclose the quantitative and qualitative information about the assumptions used to estimate the fair value of those instruments.
- (3) When servicing assets and servicing liabilities are subsequently measured at fair value:

- e. Other changes that affect the balance and a description of those changes.

(4) For securitizations, asset-backed financing arrangements and similar transfers accounted for as sales when the transferor has continuing involvement (as defined in the glossary of the Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual) with the transferred financial assets:

a. For each income statement presented:

1. The characteristics of the transfer including a description of the transferor's continuing involvement with the transferred financial assets, the nature and initial fair value of the assets obtained as proceeds and the liabilities incurred in the transfer, and the gain or loss from the sale of transferred financial assets. For initial fair value measurements of assets obtained and liabilities incurred in the transfer, the following information:
 - (a) The level within the fair value hierarchy in which the fair value measurements in their entirety fall, segregating fair value measurements using quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1), significant other observable inputs (Level 2) and significant unobservable inputs (Level 3).
 - (b) The key inputs and assumptions used in measuring the fair value of assets obtained and liabilities incurred as a result of the sale that relate to the transferor's continuing involvement (including, at a minimum, but not limited to, and if applicable, quantitative information about discount rates; expected prepayments, including the expected weighted-average life of prepayable financial assets; and anticipated credit losses, including expected static pool losses).
 - If an entity has aggregated multiple transfers during a period, it may disclose the range of assumptions.
 - The weighted-average life of prepayable assets in periods (for example, months or years) can be calculated by multiplying the principal collections expected in each future period by the number of periods until that future period, summing those products and dividing the sum by the initial principal balance.
 - Expected static pool losses can be calculated by summing the actual and projected future credit losses and dividing the sum by the original balance of the pool of assets.
2. Cash flows between a transferor and transferee, including proceeds from new transfers, proceeds from collections reinvested in revolving-period transfers, purchases of previously transferred financial assets, servicing fees and cash flows received from a transferee's beneficial interests.

For each statement of financial position presented, regardless of when the transfer occurred:

1. Qualitative and quantitative information about the transferor's continuing involvement with transferred financial assets that provides financial statement users with sufficient information to assess the reasons for the continuing involvement and the risks related to the transferred financial assets to which the transferor continues to be exposed after the transfer and the extent that the transferor's risk profile has changed as a result of the transfer (including, but not limited to, credit risk, interest rate risk and other risks), including:
 - (a) The total principal amount outstanding, the amount that has been derecognized and the amount that continues to be recognized in the statement of financial position.
 - (b) The terms of any arrangements that could require the transferor to provide financial support (for example, liquidity arrangements and obligations to purchase assets) to the transferee or its beneficial interest holders, including a description of any events or circumstances that could expose the transferor to loss and the amount of the maximum exposure to loss.

- (c) Whether the transferor has provided financial or other support during the periods presented that it was not previously contractually required to provide to the transferee or its beneficial interest holders, including when the transferor assisted the transferee or its beneficial interest holders in obtaining support, including:
- The type and amount of support.
 - The primary reasons for providing the support.
- (d) Information is encouraged about any liquidity arrangements, guarantees and/or other commitments provided by third parties related to the transferred financial assets that may affect the transferor's exposure to loss or risk of the related transferor's interest.
2. The entity's accounting policies for subsequently measuring assets and liabilities that relate to the continuing involvement with the transferred financial assets.
 3. The key inputs and assumptions used in measuring the fair value of assets or liabilities that relate to the transferor's continuing involvement, including, at a minimum, but not limited to, and if applicable, quantitative information about discount rates; expected prepayments, including the expected weighted-average life of prepayable financial assets; and anticipated credit losses, including expected specific pool losses).
 4. For the transferor's interests in the transferred financial assets, a sensitivity analysis or stress test showing the hypothetical effect on the fair value of those interests (including any servicing assets or servicing liabilities) of two or more unfavorable variations from the expected levels for each key assumption that is reported per SSAP No. 103R—Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities independently from any change in another key assumption, and a description of the objectives, methodology and limitations of the sensitivity analysis or stress test.
 5. Information about the asset quality of transferred financial assets and any other assets that it manages together with them. This information shall be separated between assets that have been derecognized and assets that continue to be recognized in the statement of financial position. This information is intended to provide financial statement users with an understanding of the risks inherent in the transferred financial assets, as well as in other assets and liabilities that it manages together with transferred financial assets. For example, information for receivables shall include, but is not limited to:
 - Delinquencies at the end of the period.
 - Credit losses, net of recoveries, during the period.
- (5) Disclosure requirements for transfers of financial assets accounted for as secured borrowing (excluding repurchase and reverse repurchase transactions disclosed under Notes 5F through 5I above):
- The carrying amounts and classifications of both assets and associated liabilities recognized in the transferor's statement of financial position at the end of each period presented, including quantitative information about the relationship(s) between those assets and associated liabilities. For example, if assets are restricted solely to satisfy a specific obligation, the carrying amounts of those assets and associated liabilities, including a description of the nature of restrictions placed on the assets.
- (6) Disclose any transfers of receivables with recourse.
 - (7) A description of the securities underlying dollar repurchase and dollar reverse repurchase agreements, including book values and fair values, and maturities for the following categories:
 - a. Securities subject to dollar repurchase agreements.

20. Fair Value Measurements

Instruction:

- A. A reporting entity shall disclose information that helps users of the financial statements to assess both of the following:

For assets and liabilities that are measured and reported¹ at fair value or net asset value (NAV) in the statement of financial position after initial recognition, the valuation techniques and the inputs used to develop those measurements; and

For fair value measurements in the statement of financial position determined using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3), the effect of the measurements on earnings (or changes in net assets) for the period.

To meet these objectives, the reporting entity shall disclose the information in paragraphs (1) through (4) below for each class of assets and liabilities measured and reported¹ at fair value or NAV in the statement of financial position after initial recognition. The reporting entity shall determine appropriate classes of assets and liabilities in accordance with the annual statement instructions.

- (1) The level of the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurements are categorized in their entirety (Level 1, 2 or 3). (Investments reported at NAV shall not be captured within the fair value hierarchy, but shall be separately identified.)

For assets and liabilities held at the reporting date, the amounts of any transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy, the reasons for the transfers, and the reporting entity's policy for determining when transfers between levels are recognized. Transfers into each level shall be disclosed and discussed separately from transfers out of each level.

- (2) For fair value measurements categorized within Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy a reconciliation from the opening balance to the closing balances disclosing separately changes during the period attributable to the following:

- a. Total gains or losses for the period recognized in income or surplus.
- b. Purchases, sales, issues and settlements (each type disclosed separately).
- c. The amounts of any transfers into or out of Level 3, the reasons for those transfers, and the reporting entity's policy for determining when transfers between levels are recognized. Transfers into Level 3 shall be disclosed and discussed separately from transfers out of Level 3.

- (3) A reporting entity shall disclose and consistently follow its policy for determining when transfers between levels are recognized. The policy about the timing of recognizing transfers shall be the same for transfers into Level 3 as that for transfers out of Level 3. Examples of policies for when to recognize the transfers are as follows:

- a. The actual date of the event or change in circumstances that caused the transfer.
- b. The beginning of the reporting period.
- c. The end of the reporting period.

¹ The term "reported" is intended to reflect the measurement basis for which the asset or liability is classified within its underlying SSAP. For example, a bond with an NAIC designation of 2 is considered an amortized cost measurement and is not included within this disclosure even if the amortized cost and fair value measurement are the same. An example of when such a situation may occur includes a bond that is written down as other-than-temporarily impaired as of the date of financial position. The amortized cost of the bond after the recognition of the other-than-temporary impairment may agree to fair value, but under SSAP No. 26R this security is considered to still be reported at amortized cost.

- (4) For fair value measurements categorized within Level 2 and Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy, a description of the valuation technique(s) and the inputs used in the fair value measurement. If there has been a change in the valuation technique(s) (for example, changing from a market approach to an income approach or the use of an additional valuation technique), the reporting entity shall disclose that change and the reason for making it.

For fair value measurements categorized within Level 2 and Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy, SSAP No. 100R—Fair Value requires a reporting entity to disclose a description of the valuation technique(s) and the inputs used in the fair value measurement. A reporting entity might disclose the following:

- a. Quantitative information about the input, for example, for certain debt securities or derivatives, information such as, but not limited to, prepayment rates, rates of estimated credit losses, interest rates (for example the LIBOR swap rate) or discount rates and volatilities.
- b. The nature of the item being measured at fair value, including the characteristics of the item being measured that are considered in the determination of relevant inputs. For example, for residential mortgage-backed securities, a reporting entity might disclose the following:
 - The types of underlying loans (for example, prime loans or subprime loans)
 - Collateral
 - Guarantees or other credit enhancements
 - Seniority level of the tranches of securities
 - The year of issue
 - The weighted-average coupon rate of the underlying loans and the securities
 - The weighted-average maturity of the underlying loans and the securities
 - The geographical concentration of the underlying loans
 - Information about the credit ratings of the securities
- c. How third-party information such as broker quotes, pricing services, net asset values and relevant market data was considered in measuring fair value.

- (5) For derivative assets and liabilities, the reporting entity shall present both of the following:

The disclosures required by paragraph (1) and (2) above on a gross basis.

The reconciliation disclosures required by paragraphs (2), (3) and (4) on either a gross or net basis.

The quantitative disclosures required by 20A above shall be presented using a tabular format. (See Illustrations.)

- B. The reporting entity is encouraged, but not required, to combine the fair value information disclosed under SSAP No. 100R—Fair Value with the fair value information disclosed under other accounting pronouncements (for example, disclosures about fair value of financial instruments) in the periods in which those disclosures are required, if practicable. The reporting entity also is encouraged, but not required, to disclose information about other similar measurements, if practicable.

- C. A reporting entity shall disclose in the notes to the financial statements, as of each date for which a statement of financial position is presented in the quarterly or annual financial statements, the aggregate fair value or NAV for all financial instruments and the level within the fair value hierarchy in which the fair value measurements in their entirety fall. This disclosure shall be summarized by the type of financial instrument for which it is practicable to estimate fair value, except for certain financial instruments identified below.

The disclosures about fair value prescribed in the paragraph above are not required for the following: (Note: These exclusions are specific to Note 20C and do not impact the reporting of fair value that may be required in other SSAPs or statutory accounting schedules.)

- Employers' and plans' obligations for pension benefits, other postretirement benefits (see scope paragraph of SSAP No. 92—Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pensions), postemployment benefits, employee stock option and stock purchase plans, and other forms of deferred compensation arrangements, as defined in SSAP No. 12—Employee Stock Ownership Plans, SSAP No. 104R—Share-Based Payments, SSAP No. 92—Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pensions and SSAP No. 102—Pensions.
- Substantively extinguished debt subject to the disclosure requirements of SSAP No. 103R—Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities.
- Insurance contracts, other than financial guarantees and deposit-type contracts
- Lease contracts as defined in SSAP No. 22—Leases.
- Warranty obligations and rights.
- Investments accounted for under the equity method.
- Equity instruments issued by the entity.

Fair value disclosed in the notes shall be presented together with the related admitted values in a form that makes it clear whether the fair value and admitted values represent assets or liabilities and to which line items in the Statement of Assets, Liabilities, Surplus and Other Funds they relate. Unless specified otherwise in another SSAP, the disclosures may be made net of encumbrances, if the asset or liability is so reported. A reporting entity shall also disclose the method(s) and significant assumptions used to estimate the fair value of financial instruments.

If it is not practicable for a reporting entity to estimate the fair value of the financial instrument or a class of financial instruments and the investment does not qualify for the NAV practical expedient, the aggregate carrying amount for those items shall be reported in the "not practicable" column with additional disclosure as required in paragraph 20D below.

- D. If it is not practicable for an entity to estimate the fair value of a financial instrument or a class of financial instruments, the following shall be disclosed:
- (1) Information pertinent to estimating the fair value of that financial instrument or class of financial instruments and the investment does not qualify for the NAV practical expedient, such as the carrying amount, effective interest rate and maturity; and

(2) The reasons why it is not practicable to estimate fair value.

E. For investments measured using the NAV practical expedient pursuant to SSAP No. 100R—Fair Value, a reporting entity shall disclose information that helps users of its financial statements to understand the nature and risks of the investments and whether the investments, if sold, are probable of being sold at amounts different from NAV per share. To meet that objective, a reporting entity shall disclose, at a minimum, the following information for instances in which the investment may be sold below NAV, or if there are significant restrictions in the liquidation of an investment held at NAV:

- The NAV along with a description of the investment/investment strategy of the investee.
- If the investment that can never be redeemed with the investees, but the reporting entity receives distributions through the liquidation of the underlying assets of the investees, the reporting entity's estimate of the period of time over which the underlying assets are expected to be liquidated by the investees.
- The amount of the reporting entity's unfunded commitments related to investments in the class.
- A general description of the terms and conditions upon which the investor may redeem the investment.
- The circumstances in which an otherwise redeemable investment in the class (or a portion thereof) might not be redeemable (for example, investments subject to a lockup or gate). Also, for those otherwise redeemable investments that are restricted from redemption as of the reporting entity's measurement date, the reporting entity shall disclose its estimate of when the restriction from redemption might lapse. If an estimate cannot be made, the reporting entity shall disclose that fact and how long the restriction has been in effect.
- Any other significant restriction on the ability to sell investments in the class at the measurement date.
- If a group of investments would otherwise meet the criteria in SSAP No. 100R—Fair Value but the individual investments to be sold have not been identified (for example, if a reporting entity decides to sell 20% of its investments in private equity funds but the individual investments to be sold have not been identified), so the investments continue to qualify for the practical expedient in SSAP No. 100R—Fair Value, the reporting entity shall disclose its plans to sell and any remaining actions required to complete the sale(s).

F. Subprime-Mortgage-Related Risk Exposure

Reporting entities shall disclose information pertaining to subprime-mortgage-related risk exposure and related risk management practices, regardless of the materiality of the exposure, in the statutory financial statements. These disclosures are not required in the annual audited financial statements. Although definitions may differ among reporting entities, the following features are commonly recognized characteristics of subprime mortgage loans:

- An interest rate above prime to borrowers who do not qualify for prime rate loans;
- Borrowers with low credit ratings (FICO scores);
- Interest-only or negative amortizing loans;
- Unconventionally high initial loan-to-value ratios;
- Low initial payments based on a fixed introductory rate that expires after a short initial period, then adjusts to a variable index rate plus a margin for the remaining term of the loan;
- Borrowers with less than conventional documentation of their income and/or net assets;
- Very high or no limits on how much the payment amount or the interest rate may increase at reset periods, potentially causing a substantial increase in the monthly payment amount; and/or
- Include substantial prepayment penalties and/or prepayment penalties that extend beyond the initial interest rate adjustment period.

To the extent such information is available, reporting entities shall consider exposure to subprime mortgage related risk through the following sources:

- Direct investments in subprime mortgage loans;
- Direct investments in securities with underlying subprime exposure, such as residential mortgage-backed securities, commercial mortgage-backed securities, collateralized debt obligations, structured securities (including principal protected notes), hedge funds, credit default swaps, and special investment vehicles;
- Equity investments in subsidiary, controlled or affiliated entities with significant subprime related risk exposure;
- Underwriting risk on policies issued for Mortgage Guaranty or Financial Guaranty insurance coverage.

As it relates to the exposure described above, reporting entities shall provide the following information:

- (1) Please provide a narrative description of the manner in which the reporting entity specifically defines its exposure to subprime mortgage related risk in practice. Please discuss the general categories of information considered in determining exposure to subprime mortgage related risk. Please differentiate between exposure to unrealized losses due to changes in asset values versus exposure to realized losses resulting from receiving less than anticipated cash flows or due to potential sale of assets to meet future cash flow requirements. Please discuss strategies used to manage or mitigate this risk exposure.

- (2) Direct exposure through investments in subprime mortgage loans. Within the categories of Mortgages in the Process of Foreclosure, Mortgages in Good Standing, and Mortgages with Restructured Terms, please provide the following information for the aggregate amount of directly held subprime mortgage loans:

- Book/adjusted carrying value (excluding accrued interest);
- Fair value;
- Value of land and buildings;
- Any other-than-temporary impairment losses recognized to date;
- Default rate for the subprime portion of the loan portfolio.

- (3) Direct exposure through other investments. Please provide the following information related to other investments with subprime exposure:
- Actual cost
 - Book/adjusted carrying value
 - Fair value
 - Any other-than-temporary impairment losses recognized to date

Please aggregate the information above by the following types of investments:

- Residential mortgage-backed securities
 - Commercial mortgage-backed securities
 - Collateralized debt obligations
 - Structured securities (including principal protected notes)
 - Equity investments in subsidiary, controlled or affiliated entities with significant subprime mortgage related risk exposure (a general description of the nature and extent of the SCA's exposure should be included)
 - Other assets (including but not limited to hedge funds, credit default swaps, special investment vehicles)
- (4) Underwriting exposure to subprime mortgage risk through Mortgage Guaranty or Financial Guaranty insurance coverage. Please provide the following information, by coverage type, related to underwriting exposure on policies issued for Mortgage Guaranty coverage or Financial Guaranty coverage and any other lines of insurance expected to be impacted:
- The aggregate amount of subprime related losses paid in the current year;
 - The aggregate amount of subprime related losses incurred in the current year;
 - The aggregate amount of subprime related case reserves at the end of the current reporting period;
 - The aggregate amount of subprime related IBNR reserves at the end of the current reporting period.

G. Retained Assets

Disclose the following information regarding the reporting entity's use of retained asset accounts for beneficiaries. For purposes of this disclosure, retained asset accounts represent settlement of life insurance proceeds which are retained by the insurance entity within their general account for the benefit of the beneficiaries. Amounts held outside of the insurance entity, for example in a non-insurance subsidiary, affiliated or controlled entity accounted for under SSAP No. 97—Investments in Subsidiary, Controlled and Affiliated Entities such as an interest bearing account established in the beneficiaries name with a bank or thrift institution (and subject to applicable Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation coverage) are only required to be described in the context of the structure of the reporting entity's program in accordance with (1), but quantitative information regarding retained asset accounts transferred outside of the reporting entity are not required.

- (1) A narrative description of how the accounts are structured and reported within the reporting entity's financial statements (e.g., as drafts written by the reporting entity and reported within cash and supplemental contracts without life contingencies; as accounts transferred into the beneficiaries name to an affiliated or unaffiliated bank or other financial institution in which the reporting entity has disposed of its liabilities and related assets, etc). This description should include all of the different interest rates paid to retained asset account holders during the reporting year and the number of times changes in rates were made during the reporting year. The description should also include a listing of all applicable fees charged by the reporting entity that are directly or indirectly associated with the retained asset accounts. Also indicate if the retained asset account is the default method for satisfying life insurance claims.

- (2) Number and balance of retained asset accounts in force at the end of the current year and prior year segregated within “aging categories” of “up to 12 months,” “13 to 24 months,” “25 to 36 months,” “37 to 48 months,” “49 to 60 months,” “over 60 months.”
- (3) Disclose the following segregated between individual and group contracts:
 - Number and balance of retained asset accounts in force at the beginning of the year;
 - Number and amount of retained asset accounts issued during the year;
 - Investment earnings credited to retained asset accounts;
 - Fees and other charges assessed to retained asset accounts during the year;
 - Number and amount of retained asset accounts transferred to state unclaimed property funds;
 - Number and amount of retained asset accounts closed/withdrawn during the year; and
 - Number and balance of retained asset accounts in force at the end of the year.

H. Insurance-Linked Securities (ILS) Contracts

Reporting entities shall disclose information when they may receive possible proceeds as the issuer, ceding insurer, or counterparty of insurance-linked securities. Insurance-linked securities (ILS) are securities whose performance is linked to the possible occurrence of pre-specified events that relate to insurance risks. While catastrophe bonds (cat bonds) may be the most well known type of ILS, there are other non-cat-bond ILS, including those based on mortality rates, longevity and medical-claim costs. ILS securities may be used by an insurer, or any other risk-bearing entity, in addition to (or as an alternative to) the purchase of insurance or reinsurance. This disclosure shall specifically identify the following:

- Whether the reporting entity may receive possible proceeds as the issuer, ceding insurer, or counterparty of insurance-linked securities as a way of managing risks related to directly-written insurance risks. This disclosure shall include the number of outstanding ILS contracts, and the aggregate maximum proceeds that could be received as of the reporting date under the terms of the ILS.
- Whether the reporting entity may receive possible proceeds as the issuer, ceding insurer, or counterparty of insurance-linked securities as a way of managing risk related to assumed insurance risks. This disclosure shall include the number of outstanding ILS contracts, and the aggregate maximum proceeds that could be received as of the reporting date under the terms of the ILS.

NOTE: In situations in which a reporting entity has ceded risk to a reinsurer, and the reinsurer has engaged in ILS (either directly or through a broker), the following should be used by the ceding reporting entity in completing the disclosure:

The ceding company shall complete the disclosure with information that they know regarding the reinsurer entities’ involvement with ILS that would likely be used to satisfy their reinsurance arrangement. For this disclosure, information shall be provided that details the maximum possible ILS proceeds as a result of the reinsurer’s ILS activity associated with the reinsurance arrangement(s) with the reporting entity. If information is known regarding the number of ILS contracts, that information shall also be included. If specific information is not known by the cedent on the number of ILS contracts associated with the reinsurance arrangement(s) with the reporting entity, the cedent shall report the information known (such as whether there is one ILS contract, or more than one ILS contract, or that the number of ILS contracts is not known). With the cedent entity reporting what is known (and what is not known), the regulator has needed information to further inquire with the ceding company.

22. Events Subsequent

Refer to SSAP No. 9—Subsequent Events for accounting guidance.

Instruction:

Subsequent events shall be considered either:

Type I – Recognized Subsequent Events:

Events or transactions that provide additional evidence with respect to conditions that existed at the date of the balance sheet, including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing financial statements.

Type II – Nonrecognized Subsequent Events:

Events or transactions that provide evidence with respect to conditions that did not exist at the date of the balance sheet but arose after that date.

For material Type I subsequent events, the nature and the amount of the adjustment shall be disclosed only if necessary to keep the financial statements from being misleading.

Material Type II subsequent events shall not be recorded in the financial statements, but shall be disclosed in the notes to the financial statements. For such events, an entity shall disclose the nature of the event and an estimate of its financial effect or a statement that such an estimate cannot be made.

An entity also shall consider supplementing the historical financial statements with pro forma financial data. Occasionally, a nonrecognized subsequent event may be so significant that disclosure can best be made by means of pro forma financial data. Such data shall give effect to the event as if it had occurred on the balance sheet date. In some situations, an entity also shall consider presenting pro forma statements. If the Type II subsequent event is of such a nature that pro forma disclosures are necessary to keep the financial statements from being misleading, disclose supplemental pro forma financial data including the impact on net income, surplus, total assets, and total liabilities giving effect to the event as if it occurred on the date of the balance sheet.

Reporting entities shall disclose the dates through which subsequent events have been evaluated along with the dates the statutory reporting statements were issued, or available to be issued.

For the annual reporting period ending December 31, 2013, and thereafter, a reporting entity subject to the assessment under Section 9010 of the Federal Affordable Care Act shall provide a disclosure of the assessment payable in the upcoming year consistent with the guidance provided under SSAP No. 9—Subsequent Events for a Type II subsequent event. The disclosure shall provide information regarding the nature of the assessment and an estimate of its financial impact, including the impact on its risk-based capital position as if it had occurred on the balance sheet date. In accordance with SSAP No. 9, the reporting entity shall also consider whether there is a need to present pro forma financial statements regarding the impact of the assessment, based on its judgment of the materiality of the assessment.

Additionally, for annual reporting periods ending on or after December 31, 2014, the reporting entity shall disclose the amounts reflected in special surplus in the data year. The disclosure shall provide information regarding the nature of the assessment, the estimated amount of the assessment payable for the upcoming year (current year and the prior year), amount of assessment paid (current and prior year) and written premium (current and prior year) that is the basis for the determination of the Section 9010 fee assessment to be paid in the subsequent year (net assessable premium). The disclosure should also provide the Total Adjusted Capital before and after adjustment (as reported in its estimate of special surplus applicable to the Section 9010 fee) and Authorized Control Level (in dollars) to reflect the fee as of the annual reporting date as if it had been reported on the balance sheet date. The reporting entity shall also provide a statement as to whether an RBC action level would have been triggered had the fee been reported as of the balance sheet date.

Illustration:

Type I – Recognized Subsequent Events:

Subsequent events have been considered through ___/___/___ for the statutory statement issued on ___/___/___.

On February 1, 20___, a settlement was reached in a major lawsuit against the Company. In conjunction with the lawsuit, the Company estimated and recorded a liability of $_____ on Line ___ of the Liabilities, Surplus and Other Funds page. The actual settlement amount of $_____ was paid to the plaintiff on February 10. The change will be recorded in the First Quarter Statement on Line ___ of the Statement of Income.

Type II – Nonrecognized Subsequent Events:

Subsequent events have been considered through ___/___/___ for the statutory statement issued on ___/___/___.

The Company faces loss exposure from the January 15, 20___ earthquake in the State of _____. This exposure is primarily in the Company's property and casualty subsidiaries, but also includes potential losses on its real estate and mortgage loan portfolios. Based on a review of the range of expected loss, the Company does not believe this event will have a material impact on its financial condition.

On January 1, 2019, the Company will be subject to an annual fee under Section 9010 of the federal Affordable Care Act (ACA). This annual fee will be allocated to individual health insurers based on the ratio of the amount of the entity's net premiums written during the preceding calendar year to the amount of health insurance for any U.S. health risk that is written during the preceding calendar year. A health insurance entity's portion of the annual fee becomes payable once the entity provides health insurance for any U.S. health risk for each calendar year beginning on or after January 1 of the year the fee is due. As of December 31, 2018, the Company has written health insurance subject to the ACA assessment, expects to conduct health insurance business in 2019, and estimates their portion of the annual health insurance industry fee to be payable on September 30, 2019 to be $_____. This amount is reflected in special surplus. This assessment is expected to impact risk based capital (RBC) by _____. Reporting the ACA assessment as of December 31, 2018, would not have triggered an RBC action level.

THIS EXACT FORMAT MUST BE USED IN THE PREPARATION OF THIS NOTE FOR LINES A THROUGH H IN THE TABLE BELOW IF APPLICABLE. THIS DOES NOT INCLUDE THE NARRATIVE FOR THE ILLUSTRATION SHOWN ABOVE. REPORTING ENTITIES ARE NOT PRECLUDED FROM PROVIDING CLARIFYING DISCLOSURE BEFORE OR AFTER THIS ILLUSTRATION.

31. Reserves for Life Contracts and Annuity Contracts

Instruction:

For life and annuity contracts' reserves, disclose the following:

- (1) A description of reserve practices including waiver of deduction of deferred fractional premiums upon death of insured, return of portion of final premium for periods beyond the date of death, and amount of any surrender value promised in excess of the reserve as legally computed.
- (2) The methods employed in the valuation of substandard policies.
- (3) The amount of insurance, if any, for which the gross premiums are less than the net premiums according to valuation standards.
- (4) The method used to determine tabular interest, tabular less actual reserves released, and tabular cost (by formula or from the basic data for such items).
- (5) The method of determination of tabular interest on funds not involving life contingencies.
- (6) The nature of other reserve changes.

Illustration:

- (1) The Company waives deduction of deferred fractional premiums upon death of insured and returns any portion of the final premium beyond the date of death. Surrender values are not promised in excess of the legally computed reserves.
- (2) Extra premiums are charged for substandard lives for policies issued prior to July 1, 20__, plus the gross premium for a rated age.

Mean reserves are determined by computing the regular mean reserve for the plan at the rated age and holding, in addition, one-half (1/2) of the extra premium charge for the year. Policies issued after July 1, 20__, for substandard lives, are charged an extra premium plus the regular premium for the true age. Mean reserves are based on appropriate multiples of standard rates of mortality.

- (3) As of December 31, 20__, the Company had $_____ of insurance in force for which the gross premiums are less than the net premiums according to the standard valuation set by the State of _____. Reserves to cover the above insurance totaled the gross amount of $_____ at year-end and are reported in Exhibit 5, Life Insurance and Annuities sections.
- (4) The Tabular Interest has been determined by formula as described in the instructions.

The Tabular Less Actual Reserve Released has been determined by formula as described in the instructions.

The Tabular Cost has been determined by formula as described in the instructions.

- (5) For the determination of Tabular Interest on funds not involving life contingencies for each valuation rate of interest, the tabular interest is calculated as one hundredth of the product of such valuation rate of interest times the sum of the amount of funds subject to such valuation rate of interest held at the beginning and end of the year of valuation.

- (1) A narrative of the general nature of the reporting entity’s separate account business.
- (2) Identification of the separate account assets that are legally insulated from the general account claims.
- (3) Identification of the separate account products that have guarantees backed by the general account. This shall include:
 - Amount of risk charges paid by the separate account to the general account for the past five years as compensation for the risk taken by the general account; and
 - Amount paid by the general account due to separate account guarantees during the past five years.
- (4) Discussion of securities lending transactions within the separate account, separately including the amount of loaned securities within the separate account, and if policies and procedures for the separate account differ from the general account.

B. General Nature and Characteristics of Separate Accounts Business

Describe the general nature and characteristics of the various kinds of separate accounts business conducted by the reporting entity and included in the reporting entity's Separate Accounts Statement. For purposes of this note, separate accounts may be addressed in the following groupings that are the same as those used for risk-based capital:

- Separate Accounts with Guarantees

Indexed separate accounts that are invested to mirror an established index that is the basis of the guarantee.

Nonindexed separate accounts, with reserve interest rate at no greater than 4% and/or fund long-term interest guarantee in excess of a year that does not exceed 4%

Nonindexed separate accounts, with reserve interest rate at greater than 4% and/or fund long-term interest guarantee in excess of a year that exceeds 4%.

- Nonguaranteed Separate Accounts

Variable separate accounts, where the benefit is determined by the performance and/or fair value of the investments held in the separate account. Include variable accounts with incidental risks, nominal expense, and minimum death benefit guarantees.

For each grouping, include the following:

- (1) Premiums, considerations or deposits received during the year. The total for all separate accounts should agree to the sum of Lines 1.1 and the inside amount for deposits reported, Line 2 on Page 4 of the Separate Accounts Annual Statement.
- (2) Reserves by the valuation basis of the investments supporting the reserves at December 31. List reserves for separate accounts whose assets are carried at fair value separately from those whose assets are carried at amortized cost/book value. Total reserves for all separate accounts should agree to the sum of Lines 1 and 2 on Page 3 of the Separate Accounts Annual Statement.
- (3) Reserves by withdrawal characteristics for the separate account:
 - Subject to discretionary withdrawal, including the categories of:
 - ❖ Market value adjustment
 - ❖ Withdrawal at book value without market value adjustment and with or without surrender charge

- Transfers to and from separate accounts in the Summary of Operations of the Separate Accounts statement (Page 4, Line 1.4 minus Line 10).
- The amount reported as "Net transfers to or (From) Separate Accounts" in Page 4, Line 24 of the Fraternal Annual Statement.

Illustration:

A. Separate Account Activity

- Variable Life Insurance Products
- Variable Annuities
- Modified Guaranteed Annuities
- Funding Agreements

In accordance with the domiciliary state procedures for approving items within the separate account, the separate account classification of the following items are supported by a specific state statute (cite reference):

- Product Identifier (Variable Life) – State Statute Reference

The following items are supported by direct approval by the commissioner:

- Product Identifier (Funding Agreements) – Commissioner Approval

The following items are not supported by state statute or direct approval, but are permitted for separate account reporting in accordance with the following guidance:

(Include additional information regarding the general nature of the entity's separate account business as necessary.)

(2) In accordance with the products/transactions recorded within the separate account, some assets are considered legally insulated whereas others are not legally insulated from the general account. (The legal insulation of the separate account assets prevents such assets from being generally available to satisfy claims resulting from the general account.)

As of December 31, 20__ and 20__ the Company separate account statement included legally insulated assets of $_____ and $_____, respectively. The assets legally insulated from the general account as of December 31, 20__ are attributed to the following products/transactions:

(NOTE: THIS DOES NOT INCLUDE THE BEGINNING AND ENDING NARRATIVE.)

- (3) In accordance with the products/transaction recorded within the separate account, some separate account liabilities are guaranteed by the general account. (In accordance with the guarantees provided, if the investment proceeds are insufficient to cover the rate of return guaranteed for the product, the policyholder proceeds will be remitted by the general account.)

To compensate the general account for the risk taken, the separate account has paid risk charges as follows for the past five (5) years:

- a. 2018 $_____;
- b. 2017 $_____;
- c. 2016 $_____;
- d. 2015 $_____;

- Variable Life Insurance Products (product identifier)
- Variable Annuities (product identifier)

Pursuant to the policies and procedures, XYZ Company is required to obtain approval and/or otherwise notify the contract holders that assets backing their investments may be loaned in securities lending transactions.

B. General Nature and Characteristics of Separate Accounts Business:

Most separate and variable accounts held by the company relate to individual variable annuities of a non-guaranteed return nature. The net investment experience of the separate account is credited directly to the policyholder and can be positive or negative. These variable annuities generally provide an incidental death benefit of the greater of account value or premium paid. In 1996 the company began offering a policy with a minimum guaranteed death benefit that is adjusted every seven years to the current account value. The assets and liabilities of these accounts are carried at market. The minimum guaranteed death benefit reserve is held in Exhibit 5, Miscellaneous Reserves Section, of the company's general account annual statement. This business has been included in Column 4 of the table below.

Certain other separate accounts relate to experience-rated group annuity contracts that fund defined contribution pension plans. These contracts provide guaranteed interest returns for one-year only, where the guaranteed interest rate is re-established each year based on the investment experience of the separate account. In no event can the interest rate be less than zero. There are guarantees of principal and interest for purposes of plan participant transactions (e.g., participant-directed withdrawals and fund transfers done at book value). The assets and liabilities of these separate accounts are carried at book value. This business has been included in Column 2 of the table below.

(Include description of the nature and characteristics of other separate account business as appropriate, and location in table below.)

GENERAL INTERROGATORIES

PART 1 – COMMON INTERROGATORIES

GENERAL

- 1.2 N/A is an acceptable response only if Interrogatory 1.1 was answered NO.
- 1.4 Answer “YES” if the reporting entity is publicly traded or part of a publicly traded group.
“Publicly traded company” is defined as a company whose securities are required to be registered under Section 12 and is subject to periodic reporting under Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
- 1.5 Provide the Central Index Key (CIK) issued by the SEC to the publicly traded entity or group. Do not provide a CIK issued for a variable insurance product written by the entity.
- 3.1 The date of the financial examination that should be reported is for a financial examination conducted by a state regulatory authority. (It is not a CPA annual audit.) The financial examination is considered “being made” for a given calendar year as soon as a formal notice is received from the domiciliary state that it intends to conduct the examination.
- 4.2 A sales/service organization for purposes of this question is one that provides the company with a sales/distribution network and/or a customer relations/service capability that is independent of the company and its employees.
- 7.1 For purposes of this interrogatory, control is defined to include ownership as well as control via management or attorney-in-fact.
- 7.2 Report this amount as a percentage (e.g., 10.2%, not .10) of ownership.
- 8.4 Enter “YES” or “NO” in Columns 3 through 6.
- 10.5 Indicate whether the reporting entity has established an audit committee in compliance with the Annual Financial Reporting Model Regulation (formerly known as Model Audit Rule) or similar state statute adopted by the domiciliary state.

- 15.2 Provide the American Bankers Association (ABA) routing number and the name of the issuing or confirming bank for all letters of credit where the reporting entity is the beneficiary unrelated to reinsurance and the issuing or confirming bank is not on the SVO Bank List. Amounts reported may be aggregated by bank.
For Fronted Letters of Credit, where a single bank issues a letter of credit as the fronting bank and sells to other banks undivided interests in its obligations under the credit, list the fronting bank but not the other banks participating.
For Syndicated Letters of Credit, where one bank acts as agent for a group of banks issuing the letter of credit but each participating bank is severally, not jointly, liable, list each bank separately and not just the agent bank.

FINANCIAL

19. For purposes of this interrogatory, statutory accounting principles are considered those prescribed or permitted by the reporting entity's domiciliary state, but also include those principles as outlined in the Accounting Practices & Procedures Manual. Name of Firm or Individual:

Should be name of firm or individual provided for 28.05

Central Registration Depository Number

The Central Registration Depository (CRD) number is a number issued by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) to brokers, dealers or individuals when licensed, and can be verified against their database www.finra.org. These brokers, dealers or individuals would be those contracted to manage some of the reporting entity's investments or funds and invest them for the reporting entity. The brokers, dealers or individuals can be affiliated or unaffiliated with the reporting entity. The reporting entity must list all brokers, dealers or individuals who have the authority to make investments on behalf of the reporting entity.

- DS If the current IMA has been filed with the state of domicile regardless if it was also filed with another state.
- OS If the current IMA has been filed with a state(s) other than the state of domicile but not the state of domicile.
- NO If the current IMA has not been filed with any state.

29. This interrogatory is applicable to Property/Casualty and Health entities only.
- 29.2 The diversified mutual funds (diversified according to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) in the Investment Company Act of 1940 [Section 5(b)(1)]) that are excluded from the Asset Concentration Factor section of the risk-based capital filing are to be disclosed in this interrogatory.
- 29.3 "Significant Holding" means the top five largest holdings of the mutual fund. For each diversified mutual fund disclosed in Interrogatory 29.2, the top largest holdings of the mutual fund must be disclosed in this interrogatory.

The "Amount of Mutual Fund's Book/Adjusted Carrying Value Attributable to the Holding" should be based upon the fund's latest available valuation as of year-end (e.g., fiscal year-end or latest periodic valuation available prior to year-end).

The "Date of Valuation" should be the date of the valuation amount provided in the Amount of Mutual Fund's Book/Adjusted Carrying Value Attributable to the Holding column.

30. Include bonds reported as cash equivalents in Schedule E, Part 2.
32. This interrogatory applies to any investment required to be filed with the SVO (or that would have been required if not exempted in the Purposes and Procedures Manual of the NAIC Investment Analysis Office), whether in the general account or separate accounts.

The existence of Z securities does not mean that a reporting entity is not complying with the procedures. As long as the entity has filed its Z securities with the SVO within 120 days of purchase, compliance with the procedures has been met. If an entity wishes to provide the counts of Z securities, include those counts in the explanation lines. An explanation is only expected if the answer to the compliance question is NO.

- 3.3 The total amount of capital and surplus funds of the company, covered by assets in the company's Separate Accounts statement, is the sum of the amount accrued for expense allowances recognized in separate accounts reserves that is disclosed parenthetically as a negative amount in the caption for Page 3, Line 13 - Transfers to Separate Accounts due or accrued (net) (including $_____ accrued for expense allowances recognized in reserves, net of reinsured expense allowances) adjusted to exclude any reinsurance assumed expense allowances, plus the amount of surplus in the Separate Accounts statement that is disclosed parenthetically in the caption for Page 3, Line 37 - Surplus (including $_____ in Separate Accounts statement). Exclude any amounts accrued for expense allowances applicable to reinsurance assumed covered by assets in ceding companies' Separate Accounts statements. Such amounts are covered in Interrogatory 3.7.

In the response to this interrogatory, include only that portion of the above-described amount that the company is currently prohibited from distributing to the general account from the separate accounts. Include all surplus funds that the company is required by law, regulation or regulatory directive to maintain in its separate accounts.

Exclude all amounts that are currently distributable at the discretion of the company, including seed monies currently maintained in the Separate Accounts statement to support the development or growth of separate accounts business.

- 3.4 Cite applicable insurance statutes for the establishment of separate accounts.
- 3.7 Report the total amount accrued for reinsurance assumed expense allowances applicable to separate accounts' reserves held in ceding company Separate Accounts statements. - 9.2 Disclose the name and location of the insurance company (i.e., legal entity and not group) that purchased the annuities during the current year and the aggregate statement value of annuities purchased, to the extent that the aggregate value of these annuities equals or exceeds $250,000. Include only annuities for which the property and casualty insurer obtained a release of liability from the claimant as a result of the purchase of an annuity from the reporting entity.
- 11.2 If the response to 11.1 is "YES," provide for the captive affiliate the company name, NAIC company code, domicile jurisdiction, reserve credit amount and the amounts supporting the reserve credit (letters of credit, trust agreements and other).

FIVE-YEAR HISTORICAL DATA

This exhibit is a display of key statistics extracted from the annual statements of the current year and each of the four preceding years. It displays recent trends in the movement of sales, in force, reserves, surplus, and other financial data. For the most part, each section of Five-Year Historical Data references data from a specific page in the annual statement, with certain “key” lines having been extracted from that page. Page and line references for the current year are shown on the Exhibit. If a page or line reference is different for a prior year or years, it is shown below. Percentages are shown to one decimal place (e.g., 17.6).

Report all amounts of insurance in thousands of dollars.

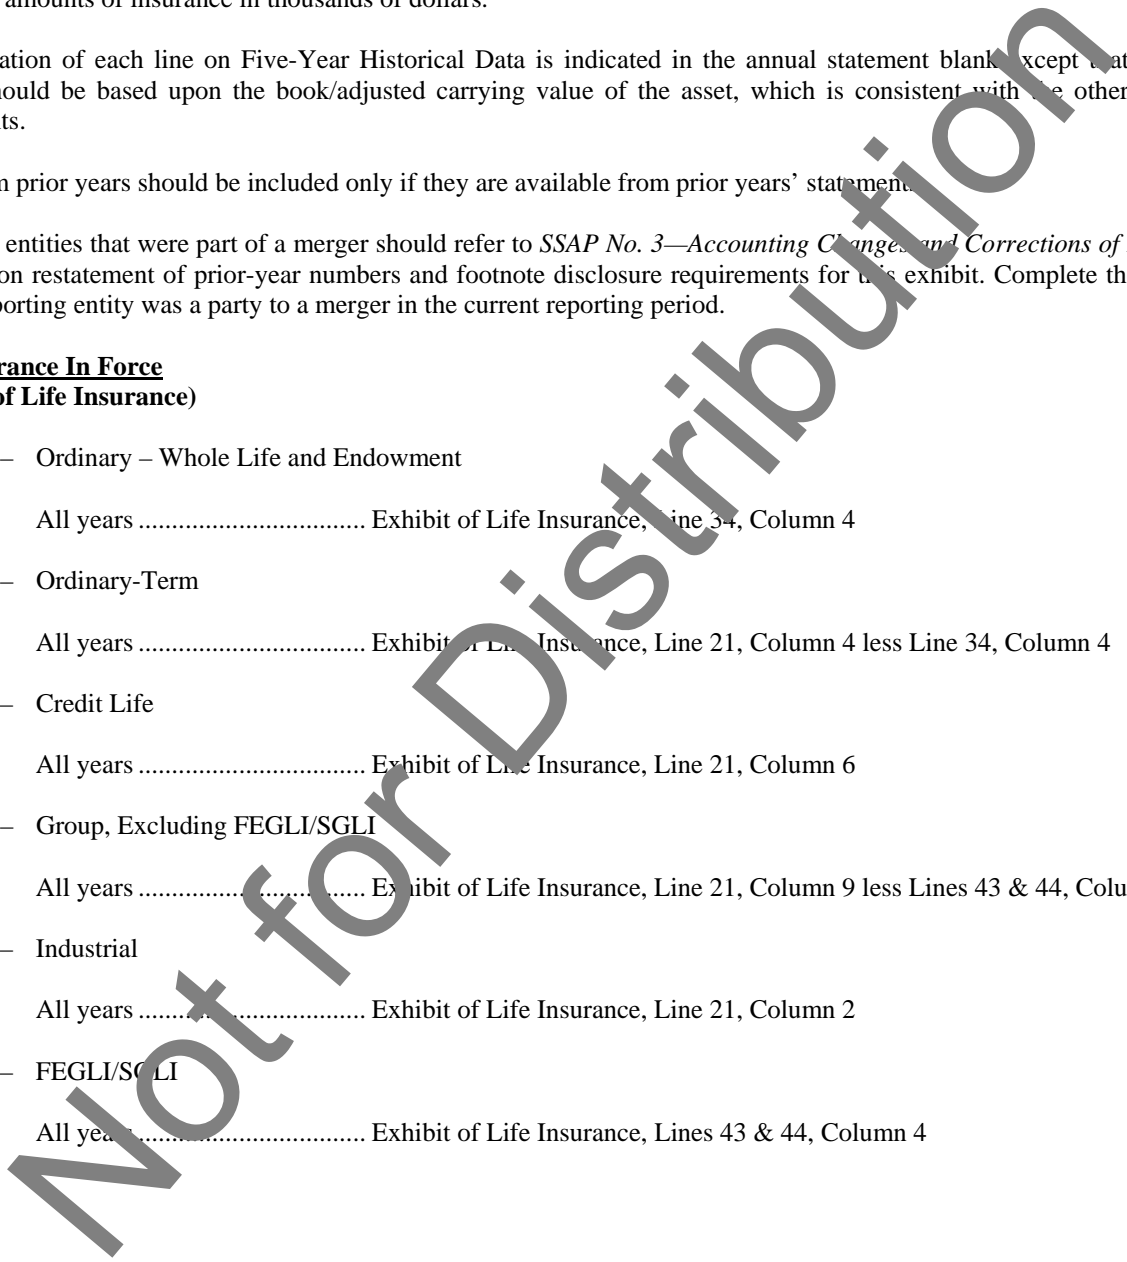

The derivation of each line on Five-Year Historical Data is indicated in the annual statement blank except that Lines 48 and 49 should be based upon the book/adjusted carrying value of the asset, which is consistent with the other affiliated investments.

Items from prior years should be included only if they are available from prior years’ statements.

Reporting entities that were part of a merger should refer to SSAP No. 3—Accounting Changes and Corrections of Errors for guidance on restatement of prior-year numbers and footnote disclosure requirements for this exhibit. Complete the footnote only if reporting entity was a party to a merger in the current reporting period.

STATE PAGE

A schedule should be prepared and submitted to the state of domicile for each jurisdiction in which the company has written direct business, has direct losses paid or direct losses incurred. To other states in which the company is licensed it should submit only a schedule for that state.

Direct premiums by state may be estimated by formula on the basis of countrywide ratios for the respective lines of business except where adjustments are required to recognize special situations.

Company's participation in the FEGLI and SGLI policies is shown in this exhibit as direct business.

This exhibit should be shown excluding reinsurance assumed. Reinsurance ceded should not be deducted.

Column 2 – Credit Life (Group and Individual)

Report on Line 24.1 those premiums, dividends and losses allocable to the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program premiums that are exempted from state taxes or other fees by Section 8909(f)(1) of Title 5 of the United States Code.

For Line 24.2, include business not exceeding 120 months' duration.

For Line 25, the development of data into various health policy categories should be done by inventory of the policy records.

Line 24.4 – Medicare Title XVIII Exempt from State Taxes or Fees

Report Medicare Title XVIII premiums that are exempted from state taxes or other fees by Section 1854(g) of the Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement, and Modernization Act of 2003. This includes but is not limited to premiums written under a Medicare Advantage product, a Medicare PPO product, or a stand-alone Medicare part D product.

Details of Write-ins Aggregated on Line 13 for Miscellaneous Direct Claims and Benefits Paid

List separately each category of direct claims and benefits paid for which there is no pre-printed line on the state page.

For Health Business: Complete the information below the Accident and Health block regarding number of persons covered under PPO managed care products and number of persons covered under indemnity only products. Include in PPO business health insurance products that provide access to a higher level of benefits whenever participating provider networks are used.

EXHIBIT OF LIFE INSURANCE

This exhibit displays current year information on increases and decreases to the life insurance in force at the beginning of the year. Data is reported on an incurred basis, that is, policies (or certificates) are considered issued when the first premium is paid and are considered terminated as closely as possible to the time when the event occurs rather than when actual cash payment is made.

For policies and riders that provide a level amount of insurance payable in installments in the event of death, the commuted value of the installments should be used as the amount of insurance. Include variable life insurance business.

Report all amounts of insurance in thousands of dollars (omit $000).

Columns 5
and 6

– Credit Life (Group and Individual)

Include: Business not exceeding 120 months duration

Line 1

– In Force End of Prior Year

This amount equals the amount reported on Line 21 in the prior year's annual statement.

– Issued During Year

Include: Permanent insurance issued and conversions of individual or family term insurance or group insurance. For group insurance include original issues and additional new business consisting of extensions to new classes and upward revisions of amount of insurance.

Exclude: New dividend additions issued (reported on Line 7).

Line 3

– Reinsurance Assumed

Report all reinsurance assumed including modified coinsurance. If a block of business has been assumed during the year, a footnote should be added showing the figures for each column for each such transaction.

Line 4

– Revived During Year

Report reinstatements of policies lapsed prior to the statement year.

Exclude: Reinstatement data for policies lapsed in the statement year (this information is part of net lapse data reported on Line 15).

Line 5

– Increased During Year (Net) and Line 17 – Decreased (Net) }

Enter as a positive figure in either Line 5 or Line 17, the net of increases and decreases for number of policies, number of certificates and amount of insurance. This data is treated independently and it is possible for one or more of these figures to increase while the others decrease. In determining the net for Group business, add new persons covered who are not included in Line 2 or Line 3, and deduct those withdrawing. The net figures for number of policies, for number of certificates, and for amount of insurance may not necessarily be on the same line.

- Line 7 – Additions by Dividends During Year
- Report additions to life insurance in force as the result of application of dividends on participating policies to purchase paid-up additional insurance.
- Line 8 – Aggregate Write-ins for Increases
- Enter the total of the write-ins listed in schedule “Details of Write-ins Aggregated at Line 8 for Increases.”
- Line 10 – Death and } Line 11 – Maturity }
- These lines are self-explanatory. Amounts reported must be those that had been previously reported as being in force.
- Line 12 – Disability
- Report the full in force amounts as canceled for those policies where approval and payment of disability benefits result in the automatic termination of the policy itself and any life insurance it was to provide.
- Exclude: Disability benefits of any nature unless the policy provision stipulates a reduction of the face amount of insurance on account of disability.
- Line 13 – Expiry
- Report those cancellations from in force where coverage was provided by term insurance (term policies, extended insurance term riders) where the term has expired and the policy or rider is of no further value.
- Line 14 – Surrender
- Report the cancellation from in force of the face amounts (or adjusted amounts of insurance) for policies that were surrendered by the owners for their cash value, or where a policy loan indebtedness (loan principal plus accrued interest) reached or exceeded the reserve value causing termination of insurance coverage.
- Line 15 – Lapse
- Report cancellation from in force of insurance without nonforfeiture provisions as the result of nonpayment of premiums prior to the normal expiration date of such insurance coverage.
- Line 16 – Conversion
- Report only individual or family term insurance converted to permanent insurance.
- Line 18 – Reinsurance
- Report discontinuance of reinsurance assumed by transfer of risk to the original or other insurer. If one or more blocks of business have been ceded by reinsurance during the year, it should be reported in this line with a footnote showing the figures for each column for each such cession. Do not include reinsurance ceded on individual risks.

- Line 19 – Aggregate Write-ins for Decreases
- Enter the total of the write-ins listed in schedule “Details of Write-ins Aggregated on Line 19 for Decreases.”

- Totals should prove to Lines 2 and 11, Column 10.
- Line 38 – Credit Life (Group and Individual)
- Include: Business not exceeding 120 months duration.
- Lines 41 to 45 – Additional Information on Credit Life and Group Insurance
- Columns 1 and 2 should include business not exceeding 120 months duration.
- Line 42 – Number in Force End of Year if the Number Under Shared Groups is Counted on a Pro-rata Basis
- If part of the insurance on each life in a group is provided by policies of other insurance companies (except for the Federal Employees’ Group Life Insurance Policy and the Servicemen’s Group Life Insurance Policy), report in Line 42 the adjusted total number of group life certificates in force at end of year. The adjusted total should include for each such policy the number of certificates in force multiplied by the proportion of insurance provided by the company. If none of the group insurance in force at the end of the year is in a shared group, the figure in this line should be the same as that in Line 21, Column 8. Adjust credit life number in a similar manner.

The purposes of these exhibits are:

1. To provide a control mechanism on in force for the reporting entity and the regulator when auditing in force and reserve liabilities.
2. To provide information on the activity, primarily sales or new cases on these various lines of business.
3. To provide information on how much business (number of cases) the reporting entity is administering.

Accident and Health Insurance

Columns 2, 4,
and 6 – Premiums in Force

Premiums in force are the premiums last collected on in force policies. For policies with premiums paid more often than annually, the last modal premium payable should be multiplied by the payment frequency. For Group policies with retrospective premium arrangements or retrospective rate credits, the premium in force is the premium excluding such adjustments.

Line 1 should be the same as reported on Line 10 for the prior year.

Line 3 should show policies or certificates and premiums in force for new reinsurance assumed only.

Deposit Funds and Dividend Accumulations

Line 10 – Amount of Account Balance

These amounts are the amounts held for policyholders at year-end.

INTEREST MAINTENANCE RESERVE

This exhibit is designed to capture the realized capital gains/(losses) that result from changes in the overall level of interest rates and amortize them into income over the approximate remaining life of the investment sold.

These instructions cover the Interest Maintenance Reserve (IMR) for both the General Account Statement and the Separate Accounts Statement. If an IMR is required for investments in the Separate Accounts Statement, it follows all rules applicable to the general account IMR and it is kept separate from the General Accounts IMR and accounted for in the Separate Accounts Statement. The criteria for determining when an IMR is required for separate accounts are described in the Separate Accounts IMR Worksheet Instructions.

Line 1 – Reserve as of December 31, Prior Year

Enter the amount from Line 6 of the prior year's schedule.

If the prior year's balance entered in Line 1 is negative, refer to the instructions for Line 6 to assure proper recording of the change in any nonadmitted or disallowed position.

Line 2 – Current Year's Realized Pre-tax Capital Gains/(Losses) of $_____ Transferred into the Reserve Net of Taxes of $_____ Include interest-rate-related realized capital gains/(losses), net of capital gains tax thereon. All realized capital gains/(losses) transferred to the IMR are net of capital gains taxes thereon. Exclude non-interest-related (default) realized capital gains and losses, realized capital gains/(losses) on equity investments, and unrealized capital gains/(losses).

All realized capital gains/(losses), due to interest rate changes on fixed income investments, net of related capital gains tax, should be captured in the IMR and amortized into income (Column 2, Lines 1 through 31) according to Table 4 or the premium method. Realized capital gains/(losses) must be classified as either interest (IMR) or non-interest (AVR) related, not a combination except as specified in SSAP No. 43R—Loan-Backed and Structured Securities. Purchase lots with the same CUSIP are treated as individual assets for IMR and Asset Valuation Reserve (AVR) purposes.

Exclude those capital gains and losses that, in accordance with contract terms have been used to directly increase or decrease contract benefit payments or reserves during the reporting period. The purpose of this exclusion is to avoid the duplicate utilization of such gains and losses.

Capital gains tax should be determined using the method developed by the company to allocate taxes used for statutory financial reporting purposes. By capturing the realized capital gains/(losses) net of tax, the capital gains tax associated with those capital gains/(losses) due to an interest rate change is charged or credited to the IMR and amortized in proportion to the before-tax amortization.

Include realized capital gains/(losses) on:

Debt securities (excluding loan-backed and structured securities) and preferred stocks whose National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC)/Securities Valuation Office (SVO) designation at the end of the holding period is NOT different from its NAIC designation at the beginning of the holding period by more than one NAIC designation. Exclude any such gains/(losses) exempt from the IMR.

Bond Mutual Funds – as Identified by the SVO. Include any capital gains/(losses) realized by the Company, whether from sale of the Fund or capital gains distributions by the Fund. If, during the course of the year, the SVO removes the designation of "NAIC 1" from a Bond Mutual Fund – as Identified by the SVO, the company shall not report capital gains/(losses) in this schedule. Any such removal of the "NAIC 1" designation will cause the Fund to be reported as common stock on the applicable schedules.

SVO Identified Funds designated for systematic value

Called bonds, tendered bonds, and sinking fund payments.

Mortgage loans where:

- Interest is NOT more than 90 days past due, or
- The loan is NOT in process of foreclosure, or
- The loan is NOT in course of voluntary conveyance, or
- The terms of the loan have NOT been restructured during the prior two years.

Additional Provisions for Including/Excluding Gains (Losses) from IMR:

Mortgage loan prepayment penalties are not included in IMR. Treat them as regular investment income.

Interest-related gains/(losses) realized on directly held capital and surplus notes reported on Schedule BA should be transferred to the IMR in the same manner as similar gains and losses on fixed income assets held on Schedule D. A capital gain/(loss) on such a note is classified as an interest rate gain if the note is eligible for amortized-value accounting at both the time of acquisition and the time of disposition.

Determination of IMR gain/(loss) on multiple lots of the same securities should follow the underlying accounting treatment in determining the gain/(loss). Thus, the designation, on a purchase lot basis, should be compared to the designation at the end of the holding period to determine IMR or AVR gain or loss.

Realized capital gains/(losses) on any debt security (excluding loan-backed and structured securities) that has had an NAIC/SVO designation of 6 at any time during the holding period should be excluded from the IMR and included as a non-interest-related gain/(loss) in the AVR.

Realized capital gains/(losses) on any preferred stock that had an NAIC/SVO designation of RP4, RP5 or RP6 or P4, P5 or P6 at any time during the holding period should be reported as non-interest-related gains/(losses) in the AVR.

The holding period for debt securities (excluding loan-backed and structured securities) and preferred stock is defined as the period from the date of purchase to the date of sale. For the end of period classification, the most recent available designation should be used. For bonds acquired before Jan. 1, 1991, the holding period is presumed to have begun on Dec. 31, 1990. For preferred stocks acquired before Jan. 1, 1993, the holding period is presumed to have begun on Dec. 31, 1992. For Bond Mutual Fund – as Identified by the SVO, the holding period is defined as one calendar year to expected maturity. For SVO Identified Funds designated for systematic value, the holding period is the weighted-average life of the underlying bonds.

In accordance with SSAP No. 26R—Bonds, securities with other-than-temporary impairment losses shall be recorded entirely to either AVR or IMR and not bifurcated between interest and non-interest components.

Where the gain on a convertible bond or preferred stock sold while “in the money” is included in the IMR; the expected maturity date is defined as the next conversion date. “In the money” is defined to mean that the number of shares available currently or at next conversion date, multiplied by their current market price, is greater than the book/adjusted carrying value of the convertible asset. However, for a convertible bond or convertible preferred stock purchased while its conversion value exceeds its par value, any gain or loss realized from its sale before conversion must be excluded from the IMR and included in the AVR. Conversion value is defined to mean the number of shares available currently or at next conversion date, multiplied by the stock’s current market price.

In accordance with SSAP No. 43R—Loan-Backed and Structured Securities, for loan-backed and structured securities only:

- Other-Than-Temporary Impairment – Non-interest-related other-than-temporary impairment losses shall be recorded through the AVR. If the reporting entity wrote the security down to fair value due to the intent to sell or does not have the intent and ability to recover the investment for a period of time sufficient to recover the amortized cost basis, the non-interest-related portion of the other-than-temporary impairment losses shall be recorded through the AVR; the interest-related other-than-temporary impairment losses shall be recorded through the IMR. The analysis for bifurcating impairment losses between AVR and IMR shall be completed as of the date when the other-than-temporary impairment is determined.
- Security Sold at a Loss Without Prior OTTI – An entity shall bifurcate the loss into AVR and IMR portions depending on interest- and non-interest-related declines in accordance with the analysis performed as of the date of sale. As such, an entity shall report the loss in separate AVR and IMR components as appropriate.
- Security Sold at a Loss With Prior OTTI – An entity shall bifurcate the current realized loss into AVR and IMR portions depending on interest- and non-interest-related declines in accordance with the analysis performed as of the date of sale. An entity shall not adjust previous allocations to AVR and IMR that resulted from previous recognition of other-than-temporary impairments.
- Security Sold at a Gain With Prior OTTI – An entity shall bifurcate the gain into AVR and IMR portions depending on interest and non-interest factors in accordance with the analysis performed as of the date of sale. The bifurcation between AVR and IMR that occurs as of the date of sale may be different from the AVR and IMR allocation that occurred at the time of previous other-than-temporary impairments. An entity shall not adjust previous allocations to AVR and IMR that resulted from previous recognition of other-than-temporary impairments.
- Security Sold at a Gain Without Prior OTTI – An entity shall bifurcate the gain into AVR and IMR portions depending on interest and non-interest factors in accordance with the analysis performed as of the date of sale.

The following guidance pertains to instruments in Scope of SSAP No. 86—Derivatives:

- For derivative instruments used in hedging transactions, the determination of whether the capital gains/(losses) are allocable to the IMR or the AVR is based on how the underlying asset is treated. Realized gains/(losses) on portfolio or general hedging instruments should be included with the hedged asset. Gains/(losses) on hedges used, as specific hedges should be included only if the specific hedged asset is sold or disposed of.
- For income generation derivative transactions, the determination of whether the capital gains/(losses) are allocable to the IMR or the AVR is based on how the underlying interest (for a put) or covering asset (for a call, cap or floor) is treated. Realized gains/(losses) should be included in the same sub-component where the realized gains/(losses) of the underlying interest (for a put) or covering asset (for a call, cap or floor) is reported. For a more complete and detailed explanation, refer to SSAP No. 86—Derivatives for accounting guidance.

- Realized gains/(losses), on derivative transactions entered into solely for the purpose of altering the interest rate characteristics of the company's assets and/or liabilities (hedging transactions) should be allocated to the IMR and amortized over the life of the hedged assets. Realized gains/(losses), on income generation derivative transactions where the underlying interest (put) or covering asset (call, cap or floor) is subject to IMR, should be allocated to the IMR and amortized over the remaining life of the:
 - a. underlying interest for a put
 - b. covering asset for a call
 - c. derivative contract for a cap or floor
 - Capital gains/(losses) associated with the cash components of a replication (synthetic asset) transaction should be categorized as interest-rate-related or non-interest-related and as to sub-component within the AVR as they would be in the absence of the replication (synthetic asset) transaction.
 - Capital gains/(losses), other than those arising at the time of counterparty default, on the derivative component of a replication (synthetic asset) transaction that is not a swap of prospectively-determined interest rates should be categorized as interest-rate-related or non-interest-related and as to sub-component within the AVR as if they were gains and losses on the replicated (synthetic) asset(s).
 - Capital gains/(losses) arising from counterparty default or the curing of a previous counterparty default should be separately identified and credited or charged to the bond and preferred stock component of the AVR.
 - Interest-rate related gains/(losses) associated with the cash component of a replication (synthetic asset) transaction should be amortized in the same manner as they would be in the absence of the replication (synthetic asset) transaction.
 - Interest-rate related gains/(losses) associated with the derivative component of a replication (synthetic asset) transaction that is not a swap of prospectively determined interest rates should be amortized as if they arose from the replicated asset.
 - Realized capital gains/(losses) arising from a swap of prospectively-determined interest rates constituting a component of a replication (synthetic asset) transaction should be credited or charged to the Interest Maintenance Reserve using the maturity bucket corresponding to the side of the transaction with the longest interest rate guarantee period.
 - Gains/(losses) on dollar repurchase agreements that are traded for the fee have no IMR (or AVR) impact because they are treated as financing.
 - The total dollar value of these IMR realized capital gains and (losses), net of capital gains tax will be excluded from the realized gains/(losses) reported on Page 4, Line 34 in the general account.
- In the Separate Accounts Statement, the total dollar value of these IMR realized capital gains/(losses), net of capital gains tax will be excluded from the realized gains/(losses) reported on Page 4, Line 3.
- By capturing the realized capital gains/(losses), net of tax, the capital gains tax associated with those capital gains/(losses) due to an interest rate change is charged or credited to the IMR and amortized in proportion to the before-tax amortization.

Reinsurance Ceded

Ceding Company means an insurer who has sold, transferred or reinsured a block of its in force liabilities under an agreement that qualifies for reinsurance accounting as described in SSAP No. 61R—Life, Deposit-Type and Accident and Health Reinsurance.

The interest-related gain/(loss), net of taxes, associated with the sale, transfer or reinsurance of a block of liabilities must be credited or charged to the ceding company’s IMR and then amortized into income provided:

1. The portion of the block reinsured represents more than 1% of the ceding company’s General Account Liabilities, Page 3, Line 26;
and
2. The transaction was completed in the current year.

A company may elect to use a lower materiality threshold than the 1% specified in Item 1 above. Once a threshold is established, it can only be changed with the prior approval of the Insurance Department of the state of domicile.

The amount of the gain/(loss) that is interest-related and its IMR amortization should be determined using the following three step procedure for the portion of the block sold, transferred or reinsured.

1. Identify the IMR balance and future amortization arising from the past and present dispositions of the assets associated with the block of liabilities.
2. Identify the IMR balance and future amortization that would result if the remaining assets associated with the block of liabilities were to be sold.
3. Define the interest-related gain/(loss), net of taxes, to be the negative of the sum of the IMR balances determined in steps 1 and 2. The future amortization of the gain/(loss) is the negative of the sum of the amortization determined in steps 1 and 2.

The associated assets are the assets allocable to the reinsured block of business for the purposes of investment income allocation. If the ceding company has not been tracking the investment income of the block, it should retrospectively identify the assets using procedures consistent with its usual investment income allocation procedures. The associated assets are not necessarily the same as the assets transferred as part of the transaction.

In certain circumstances, (e.g., non-economic transactions between affiliated insurers) assets are required to be transferred at book rather than market. In this case, Step 1 above for past and present realized gains/(losses) applies, but Step 2 above for unrealized gains/(losses) is zero.

In certain circumstances, e.g., modified coinsurance and coinsurance with funds withheld, assets reside with the ceding company and the following requirements apply:

- a. At treaty inception – If at treaty inception the assets residing with the ceding company cover IMR for the business reinsured and the investment income passed through each accounting period to the reinsurer is net of amortization of this IMR, no IMR liability adjustment shall be made. Otherwise, an IMR liability adjustment must be made (subject to the ceding company’s reinsurance materiality threshold). In this case, step 1 above for past and present realized gains/(losses) applies but step 2 above for unrealized gains/(losses) is zero.

- b. After inception, for treaties effective January 1, 1999 and later – If the ceding company passes through to the reinsurer the gains/(losses) each accounting period net of the change in IMR for these gains/(losses), no IMR liability adjustment shall be made. Otherwise (i.e. where the ceding company passes through to the reinsurer all gains/(losses) each accounting period without adjustment for IMR), an IMR liability adjustment must be made each accounting period, per step 3 above, for gains/(losses) realized in that accounting period. This is done regardless of the ceding company’s reinsurance materiality threshold.
- c. After inception, for treaties effective prior to January 1, 1999 – The ceding company may elect to follow Item b above, however, if this election is made it must be consistently followed for that treaty at all future valuation dates.

The following is an illustration of the application of the rules governing the IMR treatment of reinsurance transactions for the ceding company.

We will make the following assumptions:

- A company has a block of business that it completely reinsures during 1993.
- The assets currently allocable to the block for investment income allocation purposes have a book/adjusted carrying value of $100 million and a market value of $110 million.
- Some of the assets backing the block were sold during 1992 generating an interest-rate related gain of $2 million before taxes and $1.32 million after capital gains taxes for which the IMR amortization is:

IMR Amortization of 1992 Capital Gains
Year	Amortization ($ millions)
1992	0.202
1993	0.383
1994	0.310
1995	0.231
1996	0.144
1997	0.050
TOTAL	1.320

A portion of the original gain, $0.202 million, was amortized in 1992, leaving $1.118 million to be amortized in 1993 and later.

- The company pays a consideration to the reinsurer of $105 million.
- The company sells assets allocable to the block with a book/adjusted carrying value of $80 million and a market value of $89 million to partially fund the payment to the reinsurer. This sale generates a taxable gain of $9 million resulting in the payment of $3.06 million in capital gains taxes. The after-tax gain from these 1993 sales is amortized as follows:

IMR Amortization of 1993 Capital Gains
Year	Amortization ($ millions)
1993	0.261
1994	0.570
1995	0.618
1996	0.677
1997	0.743
1998	0.808
1999	0.771
2000	0.630
2001	0.489
2002	0.291
2003	0.101

- The remaining $19.06 million paid to the reinsurer is borrowed from other lines of business.
- Assets with a book/adjusted carrying value of $20 million and a market value of $21 million from the original block of assets allocable to the line of business remain in the company's portfolio after the transaction is completed. If these assets were to be sold at the time of the reinsurance transaction, they would generate a before-tax capital gain of $1 million and an after-tax capital gain of $.66 million that would be amortized through the IMR as follows:

IMR Amortization of the Hypothetical Sale of the Remaining Assets Allocable to the Block
Year	Amortization ($ millions)
1993	0.101
1994	0.191
1995	0.155
1996	0.116
1997	0.072
1998	0.025
TOTAL	0.660

Note that if these assets are actually sold at some point subsequent to the reinsurance transaction, the sale price would be different from the hypothetical price to the extent that interest rates had changed subsequent to the reinsurance transaction.

- The block is big enough to exceed the materiality threshold.

In order to calculate the IMR amortization associated with the reinsurance of the liability, it is first necessary to determine the IMR amortization from past, present and hypothetical asset sales of assets allocable to the block of business.

IMR Amortization
Year	Asset ($ million)				Liability ($ million)
	Past (included in P28 C1)	Present (included in P28 C2)	Future	Total	Total (included in P28 C3)
1993	.383	.261	.101	0.745	-0.745
1994	.310	.570	.191	1.071	-1.071
1995	.231	.618	.155	1.004	-1.004
1996	.144	.677	.116	0.937	-0.937
1997	.050	.743	.072	0.865	-0.865
1998		.808	.025	0.833	-0.833
1999		.772		0.772	-0.772
2000		.630		0.630	-0.630
2001		.469		0.469	-0.469
2002		.291		0.291	-0.291
2003		.101		0.101	-0.101
TOTAL	1.118	5.940	2.660	7.718	-7.718

The IMR amortization associated with the liability is displayed in the last column of the above table and it is simply the complement of the IMR amortization associated with the past, present and hypothetical future assets sales. The liability amortization should be entered in Column 3 of the IMR Amortization Worksheet of the Annual Statement of the ceding company. By definition the size of the interest-rate related gain is the total transferred to the IMR, -$7.718 million, which should be included on Line 3 of the IMR worksheet of the ceding company as well as on the Aggregate Write-ins for Deductions on the Summary of Operations and Analysis of Operations by Lines of Business.

Reinsurance Assumed

“Assuming Company” means here the counterparty to the transactions described above for the ceding company.

The assuming company must set up an IMR liability adjustment of the same magnitude but complementary to the adjustment recorded by the ceding company, subject to the following requirements:

1. Where the assuming company is required to set up a deferred profit liability or deferred loss asset and reflects zero gain/(loss) at treaty date, e.g., as for assumption reinsurance, the assuming company must not set up an IMR liability adjustment. Regardless, for non-economic transactions with an affiliate, the assuming company must set up the IMR liability adjustment.

The assuming company may offset a positive IMR adjustment, but not below zero, with any excess of policyholder reserves initially established by the assuming company over their re-computed values using maximum valuation interest rates based on the original issue dates of the reinsured policies.

3. The assuming company must increase a negative IMR adjustment, but not above zero, with any shortfall of policyholder reserves initially established by the assuming company over their re-computed values using maximum valuation interest rates based on the original issue dates of the reinsured policies.

To determine the offset of Item 2 or 3 above, the company would need to calculate policyholder reserves on both the reported and minimum bases as of each valuation date. In lieu of this, a reporting entity may determine the offset as of the treaty effective date, express this offset as a percentage of the IMR adjustment and then apply this same percentage reduction or increase to the IMR adjustment at all subsequent valuation dates. However, whichever method is used for the particular treaty must be consistently applied at all valuation dates.

In the case of subsequent reinsurance, the retroceding reporting entity has an IMR adjustment net of the offset of Item 2 or 3 above, whereas, the IMR transferred over is gross of this offset. The new reinsurer would determine its own adjustment following Item 2 or 3 above.

Upon recapture or commutation of a reinsurance arrangement where the effective date of the original arrangement was January 1, 1999 or later, the reinsurer must follow the IMR rules for reinsurance ceded and the original insurer (company recapturing the business) must follow the IMR rules for reinsurance assumed, as set forth above, for the portion of business recaptured. Otherwise, no IMR adjustment is made.

Upon reinsurance assumed, recaptured or commuted from an alien insurer (i.e. not subject to IMR), an IMR liability adjustment is required only where the assuming company, or any of its affiliates, ever held the business and subsequently reinsured the business effective January 1, 1999 or later, and currently holds an unamortized IMR liability adjustment for the business. In this case, the new IMR liability adjustment must be set equal to the complementary of the unamortized IMR liability adjustment(s) currently held for the business by the assuming company or by its affiliates. An affiliate may choose to hold the complementary offsetting amount if it holds the applicable unamortized IMR liability adjustment, otherwise, the complementary offsetting amount must be held by the assuming company.

Market Value Adjustments

Material gains or losses resulting from market value adjustments on policies and contracts backed by assets that are valued at book adjusted carrying value including the marginal tax impact, should be captured by the IMR and amortized in a manner consistent with the determination of the market value adjustment. A gain or loss is considered material if it is in excess of both 0.01% of liabilities and $1,000,000. The amortization schedules should be determined in a manner consistent with the determination of associated market value adjustment.

The amount recorded on Line 3 on account of reinsurance or market value adjustments should be reported on the Summary of Operations and the Analysis of Operations by Lines of Business on the Aggregate Writings for Reductions line.

Line 5 – Current Year's Amortization Released to Summary of Operations

Report the amount from the Amortization Table, Line 1, Column 4. This amount should agree with Pages 4 and 6 Line 4. This amount reflects only the current year amortization of current and prior year IMR gains and losses.

Line 6 – Reserve as of December 31, Current Year

Record any positive or allowable negative balance in the liability line captioned "Interest Maintenance Reserve" on Page 3, Line 9.4 of the General Account Statement and Line 3 of the Separate Accounts Statement. A negative IMR balance may be recorded as a negative liability in either the General Account or the Separate Accounts Statement of a company only to the extent that it is covered or offset by a positive IMR liability in the other statement.

If there is any disallowed negative IMR balance in the General Account Statement, include the change in the disallowed portion in Page 4, Line 41 so that the change will be appropriately charged or credited to the Capital and Surplus Account on Page 4. If there is any disallowed negative IMR balance in the Separate Accounts Statement, determine the change in the disallowed portion (prior year less current year disallowed portions), and make a direct charge or credit to the surplus account for the “Change in Disallowed Interest Maintenance Reserve” in the write-in line, in the Surplus Account on Page 4 of the Separate Accounts Statement.

The following information is presented to assist in determining the proper accounting:

General Account IMR Balance	Separate Account IMR Balance	Net IMR Balance
Positive	Positive	Positive (See rule a)
Negative	Negative	Negative (See rule b)
Positive	Negative	Positive (See rule c)
Positive	Negative	Negative (See rule d)
Negative	Positive	Positive (See rule e)
Negative	Positive	Negative (See rule f)

Rules:

- a. If both balances are positive, then report each as a liability in its respective statement.
- b. If both balances are negative, then no portion of the negative balances is allowable as a negative liability in either statement. Report a zero for the IMR liability in each statement, and follow the above instructions for handling disallowed negative IMR balances in each statement.
- c. If the general account balance is positive, the separate accounts balance is negative and the combined net balance is positive, then all of the negative IMR balance is allowable as a negative liability in the Separate Accounts Statement.
- d. If the general account balance is positive, the separate account balance is negative, and the combined net balance is negative, then the negative amount not covered by the positive amount is not allowable. Report only the allowable portion as a negative liability in the Separate Accounts Statement, and follow the above instructions for handling the disallowed portion of negative IMR balances in the Separate Accounts Statement.
- e. If the general account balance is negative, the separate account balance is positive, and the combined net balance is positive, then all of the negative IMR balance is allowable as a negative liability in the General Account Statement.
- f. If the general account balance is negative, the separate account balance is positive, and the combined net balance is negative, then the negative amount not covered by the positive amount is not allowable. Report only the allowable portion as a negative liability in the General Account Statement, and follow the above instructions for handling the disallowed portion of negative IMR balances in the General Account Statement.

Items Exempt from IMR Treatment

All realized interest related gains/(losses) determined on an aggregate company basis which arise from the sale of investments required to provide cash flow to meet “excess withdrawal activity” as defined below will be excluded from the IMR and will be reflected in net income.

Withdrawable Reserves

Is the reserve or liability, net of any policy loans, associated with any policy or contract that might be subject to a withdrawal or surrender, without a market value adjustment at the discretion of either the contract holder or plan participant? Withdrawable reserves include the reserves associated with such things as:

- Ordinary and industrial life insurance,
- SPDAs and
- Benefit-sensitive GICs where the associated plan allows participant withdrawals or transfers.

Effective Withdrawals

Include withdrawals and surrenders that are unscheduled and calculated without market adjustment plus the net increase in policy loans. It also includes cash transfers to separate accounts other than transfers where premium, a deposit, or consideration is booked into the general account and immediately transferred into the separate account.

Withdrawable Reserves and Effective Withdrawals are both calculated net of reinsurance.

Withdrawal Rate

Is the ratio of the Effective Withdrawals for the calendar year to the Withdrawable Reserves at the beginning of the year?

Threshold Withdrawal Level

Is 150% of the product of the lower of the Withdrawal Rate in the preceding or in the next preceding calendar year times the Withdrawable Reserves at the beginning of the year.

Excess Withdrawal Activity

Is the amount by which Effective Withdrawals for one year exceeds the Threshold Withdrawal Level.

Only those investments required to provide cash flow to meet excess withdrawal conditions should be excluded from the IMR. It is conceivable that a company might be able to identify the specific sales that are associated with the excess withdrawal activity, in which case these sales would be excluded from the IMR. Alternatively, a pro rata portion of all sales during the year equal to the amount of excess withdrawal activity would be excluded from the IMR.

Example – Suppose a company has the following Withdrawable Reserves and Effective Withdrawals:

Year	Withdrawable Reserves Beginning of Year	Effective Withdrawals
t-2	1,000	100
t	1,300	195

The Withdrawal Rate is 10% for the year t-2 and 9% for year t-1. The Threshold Withdrawal Level of year t is 150% of 1,300 times 9% or 172.5, and the Excess Withdrawal Activity is 19.5. Thus, if the company had assets sales in excess of 19.5, that portion of the assets sales not in excess of 19.5 would be identified as Excessive Withdrawal Activity and the associated capital gains and (losses) should be excluded from the IMR. If the company had asset sales of less than 19.5, all of the associated gains or (losses) should be excluded.

AMORTIZATION

This supporting schedule calculates the amount of the Interest Maintenance Reserve to be amortized in each year.

Column 1 – Reserve as of December 31, Prior Year

Enter the amount from Column 4 of the prior year's schedule.

Column 2 – Current Year's Realized Capital Gains/(Losses) Transferred into the Reserve Net of Taxes

After a realized capital gain/(loss) has been identified as interest-related and an expected maturity date has been determined, the Table 1 amortization chart or seriatim method should be used.

There are two prescribed methods for calculating this amortization schedule. A company can select either the seriatim method or the grouped method for calculating IMF amortization. Although a company is not precluded from changing methods on a prospective basis, the overriding consideration is the reasonableness of the amortization. However, once a method is selected for a particular year's capital gains, the amortization is locked in and cannot be changed (at least not without the specific approval of the commissioner).

Seriatim Method

The amount of each capital gain/(loss), net of capital gains tax, amortized in a given year using the seriatim method is the excess of the amount of income which would have been reported in that year, had the asset not been disposed of, over the amount of income which would have been reported had the asset been repurchased at its sale price. The capital gains tax associated with each gain/(loss) should be amortized in proportion to the amortization of the gain/(loss).

For mortgage-backed/asset-backed securities, use an amortization schedule developed using the anticipated future cash flows of the security, which should be consistent with the prepayment assumptions that would have been used to value the security had the security been purchased at its sale price.

Grouped Method

The seriatim calculation (i.e., on an asset by asset basis) is the desired approach. However, the seriatim approach may impose an administrative burden on some companies, therefore, any company may use the method employed by that company to amortize interest-related capital gains/(losses) among lines of business and policyholders in accordance with the investment income allocation process as approved by the state insurance department. Alternatively, a company may use a standard "simplified" method by which the capital gains/(losses), net of capital gains tax, are grouped according to the number of calendar years to expected maturity. The groupings will be in bands of five (5) calendar years, except that investments with one (1) calendar year to expected maturity will be grouped separately from those with two (2) to five (5) calendar years to expected maturity.

Expected Maturity Date

The presence of sinking fund payments, amortization schedules, expected prepayments, and adjustable interest rates complicate the determination of the number of calendar years to expected maturity. The expected maturity date is:

- For fixed income instruments with fixed contractual repayment dates and amounts (including bonds, preferred stock, callable or convertible bonds and preferred(s), the expected maturity is defined as the contractual retirement date which produces the lowest amortization value for annual statement purposes (lowest internal rate of return or “yield to worst”). Potential retirement dates include all possible call dates, and the contractual maturity date. However, when a convertible bond or convertible preferred stock is sold while its conversion value exceeds its book/adjusted carrying value and the gain is included in IMR, the expected maturity date is defined as the next conversion date. Conversion value is defined to mean the number of shares of common stock available currently or at next conversion date, multiplied by the stock’s current market price. When the instrument’s contractual terms include scheduled sinking fund payments of fixed amounts, an additional calculation of yield to average life should be included in the analysis where average life is defined as the date at which the instrument is 90% repaid. For puttable instruments, where the exercise option rests with the investor, expected maturity is the put or maturity date that produces the highest internal rate of return. For Bond Mutual Funds – as Identified by SVO, use one calendar year to expected maturity. For SVO Identified Funds designated for systematic value, the expected maturity is the weighted-average life of the underlying bonds. For perpetual instruments, the expected maturity is 30 years from the current date.

However, where a callable bond purchased at a premium is called or sold after the expected maturity date, there should be no amortization of the call premium or interest-related gain/(loss). Similarly there should be no amortization of any interest-related gain/(loss) arising if a convertible bond or preferred stock is disposed of after the expected maturity date.

Using the grouped method, capital gains/(losses) net of capital gains tax are tabulated according to the number of calendar years to expected maturity. The groupings are:

0	calendar years to expected maturity,
1	calendar year to expected maturity,
2 to 5	calendar years to expected maturity,
6 to 10	calendar years to expected maturity,
11 to 15	calendar years to expected maturity,
16 to 20	calendar years to expected maturity,
21 to 25	calendar years to expected maturity,
after 25	calendar years to expected maturity.

“Calendar years to expected maturity” means the calendar year of maturity minus the calendar year of sale date (e.g., a bond sold in 2007 that would have matured in 2012 has five calendar years to expected maturity).

For purposes of the grouped method, the following additional assumptions are applicable:

- For fixed income investments, other than residential mortgages and residential mortgage pass-throughs, without a maturity date or sinking fund schedule, a maturity date 30 years from the current year should be used.
- For mortgage-backed/asset-backed securities, use the remaining weighted average life of principal and interest payments consistent with the prepayment assumptions that would have been used to value the security had the security been repurchased at its sale price.
- For Bond Mutual Funds – as Identified by the SVO, use one calendar year to expected maturity.

NOTE: Amortization of current year gains/(losses) should be based on prior year's amortization factors until the current year's table is published. Amortization of each year's gains/(losses) for future years must be based on the amortization table applicable to that year (i.e., 2006 gains/(losses) use the 2006 table, 2007 gains/(losses) use the 2007 table, etc.). Refer to Grouped Amortization Schedule included in this section.

Column 3 – Adjustment for Current Year's Liability Gains/(Losses) Released From the Reserve

Report the negative of realized capital gains/(losses) that have been identified as associated with the sale, transfer or reinsurance of a block of liabilities in accordance with the instructions for Line 3.

ASSET VALUATION RESERVE

This exhibit and its supporting calculations are designed to address the non-interest-related (default) and equity risks of the company's assets by calculating a basic contribution, a reserve objective and a maximum reserve amount and controlling the flow of the reserve from/into surplus. These instructions cover the Asset Valuation Reserve (AVR) for both the General Account Statement and the Separate Account Statement. If an AVR is required for investments in the Separate Accounts Statement, it is combined with the General Account AVR and accounted for in the General Accounts statement. Worksheets supporting the separate accounts portion of the reserve are included with the Separate Accounts Statement. The criteria for determining when an AVR is required for separate accounts are described in the Separate Accounts AVR Worksheet instructions.

Line 1 – Reserve as of December 31, Prior Year

Enter amounts from Line 16 of the prior year's Reserve Calculation.

Line 2 – Realized Capital Gains/(Losses) Net of Taxes – General Account

Report all realized non-interest-related (default) and equity capital gains/(losses), net of capital gains tax, applicable to the assets in each component and sub-component. All realized capital gains/(losses) transferred to the AVR are net of capital gains taxes thereon. Exclude all interest rate-related capital gains/(losses) from the AVR.

Capital gains tax should be determined using the method developed by the company to allocate taxes used for statutory financial reporting purposes.

Report all realized capital gains/(losses), net of capital gains tax, on each debt security (excluding loan-backed and structured securities) whose NAIC/SVO designation at the end of the holding period is different from its NAIC/SVO designation at the beginning of the holding period by more than one NAIC/SVO designation. The holding period is defined as the period from the date of purchase to the date of sale. For end of period classification, the most recent available designation should be used. For bonds acquired before Jan. 1, 1991, the holding period is presumed to have begun on Dec. 31, 1990.

Determination of AVR gain/loss on multiple lots of the same fixed income securities should follow the underlying accounting treatment in determining gain/(loss). Thus, the designation, on a purchase lot basis, should be compared to the designation at the end of the holding period to determine IMR or AVR gain or loss.

In accordance with SSAP No. 26R—Bonds, securities with other-than-temporary impairment losses shall be recorded entirely to either AVR or IMR and not bifurcated between interest and non-interest components.

In accordance with SSAP No. 43R—Loan-Backed and Structured Securities, for loan-backed and structured securities only:

- Other-Than-Temporary Impairment – Non-interest-related other-than-temporary impairment losses shall be recorded through the AVR. If the reporting entity wrote the security down to fair value due to the intent to sell or does not have the intent and ability to retain the investment for a period of time sufficient to recover the amortized cost basis, the non-interest-related portion of the other-than-temporary impairment losses shall be recorded through the AVR; the interest related other-than-temporary impairment losses shall be recorded through the IMR. The analysis for bifurcating impairment losses between AVR and IMR shall be completed as of the date when the other-than-temporary impairment is determined.

- Security Sold at a Loss Without Prior OTTI – An entity shall bifurcate the loss into AVR and IMR portions depending on interest- and non-interest-related declines in accordance with the analysis performed as of the date of sale. As such, an entity shall report the loss in separate AVR and IMR components as appropriate.
- Security Sold at a Loss With Prior OTTI – An entity shall bifurcate the current realized loss into AVR and IMR portions depending on interest- and non-interest-related declines in accordance with the analysis performed as of the date of sale. An entity shall not adjust previous allocations to AVR and IMR that resulted from previous recognition of other-than-temporary impairments.
- Security Sold at a Gain With Prior OTTI – An entity shall bifurcate the gain into AVR and IMR portions depending on interest and non-interest factors in accordance with the analysis performed as of the date of sale. The bifurcation between AVR and IMR that occurs as of the date of sale may be different from the AVR and IMR allocation that occurred at the time of previous other-than-temporary impairments. An entity shall not adjust previous allocations to AVR and IMR that resulted from previous recognition of other-than-temporary impairments.
- Security Sold at a Gain Without Prior OTTI – An entity shall bifurcate the gain into AVR and IMR portions depending on interest and non-interest factors in accordance with the analysis performed as of the date of sale.

In addition, all gains/(losses), net of capital gains tax, on mortgage loans where:

- Interest is more than 90 days past due, or
- The loan is in the process of foreclosure, or
- The loan is in course of voluntary conveyance, or
- The terms of the loan have been restructured during the prior two years

Would be classified as on-interest-related gains/(losses).

The gain/(loss), net of capital gains tax, on any debt security (excluding loan-backed and structured securities) that has had an NAIC/SVO designation of “6” at any time during the holding period should be reported as a credit related gain/(loss).

All capital gains/(losses), net of capital gains tax, from preferred stock that had an NAIC/SVO designation of RP4, RP5 or RP6 or P4, P5 or P6 at any time during the holding period should be reported as on-interest-related gains/(losses) in the AVR.

However, for a convertible bond or preferred stock purchased while its conversion value exceeds its par value, any gain/(loss) realized from its sale before conversion must be included in the Equity Component of the AVR. Conversion Value is defined to mean the number of shares available currently or at next conversion date multiplied by the stock’s current market price.

Report all realized equity capital gains/(losses), net of capital gains tax, in the appropriate sub-components.

The following guidance pertains to instruments in Scope of SSAP No. 86—Derivatives:

- For derivative instruments used in hedging transactions, the determination of whether the capital gains/(losses) are allocable to the IMR or the AVR is based on how the underlying asset is treated. Realized gains/(losses), net of capital gains tax, on portfolio or general hedging instruments should be included with the hedged asset. Gains/(losses), net of capital gains tax, on hedges used, as specific hedges should be included only if the specific hedged asset is sold or disposed of.

- For income generation derivative transactions, the determination of whether the capital gains/(losses) are allocable to the IMR or the AVR is based on how the underlying interest (for a put) or covering asset (for a call, cap or floor) is treated. Realized gains/(losses), net of capital gains tax should be included in the same sub-component where the realized gains/(losses) of the underlying interest (for a put) or covering asset (for a call, cap or floor) is reported. Refer to SSAP No. 86—Derivatives for accounting guidance.

Realized gains/(losses), net of capital gains tax, resulting from the sale of U.S. government securities and the direct or guaranteed securities of agencies which are backed by the full faith and credit of the U.S. government are exempt from the AVR. This category is described in the Investment Schedules General Instructions.

Line 3 – Realized Capital Gains/(Losses) Net of Taxes – Separate Accounts

Report realized capital gains/(losses), net of tax that are incurred on separate accounts assets for which AVR treatment is required, on this line.

Capital gains tax should be determined using the method developed by the company to allocate taxes used for statutory financial reporting purposes.

Line 4 – Unrealized Capital Gains/(Losses) – Net of Deferred Taxes – General Account

Unrealized gains/(losses), net of deferred taxes thereon, should be summarized by sub-component asset type and included in the reserve computations. Unrealized gains/(losses) for affiliated life and fraternal insurance companies that are maintaining their own AVR are excluded since the maximum reserve factor for such companies is 0%.

Deferred taxes on the unrealized capital gains/losses included in this line should be determined consistent with the provisions of SSAP No. 101—Income Taxes.

Unrealized gains/(losses) on hedging instruments should be included in the same sub-component as the hedged investment.

Unrealized gains/(losses) on income generation derivative transactions should be included in the same sub-component as the underlying interest (for a put) or covering asset (for a call, cap or floor). Report all unrealized capital gains/(losses) on assets covered by the AVR in the appropriate sub-components.

Line 5 – Unrealized Capital Gains/(Losses) – Net of Deferred Taxes – Separate Accounts

Report unrealized capital gains/(losses) that are incurred on separate accounts assets for which AVR treatment is required, net of deferred taxes thereon, on this line.

Deferred taxes on the unrealized capital gains/losses included in this line should be determined consistent with the provisions of SSAP No. 101—Income Taxes.

Line 6 – Capital Gains Credited/(Losses Charged) to Contract Benefits, Payments or Reserves

The purpose of this line is to avoid the duplicate utilization of capital gains and losses. Include only realized capital gains and losses, net of tax thereon that, in accordance with contract terms, have been used to directly increase or decrease contract benefit payments or reserves during the reporting period. Include only unrealized capital gains and losses that, in accordance with contract terms have been used to directly increase or decrease contract benefit payments or reserves during the reporting period. Where such capital gains and losses are not directly identifiable by component or sub-component of the AVR, allocate such capital gains and losses among the various components and sub-components of the AVR on a reasonable basis.

Line 11 – 20% of (Line 10 – Line 8)

Report 20% of the difference between Line 10 and Line 8. This number will be positive when the reserve objective exceeds the accumulated balance and negative when the accumulated balance is in excess of the reserve objective.

Line 13 – Transfers

If the amount, as reported on Line 12, Balance Before Transfers, of any one of the four sub-components exceeds the maximum reserve amount for that sub-component, as reported on Line 9, Maximum Reserve, and the balance of its “sister” sub-component, as reported on Line 12, is below its maximum reserve, as reported on Line 9, the excess must be transferred to the “sister” sub-component on Line 13 (e.g., an excess on the bond sub-component must be transferred to the mortgage sub-component if the mortgage sub-component is below its maximum reserve and vice versa. An excess on the common stock sub-component must be transferred to the real estate sub-component if the real estate sub-component is below its maximum reserve and vice versa).

If the combined amount, as reported on Line 12, of the sub-components in either the Default Component or the Equity Component exceeds its respective combined maximum reserve, as reported on Line 9, the excess may be transferred between components or released to surplus on Line 15 (e.g., excess reserves in the bond sub-component that are not required to bring the mortgage sub-component to its maximum reserve, may be used to bring the common stock or real estate reserve sub-component to its maximum reserve and vice versa).

If the amount, as reported on Line 12, of any of the four sub-components is negative, and the amount, as reported on Line 12, of its "sister" sub-component within the same component is positive, the negative amount should be transferred to the "sister" sub-component to the extent that the transfer does not reduce the positive balance of the "sister" sub-component to less than 50% of its balance prior to the transfer.

No other transfers within the AVR may be made without Commissioner approval. No transfers between the AVR and IMR are allowed.

Column 7 should equal zero. The amounts in Columns 3 and 6 should offset each other for Line 13.

Line 14 – Voluntary Contribution

Report in the appropriate reserve class, any voluntary additions to the AVR for the current year. The voluntary contribution may not force any sub-component to exceed the maximum without commissioner approval.

Once reserves are allocated to an individual sub-component of the AVR they will be considered a permanent part of the reserve.

A company may also hold mortgage and real estate reserves outside the AVR, but these reserves will not have any effect on the AVR requirements.

Line 15 – Adjustment Down to Maximum/Up to Zero

Individual sub-component reserves may not exceed the maximum reserve amount reported on Line 9. They also may not be less than zero. Adjust the current reserve down or up accordingly.

Line 16 – Reserve as of December 31, Current Year

The total amount in Column 7 should agree with Page 3, Line 24.01.

The minimum reserve allowed in each sub-component is zero.

BASIC CONTRIBUTION, RESERVE OBJECTIVE AND MAXIMUM RESERVE CALCULATIONS

This supporting form is used to calculate the basic contribution, reserve objective and maximum reserve amount for the bond, preferred stock, derivative instruments and mortgage loan sub-components of the default component of the AVR. Instructions apply to the general account and the separate accounts, if applicable.

Column 5 – Basic Contribution Factor

Include: The reserve factor calculated for mortgage loans.

Column 7 – Reserve Objective Factor

These factors are set to provide an accumulation level estimated to cover, in the aggregate, about 85% of the distribution of losses for each asset category.

Include: The reserve factor calculated for mortgage loans.

Column 9 – Maximum Reserve Factor

BASIC CONTRIBUTION, RESERVE OBJECTIVE AND MAXIMUM RESERVE CALCULATIONS FOR UNRATED MULTI-CLASS SECURITIES ACQUIRED BY CONVERSION

Assets may be converted into securities backed by the underlying assets. Rated bond classes of these multi-class mortgage-backed/asset-backed securities should be assigned Asset Valuation Reserve (AVR) factors consistent with comparably rated bonds.

A company may hold an “Unrated Multi-Class Security Acquired by Conversion” defined as a security acquired through the conversion of a portion of the company’s assets, on or after January 1, 1993, into securities for which the company does not obtain a rating from an NAIC recognized rating agency and for which there is no recourse liability.

In such cases, the rating agency that rates a portion of the newly created security would establish the credit quality of the entire asset pool being securitized. The maximum reserve for the unrated security is the lesser of: (a) 100% of the maximum reserve for the entire pool associated with the unrated security as rated by an SVO approved rating agency, or (b) the book/adjusted carrying value of the unrated security. The reserve objective is equal to the maximum reserve. The basic contribution is equal to 33% of the maximum reserve.

This treatment does not occur when a reporting entity bears continuing actual or contingent liability arising from the securitization of any assets.

Any company which enters into such a transaction must prepare and include with its filed annual statement a schedule prepared in accordance with the following general guidelines to support the calculation of the reserve amounts to be reported on Page 29, Line 8.

EQUITY AND OTHER INVESTED ASSET COMPONENT – BASIC CONTRIBUTION, RESERVE OBJECTIVE AND MAXIMUM RESERVE CALCULATIONS

This supporting form is used to calculate the basic contribution, reserve objective and maximum reserve targets for the common stock, real estate and other invested assets sub-components of the equity component of the AVR. Instructions apply to the general account and to the separate accounts, if applicable.

Column 5 – Basic Contribution Factor

These factors, on average, will provide an amount that approximates expected annual losses.

Include: The reserve factor calculated for mortgage loans.

Column 7 – Reserve Objective Factor

These factors are set to provide an accumulation level estimated to cover, in the aggregate, about 85% of the distribution of losses for each asset category.

Include: The reserve factor calculated for mortgage loans.

Column 9 – Maximum Reserve Factors

These factors define the largest amount that may be accumulated in the AVR. They operate to limit the level of AVR in periods of unusual capital gains or when voluntary reserves are added to the AVR.

Include: The reserve factor calculated for mortgage loans.

Line 1 – Unaffiliated Common Stocks – Public

Report the book/adjusted carrying value of all publicly issued common stock, including mutual funds (except money market mutual funds appropriately reported on Schedule E, Part 2) in unaffiliated companies in Columns 1 and 4. Multiply Column 4 by the reserve factor calculated for Columns 5, 7 and 9, and report the product in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively.

The Line 1, Column 7 and 9 reserve factors must be at least 10% but not more than 20%.

The reserve factor is equal to 13% times the company's weighted average portfolio beta. The weighted average portfolio beta is the market value weighted average of four (4) portfolio betas, one from the end of the prior year and the remaining from the first three (3) quarters of the current year. Calculation of this weighted average portfolio beta is illustrated in the following worksheet:

Calculation of Weighted Average Portfolio Beta

	Column 1 Market Value @ Quarter End	Column 2 Portfolio Beta*	Column 3 Col 1 x Col 2
Line 1 12/31/prior year	$ _____		$ _____
Line 2 03/31/current year	_____		_____
Line 3 06/30/current year	_____		_____
Line 4 09/30/current year	_____		_____
Line 5 Total	$ _____		$ _____
Line 6 Quarterly Portfolio Beta (Line 5, Column 3 above, divided by Line 5, Column 1 above)		X.XX

* Indicate whether the Individual or Aggregate Method is used.

The portfolio beta can be calculated using two methods; the Individual Method or the Aggregate Method.

Individual Method

The portfolio beta at the end of a quarter is the market value weighted average of the betas as calculated against a broad average of the U.S. stock market (e.g., the Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index) for each individual stock in the portfolio. The beta should be a simple linear regression using 5 years of monthly time-weighted rates of return. For stock with less than 5 years of pricing history, or where no beta is available, use a beta of 1.50 in determining the portfolio beta. A company shall use an appropriate foreign index. (TSE 300 index for Canadian stock portfolios, FT ALL SHARES index for U.K. stock portfolios, and the TOPIX index for Japanese stock portfolios) to calculate beta if it has identified common stock investments that support liabilities, both of which are in the same foreign currency.

Aggregate Method

The portfolio beta at the end of a quarter is determined by a simple linear regression using 52 weeks of time-weighted rates of return for the entire unaffiliated common stock portfolio and for the Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index. For non-U.S. stock portfolios, a company shall use an appropriate foreign index (TSE 300 index for Canadian stock portfolios, FT ALL SHARES index for U.K. stock portfolios, and the TOPIX index for Japanese stock portfolios) to calculate beta if it has identified common stock investments that support liabilities, both of which are in the same foreign currency.

Companies that do not want the extra administrative complexity of calculating the beta factor may use the maximum AVR factor of 20%.

- Line 2 – Unaffiliated Common Stocks – Private

Report the book/adjusted carrying value of all privately held common stocks owned in unaffiliated companies in Columns 1 and 4. Multiply Column 4 by the reserve factor provided in Columns 5, 7 and 9 and report the products in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively.
- Line 3 – Federal Home Loan Bank Common Stock

Report the book/adjusted carrying value of all Federal Home Loan Bank common stock owned in Columns 1 and 4. Multiply Column 4 by the reserve factor provided in Columns 5, 7 and 9 and report the products in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively.
- Line 4 – Subsidiary, Controlled or Affiliated Common Stocks – Life Insurer with an AVR

Report the book/adjusted carrying value of all common stocks owned in a controlled or affiliated company or a subsidiary that is a life or fraternal insurance company that holds an AVR, in Columns 1 and 4. These companies are required to carry their own asset valuation reserve or an equivalent, and therefore the common stocks are not required to be included in the asset valuation reserve of an affiliated company.

Lines 5
through 14

– Subsidiary, Controlled or Affiliated Common Stock – Investment Subsidiaries

Report the book/adjusted carrying value of all common stocks owned in an investment subsidiary or that portion of the book/adjusted carrying value of holding company subsidiaries that represents investments in investment subsidiaries in Column 1, any related party encumbrances on these common stocks in Column 2, and any third party encumbrances on these common stocks in Column 3. If a portion of the book/adjusted carrying value of a holding company subsidiary is reflected in Column 1, the debt of that holding company subsidiary should be reflected in Columns 2 and 3. However, the total holding company debt to be reflected in Columns 2 and 3 should not exceed the aggregate book/adjusted carrying value of any investment subsidiaries on the holding company subsidiary books. (An investment subsidiary is any subsidiary, other than a holding company subsidiary, engaged or organized to engage primarily in the ownership and management of investments authorized as investments for the reporting entity. A broker-dealer or money manager firm that manages outside funds is not an investment subsidiary. This definition is intended to be identical to the investment subsidiary definition for Risk-Based Capital (RBC) purposes and will be amended if the RBC definition is changed.) Allocate the common stock value in Column 1 and the encumbrances in Columns 2 and 3 among Lines 5 through 14 based on the nature of the underlying investment held by the investment subsidiary. Follow the Securities Valuation Office guidelines and categorize these assets as if the SVO had assigned a NAIC designation of 1 through 6, R1 through P6, or RP1 through RP6. Report the sum of Columns 1, 2, and 3 in Column 4.

For Lines 5 through 11, multiply the amount in Column 4 by the appropriate bond, preferred stock, or other fixed income instrument (excluding mortgage loans) reserve factors (as listed in Columns 5, 7 and 9 of the various sections of the Equity Component schedule) and report the products in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively.

For Line 12, multiply the amount in Column 4 by the reserve factors calculated for Columns 5, 7 and 9 (see instructions for Line 1 of this schedule) and report the products in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively.

For Line 13, multiply the amount in Column 4 by the reserve factors provided in Columns 5, 7 and 9 and report the products in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively.

For Line 14, multiply the amounts included in Column 4 by the reserve factors and breakdowns used for directly owned real estate and report the products in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively.

Line 15

– Subsidiary, Controlled or Affiliated Common Stocks – Certain Other Subsidiaries

Report the book/adjusted carrying value of all subsidiary, controlled or affiliated company common stocks owned that have been valued according to the Purposes and Procedures Manual of the NAIC Investment Analysis Office in Columns 1 and 4. Line 16

– Subsidiary, Controlled or Affiliated Common Stocks – Other

Line 17

– Total Common Stocks

Column 1 should agree with Page 2, Line 2.2, Column 3 plus Schedule DL, Part 1, Column 6, Line 7799999. The Columns 6, 8 and 10 amounts, respectively, must be reported on the Asset Valuation Reserve Page, Lines 7, 10 and 9, respectively, Column 4.

Lines 18
through 20 – Real Estate

Categorize the real estate as indicated on Lines 18 through 20. Real estate reported in Schedule DL, Part 1, Line 8699999 would also be included in this section. Report the sum of Columns 1, 2 and 3 in Column 4. Multiply the amount in Column 4 by the reserve factors provided in Columns 5, 7 and 9 and report the products in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively.

NOTE: Related party encumbrances are loans from the reporting entity and the amount reflected in Column 2 should be deducted in Column 2 in the corresponding section of the AVR worksheet. If the real estate entity to which the loan was made is not wholly owned by the reporting entity, the related party encumbrance amount reflected in Column 2 should be based on the reporting entity's ownership percentage. The amount of the third party encumbrances without recourse to be reflected in Column 3 is limited to the extent that the maximum reserve (Column 6) should not exceed the sum of the book/adjusted carrying value (Column 1) plus related party encumbrances (Column 2) and third party encumbrances with recourse which are included in Column 3.

Line 21 – Total Real Estate

Follow the SVO guidelines and categorize these assets into NAIC designations on Lines 3 through 6, as directed by the NAIC Securities Valuation Office instructions, except those exempt obligations (as listed in the AVR instructions for Line 2) which should be reported separately. Multiply the amount in Column 4 for each designation by the reserve factors provided in Columns 5, 7 and 9 and report the products by designation in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively.

Include: Any investments believed by the reporting entity to fit the category of "Fixed or Variable Interest Rate Investments that Have the Underlying Characteristics of a Bond, Mortgage Loan or Other Fixed Income Instrument," or "Joint Ventures or Partnership Interests for Which the Primary Underlying Investments are Considered to Be "Fixed Income Instruments" which qualify for Filing Exemption or have been reviewed by the SVO.

Exclude: Any investments believed by the reporting entity to possess the underlying characteristics of a bond, but for which the Securities Valuation Office (SVO) has not yet affirmed that the specific BA asset (identified by CUSIP) fits in this category (as identified in the Valuation of Securities product). Until affirmed by the SVO, these investments are to be reported in Line 83 (Other Invested Assets – Schedule BA) of this schedule.

through 35

Follow the SVO guidelines and categorize these assets into classes P1 through P6 or RP1 through RP6 as directed by the NAIC Securities Valuation Office instructions. For surplus debentures and capital notes, use the Credit Rating Provider (CRP) rating to categorize these assets as if the SVO had assigned an NAIC designation of 1 through 6. ONLY those surplus debentures and capital notes with a CRP rating equivalent to an NAIC 1 or NAIC 2 designation may be included in this section (in Lines 30 and 35). Multiply the amount in Column 4 for each designation by the reserve factors provided in Columns 5, 7 and 9, and report the products by designation in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively.

Include: Any investments believed by the reporting entity to fit the category of “Fixed or Variable Interest Rate Investments that Have the Underlying Characteristics of a Bond, Mortgage Loan or Other Fixed Income Instrument,” or “Joint Ventures or Partnership Interests for Which the Primary Underlying Investments are Considered to Be Fixed Income Instruments” which qualify for Filing Exemption or have been reviewed by the SVO.

Surplus debentures and capital notes that possess a CRP rating equivalent to an NAIC 1 or NAIC 2 designation.

Exclude: Any investments believed by the reporting entity to possess the underlying characteristics of a preferred stock, but for which the Securities Valuation Office (SVO) has not yet affirmed that the specific BA asset (identified by CUSIP) fits in this category (as identified in the Valuation of Securities product). Until affirmed by the SVO, these investments are to be reported in Line 83 (Other Invested Assets – Schedule BA) of this schedule.

Categorize the mortgage loans as indicated in Lines 38 through 55.

For Lines 38 through 63, the classification methodology for mortgages is outlined in the Life Risk-Based Capital instructions. Multiply the amount in Column 4 for each category by the reserve factors in Columns 5, 7 and 9, Lines 38 through 63. Report the products by category in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively. For 2015 reporting, unaffiliated, overdue and in process of foreclosure mortgages that are insured or guaranteed should be included in Lines 47, 49, 52 or 54.

Report the book/adjusted carrying value of all Schedule BA assets owned where the characteristics of the underlying investments are similar to common stock (Lines 1599999 and 1699999) in Columns 1 and 4. Line 68 should show all Schedule BA assets owned where the characteristics of the underlying investments are similar to subsidiary, controlled or affiliated company common stocks owned and these assets should be valued according to the Purposes and Procedures Manual of the NAIC Investment Analysis Office. Categorize these assets consistent with the directions for Pages 32 and 33, Lines 1 through 4, 15 and 16. For Line 65, the reserve factor must be calculated on an individual company basis. It is equal to 13% times the beta factor as discussed in the Page 32 and 33, Line 1 instructions, and must be at least 10% but not more than 20%. Multiply the amount in Column 4 by the calculated reserve factors in Columns 5, 7 and 9 and report the products in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively. For Lines 66 through 69, multiply the amounts in Column 4 by the reserve factors provided in Columns 5, 7 and 9 and report the products in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively.

– Total Other Invested Assets with Underlying Characteristics of Real Estate

Report the book/adjusted carrying value of all Schedule BA assets owned where the characteristics of the underlying investment are similar to real estate (Lines 1799999 and 1899999 items that are not reported in AVR category of Other Invested Assets with Underlying Characteristics of Mortgage Loans) in Column 1, any related encumbrances on these assets in Column 2, and any third party encumbrances on these assets in Column 3. Report the sum of Columns 1, 2, and 3 in Column 4. Column 4 may not be less than zero. Multiply the amount in Column 4 by the reserve factors provided in Columns 5, 7 and 9 and report the products in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively.

NOTE: Related party encumbrances are loans from the reporting entity and the amount reflected in Column 2 should be deducted in Column 2 in the corresponding section of the AVR worksheet. If the real estate entity to which the loan was made is not wholly owned by the reporting entity, the related party encumbrance amount reflected in Column 2 should be based on the reporting entity's ownership percentage. The amount of the third party encumbrances without recourse to be reflected in Column 3 is limited to the extent that the maximum reserve (Column 10) should not exceed the sum of the book/adjusted carrying value (Column 1) plus related party encumbrances (Column 2) and third party encumbrances with recourse which are included in Column 3.

through 80

– Low-Income Housing Tax Credit Investments

Report Column 1 in accordance with SSAP No. 93—Low-Income Housing Tax Credit Property Investments.

For Line 75, report guaranteed low-income housing tax credit (LIHTC) investments. There must be an all-inclusive guarantee from a CRP-rated entity that guarantees the yield on the investment. Line 75 should equal Schedule BA, Part 1, Column 12, Line 3199999 + Line 3299999.

For Line 76, report non-guaranteed LIHTC investments with the following risk mitigation factors:

- I. A level of leverage below 50%. For LIHTC Fund, the level of leverage is measured at the fund level.
- II. There is a Tax Credit Guarantee Agreement from General Partner or managing member. This agreement requires the General Partner or managing member to reimburse investors for any shortfalls in tax credits due to errors of compliance, for the life of the partnership. For an LIHTC Fund, a Tax Credit Guarantee is required from the developers of the lower tier LIHTC properties to the upper tier partnership.

III. There are sufficient operating reserves, capital replacement reserves and/or operating deficit guarantees present to mitigate foreseeable foreclosure risk at the time of the investment.

Line 76 should equal Schedule BA, Part 1, Column 12, Line 3399999 + Line 3499999.

Only federal low-income housing tax credit investments can be reported on Lines 75 and 76. State low-income housing tax credit investments that meet the requirements of SSAP No. 93 and that, at a minimum, meet the requirements for federal guaranteed programs should be reported on Line 77. Line 77 should equal Schedule BA, Part 1, Column 12, Line 3599999 + Line 3699999.

State low-income housing tax credit investments that do not meet the requirements of SSAP No. 93 and that do not, at a minimum, meet the requirements for federal non-guaranteed programs should be reported on Line 78. Line 78 should equal Schedule BA, Part 1, Column 12, Line 3799999 + Line 3899999.

Any other low-income housing tax credit investments that meet the requirements of SSAP No. 93 and cannot be reported on Lines 75 through 78 should be reported on Line 79. Line 79 should equal Schedule BA, Part 1, Column 12, Line 3999999 + Line 4099999.

Multiply the amount in Column 4 for each category by the reserve factors for Page 34, Columns 5, 7 and 9, Lines 75 through 79. Report the products by category in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively.

Line 81 & 82 – Working Capital Finance Investments

Report the book/adjusted carrying value of all working capital finance investments owned (Schedule BA, Part 1, Line 4199999) in Columns 1 and 4. Categorize the working capital finance investments into NAIC designations 1 or 2 as directed by the Purposes and Procedures Manual of the NAIC Investment Analysis Office. Multiply the amount in Column 4 for each designation by the reserve factors provided in Columns 5, 7 and 9, and report the products by designation in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively.

Line 83 – Other Invested Assets – Schedule BA

Report the book/adjusted carrying value of all other Schedule BA investments owned that cannot be classified into one of the above categories (Lines 0199999, 0299999, 0399999, 0499999, 0599999, 0699999, 2199999, 2299999, 2399999, 2499999, 2999999, 3099999, 4299999 and 4399999) in Column 1 and any encumbrances on these assets in Column 3. Schedule DL, Part 1 investments reported on Line 8899999 would be included in this total if not classified in one of the above categories. Collateral loans (Lines 2599999 and 2699999) have been intentionally excluded from this total. For surplus debentures and capital notes, the amount to report in Column 1 is to be calculated based upon the accounting prescribed in SSAP No. 41—Surplus Notes. Report the sum of Columns 1 and 3 in Column 4. Column 4 may not be less than zero. Note that ALL surplus debentures and capital notes should be included here in Line 83, EXCEPT those with a CRP rating equivalent to an NAIC 1 or NAIC 2 designation (which are reported in Lines 30 and 31 of this schedule). Multiply the amount in Column 4 by the reserve factors provided in Columns 5, 7 and 9, and report the products in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively.

Include: Any investments believed by the reporting entity to fit the category of “Fixed or Variable Interest Rate Investments that Have the Underlying Characteristics of a Bond, Mortgage Loan or Other Fixed Income Instrument,” or “Joint Ventures or Partnership Interests for which the Primary Underlying Investments are considered to be Fixed Income Instruments” but which do not qualify for Filing Exemption and have not been reviewed by the SVO. In addition, include those investments that have been reviewed by the SVO and were determined to have the underlying characteristics of “Other” instruments (joint venture, partnership and LLC investments) or to be “Any Other Class of Assets”.

Exclude: All surplus debentures and capital notes that possess a CRP rating equivalent to an NAIC 1 or NAIC 2 designation. These surplus debentures are to be reported in Line 30 and 31 (Other Invested Assets with Underlying Characteristics of Preferred Stocks) of this schedule.

Line 84 – Other Short-Term Invested Assets – Schedule DA

Report the book/adjusted carrying value of all other Schedule DA (Lines 8599999 and 9099999) and Schedule DL, Part 1 (Line 8999999) assets owned that cannot be classified into one of the above categories in Column 1 and any encumbrances on these assets in Column 3. Report the sum of Columns 1 and 3 in Column 4. Multiply the amount on Column 4 by the reserve factors provided in Columns 5, 7 and 9 and report the products in Columns 6, 8 and 10, respectively.

Line 86 – Total Other Invested Assets – Schedules BA & DA

The Columns 6, 8 and 10 amounts must be combined with Columns 6, 8 and 10, Line 81 amounts and reported on the Asset Valuation Reserve Page, Column 5, Lines 7, 10 and 9, respectively.

NOTE: Other invested asset reserves will be calculated based on the nature of the underlying investments related to the Schedule BA and Schedule DA assets. Assets should be categorized as if the company owned the underlying investment. For example:

- Mortgage participation certificates and similar holdings should be classified as fixed income assets.
- Gas and oil production and mineral rights have potential variability of return and should be categorized as equity investments.
- Partnership investments should be classified as fixed or equity investments or as equity real estate, depending on the purpose of the partnership. The maximum AVR factor would be that appropriate for the asset classification.
- A “look through” approach should be taken for any Schedule BA and Schedule DA assets not specifically listed, so as to reflect in the AVR calculation the essential nature of the investments.

REPLICATION (SYNTHETIC) ASSETS –
BASIC CONTRIBUTION, RESERVE OBJECTIVE AND MAXIMUM RESERVE CALCULATIONS

This worksheet should contain a line for each replicated (synthetic) asset and each cash instrument component of all replication (synthetic asset) transactions undertaken by the reporting entity. The assets should be sorted first by RSAT number, next by type (replicated assets first then cash instruments) and finally by CUSIP.

Column 1 – RSAT Number

The RSAT number for each transaction should be that used in Schedule DB, Part C, Section 1.

Column 2 – Type

Enter:

“R” For replicated asset, if the line describes one of the replicated (synthetic) assets,

“CW” For cash instrument with credit, if the line describes one of the cash instruments constituting the transaction and the transaction either:

(1) Is a swap of prospectively determined interest rates or

(2) Eliminates the asset risk associated with the cash instrument

“CN” For cash instrument with no credit, if the line describes one of the cash instruments constituting the transaction and the transaction does not eliminate the reporting entity’s exposure to the asset risk associated with the instrument.

Column 3 – CUSIP

Show the CUSIP for all cash instruments that are securities.

Column 4 – Description of Asset(s)

Give the description of the replicated (synthetic) asset(s) of cash instruments as found on Schedule DB, Part C, Section 1.

Column 5 – NAIC Designation or Other Description of Asset

Give the NAIC designation or other description that will best identify the Asset Valuation Reserve class of the asset as contained in Columns 3 or 14 of Schedule DB, Part C, Section 1.

Column 6 – Value of Asset

Give the book/adjusted carrying value of the asset as contained in Columns 5 or 15 of Schedule DB, Part C, Section 1.

Column 7 – AVR Basic Contribution

For replicated (synthetic) assets, multiply the Basic Contribution Factor appropriate to the asset class of the replicated (synthetic) asset times the book/adjusted carrying value contained in Column 6. For cash instrument components that qualify for a credit (see instructions for column 2), the amount contained in the column is the product of a. The Basic Contribution Factor appropriate to the asset class of the cash instrument, but not higher than the average Basic Contribution Factor for the replicated (synthetic) asset(s), times

b. The book/adjusted carrying value contained in Column 6, times

c. -1.

For other cash instrument components this column should contain 0.

Column 8 – AVR Reserve Objective

For replicated (synthetic) assets, multiply the Reserve Objective Factor appropriate to the asset class of the replicated (synthetic) asset times the book/adjusted carrying value contained in Column 6. For cash instrument components that qualify for a credit, the amount contained in this column is the product of

- a. The Reserve Objective Factor appropriate to the asset class of the cash instrument, but not higher than the average Reserve Objective Factor for the replicated (synthetic) asset(s), times,
- b. The book/adjusted carrying value contained in Column 6, times,
- c. -1.

For other cash instrument components this column should contain 0.

Column 9 – AVR Maximum Reserve

For replicated (synthetic) assets, multiply the Maximum Reserve Factor appropriate to the asset class of the replicated (synthetic) asset times the book/adjusted carrying value contained in Column 6. For cash instrument components that qualify for a credit, the amount in this column is the product of

- a. The Maximum Reserve Factor appropriate to the asset class of the cash instrument, but not higher than the average Maximum Reserve Factor for the replicated (synthetic) asset(s), times,
- b. The book/adjusted carrying value contained in Column 6, times,
- c. -1.

For other cash instrument components this column should contain 0.

Determine the appropriate asset valuation Reserve sub-component for each line based on the classification contained in Column 5 and show the subtotals for each sub-component on Lines 0199999, 0299999, 0399999, and 0499999.

AVR treatment for Separate Accounts

Whether or not an AVR is required for separate account assets depends primarily on whether the reporting entity or policyholder/contract holder suffers the loss in the event of asset default or market value loss. An important exception to this is when specific state regulation provides an alternative to the AVR. (See the chart on the last page of instructions for this schedule.)

An AVR is required for separate account investments unless:

1. The asset default or market value risk is essentially borne directly by the policyholders, or
2. The regulatory authority for such separate accounts already explicitly provides for establishment of a reserve for asset default risk where such reserves are essentially equivalent to the AVR.

For example, assets supporting traditional variable annuities and variable life insurance do not require AVR because the policyholders/contract holders bear the risk of change in the value of assets. However, an AVR is required for that portion representing the company's equity interest in the investments of such a separate account, (seed money interest, for example). Assets supporting typical modified guaranteed contracts or market value adjusted contracts do require AVR because the company is responsible for credit-related asset loss. Another category of contracts requiring AVR is contracts with book value guarantees similar to contracts generally found in the general account.

Examples of the exception referred to in (2) above are contracts with market value separate accounts funding guaranteed benefits where state regulation provides alternatives to the AVR.

An AVR supporting the separate accounts assets must be combined with the General Account AVR. Default and Equity Component worksheets have been added and must be included in the Separate Accounts Statement.

The AVR's contributions and maximum values are based on book/adjusted carrying values. After completion of the calculation for Separate Accounts Default and Equity Components, the basic contribution, reserve objective and maximum reserve amounts reported on Page 29, Lines 7, 10 and 9 should be the sum of the total calculated on Pages 30, 31, 32 and 35 (General Account) and Pages 15, 16, 17 and 20 (Separate Account) as follows:

Where the AVR Default Component supports assets valued at market, gains or (losses), net of capital gains tax, charges to the AVR are determined using one of the following two methods (applied consistently by separate account):

1. A gain/(loss) is recorded as for the general account rules, i.e., upon sale of an asset that has changed more than one designation category or upon asset default. Once an asset is in default, all subsequent market value changes are reflected in the AVR, or
2. A similar procedure to Method 1 above is followed but, additionally, a gain/(loss) is recorded whenever an asset held changes by more than one designation category. As there might be more than one such event for a particular asset, e.g., a two designation downgrade followed by subsequent sale of the asset, the amount charged the AVR is net of any prior amounts charged for that asset.

 Claims resisted and not settled or dismissed by a competent court at the end of the statement year should be carried forward to the next year.
- Column 5 – Amount Claimed
 The amount claimed (not the amount paid) on resisted claims that have been settled during the current year.

SCHEDULE H

ACCIDENT AND HEALTH EXHIBIT

“Appropriately” where used in the Instructions for Schedule H, means the appropriate accident and health portions of referenced data. Reconciliation with figures drawn from other parts of the statement may only be possible with respect to Group Accident and Health (Column 3), Credit (Group and Individual) Accident and Health (Column 5) and Other Accident and Health (the combination of Columns 7 through 17), and, in some cases, may only be possible with respect to Total Accident and Health (Column 1) of Schedule H – Accident and Health Exhibit.

All amounts reportable in Parts 1 through 3 are net of reinsurance ceded, i.e., reinsurance assumed should be included, reinsurance ceded should be deducted, and net figures entered in the statement. Part 4, “Reinsurance,” displays the reinsurance assumed and ceded components.

Column 5 – Credit Accident and Health (Group and Individual)

Include: Business not exceeding 120 months duration.

Column 7 – Collectively Renewable

A sponsored plan does not include any arrangement where a reporting entity's customary individual policies are made available without special underwriting consideration, and where the employer's participation is limited to arranging for salary allotment premium payments with or without contribution by the employer. Such plans are sometimes referred to as payroll budget or salary allotment plans. A sponsored plan may be administered by an agent or trustee.

Amounts pertaining to policies issued by a company or group of companies under a plan, other than a group insurance plan, authorized by special legislation for the exclusive benefit of the aged through mass enrollment.

Amounts pertaining to policies issued under mass enrollment procedures to older people, such as those age 65 and over, in some geographic region or regions under which the reporting entity has agreed with respect to such policies that renewal will not be refused unless the reporting entity simultaneously refuses renewal to all other policies specified in the agreement.

Column 9 – Non-cancelable

Include: Amounts pertaining to policies that are guaranteed renewable for life or to a specified age, such as 60 or 65, at guaranteed premium rates.

Column 11 – Guaranteed Renewable

Column 13 – Non-renewable for Stated Reasons Only

- Line 1 – Additional Reserves
Refer to SSAP No. 5 R—Individual and Group Accident and Health Contracts for accounting guidance.
Include: Premium deficiency reserve.
Companies must carry a reserve in this line for any policy or block of policies:
(i) With which level premiums are used, or
(ii) With respect to which, due to the gross premium structure at issue, the value of future benefits exceeds the value of appropriate future valuation net premiums.
Companies must carry a reserve for any block of contracts for which future gross premiums when reduced by expenses for administration, commissions, and taxes will be insufficient to cover future claims or services.
- Line 2 – Reserve for Future Contingent Benefits
Companies must carry a reserve on this line that provides for the extension of benefits after termination of the policy or of any insurance thereunder. Such benefits, that actually accrue and are payable at some future date, are predicated on a condition or actual disability that exists at the termination of the insurance and that is usually not known to the insurance company. These benefits are normally provided by contract provision but may be payable because of court decisions or of departmental rulings.

An example of the type of benefit for which a reserve must be carried is the coverage for hospital confinement after the termination of an employee's certificate but prior to the expiration of a stated period. This example is illustrative only and is not intended to limit the reserve to the benefits described. Some individual Accident and Health policies may also provide benefits similar to those under the "Extension of Benefits" section of a group policy.

SCHEDULE S – REINSURANCE

These parts (except Part 1, which shows reinsurance assumed) provide an analysis by reinsurance carrier of reinsurance ceded data shown in total in various parts of the statement. Information is included on all reinsurance ceded to other entities authorized as well as unauthorized or certified in the state of domicile of the reporting entity. Additional data for unauthorized companies is displayed in Part 4; additional data for certified reinsurers is displayed in Part 5.

NOTE: Certified reinsurer status applies on a prospective basis, and is determined by the state of domicile of the ceding insurer. As such, it is possible that a ceding insurer will report reinsurance balances applicable to a single assuming insurer under multiple classifications within Schedule S. For example, with respect to a certified reinsurer that was considered unauthorized prior to certification, balances attributable to contracts entered into prior to the assuming insurer's certification would be reported in the unauthorized classification, while balances attributable to contracts entered into or renewed on or after the assuming insurer's certification would be reported in the certified classification. Proper classification of such balances is essential to ensure accurate reporting of collateral requirements applicable to specific balances and the corresponding calculation of the liability for unauthorized and/or certified reinsurance.

Effective date as used in this schedule is the date the contract originally went into effect.

Where name of company is specified, show the full corporate name of the company to which reinsurance is ceded.

The reinsurance type should be entered in all capital letters, and all reinsurance types must be followed by /G (for Group) or /I (for Individual).

Illustration for reporting MODCO activity

From time to time, an entity that assumes the risk on a block of business may cede that same block to another entity. This type of transaction is often called a "retrocession." The following example illustrates the reporting. Entity A enters into a modified coinsurance arrangement with Entity B for new individual life insurance policies. At year-end the "modco" reserves held by Entity A totaled $1,000. Concurrent with the agreement, Entity B enters into a similar arrangement with Entity C covering the same block of business. Entity A would list Entity B on Schedule S, Part 3 Section 1 with a type code of MCO/I and report $1,000 in Column 14 along with the other relevant information. Entity B would list Entity A in Schedule S, Part 1 Section 1, with a type code of MCO/I and report $1,000 in Column 8 and 11 along with the other relevant information. Entity B would also list Entity C in Schedule S, Part 3 Section 1, reporting $1,000 in Column 14 along with the other relevant information. Entity C would list Entity B in Schedule S, Part 1, Section 1, reporting $1,000 in Column 8 and 11 along with the other relevant information.

ID Number

Most parts of Schedule S require that the “ID Number” be reported for assuming or ceding entities.

Reinsurance intermediaries should not be listed, because Schedule S is intended to identify the risk-bearing entities.

Use of Federal Employer Identification Number

The Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN) must be reported for each U.S.-domiciled insurer and U.S. branch of an alien insurer. The FEIN should not be reported as the “ID Number” for other alien insurers even if the federal government has issued such a number.

Alien Insurer Identification Number (AIIN)

In order to report transactions involving alien companies correctly, the appropriate Alien Insurer Identification Number (AIIN) must be included on Schedule S instead of the FEIN. The AIIN number is assigned by the NAIC and is listed in the NAIC Listing of Companies. If an alien company does not appear in that publication, contact the NAIC Financial Systems and Services Department, Company Demographics Analyst at FDRCCREQ@NAIC.ORG for numbers assigned since the last publication or for information on having a number assigned.

Newly assigned numbers are incorporated in revised editions of the NAIC Listing of Companies, which are available semi-annually. The NAIC also provides this information to annual statement software vendors for incorporation into the software.

Pool and Association Numbers

In order to report transactions involving non-risk bearing pools or associations consisting of nonaffiliated companies correctly, the company must include on Schedule S the appropriate Pool/Association Identification Number. These numbers are listed in the NAIC Listing of Companies. The Pool/Association Identification Number should be used instead of any FEIN that may have been assigned. If a pool or association does not appear in that publication, contact the NAIC Financial Systems and Services Department, Company Demographics Analyst at FDRCCREQ@NAIC.ORG for numbers assigned since the last publication or for information on having a number assigned.

Newly assigned numbers are incorporated in revised editions of the NAIC Listing of Companies, which are available semi-annually. The NAIC also provides this information to annual statement software vendors for incorporation into the software.

Certified Reinsurer Identification Number (CRIN)

In order to report transactions involving certified reinsurers correctly, the appropriate Certified Reinsurer Identification Number (CRIN) must be included on Schedule S instead of the FEIN or Alien Insurer Identification Number (AIIN). The CRIN is assigned by the NAIC and is listed in the NAIC Listing of Companies. If a certified reinsurer does not appear in that publication, contact the NAIC Financial Systems and Services Department, Company Demographics Analyst at FDRCCREQ@NAIC.ORG for numbers assigned since the last publication or for information on having a number assigned.

Newly assigned numbers are incorporated in revised editions of the NAIC Listing of Companies, which are available semi-annually. The NAIC also provides this information to annual statement software vendors for incorporation into the software.

NAIC Company Code

Company codes are assigned by the NAIC and are listed in the NAIC Listing of Companies. The NAIC does not assign a company code to insurers domiciled outside of the U.S. or to non-risk bearing pools or associations. The “NAIC Company Code” field should be zero-filled for those organizations. Non-risk bearing pools or associations are assigned a Pool/Association Identification Number. See the “Pool and Association Numbers” section above for details on assignment of Pool/Association Identification Numbers. Risk-bearing pools or associations are assigned a company code. If a reinsurer or reinsured has merged with another entity, report the company code of the surviving entity.

If a risk-bearing entity (e.g., risk-bearing pools or associations) does not appear in the NAIC Listing of Companies, contact the NAIC Financial Systems and Services Department, Company Demographics Analyst at FDRCCREQ@NAIC.ORG for numbers assigned since the last publication or for information on having a number assigned. Newly assigned company codes are incorporated in revised editions of the NAIC Listing of Companies, which are available semi-annually. The NAIC provides this information to annual statement software vendors for incorporation into the software.

Domiciliary Jurisdiction

In those parts of Schedule S requiring disclosure of the “Domiciliary Jurisdiction,” for each domestic reinsurer or U.S. branch listed, the column should be completed with the state where the reinsurer maintains its statutory home office. For pools and associations, enter the state where the administrative office of such pool or association is located. For alien reinsurers, this column should be completed with the country where the alien is domiciled. Enter the two-character U.S. postal code abbreviation for the domiciliary jurisdiction for U.S. states, territories and possessions. A comprehensive listing of three-character (ISO Alpha 3) abbreviations for foreign countries is available in the appendix of these instructions.

Lloyd’s of London

The following procedure will apply as respects annual statement filings for 1995 and subsequent years:

Cessions to Lloyd’s under reinsurance agreements having an inception date on or before July 31, 1995, and which are not amended or renewed hereafter should continue to be reported using the collective Lloyd’s number, AA-1122000, on an aggregated basis, under “Authorized – Other Non-U.S. Insurers.” As respects continuous reinsurance agreements, the anniversary date shall be deemed to be the renewal date of the agreement. Any revision of terms and conditions shall be deemed to be an amendment of the reinsurance agreement.

Cessions to Lloyd’s under reinsurance agreements having an inception, amendment or renewal date on or after August 1, 1995, must be reported using the specific number of each subscribing syndicate, as listed in the alien section of the NAIC Listing of Companies. Such syndicates should be listed individually, under “Authorized – Other Non-U.S. Insurers.”

Syndicates for which an identification number does not appear in the NAIC Listing of Companies must be treated as unauthorized as respects cessions under reinsurance agreements having an inception, amendment or renewal date on or after August 1, 1995, and should be reported, on an aggregated basis, under “Unauthorized – Other Non-U.S. Insurers,” using a new collective number, AA-1123000.

Reinsurance assumed from syndicates at Lloyd’s should continue to be reported on Schedule S, Part 1 using the original collective Lloyd’s number, AA-1122000.

Dates

All dates reported in Schedule S must be in the format MM/DD/YYYY. For example, the date December 13, 2011 should be reported as 12/13/2011.

Determination of Authorized Status

The determination of the authorized, unauthorized or certified status of an insurer or reinsurer listed in any part of Schedule S shall be based on the status of that insurer or reinsurer in the reporting entity's state of domicile.

Captive Affiliate Line Category

For the purpose of reporting a reinsurer as captive affiliate on Schedule S, the captive affiliate line categories shall include affiliated non-traditional insurers/reinsurers.

Definition of Affiliated Non-Traditional Insurer/Reinsurer

This disclosure is intended to capture cessions to affiliated insurance/reinsurance entities that are subject to a financial solvency regulatory system separate from that generally applicable to traditional insurers and/or reinsurers in the ceding entity's domestic jurisdiction. The definition of "Affiliate" is established in the NAIC Model Holding Company Act. An affiliated non-traditional insurer/reinsurer is an insurance or reinsurance company that reinsures risks only from its parent or affiliates, and is subject to a financial solvency regulatory system separate from that generally applicable to traditional insurers and/or reinsurers in the ceding entity's domestic jurisdiction. For the purpose of annual statement reporting, this definition shall be presumed to include the following, subject to the cedant's rebuttal to its domicile:

1. An affiliated insurance or reinsurance company licensed, authorized or otherwise granted the authority to operate in a single United States jurisdiction under any captive insurer law, special purpose insurer law, or other similar law separate from those applicable to traditional insurers and/or reinsurers.
2. An affiliated insurance or reinsurance company licensed, authorized or otherwise granted the authority to operate in any jurisdiction outside the United States under any captive insurer law, special purpose insurer law, or other similar law separate from those applicable to traditional insurers and/or reinsurers in that non-United States jurisdiction.
3. Any other affiliated insurance or reinsurance company that by law, regulation, or order, or contract is authorized to insure or reinsure only risks from its parent or affiliate.

SCHEDULE S – PART 5

REINSURANCE CEDED TO CERTIFIED REINSURERS

NOTE: This schedule is to be completed by those reporting entities whose domiciliary state has enacted the Credit for Reinsurance Model Law (#785) and/or Credit for Reinsurance Model Regulation (#786) with the defined certified reinsurer provisions.

Contains data on life and accident and health insurance in force that is reinsured with companies that have been certified in the state of domicile of the reporting insurance company. The purpose of this schedule is to display reinsurance ceded data used in the development of the liability for reinsurance with certified reinsurers. This liability serves to offset those assets and liability reductions that reflect the result of reinsurance ceded with certified reinsurers that is not properly collateralized in accordance with the rating assigned to the certified reinsurer by the commissioner of the reporting company's state of domicile.

A reporting entity should refer to information published by its domestic state with respect to rating and collateral requirements applicable to a certified reinsurer. Ratings may vary from state to state; however, the rating assigned by the ceding insurer's domestic state is authoritative.

NOTE: Rating upgrades apply on a prospective basis only; i.e., the lower collateral level associated with the upgrade applies only to reinsurance contracts entered into or renewed on or after the date of the upgrade. Rating downgrades apply to all reinsurance contracts entered into or renewed under certified status. As such, it is possible that a reporting entity might have multiple contracts with a single certified reinsurer under different rating/collateral requirements, and should report the amounts attributable to the contracts separately based on the rating/collateral requirements applicable to such balances.

NOTE: Section 8B(8)(d) of Model #786 allows a ceding insurer a three-month grace period for obtaining additional collateral, in the event that a certified reinsurer's rating is downgraded or its certification is revoked, before incurring a provision for reinsurance based on the additional collateral requirement. When the reporting date falls within such three-month grace period, with respect to each certified reinsurer, the ceding insurer may report collateral required and calculate the provision for reinsurance applicable to collateral deficiency based on the certified reinsurer's rating prior to the downgrade or revocation, unless otherwise instructed by the state of domicile.

NOTE: This schedule includes Exhibit 7 cessions.

Securities held on deposit or held in a trust account should be valued at their fair market value. NAIC-published market values must be used when available.

Letters of credit and trust agreements are not to be included in assets or liabilities on Pages 2 or 3 or supporting pages and exhibits.

If a reporting entity has any detail lines reported for any of the following required groups, categories or subcategories, it shall report the subtotal amount of the corresponding group, category or subcategory, with the specified subtotal line number appearing in the same manner and location as the pre-printed total line and number.

TO IDENTIFY NET CREDIT FOR CEDED REINSURANCE

Column 1 – As Reported (Net of Ceded)

Complete data consistent with the data reported for the current year on Page 2, Column 3 and Page 3 of the annual statement.

Column 2 – Restatement Adjustments

Enter adjustments to remove the financial statement impact of the ceded reinsurance amounts from those assets and liabilities in which they are incorporated and to place all of the net balance sheet impact in a single “Net Credit for Ceded Reinsurance” asset. In most instances, the adjustment will increase the asset or liability item for the amount of ceded reinsurance that has been deducted from that item. Two notable exceptions are the reinsurance ceded asset(s), (Page 2, Lines 16.1 through 16.3, Column 3) and the Liability for Reinsurance in Unauthorized Companies (Page 3, Line 24.02) where the adjustment moves the item to the (Net Credit for Ceded Reinsurance) asset and zeros out the original item. Total Capital and Surplus of the company should remain unchanged by the restatement adjustments.

SCHEDULE T – PREMIUMS AND ANNUITY CONSIDERATIONS

ALLOCATED BY STATES AND TERRITORIES

This schedule is intended to exhibit the amount of premium and annuity considerations, and deposit-type contracts allocated to each state. For Life Companies only, this Schedule also provides: (a) the starting point for the calculation of state premium taxes, and (b) the starting point for the calculation of premium-based, state guaranty association assessments. (The basis for such assessments is developed in the Life, Health & Annuity Guaranty Association Model Act Assessment Base Reconciliation Exhibit, not in Schedule T.) See the instructions to the Life, Health & Annuity Guaranty Association Model Act Assessment Base Reconciliation Exhibit and Adjustments to the Life, Health, & Annuity Guaranty Association Model Act Assessment Base Reconciliation Exhibit for allocated and unallocated annuities reported in Columns 6, 7, and 8.

Report premiums and annuity considerations for life and health contracts and deposit-type contracts for direct business. Exclude contract proceeds left with the reporting entity, such as amounts for supplemental contracts, dividend or refund accumulations and other similar items. Dividends or refunds on contracts that are used to pay renewal life and accident and health insurance premiums or annuity considerations should be included in the amounts allocated to the states and territories in Columns 2, 3, 4 and 5.

Refer to SSAP No. 50—Classifications of Insurance or Managed Care Contracts, for life, accident and health and deposit-type contract definitions, SSAP No. 51R—Life Contracts and SSAP No. 52—Deposit-Type Contracts for accounting guidance.

- R – Registered (Non-domiciled Risk Retention Groups)
- E – Eligible (Reporting Entities eligible or approved to write Surplus Lines in the state. In some states referred to as nonadmitted.)

Include: All Medicare Part D Prescription Drug Coverage, whether sold on a stand-alone basis or through a Medicare Advantage product and whether sold directly to an individual or through a group.

Column 4 should balance with either Exhibit 1, Part 1, Lines 6.4, 10.4, 16.4, Columns 8, 9 and 10 or Schedule H, Part 1, Line 1, Column 1.

Column 5 – Other Considerations

Column 8 – Branch Operations Indicator

If the premium in the jurisdiction represents both branch operations and other direct business (e.g., the policyholder or group member residence changed to that jurisdiction), then indicate “B.” If there are no branch operations in the jurisdiction, then leave blank. The definition of “branch operations” is the definition used by the reporting entity’s state of domicile.

Definitions for the following section Lines 1 – 58 Allocation by state/jurisdiction.

Resident

A member who occupies a dwelling within a state with indications that the state is their primary domicile by payment of taxes, voting registration, and other indicators.

Residence

The domicile location of a member as shown by his or her determination as a resident. In the context of Schedule T, the residence of the policyowner or group member would equate to the location that the member uses for official documents; information maintained by an employer as the home address of the employee would be accepted as a member’s residence for allocation purposes.

Situs of the Contract

The jurisdiction in which the contract is issued or delivered as stated in the contract.

Rule of 500

For individual and group life insurance shall be defined as a premium allocation method for group policies that 1) permits a reporting entity to allocate premiums and other considerations from a group policy covering fewer than 500 members to the state or territory in which the majority of covered members reside or to the situs of the contract; 2) requires a reporting entity to allocate premiums and other considerations from a non-employer group policy covering 500 or more members to the state or territory where each member resides; and 3) requires a reporting entity to allocate premiums and other considerations from an employer group policy covering 500 or more members to the state or territory where each member resides or is employed.

For individual and group health insurance shall be defined as a premium allocation method for group policies that 1) permits a reporting entity to allocate premiums and other considerations from a non-employer group policy covering fewer than 500 members to the jurisdiction in which the majority of covered members reside or to the situs of the contract; 2) permits a reporting entity to allocate premiums and other considerations from an employer group policy covering fewer than 500 members to the jurisdiction in which the majority of covered members reside or are employed or to the situs of the contract; 3) requires a reporting entity to allocate premiums and other considerations from a non-employer group policy covering 500 or more members to the jurisdiction where each member resides; and 4) requires a reporting entity to allocate premiums and other considerations from an employer group policy covering 500 or more members to the jurisdiction where each member resides or is employed.

Members

A person, employee, retiree, etc., that qualifies for and is covered under a group insurance policy. No consideration should be given to a member's dependents for counting the number of members in a group or in allocating premium and other considerations to the various state and territories.

Lines 1 – 58 Allocation by states and territories for individual and group life insurance

The instructions are minimum allocation standards. More detailed methods of allocation are acceptable, as long as they still encompass the minimum allocation instructions. Methods of allocation that better reflect the actual risk location by state are encouraged.

For individual policies, allocate and report premium and other considerations to a state or territory based on the residence of the policyowner, insured or payer. Use of policyowner, insured or payer residence should be established by company policy and must be consistently applied to all individual policies and reporting periods.

For group policies not provided by an employer, allocate and report premium and other considerations to a state or territory based on the residence of each group member. A group policy covering less than 500 members may allocate all group premiums to the state or territory where the greatest number of members reside or to the situs of the contract (Rule of 500).

For group policies provided by an employer, allocate and report premium and other considerations based on the residence or the employment location of each covered group member. For group insurance provided by an employer covering fewer than 500 members, the premium may be allocated to one state or territory based on the residence or employment location of the greatest number of covered member or to the situs of the contract (Rule of 500).

For group insurance sold through associations or trusts, allocate and report premium and other considerations on a basis similar to group policies. Apply the Rule of 500 to the association or trust policy first. An association or trust policy covering fewer than 500 members may allocate all premiums to the state or territory where the greatest number of members reside or work or to the situs of the contract. Regardless of the number of groups or employers under the association or trust policy, if the association or trust policy has more than 500 covered members, apply the Rule of 500 at the level of each group and employer in determining the allocation of the premium. The determination of state and territory allocation by group or employer should be added to the determination of state and territory allocation of each group or employer under the association or trust policy to come up with the total allocation of premium. Do not report all association or trust business in one state or territory unless all covered members of the association or trust reside in one state, in fact or by operation of the Rule of 500. If the group is a collection of employers, do not report all premiums in one state or territory unless all of the covered employees reside or work in one state, in fact or by operation of the Rule of 500.

Example of an association policy that covers a group of employers: If the association policy covers more than 500 members, each employer would be reviewed to determine if coverage is provided through the association policy for more than 500 members. If an employer has fewer than 500 covered members, the premium for that employer may be reported in one state or territory based on the residence or work location of the most employees or to the situs of the contract. If an employer covers more than 500 members through the association policy, the premium would be reported based on the residence or employment location of each member. The determination for each employer would be added to the determinations for all the other employers that provide coverage to employees through the association policy.

Reporting entities must have procedures to capture and maintain changes in a member's residence and/or employment location and/or policyowner location when notified through renewals or other procedures and must use the change to allocate premium and other considerations. It is not necessary to anticipate unreported changes in allocation at any specific reporting date.

For all group policies, the premium and other considerations associated with a member should be the basis of determining the amount of premium to report in a jurisdiction. If information is not available to associate a specific premium to each member, an allocation can be made based on the number of covered persons in a state or territory compared to the total number of the group's covered members and apply that ratio to the total group premium and other considerations.

Lines 1 – 58 Allocation by jurisdictions for individual and group health insurance

The instructions are minimum allocation standards. More detailed methods of allocation are acceptable, as long as they still encompass the minimum allocation instructions. Methods of allocation that better reflect the actual risk location by jurisdiction are encouraged. The method should be established by company policy and must be consistently applied to all policies within each type and for all reporting periods.

For individual policies, allocate and report premium and other considerations to the jurisdiction based on the residence of the policyowner, insured or payer or on the situs of the contract.

For group policies not provided by an employer, allocate and report premiums and other considerations to the jurisdiction based on the Rule of 500, or on the situs of the contract.

For group policies provided by an employer, allocate and report premiums and other considerations to the jurisdiction based on the Rule of 500, location of employer or on the situs of the contract.

If using the Rule of 500 for group insurance sold through an association or trust, the following instructions apply:

Apply the Rule of 500 to the association or trust policy first. If the association or trust policy has more than 500 covered members, apply the Rule of 500 at the level of each group or employer in determining the allocation of the premium. The determination of jurisdiction allocation by group or employer should be added to the determination of jurisdiction allocation of each group or employer under the association or trust policy to come up with the total allocation of premium. Do not report all association or trust business in one state unless all covered members of the association or trust reside in one state, in fact or by operation of the Rule of 500. If the group is a collection of employers, do not report all premiums in one jurisdiction unless all of the covered employees reside or work in one state, in fact or by operation of the Rule of 500.

Example of an association policy that covers a group of employers: If the association policy covers more than 500 members, each employer would be reviewed to determine if coverage is provided through the association policy for more than 500 members. If an employer has less than 500 covered members, the premium for that employer may be reported in one state based on the Rule of 500. If an employer covers more than 500 members through the association policy, the premiums would be reported based on the residence or employment location of each member. The determination for each employer would be added to the determinations for all the other employers that provide coverage to employees through the association policy.

Where applicable, reporting entities must have procedures to capture and maintain changes in allocation when notified through renewals or other procedures and must use the changes to adjust the allocation of premiums and other considerations in subsequent financial statements. It is not necessary to anticipate unreported changes in allocation at any specific reporting date.

If allocating premiums to multiple jurisdictions under group policies, the premiums and other considerations associated with a member should be the basis of determining the amount of premium to report in a jurisdiction. If information is not available to associate a specific premium to each member, an allocation can be made based on the number of covered persons in a jurisdiction compared to the total number of the group's covered members and apply that ratio to the total group premiums and other considerations.

The allocation method established by the reporting entity in compliance with these instructions and the instructions of the domiciliary state should be consistently applied to all policies and reporting periods.

The data reported in Schedule T of the annual statement may or may not be used for the calculation of the amount of premium tax due to a state/jurisdiction. Individual states/jurisdictions may require a separate schedule to support premium tax calculations.

NOTE: Existing state laws and regulations need to be considered when applying these instructions.

Dividends or refunds and benefit payments, initially left on deposit to accumulate at interest, but later used to provide paid-up additions or annuities or to shorten endowment or premium-paying period, should not be included here, but should be included in Columns 2 and 3 and distributed by states for those states which allowed the dividends or refunds to be deducted in calculating premium taxes. For other states, separate totals similar to those for dividends or refunds so applied may be shown.

The sum of Columns 2 and 3 should agree with Exhibit 1, Lines 6.4 plus 10.4 plus row 1, Column 1 less Columns 8, 9, 10 and 11.

Details of Write-ins Aggregated on Line 58 for Other Alien

List separately each alien jurisdiction for which there is no pre-printed line on Schedule T.

If the premium from an alien jurisdiction is due to relocation of current policyholders, the amount may be aggregated and reported as “Other Alien.” Premiums from jurisdictions in which there is active writing must be reported by jurisdiction and include premium from repeated policyholders residing in the respective jurisdiction.

Identify each alien jurisdiction by using a three-character (ISO Alpha 3) country code followed by the name of the country (e.g., DEU Germany). For premium that can be aggregated and reported as “Other Alien” as stated in the previous paragraph use “ZZZ” for the country code and “Other Alien” for the country name. A comprehensive list of country codes is available in the appendix of these instructions.

Include summary of remaining write-ins for Line 58 from the Overflow page on the separate line indicated.

Details of Write-ins Aggregated on Line 94 for Other Amounts Not Allocable By State

List separately items which have been credited to the premium account that are properly not allocable to a specific state or states, and which do not fit the descriptions on Lines 90 to 93. Descriptions must be sufficient to clearly disclose the nature of the items listed. Descriptions such as “Miscellaneous” are not permitted.

Include summary of remaining write-ins for Line 94 from the Overflow page on the separate line indicated.

Explanation of basis of allocation by states, etc., of premiums and annuity considerations

Provide a detailed explanation of the by-state and by-territory allocation of premium and other considerations used by the reporting entity. The explanation should be detailed enough to determine compliance with state laws and regulations.

Footnote (a)

Provide the total of each active status code in Column 1. The sum of all the counts of all active status codes should equal 57.

SCHEDULE T – PART 2

INTERSTATE COMPACT –EXHIBIT OF PREMIUMS WRITTEN ALLOCATED BY STATES AND TERRITORIES

This exhibit is to be completed by all reporting entities. The purpose of the Interstate Compact is to promote and protect the interest of consumers of individual and group annuity, life insurance, disability income and long-term care insurance products through establishing a central clearinghouse to receive and provide prompt review of insurance products covered under the Compact pursuant to adopted uniform product standards. The Interstate Compact uses premium volume information statutorily reported to the NAIC for several purposes including the composition of the Compact Commission Management Committee. Data to be reported on this schedule should include all premiums for that line of business, not just for those policies that apply to the Compact.

Report direct business only.

Report premiums based on the instructions for allocating premiums between lines of business and jurisdictions for Schedule T.

Column 1 – Life Insurance

Life insurance is insurance primarily for the purpose of coverage of human lives, including incidental benefits. The primary purpose of life insurance is to provide financial assistance to a beneficiary at the insured's death.

Column 2 – Annuities

An annuity is a contract the primary purpose of which is to obligate a reporting entity to make periodic payments, including incidental benefits. An annuity contract is an arrangement whereby an annuitant is guaranteed to receive a series of stipulated amounts commencing either immediately or at some future date.

Report only annuities with mortality and/or morbidity risk.

Column 3 – Disability Income

Disability income insurance is insurance primarily for the purpose of coverage that provides payments when an insured is disabled or unable to work because of illness, disease or injury, including incidental benefits. Policies may provide monthly benefits for loss of income from disability, either on a short-term or a long-term basis.

Column 4 – Long-Term Care

Long-term care insurance is insurance primarily for the purpose of providing coverage when the insured is unable to perform specified activities of daily living or related functions, or have a cognitive impairment, including incidental benefits. Long-term care contracts represent any contract or policy under providing coverage for not less than 12 consecutive months for each covered person for one or more necessary diagnostic, preventive, therapeutic, rehabilitative, maintenance or personal care services, provided in a setting other than an acute care unit of a hospital. Under long-term care contracts, the insured event is generally the inability of the contract holder to perform certain activities of daily living.

Column 5 – Deposit-Type Contracts

A deposit-type contract is one that does not subject the reporting entity to any risks arising from policyholder mortality or morbidity. A mortality or morbidity risk is present if, under the terms of the contract, the reporting entity is required to make payments or forego required premiums contingent upon the death or disability (in the case of life and disability insurance contracts) or the continued survival (in the case of annuity contracts) of a specific individual or group of individuals. As such, deposit-type contracts are more comparable to financial or investment instruments, rather than insurance contracts.

Refer to SSAP No. 50—Classifications of Insurance or Managed Care Contracts and SSAP No. 52—Deposit-Type Contracts for accounting guidance.

Line 58 – Aggregate Other Alien

Enter the total of all alien business in the appropriate columns. Details by countries are not required.

PART 1 – ORGANIZATIONAL CHART

The term “holding company group” includes members of a holding company system and controlled groups.

All insurer and reporting entity members of a holding company group shall prepare a common schedule for inclusion in each of the individual annual statements. If the company is required to file a registration statement under the provisions of the domiciliary state’s Insurance Holding Company System Regulatory Act, then Schedule Y, Part 1, Organizational Chart must be included in the annual statement. See SSAP No. 25—Affiliates and Other Related Parties for further information.

Attach a chart or listing presenting the identities of and interrelationships between the parent, affiliated insurers and reporting entities; and other affiliates, identifying all insurers and reporting entities as such and listing the Federal Employer’s Identification Number for each. The NAIC company code and two-character state abbreviation of the state of domicile should be included for all domestic insurers. The relationships of the holding company group to the ultimate controlling person (if such person is outside the reported holding company) should be shown. Only those companies that were a member of a holding company group at the end of the reporting period should be shown on Schedule Y, Part 1, Organizational Chart.

Where interrelationships are a 50%/50% ownership, footnote any voting rights preferences that one of the entities may have.

However, any person(s) (that includes natural person) deemed to be an ultimate controlling person, must be included in the organizational chart. The Social Security number for individual persons should not be included on this schedule.

Column 9 – Domiciliary Location

Control shall be presumed to exist if any person, directly or indirectly, owns, controls, holds with the power to vote, or holds proxies representing, ten percent (10%) or more of the voting securities of any other person. This presumption may be rebutted by a showing made in the manner provided by Section 4K that control does not exist in fact. The commissioner may determine, after furnishing all persons in interest notice and opportunity to be heard and making specific findings of fact to support the determination that control exists in fact, notwithstanding the absence of a presumption to that effect.

Refer to SSAP 25—Affiliates and Other Related Parties.

SCHEDULE Y

PART 2 – SUMMARY OF INSURER’S TRANSACTIONS WITH ANY AFFILIATES

This schedule was designed to provide an overview of transactions among insurance holding company system members. It is intended to demonstrate the scope and direction of major fund and/or surplus flows throughout the system. This schedule should be prepared on an accrual basis.

All insurer and reporting entity members of the holding company system shall prepare a common schedule for inclusion in each of the individual annual statements.

NOTE: If the reporting entity completes this schedule, it should have answered “YES” to General Interrogatories, Part 1, Question 1.1.

Include transactions between insurers; and between insurers and non-insurers within the holding company system. Exclude transactions between non-insurers that do not involve an affiliated insurer. Include all shareholder dividends, capital contributions and reinsurance recoverable (payable), Columns 4, 5 and 13, respectively, and transactions involving one-half of one percent or more of the largest insurer’s admitted assets as of December 31. Exclude transactions of a non-insurer with an affiliated insurance company that are of a routine nature (e.g., the purchase of insurance coverage).

Transactions among holding company system members should only be reported for the portion of the year in which each company to the transaction was a member of the holding company system. For example, if a member of a holding company system is sold to a party who is not a member of the system on June 30, transactions that occur prior to June 30 between that company and members of the holding company system should be included on Schedule Y, Part 2, Summary of Insurer’s Transactions With Any Affiliates. Those transactions that occur on or after June 30 should be reported on Schedule Y, Part 2 of the holding company system that acquired the insurer.

Report the aggregate amount of transactions for the reporting period within each category for both the payor and recipient of each transaction. If the insurer is both a payor and a recipient of amounts in any category, the net of these amounts should be reported on one line. Amounts of transactions that result in an increase in surplus should be shown as positive figures; and, transactions that result in a decrease in surplus should be reported enclosed in parentheses as negative figures. The total of each column is expected to be zero.

Refer to SSAP No. 25—Affiliates and Other Related Parties for accounting guidance.

If the nature of the transactions reported in Schedule Y, Part 2 requires explanation, report such in an explanatory note immediately following Schedule Y, Part 2.

Each company will be represented by a single line containing the net amount of all transactions.

The purpose of this column is to show the net effect on surplus of reinsurance transactions with affiliates, and should represent the net (ceded less assumed) of the following amounts from Schedule F (P&C, Title) or Schedule S (Life, Health and other reporting entity), as appropriate:

INVESTMENT SCHEDULES GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

(Applies to all investment schedules)

The following definitions apply to the investment schedules.

SAP Book Value (Defined in Glossary of Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual):

Original Cost, including capitalized acquisition costs and accumulated depreciation, unamortized premium and discount, deferred origination and commitment fees, direct write-downs, and increase/decrease by adjustment.

SAP Carrying Value (Defined in Glossary of Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual):

The SAP Book Value plus accrued interest and reduced by any valuation allowance (IF APPLICABLE) and any nonadmitted adjustment applied to the individual investment. Carrying Value is used in the determination of impairment.

Adjusted Carrying Value:

Carrying Value amount adjusted to remove any accrued interest and to add back any of the following amounts: individual nonadmitted amounts, individual valuation allowances (IF APPLICABLE), and aggregate valuation allowance (IF APPLICABLE). In effect, this is equivalent to the definition of SAP Book Value (not to be confused with the old "Book Value" reported in the annual statement blanks for data years 2000 and prior).

Recorded Investment:

The SAP Book Value (Adjusted Carrying Value) plus accrued interest.

The information included in the investment schedules shall be broken down to the level of detail as required when all columns and rows are considered together unless otherwise addressed in specific instructions. For example, on Schedule D Part 4, a reporting entity is required to list the CUMIP book/adjusted carrying value, among other things. The reporting entity would only be required to break this information down to a lower level of detail if the information was inaccurate if reported in the aggregate. Thus, the reporting entity would not be required to break the information down by lot (information for each individual purchase) and could utilize the information for book/adjusted carrying value using an average cost basis, or some other method, provided the underlying data reported in that cell was calculated in accordance with the Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual. However, reporting entities are not precluded from reporting the information at a more detailed level (by lot) if not opposed by their domiciliary commissioner.

"To Be Announced" securities (commonly referred to as TBAs) are to be reported in Schedule D unless the structure of the security more closely resembles a derivative, as defined within SSAP No. 86—Derivatives, in which case the security should be reported on Schedule DR. The exact placement of TBAs in the investment schedules depends upon how a company uses TBA.

For Rabbi Trusts, refer to SSAP No. 104R—Share-Based Payments for accounting guidance.

For the Foreign Code columns in Schedules D and DA, the following codes should be used:

- “A” For Canadian securities issued in Canada and denominated in U.S. dollars.
- “B” For those securities that meet the definition of foreign provided in the Supplement Investment Risk Interrogatories and pay in a currency OTHER THAN U.S. dollars.
- “C” For foreign securities issued in the U.S. and denominated in U.S. dollars.
- “D” For those securities that meet the definition of a foreign as provided in the Supplement Investment Risk Interrogatories and denominated in U.S. dollars (e.g., Yankee Bonds or Eurodollar bonds).

Leave blank for those securities that do not meet the criteria for the use of “A”, “B”, “C” or “D”.

Derivatives (Schedule DB); repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements (Schedule DA); and securities borrowing and securities lending transactions (Schedule DL) shall be shown gross when reported in the investment schedules. If these transactions are permitted to be reported net in accordance with SSAP No. 64—Offsetting and Netting of Assets and Liabilities, the investment schedule shall continue to provide detail of all transactions (gross), with the net amount from the valid right to offset reflected in the financial statements (pages 2 and 3 of the statutory financial statements). Disclosures for items reported net when a valid right to offset exists including the gross amount, the amount offset and the net amount reported in the financial statements are required per SSAP No. 64—Offsetting and Netting of Assets and Liabilities.

For the columns that disclose information regarding investments that are not under the exclusive control of the reporting entity, and also including assets loaned to others, the following codes should be used:

- LS – Loaned or leased to others
- RA – Subject to repurchase agreement
- RR – Subject to reverse repurchase agreement
- DR – Subject to dollar repurchase agreement
- DRR – Subject to dollar reverse repurchase agreement
- C – Pledged as collateral – excluding collateral pledged to FHLB

SUMMARY INVESTMENT SCHEDULE

This schedule was developed to assist regulators in identifying and analyzing the risks inherent in a portfolio of securities as well as identifying the differences in valuation and admission between those practices prescribed or permitted by the state of domicile and those set forth in the NAIC Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual. This schedule includes only those assets from the general account. The line captions were developed with the intention of grouping securities with common risk characteristics together. These groupings were determined based upon a review of schedules within the NAIC Annual Statement and the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council Consolidated Reports of Condition and Income for A Bank With Domestic and Foreign Offices (FFIEC 031, also known as the “Call Report”).

Column 1 – Gross Investment Holdings – Amount

This column represents the admitted value of an asset determined by applying the valuation procedures and admission criteria of the NAIC Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual.

Column 2 – Gross Investment Holdings – Percentage

Amount represents the percentage of the individual Column 1 line item to the Total Invested Assets amount presented in Column 1, Line 12.

Column 3 – Admitted Assets as Reported in the Annual Statement – Amount

This column represents the admitted value of an asset determined by applying the valuation procedures and admission criteria prescribed or permitted by the state of domicile (i.e., the basis of admitted assets reported in the Annual Statement). A variation between the amounts in Column 1 and Column 3 would indicate that a reporting entity valued or admitted an asset differently under its state law than it would have under the NAIC Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual. An example includes a case where an entity was required to nonadmit an asset under its state investment law but was not required to nonadmit under the NAIC Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual because there are no investment limits within the Manual. Another example includes a case where an entity was not able to admit an asset under the NAIC Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual (i.e., it did not meet the requirements of SSAP No. 4 – Assets and Nonadmitted Assets) but was able to admit the asset under the basket clause within the state investment law.

Column 4 – Admitted Assets as Reported in the Annual Statement – Securities Lending Reinvested Collateral Amount

Line 12, Total Invested Assets should equal Column 3, Line 9, Securities Lending.

Column 5 – Admitted Assets as Reported in the Annual Statement – Total Amount

For Line 1 through 8, Line 10 and Line 11, Column 5 should equal Column 3 plus Column 4.

For Line 12, Column 5 should equal Column 3, Line 12 plus Column 4, Line 12 minus Column 3, Line 9.

Column 6 – Admitted Assets as Reported in the Annual Statement – Percentage

Amount represents the percentage of the individual Column 5 line item to the Total Invested Assets amount presented in Column 5, Line 12.

Mortgages in good standing:

This section applies to loans on which all the original basic terms of the loan are being met by the borrowers. It also includes loans on which all the basic terms of refinancing agreements at current market terms are being met by the borrowers. Insured or guaranteed loans are considered to be only those loans insured or guaranteed by the Federal Housing Administration, the National Housing Act of Canada or by the Veterans Administration. For loans subject to a participation agreement, include only the reporting entity's share of book value/recorded investment excluding accrued interest.

Mortgages with restructured terms:

Restructured loans include commercial mortgage loans on which the basic terms such as interest rate, maturity date, collateral or guaranty have been restructured in 2086 or later as a result of actual or anticipated delinquency. Include those loans whose basic terms are being met in accordance with the restructuring agreement. A maturing balloon mortgage that has been refinanced or extended at below current market terms should be classified as a restructured loan. (A maturing balloon mortgage that has been refinanced or extended at current market terms should be considered a performing loan.) Current market terms are loan terms where the borrower pays a current market interest rate consistent with the collateral, maturity date, and other terms of the mortgage.

A mortgage loan will no longer be considered in this category when one or more of the following events occur:

- The loan is paid in full or otherwise retired.
- The loan becomes delinquent under the terms of the restructure agreement.
- The loan is in the process of foreclosure.
- The borrower has resumed the original contractual terms on the current loan balance including payments, interest rate and loan duration. The borrower must have also made cash payments of any interest or principal foregone during the restructure.

If any of the above are met, a loan will no longer be considered as restructured when all of the following conditions exist:

- The loan-to-value ratio based upon the current appraisal cannot be greater than 80%. Additionally, the loan-to-value ratio cannot be greater than the state of domicile's limits for first mortgages. An independent appraiser must perform the current appraisal. The appraisal requirement does not apply to individual loans the lesser of $1 million or 5% of capital and surplus. The aggregate of such exempted loans must not exceed 15% of total long-term mortgage holdings.

AND

The coupon rate after restructuring is a current market rate. Such coupon rates should be consistent with the coupon rate on new commercial mortgages of comparable terms made by the reporting entity in the quarter in which the restructure date occurred, or:

On the restructure date, not be less than the quarterly average of new commercial mortgage loan rates of loans of comparable terms from the Survey of Mortgage Commitments of Commercial Properties by the American Council of Life Insurers (ACLI), by more than ½ of a percentage point difference.

AND

The restructured mortgage loan performs according to the new terms for at least two years.

Mortgages with overdue interest over 90 days not in the process of foreclosure:

Show individually mortgages upon which interest is overdue more than 90 days or upon which taxes or other liens are delinquent more than one year.

Mortgages in process of foreclosure:

This section applies to loans in the process of being foreclosed or voluntarily conveyed by the borrower to the lender. It also includes loans in which transfer of title is awaiting expiration of redemption or moratorium period.

Column 1 – CUSIP Identification

This column must be completed by Life and Fraternal insurers that file Schedule BA investments with the Securities Valuation Office.

CUSIP numbers for all purchased publicly issued securities are available from the broker's confirmation or the certificate. For private placement securities, the NAIC has created a special number called a PPN to be assigned by the Standard & Poor's CUSIP Bureau. For foreign securities, use a CINS that is assigned by the Standard & Poor's CUSIP Bureau. www.cusip.com/cusip/index.htm.

If no CUSIP number exists, the CUSIP field should be zero-filled.

Column 2 – Name or Description

Show name of the asset, such as the name of a limited partnership. If not applicable, show description of the asset.

Column 3 – Code

Enter “^” in this column for all assets that are bifurcated between the insulated separate account filing and the non-insulated separate account filing.

If long-term invested assets are not under the exclusive control of the company as shown in the General Interrogatories, it is to be identified by placing one of the symbols identified in the Investment Schedules General Instructions in this column.

Separate Account Filing Order:

If the asset is a bifurcated asset between the insulated separate account filing and the non-insulated separate account filing, the “^” should appear first, immediately followed by the appropriate code (identified in the Investment Schedules General Instructions).

Column 5 – State

List of valid administrative symbols are shown below.

Listing of valid NAIC designation, administrative symbol and market indicator combinations can be found on the NAIC's website for the Securities Valuation Office (<http://www.naic.org/svo.htm>).

For example, for limited partnerships and hedge funds, the latest financial statement’s fair value should be used. For other types of instruments, a quote from a broker, seller, or another counter party should be used. If such quote is not available, the reporting entity should make an estimate of fair value at which the investment could be sold to an unaffiliated third party. A record of the quote, or the methodology used to reach an estimate should be kept in file. Life and Fraternal entities who have filed Schedule BA assets with the SVO must complete this column with the assigned value as reported in the AVS+ database.

			These amounts are to be reported as unrealized capital gains (losses) in the Exhibit of Capital Gains (Losses) and in the Capital and Surplus Account (Page 4).

* Columns 21 through 26 will be electronic only. ****

Column 21 – Fair Value Hierarchy Level and Method Used to Obtain Fair Value Code

Whenever possible, fair value should represent the price at which the security could be sold, based on market information. Fair value should only be determined analytically when the market-based value cannot be obtained.

The following is a listing of valid fair value level indicators to show the fair value hierarchy level.

“1” for Level 1

“2” for Level 2

“3” for Level 3

The following is a listing of the valid method indicators to show the method used by the reporting entity to determine the Rate Used to Obtain Fair Value.

“a” for securities where the rate is determined by a pricing service

“b” for securities where the rate is determined by a stock exchange.

“c” for securities where the rate is determined by a broker or custodian. The reporting entity should obtain and maintain the pricing policy for any broker or custodian used as a pricing source. In addition, the broker must either be approved by the reporting entity as a counterparty for buying and selling securities or be an underwriter of the security being valued. (Reporting entities shall utilize source “c” to capture any other method used by the reporting entity to obtain observable inputs resulting in a hierarchy Level 1 or Level 2. Documentation of this source shall then be included in Column 22.)

“d” for securities where the rate is determined by the reporting entity. The reporting entity is required to maintain a record of the pricing methodology used.

“e” for securities where the rate is determined by the unit price published in the NAIC Valuation of Securities.

Enter a combination of hierarchy and method indicator. The fair value hierarchy level indicator would be listed first and the method used to determine fair value indicator would be listed next. For example, use “1b” to report Level 1 for the fair value hierarchy level and stock exchange for the method used to determine fair value.

The guidance in SSAP No. 100R—Fair Value allows the use of net asset value per share (NAV) instead of fair value for certain investments. If NAV is used instead of fair value leave blank.

Column 22 – Source Used to Obtain Fair Value

For Method Code “a,” identify the specific pricing service used.

For Method Code “b,” identify the specific stock exchange used.

The listing of most stock exchange codes can be found in the Investment Schedules General Instructions or the following Web address:

www.fixprotocol.org/specifications/exchanges.shtml

For Method Code “c,” identify the specific broker or custodian used.

For Method Code “d,” leave blank.

For Method Code “e,” leave blank.

If net asset value (NAV) is used instead of fair value, the reporting entity should use “NAV” to indicate net asset value used instead of fair value.

Column 1 – CUSIP Identification

This column must be completed by Life and Fraternal insurers that file Schedule BA investments with the Securities Valuation Office.

CUSIP numbers for all purchased publicly issued securities are available from the broker’s confirmation or the certificate. For private placement securities, the NOIC has created a special number called a PPN to be assigned by the Standard & Poor’s CUSIP Bureau. For foreign securities, use a CINS that is assigned by the Standard & Poor’s CUSIP Bureau. www.cusip.com/cusip/index.htm.

If no CUSIP number exists, the CUSIP field should be zero-filled.

Column 2 – Name or Description

Show name of the asset, such as the name of a limited partnership. If not applicable, show description of the asset.

Column 3 – City

For real estate partnerships or joint ventures located in the U.S., list city. If the city is unknown, indicate the county. If the investment is outside the U.S., indicate city or province. For other BA asset types, use the city of incorporation. If no city of incorporation, use the city of administrative office.

Column 4 – State

Report the two-character U.S. postal abbreviation for state for U.S. states, territories and possessions. For foreign countries, report the three-character (ISO Alpha 3) country abbreviations available in the listing in the appendix of these instructions.

Provide the name of the entity or vendor to whom the investment was sold or describe how the investment was otherwise disposed of.

Not for Distribution

- Column 6 – Date Originally Acquired
State the date the asset was originally acquired.
- Column 7 – Disposal Date
State the date the investment was sold or otherwise transferred or repaid. Reporting entities may total on one line if the investment is repaid on more than one date, and should utilize the date of last repayment in those cases.
- Column 8 – Book/Adjusted Carrying Value Less Encumbrances, Prior Year
Report the balance at December 31 of the prior year.

Deduct: Any write-downs for a decline in the fair value of a long-term invested asset that is other-than-temporary.

Exclude: Valuation allowance.
- Column 9 – Unrealized Valuation Increase (decrease)

The total unrealized valuation increase (decrease) for a specific investment security will be the change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value that is due to carrying or having carried (in the previous year) the security at Fair Value. This includes a reversal of the total unrealized amount at the date of disposal. See SSAP No. 48—Joint Ventures, Partnerships, and Limited Liability Companies for accounting guidance.

These amounts are to be reported as unrealized capital gains (losses) in the Exhibit of Capital Gains (Losses) and in the Capital and Surplus Account (Page 4 – Life, Property, Fraternal & Title and Page 5 – Health).

Include: The difference between the Fair Value in the previous year and the Fair Value in the current year. Book/Adjusted Carrying Value column. Calculate as current year Fair Value minus prior year Fair Value minus current year (Depreciation) or (Amortization)/Accretion.
- Column 10 – Current Year's (Depreciation) or (Amortization)/Accretion

This amount represents depreciation expense for the period (where appropriate), amortization of premium and the accrual of discount. The accrual of discount amounts in this column are to be reported as increases to investment income in the Exhibit of Net Investment Income, while the amortization of premium amounts are to be reported as decreases to investment income. See column 9 for discussion of an unrealized valuation increase (decrease) where the real estate is carried at fair value and (depreciation) and/or (amortization)/accretion has been recorded.
- Column 11 – Current Year's Other-Than-Temporary Impairment Recognized

If the asset has suffered an "other-than-temporary impairment," this column should contain the amount of the direct write-down recognized. The amounts in this column are to be reported as realized capital losses in the Exhibit of Capital Gains (Losses) and in the calculation of Net Income.

- Column 12 – Capitalized Deferred Interest and Other
Include interest and other items that can be capitalized in accordance with the applicable SSAP.

Short Sales:

Selling a security short is an action by a reporting entity that results with the reporting entity recognizing proceeds from the sale and an obligation to deliver the sold security. For statutory accounting purposes, obligations to deliver securities resulting from short sales shall be reported as contra assets (negative assets) in the investment schedule, with an investment code in the code column detailing the item as a short sale. The obligation (negative asset) shall be initially reflected at fair value, with changes in fair value recognized as unrealized gains and losses. These unrealized gains and losses shall be realized upon settlement of the short sale obligation. Interest on short sale positions shall be accrued periodically and reported as interest expense.

If a reporting entity has any detail lines reported for any of the following required categories or subcategories described in the Investment Schedules General Instructions, it shall report the subtotal amount of the corresponding category or subcategory, with the specified subtotal line number appearing in the same manner and location as the pre-printed total or grand total line and number:

NOTE: See the Investment Schedules General Instructions for the following:

List all bonds and certificates of deposit owned December 31, of current year, except bonds and certificates of deposit in banks or other similar financial institutions with maturity dates or repurchase dates under repurchase agreements of one year or less from the acquisition date. Exclude cash equivalents as described in SSAP No. 2R—Cash, Cash Equivalents, Drafts, and Short-Term Investments with original maturities of three months or less.

The security identifier reported (Column 1 for CUSIP, CINS, PPN or Column 33 for ISIN) must be the same as the identifier used when filing securities with the NAIC pursuant to the Purposes and Procedures Manual of the NAIC Investment Analysis Office instructions.

Column 1 – CUSIP Identification

CUSIP numbers for all purchased publicly issued securities are available from the broker’s confirmation or the certificate. For private placement securities, the NAIC has created a special number called a PPN to be assigned by the Standard & Poor’s CUSIP Bureau. For foreign securities, use a CINS that is assigned by the Standard & Poor’s CUSIP Bureau: www.cusip.com/cusip/index.htm.

If no valid CUSIP, CINS or PPN number exists then report a valid ISIN (Column 33) security number. The CUSIP field should be zero-filled.

Column 2 – Description

Give a description of all bonds owned. As appropriate, the reporting entity is encouraged to include data consistent with that reported in Column 31, Issuer and Column 32, Issue. This does not preclude the company from including additional detail to provide a complete and accurate description. Abbreviations may be used as needed.

For Bond Mutual Funds – as Identified by the SVO and Exchange Traded Funds – as Identified by the SVO, enter the complete name of the fund. As appropriate, the reporting entity is encouraged to include data consistent with that reported.

For Certificate of Deposit Account Registry Service (CDARs) or other similar services that have a maturity of greater than one year, individually list the various banking institutions that are financially responsible for honoring certificates of deposit. As appropriate, the name of the banking institutions should follow from the registry of the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC) (www.ffiec.gov/nicpubweb/nicweb/SearchForm.aspx).

For CDOs (Collateralized Debt Obligations) or CLOs (Collateralized Loan Obligations), indicate what the CDO/CLO collateral is, such as high-yield bonds, corporate loans, etc. If the collateral is of mixed type, indicate “Mix,” in addition to the largest type of collateral in the mix. If the collateral is derived synthetically, indicate “synthetic.”

Column 3 – Code

Enter “*” in this column for all SVO Identified Funds designated for systematic value.

Enter “@” in this column for all Principal STRIP Bonds or other zero coupon bonds.

Enter “$” in this column for Certificates of Deposit under the FDIC limit.

Enter “&” in this column for TBA (To Be Announced) securities.

Enter “^” in this column for all assets that are bifurcated between the insulated separate account filing and the non-insulated separate account filing.

If bonds are not under the exclusive control of the company as shown in the General Interrogatories, they are to be identified by placing one of the codes identified in the Investment Schedules General Instructions in this column.

If the security is an SVO Identified Fund designated for systematic value, Principal STRIP bond or other zero coupon bond, Certificates of Deposit under the FDIC limit or a TBA (To Be Announced) security and is not under the exclusive control of the company, the “*”, “@”, “$” or “&” should appear first, immediately followed by the appropriate code (identified in the Investment Schedules General Instructions).

Separate Account Filing Only:

If the asset is a bifurcated asset between the insulated separate account filing and the non-insulated separate account filing, the “^” should appear first and may be used simultaneously with the “”, “@”, “$” or “&” with the “^” preceding the other characters (“”, “@”, “$” or “&”) depending on the asset being reported, immediately followed by the appropriate code (identified in the Investment Schedules General Instructions).

Column 4 – Foreign

Insert the appropriate code in the column based on the list provided in the Investment Schedules General Instructions.

Column 5 – Bond Characteristics

If bonds have one or more of the following characteristics, then list the appropriate number(s) separated by commas. If none of the characteristics apply, then leave the column blank.

1. Bonds that are callable at the discretion of the issuer, provided that in no instance will the call price be below par, based on a specified formula for the payoff amount (generally discounting future cash flows at then current interest rates which is generally referred to as a “make whole call provision”).
2. Bonds that are callable at the discretion of the issuer, provided that in no instance will the call price be below par with a specified payoff amount based on a fixed schedule.
3. Bonds that are callable at the discretion of the issuer at a price that can be less than par.
4. Bonds in which the timing of payments of principal, as well as the amounts and timing of payments of interest, can vary based on a pool of underlying assets or an index. This should include agency and non-agency residential mortgage-backed securities (RMBS); some commercial mortgage-backed securities (CMBS); as well as similar loan-backed or structured securities. This excludes those flagged with #1, 2 or 3.

5. Variable coupon bonds where the interest payments vary during the life of the transaction, but NOT as is typical based on a fixed spread over a well-established interest rate index (such as LIBOR, prime rate or a government bond yield). (This includes coupons that vary based on the performance of indices that are not interest rate related, such as equity indices, commodity prices or foreign exchange rates. This also includes coupons where the spread to the index is not fixed for the entire life of the transaction. This excludes basic floating rate and adjustable rate notes with fixed spread over an interest rate index.)
6. Terms that may result in principal (or initial investment) not being repaid in full for reasons other than a payment default by the issuer or defaults within a pool of assets underlying a loan-backed or structured security. (This includes insurance-linked securities, such as catastrophe bonds, interest-only strips (IOs), mortgage-referenced transactions or other issuer obligations that are not actually backed by a pool of assets but where the obligation to pay is tied to an index or performance or a pool of assets.)
7. Bonds where the issuer's obligation to make payments is determined by the performance of a different credit other than that of the issuer, which could be either affiliated or unaffiliated. (These securities are often referred to as credit-linked notes. This does not include loan-backed or structured securities.)
8. Mandatory convertible bonds. Bonds that are mandatorily convertible into equity, or, at the option of issuer, convertible into equity, or whose terms provide for payment in the form of equity instead of cash.
9. Other types of options solely at the discretion of the issuer that could affect the timing or amount of payments of principal or interest, not otherwise reported in 1-8.

Column 6 – NAIC Designation and Administrative Symbol

Provide the appropriate NAIC designation (1 through 6) and administrative symbol combination for each security. List of valid administrative symbols are shown below.

Listing of valid NAIC designation and administrative symbol combinations can be found on the NAIC's website for the Securities Valuation Office (www.naic.org/svo.htm).

For Bond Mutual Funds – as Identified by the SVO, enter 1.

Following are valid administrative symbols for bonds. Refer to the Purposes and Procedures Manual of the NAIC Investment Analysis Office for the application of these symbols.

S	Additional or other non-payment risk
FE	Filing Exempt
F	Financially Modeled RMBS/CMBS subject to SSAP 43R
AM	Analytically Modeled subject to SSAP 43R
YE	Year-end carry over
I	Initial filing
PL	Private Letter Rating
PLGI	Private Letter Rating - reported on General Interrogatory
Z	Insurer self-designated
GI	General Interrogatory
F	Sub-paragraph D Company - insurer self-designated
*	Limited to NAIC Designations 6

Refer to the flow chart in the Investment Schedules General Instructions for instruction on how to determine the NAIC designation for structured securities.

Column 7 – Actual Cost

This column should contain the actual consideration paid to purchase the security. The Actual Cost column amount should be adjusted for: pay downs and partial sales (both reported in Schedule D, Part 4) and subsequent acquisitions of the same issue (reported in Schedule D, Part 3). Actual cost will need to be adjusted due to “other-than-temporary impairments” recognized, for use when determining realized gain/(loss) at disposition.

Include: Brokerage and other related fees, to the extent they do not exceed the fair value at the date of acquisition.

Cost of acquiring the bond or stock including broker's commission and incidental expenses of effecting delivery, transaction fees on re-pooling of securities, and reductions for origination fees intended to compensate the reporting entity for interest rate risks (i.e., points).

Exclude: Accrued interest.

All other costs, including internal costs or costs paid to an affiliated reporting entity related to origination, purchase or commitment to purchase bonds, are charged to expense when incurred.

For SVO Identified Funds (Bond Mutual Funds and Exchange Traded Funds), enter the original cost of the shares purchased, including brokerage and other related fees.

Column 8 – Rate Used to Obtain Fair Value

Report rate used for determining fair value.

For SVO Identified Funds (Bond Mutual Funds and Exchange Traded Funds), enter the per share fair value or net asset value as of the reporting date.

For U.S. Treasury Inflation-Indexed Securities enter the VOS rate (provided in the Valuation of Securities) multiplied by the inflation ratio.

Column 9 – Fair Value

The fair value should be the price which, when multiplied by the notional amount (Column 10, Par Value) results in the dollar amount that would be received (excluding accrued interest) if the security was sold at par value.

The fair value included in this column (calculated from the Rate Used to Obtain Fair Value column) should be the amount used in any comparison of fair value to another valuation method (e.g., book value or amortized cost) that is prescribed by the accounting/valuation rules.

For loan backed securities, the prospective or retrospective methods are used in determining amortized value.

Exclude: Accrued interest.

For SVO Identified Funds (Bond Mutual Funds and Exchange Traded Funds), enter the amount representing the number of shares owned at year-end times the rate specified in Column 8.

For U.S. Treasury Inflation-Indexed Securities, Fair Value should utilize the VOS rate multiplied by the inflation ratio.

Column 10 – Par Value

Enter the par value of the bonds owned adjusted for repayment of principal. For mortgage-backed/loan-backed and structured securities, enter the par amount of principal to which the reporting entity has a claim. For interest only bonds without a principal amount on which the reporting entity has a claim, use a zero value. Enter the statement date par value for bonds with adjustable principal. An interest only bond with a small par amount of principal would use that amount.

For SVO Identified Funds (Bond Mutual Funds and Exchange Traded Funds), enter Zero (0).

Column 11 – Book/Adjusted Carrying Value

Securities excluding SVO Identified fund and mandatory convertible bonds:

This should be the amortized value or the lower of amortized value or fair value, depending upon the designation of the bond (and adjusted for any other-than-temporary impairment), as of the end of the current reporting year.

Include: The original cost of acquiring the bond, including brokerage and other related fees.

Amortization of premium or accretion of discount, but not including any accrued interest paid thereon.

Amortization of deferred origination and commitment fees.

Deduct: A direct write-down for a decline in the fair value of a bond that is other-than-temporary.

Exclude: All other costs, including internal costs or costs paid to an affiliated reporting entity related to origination, purchase or commitment to purchase bonds, are charged to expense when incurred. Cost should also be reduced by payments attributed to the recovery of cost.

Accrued interest.

Refer to SSAP No. 2018-01—Bonds.

For reporting entities maintaining an AVR:

NAIC Designation 1 – 5* Enter amortized cost

NAIC Designation 6 Enter the lower of fair value or amortized cost

For reporting entities not maintaining an AVR:

NAIC Designations 1 – 2* Enter amortized cost

NAIC Designations 3 – 6 Enter the lower of fair value or amortized cost

*NOTE: An exception exists for Treasury Inflation Adjusted Securities under INT 01-25, where the book/adjusted carrying value may include an unrealized gain. See INT 01-25, Accounting for U.S. Treasury Inflation-Indexed Securities, for accounting guidance.

Mandatory Convertible Bonds:

The amount should be the lower of amortized cost or fair value during the period prior to conversion.

SVO Identified Funds:

The amount should be fair value unless the reporting entity has designated a qualifying security for systematic value. The election of using systematic value is irrevocable.

NOTE: Use of systematic value is effective Dec. 31, 2017. This effective date requires entities to either report SVO-Identified investments at fair value on the effective date, or to identify the SVO-Identified investments with a code to identify use of systematic value. If the investment is coded for systematic value, the investment will be reported in the 2017 annual financial statements using the measurement method utilized throughout 2017. For these investments, beginning Jan. 1, 2018, the reporting entity shall report the investment using the calculated systematic value method detailed in SSAP No. 26R—Bonds.

Refer to SSAP No. 26R—Bonds.

For reporting entities maintaining an AVR:

NAIC Designation 1 – 5 Enter fair value or systematic value
NAIC Designation 6 Enter fair value

For reporting entities not maintaining an AVR:

NAIC Designations 1 – 2 Enter fair value or systematic value
NAIC Designations 3 – 6 Enter fair value

The amount reported in this column should equal:

Book/Adjusted Carrying Value reported in the Prior Year statement
(or Actual Cost for newly acquired securities)
plus “Unrealized Valuation Increase/(Decrease) Total in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value”
plus “Current Year’s (Amortization)/Accretion”
minus “Current Year’s Other-Than-Temporary Impairment Recognized”
plus “Total Foreign Exchange Change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value”
plus Changes due to amounts reported in Schedule D, Parts 3, 4 and 5

Column 12 – Unrealized Valuation Increase/(Decrease)

The total unrealized valuation increase/(decrease) for a specific security will be the change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value that is due to carrying or having carried (in the previous year) the security at Fair Value. Thus this amount could be:

The difference due to changing from Amortized Cost in the previous year to Fair Value in the current year’s Book/Adjusted Carrying Value column (calculated as current year Fair Value minus current year Amortized Value);

The difference of moving from Fair Value in the previous year to Amortized Cost in the current year’s Book/Adjusted Carrying Value column (calculate as prior year Amortized Value minus prior year Fair Value); or

The difference between the Fair Value in the previous year and the Fair Value in the current year’s Book/Adjusted Carrying Value column (calculate as current year Fair Value minus prior year Fair Value minus current year Accrual of Discount/(Amortization of Premium)).

Include For SVO-identified funds, the change from the prior reported BACV to fair value/net asset value. If an SVO-identified fund no longer qualifies for systematic value, the difference from systematic value in prior year to fair value/net asset value in current year.

These amounts are to be reported as unrealized capital gains or (losses) in the Exhibit of Capital Gains/(Losses) and in the Capital and Surplus Account (Page 4).

Column 13	–	Current Year's (Amortization)/Accretion
		This amount should equal the current reporting year's amortization of premium or accrual of discount (regardless of whether or not the security is currently carried at Amortized Cost). The accrual of discount amounts in this column are to be reported as increases to investment income in the Exhibit of Net Investment Income, while the amortization of premium amounts are to be reported as decreases to investment income. Include The (Amortization)/Accretion of SVO Identified Funds designated for reporting at systematic value.
Column 14	–	Current Year's Other-Than-Temporary Impairment Recognized
		If the security has suffered an "other-than-temporary impairment," this column should contain the amount of the direct write-down recognized. The amounts in this column are to be reported as realized capital losses in the Exhibit of Capital Gains/(Losses) and in the calculation of Net Income.
Column 15	–	Total Foreign Exchange Change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value
		This is a positive or negative amount that is defined as the portion of the total change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value for the year that is attributable to foreign exchange differences for a particular security. The amounts reported in this column should be included as net unrealized foreign exchange capital gain/(loss) in the Capital and Surplus Account (Page 4).
Column 16	–	Interest Rate
		Show rate of interest as stated on the face of the bond. Where the original stated rate has been renegotiated, show the latest modified rate. For long-term bonds with a variable rate of interest, use the last rate of interest. For short-term bonds of various issues of the same issuer, use the last rate of interest. All information reported in this field must be a numeric value. For SVO Identified Funds (Bond Mutual Funds Exchange Traded Funds) and Principal STRIP Bonds or other zero coupon bonds, enter numeric zero (0).
Column 17	–	Effective Rate of Interest
		For issuer obligations, include the effective rate at which the purchase was made. For mortgage-backed, loan-backed and structured securities, report the effective yield used to value the security at the reporting date. The Effective Yield calculation should be modified for other-than-temporary impairments recognized. For SVO Identified Funds (Bond Mutual Funds and Exchange Traded Funds), enter Zero (0).
Column 18	–	Interest – When Paid
		For securities that pay interest annually, provide the first 3 letters of the month in which the interest is paid (e.g., JUN for June). For securities that pay interest semi-annually or quarterly, provide the first letter of each month in which interest is received (e.g., JD for June and December, and MJSD for March, June, September and December). For securities that pay interest on a monthly basis, include "MON" for monthly. Finally, for securities that pay interest at maturity, include "MAT" for maturity. For SVO Identified Funds (Bond Mutual Funds Exchange Traded Funds) and Principal STRIP Bonds or other zero coupon bonds, enter N/A.

Column 19 – Admitted Interest Due and Accrued

Column 24 – Fair Value Hierarchy Level and Method Used to Obtain Fair Value Code

Whenever possible, fair value should represent the price at which the security could be sold, based on market information. Fair value should only be determined analytically when the market-based value cannot be obtained.

The following is a listing of valid fair value level indicators to show the fair value hierarchy level.

- “1” for Level 1
- “2” for Level 2
- “3” for Level 3

The following is a listing of the valid method indicators for bonds to show the method used by the reporting entity to determine the Rate Used to Obtain Fair Value.

- “a” for securities where the rate is determined by a pricing service.
- “b” for securities where the rate is determined by a stock exchange.
- “c” for securities where the rate is determined by a broker or custodian. The reporting entity should obtain and maintain the pricing policy for any broker or custodian used as a pricing source. In addition, the broker must either be approved by the reporting entity as a counterparty for buying and selling securities or be an underwriter of the security being valued.
- “d” for securities where the rate is determined by the reporting entity. The reporting entity is required to maintain a record of the pricing methodology used.
- “e” for securities where the rate is determined by the unit price published in the NAIC Valuation of Securities.

Enter a combination of hierarchy and method indicator. The fair value hierarchy level indicator would be listed first and the method used to determine fair value indicator would be listed next. For example, use “1b” to report Level 1 for the fair value hierarchy level and stock exchange for the method used to determine fair value.

The guidance in SAP No. 100—Fair Value allows the use of net asset value per share (NAV) instead of fair value for certain investments. If NAV is used instead of fair value, leave blank.

Column 25 – Source Used to Obtain Fair Value

If net asset value (NAV) is used instead of fair value, the reporting entity should use “NAV” to indicate net asset value used instead of fair value.

Use only for securities included in the following subtotal lines.

Commercial Mortgage-Backed Securities	3499999
Other Loan-Backed and Structured Securities	3599999

Enter one of the following codes to indicate collateral type. Pick exactly one collateral type for each reported security. For securities that fit in more than one type, pick the predominant one. Judgment may need to be used when making selections involving prime, Alt-A and subprime, as there are no uniform definitions for these collateral types. In the description field, use abbreviations like ABS, CDO or CLO to disclose the type of the loan-backed/structured security.

- 1 Residential Mortgage Loans/RMBS
 Include all types of residential first lien mortgage loans as collateral (e.g., prime, subprime, Alt-A).

 Include bonds collateralized by individual obligations. Do not include individual obligations that have a real estate aspect.
- 5 Corporate/Industrial Obligations – Tax Receivables, Utility Receivables, Trade Receivables, Small Business Loans, Commercial Paper Include bonds collateralized by corporate or industrial obligations (sometimes referred to as commercial obligations).

- 7 CLO/CBO/CDO
 Include bank loans, which securitize CLOs; investment grade and high-yield corporate bonds, which securitize CBOs; and corporate bonds and structured securities, which securitize CDOs.

For loan backed and structured securities, include the effective date of maturity that results from the estimated cash flows, incorporating appropriate prepayment assumptions. If call data does not affect the Effective Date of Maturity field, leave blank.

Column 33 – ISIN Identification

The International Securities Identification Numbering (ISIN) system is an international standard set up by the International Organization for Standardization (ISO). It is used for numbering specific securities, such as stocks, bonds, options and futures. ISIN numbers are administered by a National Numbering Agency (NNA) in each of their respective countries, and they work just like serial numbers for those securities. Record the ISIN number only if no valid CUSIP, CINS or PPN exists to report in Column 1.

Column 34 – Capital Structure Code

Please identify the capital structure of the security using the following codes consistent with the SVO Notching Guidelines in Part One, Section 3 of the Purposes and Procedures Manual of the NAIC Investment Analysis Office:

Capital structure is sometimes referred to as rank or payment priority and can be found in feeds from the sources listed in the Issue and Issuer column.

As a general rule, a security is senior unsecured debt unless legal terms of the security indicate another position in the capital structure. Securities are senior or subordinated, and are secured or unsecured. Municipal bonds, Federal National Mortgage Association securities (FNMA or Fannie Mae) and Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation securities (FHLMC or Freddie Mac) generally are senior debt, though there are examples of subordinated debt issued by Fannie and Freddie. 1st Lien is a type of security interest and not capital structure but could be used to determine which capital structure designation the security should be reported under. The capital structure of “Other” should rarely be Capital structure includes securities subject to SSAP No. 26R—Bonds and SSAP No. 43R—Loan-Backed and Structured Securities.

1. Senior Secured Debt

Senior secured is paid first in the event of a default and also has a priority above other senior debt with respect to pledged assets.

2. Senior Unsecured Debt

Senior unsecured securities have priority ahead of subordinated debt for payment in the event of default.

3. Subordinated Debt

Subordinated is secondary in its rights to receive its principal and interest payments from the borrower to the rights of the holders of senior debt (e.g., for loan-backed and structured securities, this would include mezzanine tranches).

(Subordinated means noting or designating a debt obligation whose holder is placed in precedence below secured and general unsecured creditors. For example, another debtholder could block payments to that holder or prevent that holder or that subordinated debt from taking any action.)

4. Not Applicable

Securities where the capital structure 1 through 3 above do not apply (e.g., Line 5899999 Exchange Traded Funds – as Identified by the SVO and Line 5999999 Bond Mutual Funds – as Identified by the SVO).

SCHEDULE D – PART 2 – SECTION 1

PREFERRED STOCKS OWNED DECEMBER 31 OF CURRENT YEAR

Stocks are to be grouped as listed below and arranged alphabetically, showing a subtotal for each category.

Short Sales:

Selling a security short is an action by a reporting entity that results with the reporting entity recognizing proceeds from the sale and an obligation to deliver the sold security. For statutory accounting purposes, obligations to deliver securities resulting from short sales shall be reported as contra-asset (negative assets) in the investment schedule, with an investment code in the code column detailing the item as a short sale. The obligation (negative asset) shall be initially reflected at fair value, with changes in fair value recognized as unrealized gains and losses. These unrealized gains and losses shall be realized upon settlement of the short sale obligation. Interest on short sale positions shall be accrued periodically and reported as interest expense.

If a reporting entity has any detail lines reported for any of the following required categories or subcategories, it shall report the subtotal amount of the corresponding category or subcategory, with the specified subtotal line number appearing in the same manner and location as the pre-printed total or grand total line and number:

NOTE: See the Investment Schedules General Instructions for the following:

Column 1 – CUSIP Identification

CUSIP numbers for all purchased publicly issued securities are available from the broker's confirmation or the certificate. For private placement securities, the NAIC has created a special number called a PPN to be assigned by the Standard & Poor's CUSIP Bureau. For foreign securities, use a CINS that is assigned by the Standard & Poor's CUSIP Bureau: www.cusip.com/cusip/index.htm.

If no valid CUSIP, CINS or PPN number exists then report a valid ISIN (Column 27) security number. The CUSIP field should be zero-filled.

plus	“Total Change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value”
plus	“Total Foreign Exchange Change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value”
plus	Changes due to amounts reported in Schedule D, Parts 3, 4 and 5

- Column 9 – Rate Per Share Used to Obtain Fair Value
- Report rate used for determining fair value.
- Column 10 – Fair Value
- The fair value should be the price which, when multiplied by the notional amount (Column 6, Par Value), or times the number of securities held if Column 6 contains no Par Value, results in the dollar amount that would be received (excluding accrued dividends) if the security was sold at fair value.
- The fair value included in this column (calculated from the Rate Used to Obtain Fair Value column) should be the amount used in any comparison of fair value to another valuation method (e.g., book value or amortized cost) that is prescribed by the accounting/valuation rules.
- Column 11 – Actual Cost
- This amount should contain the actual consideration paid to purchase the security. The Actual Cost column amount should be adjusted for: partial sales of unaffiliated preferred stock and any return of capital for preferred stock in SCA companies (both reported in Schedule D, Part 4); and subsequent acquisitions of the same unaffiliated preferred stock and additional investments in the preferred stock in SCA companies (both reported in Schedule D, Part 3). The Actual Cost recorded in this column shall ALWAYS be adjusted for other-than-temporary impairments.
- Include: Cost of acquiring the preferred stock, including broker's commission and incidental expenses of effecting delivery, but not including any accrued dividends paid thereon. Cost should be reduced by payments attributed to the recovery of cost.
- Column 13 – Dividends – Amount Received During Year
- Include: The proportionate share of investment income directly related to the securities reported in this schedule.
- Report amounts net of foreign withholding tax.
- Column 14 – Dividends - Nonadmitted Declared but Unpaid
- This should equal the nonadmitted amount of dividends declared but unpaid for a specific security, based upon the assessment of collectability required by SSAP No. 34—Investment Income Due and Accrued and any other requirements for nonadmitting investment income due and accrued.
- Column 15 – Unrealized Valuation Increase/(Decrease)
- The total unrealized valuation increase/(decrease) for a specific security will be the change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value that is due to carrying, or having carried (in the previous year), the security at Fair Value. Thus this amount could be:
- The difference due to changing from Amortized Cost in the previous year to Fair Value in the current year's Book/Adjusted Carrying Value column (calculated as current year Fair Value minus current year Amortized Value);
- The difference of moving from Fair Value in the previous year to Amortized Cost in the current year's Book/Adjusted Carrying Value column (calculate as prior year Amortized Value minus prior year Fair Value);

The difference between the Fair Value in the previous year and the Fair Value in the current year's Book/Adjusted Carrying Value column (calculate as current year Fair Value minus prior year Fair Value minus current year Accrual of Discount/(Amortization of Premium)) or

The increase/(decrease) for a specific investment in a Subsidiary, Controlled or Affiliated (SCA) company that results from the reporting entity's share of undistributed earnings and losses.

These amounts are to be reported as unrealized capital gains or (losses) in the Exhibit of Capital Gains/(Losses) and in the Capital and Surplus (Page 4).

Column 16 – Current Year's (Amortization)/Accretion

This amount should equal the current reporting year's amortization of premium or accrual of discount (regardless of whether or not the security is currently carried at Amortized Cost). The accrual of discount amounts in this column are to be reported as increases to investment income in the Exhibit of Net Investment Income, while the amortization of premium amounts are to be reported as decreases to investment income.

Column 17 – Current Year's Other-Than-Temporary Impairment Recognized

If the security has suffered an "other-than-temporary impairment," this column should contain the amount of the direct write-down recognized. The amounts in this column are to be reported as realized capital losses in the Exhibit of Capital Gains/(Losses) and in the calculation of Net Income.

Column 18 – Total Change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value

This column should equal the net of: Unrealized Valuation Increase/(Decrease) plus
Current Year's (Amortization)/Accretion minus
Current Year's Other-Than-Temporary Impairment Recognized.

This amount, plus any foreign exchange adjustment related to these amounts (reported in the Total Foreign Exchange Change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value column), should represent the difference between the current reporting year's Book/Adjusted Carrying Value and the prior year's Book/Adjusted Carrying Value, excluding changes due to amounts reported in Schedule D, Parts 3, 4 and 5).

Column 19 – Total Foreign Exchange Change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value

This is a positive or negative amount that is defined as the portion of the total change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value for the current year that is attributable to foreign exchange differences for a particular security. The amounts reported in this column should be included as net unrealized foreign exchange capital gain/(loss) in the Capital and Surplus Account (Page 4).

Column 20 – NAIC Designation and Administrative Symbol/Market Indicator

Provide the appropriate combination of NAIC designation (1 through 6), administrative symbol and market indicator (A, J, K, L, U or V) for each security. List of valid administrative symbols are shown below.

- The fair value included in this column (calculated from the Rate Used to Obtain Fair Value column) should be the amount used in any comparison of fair value to another valuation method (e.g., book value or amortized cost) that is prescribed by the accounting/valuation rules.
- Column 9 – Actual Cost
- This column should contain the actual consideration paid to purchase the security. The Actual Cost column amount should be adjusted for: partial sales of unaffiliated common stock and any return of capital for common stock in SCA companies (both reported in Schedule D, Part 4); and subsequent acquisitions of the same unaffiliated common stock and additional investments in the common stock in SCA companies (both reported in Schedule D, Part 3). The Actual Cost recorded in this column shall ALWAYS be adjusted for other-than-temporary impairments.
- Include: Original cost of acquiring the common stock including broker's commission and the incidental expenses of effecting delivery. Return of capital is included as a reduction of cost. For subsidiaries and affiliates, include changes in capital contributions.
- Column 11 – Dividends - Amount Received During the Year
- For Mutual Funds (excluding Bond Mutual Funds – as Identified by the SVO and Exchange Traded Funds – as Identified by the SVO), enter the amount of distributions received in cash or reinvested in additional shares.
- Include: The proportionate share of investment income directly related to the securities reported in this schedule.
- Report amounts net of foreign withholding tax.
- Column 12 – Dividends - Nonadmitted Declared but Unpaid
- This should equal the nonadmitted amount of dividends declared but unpaid for a specific security, based on the assessment of collectibility required by SSAP No. 34—Investment Income Due and Accrued and any other requirements for nonadmitting investment income due and accrued.

Column 13 – Unrealized Valuation Increase/(Decrease)

The total unrealized valuation increase/(decrease) for a specific security will be the change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value that is due to carrying or having carried (in the previous year) the security at Fair Value. Thus this amount could be:

The difference between the Fair Value in the previous year and the Fair Value in the current year's Book/Adjusted Carrying Value column; or

The increase/(decrease) for a specific investment in a Subsidiary, Controlled or Affiliated (SCA) company that results from the reporting entity's share of undistributed earnings and losses.

These amounts are to be reported as unrealized capital gains or (losses) in the Exhibit of Capital Gains/(Losses) and in the Capital and Surplus Account (Page 4).

Column 14 – Current Year's Other-Than-Temporary Impairment Recognized

If the security has suffered an "other-than-temporary impairment," this column should contain the amount of the direct write-down recognized. The amounts in this column are to be reported as realized capital losses in the Exhibit of Capital Gains/(Losses) and in the calculation of Net Income.

Column 15 – Total Change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value

This column should equal the net of:

Unrealized Valuation Increase/(Decrease)
minus Current Year's Other-Than-Temporary Impairment Recognized.

This amount, plus any foreign exchange adjustment related to these amounts (reported in the Total Foreign Exchange Change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value column), should represent the difference between the current reporting year's Book/Adjusted Carrying Value and the prior year's Book/Adjusted Carrying Value (excluding amounts reported in Schedule D, Parts 3, 4 and 5).

Column 16 – Total Foreign Exchange Change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value

This is a positive or negative amount that is defined as the portion of the total change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value for the current year that is attributable to foreign exchange differences for a particular security. The amounts reported in this column should be included as net unrealized foreign exchange capital gain (loss) in the Capital and Surplus Account (Page 4).

Column 17 – NAIC Market Indicator

Insert the NAIC market indicator for such security printed in the Valuation of Securities. If this market indicator is not available, the reporting entity should include a market indicator of "A," "J," "K," "L," "M" or "N" as appropriate. For the meaning and applicability of suffixes and designations, please refer to the most recent version of the Purposes and Procedures Manual of the NAIC Investment Analysis Office.

Column 18 – Date Acquired

For public placements use trade date, not settlement date. For private placements, use funding date. Each issue of stocks acquired at public offerings on more than one date may be totaled on one line and the date of last acquisition inserted.

* Columns 19 through 24 will be electronic only. ****

Column 19 – Fair Value Hierarchy Level and Method Used to Obtain Fair Value Code

Whenever possible, fair value should represent the price at which the security could be sold, based on market information. Fair value should only be determined analytically when the market based value cannot be obtained.

The following is a listing of valid fair value level indicators to show the fair value hierarchy level.

“1” for Level 1

“2” for Level 2

“3” for Level 3

The following is a listing of the valid method indicators for common stocks to show the method used by the reporting entity to determine the Rate Per Share Used to Obtain Fair Value.

“a” for securities where the rate is determined by a pricing service.

“b” for securities where the rate is determined by a stock exchange.

“c” for securities where the rate is determined by a broker or custodian. The reporting entity should obtain and maintain the pricing policy for any broker or custodian used as a pricing source. In addition, the broker must either be approved by the reporting entity as a counterparty for buying and selling securities or be an underwriter of the security being valued.

“d” for securities where the rate is determined by the reporting entity. The reporting entity is required to maintain a record of the pricing methodology used.

“e” for securities where the rate is determined by the unit price published in the NAIC Valuation of Securities.

Enter a combination of hierarchy and method indicator. The fair value hierarchy level indicator would be listed first and the method used to determine fair value indicator would be listed next. For example, use “1b” to report Level 1 for the fair value hierarchy level and stock exchange for the method used to determine fair value.

The guidance in SSAP No. 100R—Fair Value allows the use of net asset value (NAV) per share instead of fair value for certain investments. If NAV is used instead of fair value, leave blank.

Column 20 – Source Used to Obtain Fair Value

For Method Code “a,” identify the specific pricing service used.

For Method Code “b,” identify the specific stock exchange used.

The listing of most stock exchange codes can be found in the Investment Schedules General Instructions or the following Web address:

www.fixprotocol.org/specifications/exchanges.shtml

For Method Code “c,” identify the specific broker or custodian used.

For Method Code “d,” leave blank.

For Method Code “e,” leave blank.

If net asset value (NAV) is used instead of fair value, the reporting entity should use “NAV” to indicate net asset value used instead of fair value.

Column 21 – Legal Entity Identifier (LEI)

Provide the 20-character Legal Entity Identifier (LEI) for any issuer as assigned by a designated Local Operating Unit. If no LEI number has been assigned, leave blank.

Column 22 – Issuer

Issuer Definition:

The name of the legal entity that develops, registers and sells securities for the purpose of financing its operations and may be domestic or foreign governments, corporations or investment trusts. The issuer is legally responsible for the obligations of the issue and for reporting financial conditions, material developments and any other operational activities as required by the regulations of their jurisdictions.

The reporting entity is encouraged to use the following sources:

- Bloomberg
- Interactive Data Corporation (IDC)
- Thomson Reuters
- S&P/CUSIP
- Name used in either the relevant SEC filing or legal documentation for the transaction. Issuer is the name of the legal entity that can be found on documents such as SEC Form 424B2, Note Agreements, Prospectuses and Indentures, as appropriate. The name used should be as complete and detailed as possible to enable others to differentiate the legal entity issuing the security from another legal entity with a similar name.

Do not report ticker symbols, either internal or otherwise.

Column 23 – Issue

Issue information provides detailed data as to the type of security being reported.

The reporting entity is encouraged to use the following sources:

- Bloomberg
- Interactive Data Corporation (IDC)
- Thomson Reuters
- S&P/CUSIP
- Descriptions used in either the relevant SEC filing or legal documentation for the transaction.

Do not report ticker symbols, either internal or otherwise.

Column 24 – ISIN Identification

The International Securities Identification Numbering (ISIN) system is an international standard set up by the International Organization for Standardization (ISO). It is used for numbering specific securities, such as stocks, bonds, options and futures. ISIN numbers are administered by a National Numbering Agency (NNA) in each of their respective countries, and they work just like serial numbers for those securities. Record the ISIN number only if no valid CUSIP, CINS or PPN exists to report in Column 1.

SCHEDULE D – PART 3

LONG-TERM BONDS AND STOCKS ACQUIRED DURING CURRENT YEAR

This schedule should include a detailed listing of all securities that were purchased/acquired during the current reporting year that are still owned as of the end of the current reporting year (amounts purchased and sold during the current reporting year are reported in detail on Schedule D, Part 5 and only in subtotal in Schedule D, Part 3). This should include all transactions that adjust the cost basis of the securities. Thus, it should not be used for allocations of TBAs to specific pools subsequent to initial recording in Schedule D, Part 3 or other situations such as CUSIP number changes. The following list of items provides examples of the items that should be included:

- Purchases of securities not previously owned;
- Subsequent purchases of investment issues already owned;
- Acquisition of a new stock through a stock dividend (e.g., spin off); and
- Any increases in the investments in SCA companies that adjust the cost basis (e.g., subsequent capital infusions [investments] in SCA companies valued using the equity method).

This schedule should NOT be used for stock splits to show increases in the number of shares; nor should it be used for stock dividends to show increases in the number of shares (unless the stock shares received as dividends are in a stock that is not already owned by the reporting entity – e.g., received in a spin off). Rather, for stock splits and stock dividends of an already owned stock, adjustments for the appropriate columns should be made in Schedule D, Part 2, Section 1 and in Schedule D, Part 2, Section 2.

Bonds, preferred stocks and common stocks are to be grouped separately, showing a subtotal for each category.

Bond Mutual Funds – as Identified by SVO and Exchange Traded Funds – as Identified by SVO, which are described in the Investment Schedules General Instructions, are to be included in SVO Identified Funds.

Bonds are to be grouped as listed below and each category arranged alphabetically (securities included in U.S. States, Territories and Possessions; U.S. Political Subdivisions of States, Territories and Possessions; and U.S. Special Revenue and Special Assessment Obligations and all Non-Guaranteed Obligations of Agencies and Authorities of Governments and Their Political Subdivisions should be listed with a state abbreviation in the column provided for electronic data capture).

If a reporting entity has any detail lines reported for any of the following required categories or subcategories, it shall report the subtotal amount of the corresponding category or subcategory, with the specified subtotal line number appearing in the same manner and location as the pre-printed total or grand total line and number:

NOTE: See the Investment Schedules General Instructions for the following:

Include repoolings of mortgage-backed/asset-backed securities (e.g., giantization/megatization of FHLMC or FNMA mortgage-backed securities). Only those bonds and certificates of deposit with maturity at time of acquisition in excess of one year are to be included. Exclude cash equivalents and short term investments as described in SSAP No. 2R—Cash, Cash Equivalents, Drafts, and Short-Term Investments with original maturities of three months or less.

A bond acquisition is recorded on the trade date, not the settlement date, except for the acquisition of private placement bonds that are recorded on the funding date.

Enter as a summary item the totals of Columns 8, 9 and 21 of Part 5 for bonds, preferred stocks and common stocks.

Column 1 – CUSIP Identification

CUSIP numbers for all purchased publicly issued securities are available from the broker’s confirmation or the certificate. For private placement securities, the NAIC has created a special number called a PPN to be assigned by the Standard & Poor’s CUSIP Bureau. For foreign securities, use a CINS that is assigned by the Standard & Poor’s CUSIP Bureau: www.cusip.com/cusip/index.htm.

If no valid CUSIP, CINS or PPN number exists then report a valid ISIN (Column 14) security number. The CUSIP field should be zero-filled.

Column 2 – Description

Give a description of all bonds and preferred and common stocks. As appropriate, the reporting entity is encouraged to include data consistent with that reported in Column 12, Issuer and Column 13, Issue. This does not preclude the company from including additional detail to provide a complete and accurate description. Abbreviations may be used as needed.

For MFO (Mutual Funds (Bond Mutual Funds and Exchange Traded Funds), enter complete name of the fund. As appropriate, the reporting entity is encouraged to include data consistent with that reported for Column 12, Issuer.

For Certificate of Deposit Account Registry Service (CDARs) or other similar services that have a maturity of greater than one year, individually list the various banking institutions that are financially responsible for honoring certificates of deposit. As appropriate, the name of the banking institutions should follow from the registry of the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC) (www.ffiec.gov/nicpubweb/nicweb/SearchForm.aspx).

For CDOs (Collateralized Debt Obligations) or CLOs (Collateralized Loan Obligations), indicate what the CDO/CLO collateral is, such as high-yield bonds, corporate loans, etc. If the collateral is of mixed type, indicate “Mix,” in addition to the largest type of collateral in the mix. If the collateral is derived synthetically, indicate “synthetic.”

Column 3 – Foreign

Insert the appropriate code in the column based on the list provided in the Investment Schedules General Instructions.

Column 4 – Date Acquired

For public placements use trade date, not settlement date. For private placements, use funding date. Each issue of bonds or stocks acquired at public offerings on more than one date may be totaled on one line and the date of last acquisition inserted.

For SVO Identified Funds (Bond Mutual Funds and Exchange Traded Funds), enter date of last purchase.

Column 5 – Name of Vendor

The items with reference to each issue of bonds and stocks acquired at public offerings may be totaled in one line and the word “various” inserted.

Column 7 – Actual Cost

This is the recorded cost of the investment purchased during the current year and still held as of the end of the current year. This amount would also be reported in the Actual Cost column of Schedule D, Part 1 for bonds, Schedule D, Part 2, Section 1 for preferred stock, and Schedule D, Part 2, Section 2 for common stock. The amount reported in the Actual Cost Column included in Schedule D, Part 3 will never differ from the actual consideration paid to purchase the security. Any appropriate adjustments to the Actual Cost will be made on the detail listing schedules (Schedule D, Part 1; Schedule D, Part 2, Section 1; and Schedule D, Part 2, Section 2) or in Schedule D, Part 4, as appropriate.

Include: Cost of acquiring the bond or stock, including broker’s commission and other related fees, to the extent they do not exceed the fair value at the date of acquisition.

Transaction fees on repooling of securities, and reductions for origination fees intended to compensate the reporting entity for interest rate risks (i.e. points).

Exclude: Accrued interest and dividends.

All other costs, including internal costs or costs paid to an affiliated reporting entity related to origination, purchase or commitment to purchase bonds shall be charged to expense when incurred.

Column 8 – Par Value

For mortgage-backed/loan-backed and structured securities, enter the par amount of principal purchased on a security on which the reporting entity has a claim. For interest only bonds without a principal amount on which the reporting entity has a claim, use a zero value. Enter the statement date par value for bonds with adjustable principal. An interest only bond with a small par amount of principal would use that amount.

For preferred stock, enter par value per share of stock if any.

For SVO Identified Funds (Bond Mutual Funds and Exchange Traded Funds), enter 0.

Column 9 – Paid for Accrued Interest and Dividends

For SVO Identified Funds (Bond Mutual Funds and Exchange Traded Funds), enter amount of dividends on shares acquired between the dividend declaration date and the ex-dividend date.

Thus, it should not be used for allocations of TBAs to specific pools subsequent to initial recording in Schedule D, Part 3 or other situations such as CUSIP number changes. The following list of items provides examples of the items that should be included:

- Column 3 – Foreign
- Insert the appropriate code in the column based on the list provided in the Investment Schedules General Instructions.
- Column 4 – Disposal Date
- For public placements use trade date, not settlement date. For private placements, use funding date. Each issue of bonds or stocks disposed of at public offerings on more than one date may be totaled on one line and the date of last disposal inserted.
- For SVO Identified Funds (Bond Mutual Funds and Exchange Traded Funds), enter date of last disposal.
- Column 5 – Name of Purchaser
- If matured or called under redemption option, so state and give price at which called.
- Column 7 – Consideration
- Include: In the determination of this amount, the issuer's commission and incidental expenses of effecting delivery.
- Exclude: Accrued interest and dividends.
- For Bond Mutual Funds – as Identified by the SVO and Exchange Traded Funds – as Identified by the SVO, enter price received at sale, usually the number of shares sold times the selling price per share.
- Column 8 – Par Value
- For mortgage-backed/loan-backed and structured securities, enter the par amount of principal sold on a security on which the reporting entity has a claim. For interest only bonds without a principal amount on which the reporting entity has a claim, use a zero value. Enter the sale date par value for bonds with adjustable principal. An interest only bond with a small par amount of principal would use that amount.

- For SVO Identified Funds (Bond Mutual Funds and Exchange Traded Funds), enter 0.
- Column 9 – Actual Cost

This amount will come from the prior reporting year's Actual Cost column of Schedule D, Part 1 for bonds, Schedule D, Part 2, Section 1 for preferred stock, and Schedule D, Part 2, Section 2 for common stock. However, it will need to be adjusted due to other-than-temporary impairments recognized during the current year.
- Exclude: Accrued interest and dividends.

Column 10 – Prior Year Book/Adjusted Carrying Value

This should equal the Book/Adjusted Carrying Value amount reported in the prior year annual statement for each specific security. If security was not owned at prior year-end, enter zero.

Column 11 – Unrealized Valuation Increase/(Decrease)

The total unrealized valuation increase/(decrease) for a specific security will be the amount necessary to reverse the net effect of any unrealized gains/(losses) recognized while the security was carried (up to the most recent amortized value for securities that have been carried at Amortized Value or up to Actual Cost for those securities that have never been carried at Amortized Value).

These amounts are to be reported as unrealized capital gains or (losses) in the Exhibit of Capital Gains/(Losses) and in the Capital and Surplus Account (Page 4 – Life, Property, Fraternal & Title and Page 5 – Health).

Column 12 – Current Year's (Amortization)/Accretion

This amount should equal the current reporting year's amortization of premium or accrual of discount up to the disposal date. The accrual of discount amounts in this column are to be reported as increases to investment income in the Exhibit of Net Investment Income, while the amortization of premium amounts are to be reported as decreases to investment income.

Column 13 – Current Year's Other-Than-Temporary Impairment Recognized

If the security has suffered an "other-than-temporary impairment," this column should contain the amount of the direct write-down recognized. The amounts in this column are to be reported as realized capital losses in the Exhibit of Capital Gains/(Losses) and in the calculation of Net Income.

Column 14 – Total Change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value

This column should equal the net of:

Unrealized Valuation Increase/(Decrease)
plus Current Year's (Amortization)/Accretion
minus Current Year's Other-Than-Temporary Impairment Recognized.

This amount, plus any foreign exchange adjustment related to these amounts (reported in the Total Foreign Exchange Change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value column), should represent the difference between the current reporting year's Book/Adjusted Carrying Value at Disposal Date and the prior year's Book/Adjusted Carrying Value.

Column 15 – Total Foreign Exchange Change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value

The total foreign exchange change for a specific security will be the amount necessary to reverse the net effect of unrealized foreign exchange gains (losses) recognized while the security was owned by the company. The amounts reported in this column should be included as net unrealized foreign exchange capital gain (loss) in the Capital and Surplus Account (Page 4).

- Column 16 – Book/Adjusted Carrying Value at Disposal Date

SCHEDULE D – PART 5

LONG-TERM BONDS AND STOCKS ACQUIRED DURING THE YEAR AND FULLY DISPOSED OF DURING CURRENT YEAR

This schedule should include a detailed listing of all securities that were both purchased/acquired and sold/disposed of during the current reporting year (amounts purchased and sold during the current reporting year are also reported in subtotals in Schedule D, Parts 3 and 4).

Reporting entities should track information separately for securities purchased in different lots rather than using some type of averaging for the issue in aggregate. Thus, this schedule should only be used when an entire lot of a security has been purchased and sold during the current reporting year (even when different lots of the same security still exist on the reporting entity's books).

As with Schedule D, Parts 3 and 4, this schedule should not be used for a transaction unless it affects the cost basis of the securities. Thus, it should not be used for allocations of TBAs to specific pools subsequent to initial recording in Schedule D, Part 3 or other situations such as CUSIP number changes.

Bonds, preferred stocks and common stocks are to be grouped separately, showing subtotals for each category. Bonds should be grouped and arranged alphabetically as described in the instructions for Schedule D, Part 4. (Securities included in U.S. States, Territories and Possessions; U.S. Political Subdivisions of States, Territories and Possessions; and U.S. Special Revenue and Special Assessment Obligations and all Non-Guaranteed Obligations of Agencies and Authorities of Governments and Their Political Subdivisions should be listed with a state abbreviation in the column provided for electronic data capture).

Bond Mutual Funds – as Identified by the SVO and Exchange Traded Funds – as Identified by the SVO that are described in the Investment Schedules General Instructions are to be included in SVO Identified Funds.

If a reporting entity has any detail lines reported for any of the following required categories or subcategories, it shall report the subtotal amount of the corresponding category or subcategory with the specified subtotal line number appearing in the same manner and location as the pre-printed total or grand total line number:

NOTE: See the Investment Schedules General Instructions for the following:

Column 1 – Description

Give a complete and accurate description of all bonds, including identifying the kind of investment vehicle if other than short-term bond. Identify “repos” in Column 1; and for “repos,” show the repurchase date. For collateral loans, the type of securities held and fair value of the securities should be included in the description.

Column 2 – Code

Enter “*” in this column for all SVO Identified Funds designated for systematic value.

Enter “@” in this column for all Principal STRIP Bonds or other zero coupon bonds.

Enter “^” in this column for all assets that are bifurcated between the insulated separate account filing and the non-insulated separate account filing.

If short-term investments are not under the exclusive control of the company as shown in the General Interrogatories, they are to be identified by placing one of the codes identified in the Investment Schedules General Instructions in this column.

If the security is an SVO Identified Fund designated for systematic value or Principal STRIP bond or other zero coupon bond and is not under the exclusive control of the company, the “*” or “@” should appear first, immediately followed by the appropriate code (identified in the Investment Schedules General Instructions).

Separate Account Filing Only:

If the asset is a bifurcated asset between the insulated separate account filing and the non-insulated separate account filing, the “^” should appear first and may be used simultaneously with the “” or “@” with the “^” preceding the “” or “@” depending on the asset being reported, immediately followed by the appropriate code (identified in the Investment Schedules General Instructions).

Column 3 – Foreign

Insert the appropriate code in the column based on the matrix provided in the Investment Schedules General Instructions.

Column 4	– Date Acquired	For public placements, use trade date not settlement date. For private placements, use funding date. Reporting entities may total on one line each issue of bonds or stocks acquired at public offerings on more than one date and insert the date of last acquisition.
Column 5	– Name of Vendor	Reporting entities may total on one line purchases of various issues of the same issuer of short-term investments and insert the word “various.”
Column 6	– Maturity Date	Reporting entities may total on one line purchases of various issues of the same issuer of short-term investments and insert the appropriate maturity date.
Column 7	– Book/Adjusted Carrying Value	Securities excluding SVO Identified fund and mandatory convertible bonds This should be the amortized value or the lower of amortized value or fair value, as appropriate (and adjusted for any other-than-temporary impairment) as of the end of the current reporting year. Include: The original cost of acquiring the investment, including brokerage and other related fees.  Amortization of premium or accrual of discount, but not including any accrued interest or dividends paid thereon.  Amortization of deferred origination and commitment fees. Deduct: A direct write-down for a decline in the fair value that is other-than-temporary. Exclude: All other costs, including internal costs or costs paid to an affiliated reporting entity related to origination, purchase or commitment to purchase, are charged to expense when incurred. Cost should also be reduced by payments attributed to the recovery of cost.  Accrued interest or dividends. Mandatory Convertible Bonds: The amount should be the lower of amortized cost or fair value during the period prior to conversion. SVO Identified Funds: The amount should be fair value unless the reporting entity has designated a qualifying security for systematic value. The election of using systematic value is irrevocable. NOTE: Use of systematic value is effective Dec. 31, 2017. This effective date requires entities to either report SVO-Identified investments at fair value on the effective date, or to identify the SVO-Identified investments with a code to identify use of systematic value. If the investment is coded for systematic value, the investment will be reported in the 2017 annual financial statements using the measurement method utilized throughout 2017. For these investments, beginning Jan. 1, 2018, the reporting entity shall report the investment using the calculated systematic value method detailed in SSAP No. 26R—Bonds.

The amount reported in this column should equal:

	Actual Cost
plus	Unrealized Valuation Increase (Decrease)/Total in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value
plus	Current Year's (Amortization)/Accretion
minus	Current Year's Other-Than-Temporary Impairment Recognized
plus	Total Foreign Exchange Change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value
plus	Changes due to acquisitions or disposals.

Column 8 – Unrealized Valuation Increase (Decrease)

The total unrealized valuation increase (decrease) for a specific security will be the change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value that is due to carrying or having carried (in the previous year) the security at Fair Value.

Include For SVO-identified funds, the change from the prior reported BACV to fair value/net asset value. If an SVO-identified fund no longer qualifies for systematic value, the difference from systematic value in prior year to fair value/net asset value in current year.

These amounts are to be reported as unrealized capital gains (losses) in the Exhibit of Capital Gains (Losses) and in the Capital and Surplus Account.

Column 9 – Current Year's (Amortization)/Accretion

This amount should equal the current reported year's amortization of premium or accrual of discount (regardless of whether the security is currently carried at Amortized Cost). The accrual of discount amounts in this column are to be reported as increases to investment income in the Exhibit of Net Investment Income, while the amortization of premium amounts are to be reported as decreases to investment income.

Include The (Amortization)/Accretion of SVO Identified Funds designated for reporting at systematic value.

Column 10 – Current Year's Other-Than-Temporary Impairment Recognized

If the security has suffered an other-than-temporary impairment, this column should contain the amount of the direct write-down recognized. The amounts in this column are to be reported as realized capital losses in the Exhibit of Capital Gains (Losses) and in the calculation of Net Income.

Column 11 – Total Foreign Exchange Change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value

This is a positive or negative amount that is defined as the portion of the total change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value for the year that is attributable to foreign exchange differences for a particular security. The amounts reported in this column should be included as net unrealized foreign exchange capital gain (loss) in the Capital and Surplus Account.

Column 12 – Par Value

Enter the par value of the bonds owned adjusted for repayment of principal. For mortgage-backed/loan-backed and structured securities, enter the par amount of principal to which the company has claim. For interest-only bonds without a principal amount on which the company has a claim, use a zero value. Enter the statement date par value for bonds with adjustable principal. An interest-only bond with a small par amount of principal would use that amount.

- Column 13 – Actual Cost
- Include: Cost of acquiring the issue, including brokers' commission and incidental expenses of effecting delivery.
- Exclude: Accrued interest.
- Column 15 – Nonadmitted Interest Due & Accrued
- This should equal the nonadmitted amount of due and accrued interest for a specific security, based upon the assessment of collectibility required by SSAP No. 34—Investment Income Due and Accrued and any other requirements for nonadmitting investment income due and accrued.
- Column 16 – Rate of Interest
- Show rate of interest as stated on the face of the issue. Where the original stated rate has been renegotiated, show the latest modified rate. Short-term bonds with various issues of the same issuer use the last rate of interest. All information reported in this field must be a numeric value.
- For Principal STRIP Bonds or other zero coupon bonds, enter numeric zero (0).
- Column 17 – Effective Rate of Interest
- Short-term bonds with various issues of the same issuer use the weighted average effective yield to maturity. The Effective Yield calculation should be modified for other-than-temporary impairments recognized. All information reported in this field must be a numeric value.
- Column 18 – Interest – When Paid
- Insert initial letters of months in which interest is payable. For securities that pay interest annually, provide the first three letters of the month in which the interest is paid (e.g., JUN for June). For securities that pay interest semi-annually or quarterly, provide the first letter of each month in which interest is received (e.g., J, D for June and December, and MJSD for March, June, September and December). For securities that pay interest on a monthly basis, include “MON” for monthly. Finally, for securities that pay interest at maturity, include “MAT” for maturity.
- For Principal STRIP Bonds or other zero coupon bonds, enter N/A.
- Column 19 – Interest – Amount Received During Year
- Include: The proportionate share of investment income directly related to the securities reported in this schedule.
- Report amounts net of foreign withholding tax.
-  Column 21 will be electronic only. ****
- Column 21 – Legal Entity Identifier (LEI)
- Provide the 20-character Legal Entity Identifier (LEI) for any issuer as assigned by a designated Local Operating Unit. If no LEI number has been assigned, leave blank.

SCHEDULE DB

DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS

All derivatives, regardless of maturity date, are to be reported on Schedule DB. Forward commitments where a reporting entity cannot determine at the inception of the contract, with certainty, if delivery will be made at the earliest opportunity are essentially forward contracts and should be reported on Schedule DB.

This schedule should be used to report derivative instruments. Specific accounting procedures for each derivative instrument will depend on the definition below and documented intent that best describes the instrument. Uses of derivative instruments that are reported in this schedule include hedging, income generation, replication and other. State investment laws and regulations should be consulted for applicable limitations and permissibility on the use of derivative instruments. If the derivative strategy meets the definition of hedging as outlined in SSAP No. 86—Derivatives, then the underlying derivative transactions composing that strategy should be reported in that category of Schedule DB. If the underlying derivative strategy does not meet the definition of hedging as per SSAP No. 86—Derivatives, then the underlying derivative transactions composing that strategy should be reported as either hedging other, replication, income generation or other.

DEFINITIONS OF DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS

A hedge transaction is “Anticipatory” if it relates to:

- a. A firm commitment to purchase assets or incur liabilities;
- b. An expectation (but not obligation) to purchase assets or incur liabilities in the normal course of business.

“Underlying Interest” means the asset(s), liability(ies) or other interest(s) underlying a derivative instrument, including, but not limited to, any one or more securities, currencies, rates, indices, commodities, derivative instruments, or other financial market instruments.

“Option” means an agreement giving the buyer the right to buy or receive, sell or deliver, enter into, extend or terminate, or effect a cash settlement based on the actual or expected price, level, performance or value of one or more Underlying Interests.

“Warrant” means an agreement that gives the holder the right to purchase an underlying financial instrument at a given price and time or at a series of prices and times according to a schedule or warrant agreement.

“Cap” means an agreement obligating the seller to make payments to the buyer, each payment under which is based on the amount, if any, that a reference price, level, performance or value of one or more Underlying Interests exceed a predetermined number, sometimes called the strike/cap rate or price.

“Floor” means an agreement obligating the seller to make payments to the buyer, each payment under which is based on the amount, if any, that a predetermined number, sometimes called the strike/floor rate or price exceeds a reference price, level, performance or value of one or more Underlying Interests.

“Collar” means an agreement to receive payments as the buyer of an Option, Cap or Floor and to make payments as the seller of a different Option, Cap or Floor.

“Swap” means an agreement to exchange or net payments at one or more times based on the actual or expected price, level, performance or value of one or more Underlying Interests or upon the probability occurrence of a specified credit or other event.

“Forward” means an agreement (other than a Future) to make or take delivery of, or effect a cash settlement based on, the actual or expected price, level, performance or value of one or more Underlying Interests.

“Future” means an agreement traded on an exchange, Board of Trade or contract market to make or take delivery of, or effect a cash settlement based on, the actual or expected price, level, performance or value one or more Underlying Interests.

“Option Premium” means the consideration paid (received) for the purchase (sale) of an Option.

“Financing Premium” means that the premium cost to acquire or enter into the derivative is paid at the end of the derivative contract or throughout the derivative contract.

“Swaption” means an agreement granting the owner the right, but not the obligation, to enter into an underlying swap.

“Margin Deposit” means a deposit that a reporting entity is required to maintain with a broker with respect to the Futures Contracts purchased or sold.

DEFINITION OF NOTIONAL AMOUNT

The definition below is intended to be a principle for determining notional for all derivative instruments. To the extent a derivative type is not explicitly addressed in a through c, notional should be reported in a manner consistent with this principle.

“Notional amount” is defined as the face value of a financial instrument in a derivatives transaction as of a reporting date, which is used to calculate future payments in the reporting currency. Notional amount may also be referred to as notional value or notional principal amount. The notional amount reported should remain static over the life of a trade unless the instrument is partially unwound or has a contractually amortizing notional. The notional amount shall apply to derivative transactions as follows:

- a. For derivative instruments other than futures contracts (e.g., options, swaps, forwards), the notional amount is either the amount to which interest rates are applied in order to calculate periodic payment obligations or the amount of the contract value used to determine the cash obligations. Non-U.S. dollar contracts must be multiplied or divided by the appropriate inception foreign currency rate.
- b. For futures contracts, with a U.S. dollar-denominated contract size (e.g., Treasury note and bond contracts, Eurodollar futures) or underlying, the notional amount is the number of contracts at the reporting date multiplied by the contract size (value of one point multiplied by par value).
- c. For equity index and similar futures, the number of contracts at the reporting date is multiplied by the value of one point multiplied by the transaction price. Non-U.S. dollar contract prices must be multiplied or divided by the appropriate inception foreign currency rate.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR SCHEDULE DB

Each derivative instrument should be reported in Parts A, B or C according to the nature of the instrument, as follows:

- Part A: Positions in Options,* Caps, Floors, Collars, Swaps, and Forwards
- Part B: Positions in Futures Contracts
- Part C: Positions in Replication (Synthetic Asset) Transaction

* Warrants acquired in conjunction with public or private debt or equity that are more appropriately reported in other schedules do not have to be reported in Schedule DB.

 Forward commitments that are not derivative instruments (for example, the commitment to purchase a GNMA security two months after the commitment date or a private placement six months after the commitment date) should be disclosed in the Notes to Financial Statements, rather than on Schedule DB.

All derivatives, regardless of maturity date, are to be reported on Schedule DB. Forward commitments where the reporting entity cannot determine at the inception of the contract, with certainty, if delivery will be made at the earliest opportunity are essentially forward contracts and should be reported on Schedule DB.

The reporting entity may be required to demonstrate the intended hedging characteristics under state statute in order to report in this derivative "Hedge Other" category.

The fair value is the value at which the instrument(s) could be exchanged in a current transaction. Amortized or book/adjusted carrying values should not be substituted for fair value. Public market quotes are the best indication of fair value. The reporting entity should document the determination of fair value.

Part D should be used to report the counterparty exposure (i.e., the exposure to credit risk on derivative instruments) to each counterparty (or guarantor, as appropriate).

Derivatives shall be shown gross when reported in the Schedule DB. If these transactions are permitted to be reported net in accordance with SSAP No. 64—Offsetting and Netting of Assets and Liabilities, the investment schedule shall continue to provide detail of all transactions (gross), with the net amount from the valid right to offset reflected in the financial statements (pages 2 & 3 of the statutory financial statements). Disclosures for items reported net when a valid right to offset exists, including the gross amount, the amount offset, and the net amount reported in the financial statements are required per SSAP No. 64—Offsetting and Netting of Assets and Liabilities.

Definitions:

Hedging Effective:

A derivative transaction that is used in hedging transactions and meet the criteria of a highly effective hedge as described in SSAP No. 86—Derivatives, which are valued and reported in a manner that is consistent with the hedged asset or liability. These transactions have been voluntarily designated and are effective as of the reporting date.

Hedging Other:

A derivative transaction that is used in a hedging transaction where the intent is for an economic reduction of one or more risk factors. This transaction is not part of an effectively designated relationship as described under SSAP No. 86—Derivatives.

Replication:

A derivative transaction entered into in conjunction with other investments in order to reproduce the investment characteristics of otherwise permissible investments as described under SSAP No. 86—Derivatives. A derivative transaction entered into by a reporting entity as a hedging or income generation transaction shall not be considered a replication (synthetic asset) transaction. These transactions are considered to be replications as of the reporting date.

Income Generation:

A derivative transaction written or sold to generate additional income or return to the reporting entity as described under SSAP No. 86—Derivatives.

Other:

A derivative transaction written or sold by the reporting entity used for means other than (1) Hedging Effective; (2) Hedging Other; (3) Replication; or (4) Income Generation (definitions listed above or referenced in SSAP No. 86—Derivatives). When this subcategory is utilized, a description of the use should be included in the footnotes to the financial statements.

Value of One (1) Point:

The monetary value of a one (1) point move in a futures position published by the exchange. May also be referred to as “Lot Size,” “Lots” or “Points” by the exchange.

Interest rate and currency swaps (where receive/(pay) notional amounts are denominated in different currencies), are filed under the “Foreign Exchange” swap subcategory.

SCHEDULE DB – PART A – SECTION 1

OPTIONS, CAPS, FLOORS, COLLARS, SWAPS AND FORWARDS OPEN
DECEMBER 31 OF CURRENT YEAR

Include all options, caps, floors, collars, swaps and forwards owned on December 31 of the current year, including those owned on December 31 of the previous year, and those acquired during the current year.

Column 1 – Description

Give a complete and accurate description of the derivative instrument including a description of the underlying securities, currencies, rates, indices, commodities, derivative instruments, or other financial market instruments.

Include details such as:

- For options, the basis. For example, caps should include the underlying interest rate (e.g., CMS 5 year) and frequency of the reset (typically three months);
- For credit default swaps, the name of the reference entity (single issuer or an index) and the equity ticker symbol, if available;
- For currency derivatives, report the currency and describe the pay/receive (or buy/sell) legs of the transaction; and
- For baskets, note that it is a basket and include the derivative equity tickers, if applicable.
- For derivatives with financing premiums, include information on the terms of the financing premium, including whether it is due periodically or at maturity, and the next payment date.

Where leveraging is a feature of the payment terms, the multiplier effect will be clearly presented in the description.

For swaptions, include the hedge ID number, the tenor of the option (i.e., time from effective date to maturity date of the option aspect), and the start and end dates of the underlying swap.

If traded on an exchange, disclose the ticker symbol. Indicate the maturity of the underlying, as appropriate.

Do not use internal descriptions or identifiers unless provided as supplemental information.

If hedging a specific bond, report the CUSIP and a complete and accurate description of the bond; if multiple CUSIPs, note that there are multiple CUSIPs and report the equity ticker or name of the ultimate parent, as applicable.

If hedging a guaranteed investment contract or funding agreement, report as “GIC Hedge” or “FA Hedge.”

For a foreign operations hedge, report as “Net Investment in Foreign Operations.”

For annuity hedging, describe whether hedging fixed or variable annuities.

If hedging a specific mortgage loan asset, report as “Mortgage Loan” and provide the corresponding loan number reported on Schedule B, Part 1, Column 1.

Describe the assets against which derivatives are written in income-generation transactions.

Otherwise “N/A.” Use clear abbreviations for schedules, such as D 1 (Schedule D, Part 1) D 2-1 (Schedule D, Part 2, Section 1), D 2-2 (Schedule D, Part 2, Section 2), etc.
Column 4	– Type(s) of Risk(s) Identify the type(s) of risk(s) being hedged: “Interest Rate,” “Credit,” “Duration,” “Currency,” “Equity/Index,” “Commodity” or, if reporting other risks, provide a description of the risk within the field or in the footnote listed at the end of this section. If footnoted, please enter a reference code in this column (e.g., a, b, c, etc.) then disclose the description of the risk in Schedule DB footnotes for each reference code used in the schedule. In the event there is more than one type of risk, use the most relevant risk.
Column 5	– Exchange, Counterparty or Central Clearinghouse Show the name, followed by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission’s Legal Entity Identifier (LEI), if an LEI number has been assigned, of the exchange, counterparty or central clearinghouse. If exchange-traded, show the name and the LEI of the exchange, Board of Trade or contract market. If OTC traded, show the name and the LEI of counterparty and the guarantor upon whose credit the reporting entity relies.

Guidance for determining notional is included in the Schedule DB General Instructions and SSAP No. 86—Derivatives. If the replication (synthetic asset) transactions are not denominated in U.S. dollar, convert it into U.S. dollar equivalent in accordance with SSAP No. 23—Foreign Currency Transactions and Translations.

Column 10 – Strike Price, Rate or Index Received (Paid)

Show the strike price, rate or index for which payments are received (paid), or an option could be exercised or which would trigger a cash payment to (by) the reporting entity on a derivative.

Forward exchange rate must be stated as: Fx Currency per US$ (Fx/US$).

For credit derivatives, state “credit event” when the payment is triggered by a standard International Swaps and Derivatives Association (ISDA) defined credit event.

Describe non-standard credit event in footnotes to the annual statement.

For example, for a credit default swap sold at 0.50% per annum, show “0.50 / (credit event),” or for an interest swap with 4.5% received, LIBOR + 0.50% paid, show “4.50 / (L+0.50).”

Column 11 – Cumulative Prior Year(s) Initial Cost of Undiscounted Premium (Received) Paid

For derivatives opened in prior reporting years, show the cumulative undiscounted, remaining premium or other payment (received) paid since the derivative contract was entered into.

If a derivative has been partially terminated, the terminated portion of the premium is reported in Schedule DB, Part A, Section 2.

Column 12 – Current Year Initial Cost of Undiscounted Premium (Received) Paid

For derivatives opened in the current reporting year or for derivatives in which premiums are paid throughout the derivative contract, show the undiscounted premium or other payment (received) paid in the current year.

Column 13 – Current Year Income

Show the amount of income received (paid), on accrual basis, during the year (excluding the amount entered in Column 11).

If such payments are both received and paid (e.g., interest swaps), show the net amount (excluding taxes).

Column 14 – Book/Adjusted Carrying Value

Represents the statement value with any nonadmitted assets added back.

Refer to SSAP No. 36—Derivatives for further discussion.

Column 15 – Code

Insert * in this column if the book/adjusted carrying value is combined with the book/adjusted carrying value of assets or liabilities hedged; the book/adjusted carrying value is combined with the book/adjusted carrying value of underlying/covering assets; or if the amount is combined with consideration paid on underlying/covering assets.

Insert # in this column if the book/adjusted carrying value was combined in prior years with the book/adjusted carrying value of assets or liabilities hedged.

Insert @ in this column if the income/expenses is combined with income/expenses on assets or liabilities hedged.

Insert ^ in this column if the derivative has unpaid financing premiums.

Column 16 – Fair Value

See the Glossary of the NAIC Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual for a definition of fair value. For purposes of this column, fair value can be obtained from any one of these sources:

- a. A pricing service.
- b. An exchange.
- c. Broker or custodian quote.
- d. Determined by the reporting entity.

Column 17 – Unrealized Valuation Increase/(Decrease)

For purposes of this schedule, increases should be reported when the change results in an increase to the asset or a decrease to the liability. A decrease should be reported when the change results in a decrease to the asset or an increase to the liability.

The total unrealized valuation increase/(decrease) for a specific derivative will be the change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value that is due to carrying or having carried (in the previous year) the derivative at Fair Value.

These amounts are to be reported as unrealized capital gains/(losses) in the Exhibit of Capital Gains/(Losses) and in the Capital and Surplus Account.

Column 18 – Total Foreign Exchange Change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value

This is a positive or negative amount that is defined as the portion of the total change in Book/Adjusted Carrying Value for the year that is attributable to foreign exchange differences for a particular derivative.

The amounts reported in this column should be included as net unrealized foreign exchange capital gain/(loss) in the Capital and Surplus Account.

For purposes of this schedule, positive amounts should be reported when the change results in an increase to the asset or a decrease to the liability. A negative amount should be reported when the change results in a decrease to the asset or an increase to the liability.

Column 19 – Current Year (Amortization)/Accretion

For purposes of this schedule, positive amounts should be reported when the change results in an increase to the asset or a decrease to the liability. A negative amount should be reported when the change results in a decrease to the asset or an increase to the liability.

Column 20 – Adjustment to the Carrying Value of Hedged Item

This represents the amortized book/adjusted carrying value used to adjust the basis of the hedged item(s) during the current year.

Column 21 – Potential Exposure

Potential Exposure is a statistically derived measure of the potential increase in derivative instrument risk exposure, for derivative instruments that generally do not have an initial cost paid or consideration received, resulting from future fluctuations in the underlying interests upon which derivative instruments are based.

For collars, swaps other than credit default swaps and forwards, the Potential Exposure = 0.5% x “Notional Amount” x Square Root of (Remaining Years to Maturity).

For credit default swaps, enter the larger of notional amount or maximum potential payment.

For purchased credit default swaps bought for protection, the amount reported will be zero.

If the maximum potential exposure cannot be determined, enter zero and explain in the Notes to Financial Statement.

Disclose in the footnotes to the annual statement any assets, held either as collateral or by third parties that the reporting entity can obtain and liquidate to recover all or a portion of the amounts paid under the derivative.

Column 22 – Credit Quality of Reference Entity

Only applies to credit default swaps (for other derivatives, leave blank)

Disclose:

- NAIC designation of the reference entity; or, if not available, then
- NAIC designation equivalent of the reference entity, if it is CRP rated; or, if not available, then
- The reporting entity’s own credit assessment translated into an NAIC designation equivalent with a “*” to indicate that the designation is based on the reporting entity’s own internal evaluation of the reference entity’s creditworthiness.

For first loss type of basket credit default swaps, use the lowest designation in the basket.

For other types of baskets or other structures, determine a designation that fairly represents the likelihood of credit losses.

Column 23 – Hedge Effectiveness at Inception and at Year-end

For hedge transactions show as a percentage expressed as (XX / YY), where “XX” shows the hedge effectiveness percentage at inception and “YY” shows the hedge effectiveness percentage on December 31 of the current year.

For example, 100.45% hedge effectiveness at inception and 94.90% hedge effectiveness on December 31 of the current year is reported as “100 / 95.”

Round to the nearest whole percentage. Do not use decimals.

When hedge effectiveness cannot be calculated, enter a reference code number in this column (e.g., 0001, 0002, etc.) then disclose the financial or economic impact of the hedge at the end of the reporting period in Schedule DB footnotes for each reference code number used in the schedule.

A reference code number may be used multiple times in this column to indicate the same explanation.

For example: 0001 Reduces bond portfolio duration by .2 years.

a) Fair Value Hedges:

How much of the change in value of the hedged item(s) was hedged by the change in value of the derivative, both:

- At the inception of the derivative transaction.
- On December 31st end of the current year.

b) Cash Flow Hedges:

How much of the change in cash flows or present value of cash flows of the hedged item(s) was hedged by the change in cash flows or present value of cash flows of the derivative, both:

- At the inception of the derivative transaction, and
- At the end of the current year.

* Columns 24 through 31 will be electronic only. ****

Column 24 – Fair Value Hierarchy Level and Method Used to Obtain Fair Value Code

Whenever possible, fair value should represent the amount of money the reporting entity would receive (pay) in order to close the derivative position at the market price. Fair value should only be determined analytically when the market price-based value cannot be obtained.

The following is a listing of valid fair value level indicators to show the fair value hierarchy level.

“1” for Level 1

“2” for Level 2

“3” for Level 3

The following is a listing of the valid method indicators for derivatives to show the method used by the reporting entity to determine the Fair Value.

“a” For derivatives where the fair value is determined by a pricing service.

“b” For derivatives where the fair value is determined by a stock exchange.

“c” For derivatives where the fair value is determined by a broker or the reporting entity’s custodian. To use this method 1) the broker must be approved by the reporting entity as a derivative counterparty; and 2) the reporting entity shall obtain and retain the pricing policy of the broker or custodian that provided the quotations.

“d” For derivatives where the fair value is determined by the reporting entity. The reporting entity is required to maintain a record of the pricing methodology used.

Enter a combination of hierarchy and method indicator. The fair value hierarchy level indicator would be listed first and the method used to determine fair value indicator would be listed next. For example, use “1b” to report Level 1 for the fair value hierarchy level and stock exchange for the method used to determine fair value.

Column 25 – Source Used to Obtain Fair Value

For Method Code “a,” identify the specific pricing service used.

For Method Code “b,” identify the specific stock exchange used.

The listing of most stock exchange codes can be found in the Investment Schedules General Instructions or the following Web site:

www.fixprotocol.org/specifications/exchanges.shtml

For Method Code “c,” identify the specific broker or custodian used.

For Method Code “d,” leave blank.

Column 26 – Method of Clearing (C or U)

Indicate whether derivative transaction is cleared through a central clearinghouse with a “C” or not cleared through a centralized clearinghouse with a “U.”

Column 27 – Legal Entity Identifier (LEI)

Provide the 20-character Legal Entity Identifier (LEI) for any counterparty as assigned by a designated Local Operating Unit. If no LEI number has been assigned, leave blank.

Columns 28 through 31 are for derivatives with financing premiums

Column 28 – Total Undiscounted Premium Cost

Report the total, undiscounted (contractual) cost to acquire/enter into the derivative.

Column 29 – Unpaid Undiscounted Premium Cost

Report the undiscounted (contractual) cost to acquire/enter into the derivative unpaid by the reporting entity.

Column 30 – Fair Value of Derivative, Excluding Impact of Financing Premiums

Reflect the fair value of the derivative adjusted to exclude the impact of discounted future settled premiums. For example, if the fair value of the derivative reported in column 16 has been reduced due to expected cash outflows representing the reporting entity’s future payment of financing premiums, the consideration of those future premium cash outflows shall be removed from the reported fair value of the derivative captured in this column.

(At acquisition, a derivative may be reported with a net zero fair value in column 16 as the value of the derivative and the net present value of future financing premiums owed from the acquisition of the derivative may offset. The fair value reported in column 30 shall reflect the fair value of the derivative without an offset for the future financing premiums.)

Column 31 – Unrealized Valuation Increase/Decrease, Excluding Impact of Financing Premiums

Reflect the unrealized gain or unrealized loss reported for the derivative adjusted to exclude the impact from discounted future settled premiums. For example, if the valuation increase/valuation decrease reported in column 17 includes “losses” to recognize the net present value of the financing cost owed by the reporting entity, those “losses” shall be removed from the unrealized valuation increase/decrease reflected in this column.

		If hedging a specific bond, report the CUSIP and a complete and accurate description of the bond; if multiple CUSIPs, note that there are multiple CUSIPs and report the equity ticker or name of the ultimate parent, as applicable.
		If hedging a guaranteed investment contract or funding agreement, report as “GIC Hedge” or “FA Hedge.”
		For a foreign operations hedge, report as “Net Investment in Foreign Operations.” For annuity hedging, describe whether hedging fixed or variable annuities.
		If hedging a specific mortgage loan asset, report as “Mortgage Loan” and provide the corresponding loan number reported on Schedule B, Part 1, Column 1.
		Describe the assets against which derivatives are written in income generation transactions.
		If a replication, report the RSAT Number and Description of the RSAT (Columns 1 and 2 from Schedule DB, Part C, Section 1).

Column 6	–	Schedule/Exhibit Identifier Identify the Schedule or Exhibit of the hedged item(s), such as Schedule A; B; BA; D Part 1; D, Part 2 Section 1; or D, Part 2, Section 2, if appropriate. Otherwise “N/A.” Use clear abbreviations for schedules, such as D 1 (Schedule D, Part 1) D 2-1 (Schedule D, Part 2, Section 1), D 2-2 (Schedule D, Part 2, Section 2), etc.
Column 7	–	Type(s) of Risk(s) Identify the type(s) of risk(s) being hedged: “Interest Rate,” “Credit,” “Duration,” “Currency,” “Equity/Index,” “Commodity” or, if reporting other risks, provide a description of the risk within the field or in a footnote listed in this Schedule. If footnoted, please enter a reference code in this column (e.g., a, b, c, etc.) then disclose the description of the risk in Schedule DB footnotes for each reference code used in the schedule. In the event there is more than one type of risk, use the most relevant risk.
Column 8	–	Date of Maturity or Expiration Show the date of maturity or expiration of the derivative, as appropriate.
Column 9	–	Exchange Show the name and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission’s Legal Entity Identifier (LEI), if an LEI number has been assigned, for the exchange on which the contract was transacted.
Column 10	–	Trade Date Show the trade date of the original transaction. The reporting entity may summarize in one line all identical derivative instruments with the same exchange or counterparty showing the last trade date, but only if the instruments are identical in their terms (e.g., type, maturity, expiration or settlement, and strike price, rate or index).
Column 11	–	Transaction Price Show the price at which the futures contract was originally purchased or sold. If several positions of the same futures contract are summarized, show the weighted average price.
Column 12	–	Reporting Date Price Show the reporting date closing price. Report price as published by the exchange.
Column 13	–	Fair Value Report the net unsettled futures position from the time lag (typically one day with U.S. futures brokers) between the change in the cumulative variation margin (Columns 15 and 18) and the actual settlement with the futures brokers. This represents the pending cash settlement of the futures position.

Column 14 – Book/Adjusted Carrying Value

Represents the statement value of the futures position, with any nonadmitted assets added back, and is determined based on how the futures contract is being used, in accordance with SSAP No. 86—Derivatives.

Note that any cash deposits placed with the broker are included in the Broker Name/Net Cash Deposits footnote only and not in the Book/Adjusted Carrying Value.

Column 15 – Highly Effective Hedges – Cumulative Variation Margin

On long contracts, show the number of contracts (Column 2) times the difference between the reporting date price (Column 12) and transaction price (Column 11) times the futures value of one (1) point (Column 22).

On short contracts, show the number of contracts (Column 2) times the difference between the transaction price (Column 11) and the reporting date price (Column 12) times the futures value of one (1) point (Column 22).

An exception is that this column would not be populated for highly effective futures of forecasted transaction or firm commitments.

Column 16 – Highly Effective Hedges – Deferred Variation Margin

This represents the variation margin that has been deferred and therefore not recognized as an unrealized or realized gain (loss) or as investment income.

Note: If the entire amount of the variation margin was deferred, the amount reported will be the same as is reported in Column 15.

Column 17 – Highly Effective Hedges – Change in Variation Margin Gain (Loss) Used to Adjust Basis of Hedged Item

This represents the variation margin used in the current year to adjust the basis of a hedged item.

Column 18 – Cumulative Variation Margin for All Other Hedges

On long contracts, show the number of contracts (Column 2) times the difference between the reporting date price (Column 12) and transaction price (Column 11) times the futures value of one (1) point (Column 22).

On short contracts, show the number of contracts (Column 2) times the difference between the transaction price (Column 11) and the reporting date price (Column 12) times the futures value of one (1) point (Column 22).

Column 19 – Change in Variation Margin Gain (Loss) Recognized in Current Year

This represents the variation margin recognized as an unrealized or realized gain (loss) or as investment income for the year.

This column will be populated for highly effective futures hedging at fair value and All Other futures.

This column will not be populated for highly effective futures hedging at amortized cost.

Column 20 – Potential Exposure

Potential Exposure is a statistically derived measure of the potential increase in derivative instrument risk exposure, for derivative instruments that generally do not have an initial cost paid or consideration received, resulting from future fluctuations in the underlying interests upon which derivative instruments are based.

For futures, the Potential Exposure = (Initial Margin per contract on the valuation date, set by the exchange on which contract trades) x (the number of contracts open on the valuation date).

Column 21 – Hedge Effectiveness at Inception and at Year-end

For hedge transactions show, as a percentage expressed as (XX / YY), where “XX” shows the hedge effectiveness percentage at inception and “YY” shows the hedge effectiveness percentage at reporting date.

For example, 100.45% hedge effectiveness at inception and 94.90% hedge effectiveness on December 31 of the current year is reported as “100 / 95.”

Round to the nearest whole percentage. Do not use decimals.

When hedge effectiveness cannot be calculated, enter a reference code number in this column (e.g., 0001, 0002, etc.) then disclose the financial or economic impact of the hedge at the end of the reporting period in Schedule DB footnotes for each reference code number used in the schedule.

A reference code number may be used multiple times in this column to indicate the same explanation.

For example: 0001 Reduces bond portfolio duration by .2 years.

a) Fair Value Hedges:

How much of the change in value of the hedged item(s) was hedged by the change in value of the derivative, both:

- At the inception of the derivative transaction; and
- At reporting date.

b) Cash Flow Hedges:

How much of the change in cash flows or present value of cash flows of the hedged item(s) was hedged by the change in cash flows or present value of cash flows of the derivative, both:

- At the inception of the derivative transaction; and
- At reporting date.

Column 22 – Value of One (1) Point

This represents the monetary value of a one (1) point move in a futures position published by the exchange. This monetary value of one (1) point is utilized in the calculation of the futures' variation margin.

* Columns 23 through 29 will be electronic only. ****

Column 23 – Fair Value Hierarchy Level and Method Used to Obtain Fair Value Code

Whenever possible, fair value should represent the price at which the security could be sold, based on market information. Fair value should only be determined analytically when the market-based value cannot be obtained.

The following is a listing of valid fair value level indicators to show the fair value hierarchy level.

“1” for Level 1

“2” for Level 2

“3” for Level 3

The following is a listing of the valid method indicators for derivatives to show the method used by the reporting entity to determine the Rate Used to Obtain Fair Value.

“a” for securities where the rate is determined by a pricing service.

“b” for securities where the rate is determined by a stock exchange.

“c” for securities where the rate is determined by a broker or custodian. The reporting entity should obtain and maintain the pricing policy for any broker or custodian used as a pricing source. In addition, the broker must either be approved by the reporting entity as a counterparty for buying and selling securities or be an underwriter of the security being valued.

“d” for securities where the rate is determined by the reporting entity. The reporting entity is required to maintain a record of the pricing methodology used.

Enter a combination of hierarchy and method indicator. The fair value hierarchy level indicator would be listed first and the method used to determine fair value indicator would be listed next. For example, use “1b” to report Level 1 for the fair value hierarchy level and stock exchange for the method used to determine fair value.

Column 24 – Source Used to Obtain Fair Value

For Method Code “a,” identify the specific pricing service used.

For Method Code “b,” identify the specific stock exchange used.

The listing of most stock exchange codes can be found in the Investment Schedules General Instructions or the following Web address:

www.fixprotocol.org/specifications/exchanges.shtml

For Method Code “c,” identify the specific broker or custodian used.

For Method Code “d,” leave blank.

Column 25 – Legal Entity Identifier (LEI)

Provide the 20-character Legal Entity Identifier (LEI) for any counterparties assigned by a designated Local Operating Unit. If no LEI number has been assigned, leave blank.

Columns 26 through 29 are for derivatives with financing premiums

Column 26 – Total Undiscounted Premium Cost

Report the total, undiscounted (contractual) cost to acquire/enter into the derivative.

Column 27 – Unpaid Undiscounted Premium Cost

Report the undiscounted (contractual) cost to acquire/enter into the derivative unpaid by the reporting entity.

Column 28 – Fair Value of Derivative, Excluding Impact of Financing Premiums

Reflect the fair value of the derivative adjusted to exclude the impact of discounted future settled premiums. For example, if the fair value of the derivative reported in column 16 has been reduced due to expected cash outflows representing the reporting entity’s future payment of financing premiums, the consideration of those future premium cash outflows shall be removed from the reported fair value of the derivative captured in this column.

(At acquisition, a derivative may be reported with a net zero fair value in column 16 as the value of the derivative and the net present value of future financing premiums owed from the acquisition of the derivative may offset. The fair value reported in column 30 shall reflect the fair value of the derivative without an offset for the future financing premiums.)

Column 29 – Unrealized Valuation Increase/Decrease, Excluding Impact of Financing Premiums

Reflect the unrealized gain or unrealized loss reported for the derivative adjusted to exclude the impact from discounted future settled premiums. For example, if the valuation increase/valuation decrease reported in column 17 includes “losses” to recognize the net present value of the financing cost owed by the reporting entity, those “losses” shall be removed from the unrealized valuation increase/decrease reflected in this column.

Column 19 – Hedge Effectiveness at Inception and at Termination
For hedge transactions, show as a percentage expressed as (XX / YY), where “XX” shows the hedge effectiveness percentage at inception and “YY” shows the hedge effectiveness percentage at termination.

For example, 100.45% hedge effectiveness at inception and 94.90% hedge effectiveness on December 31 of the current year is reported as “100 / 95.”

Round to the nearest whole percentage. Do not use decimals.

When hedge effectiveness cannot be calculated, enter a reference code number in this column (e.g., 0001, 0002, etc.) then disclose the financial or economic impact of the hedge at the end of the reporting period in Schedule DB footnotes for each reference code number used in the schedule.

A reference code number may be used multiple times in this column to indicate the same explanation.

For example: 0001 Reduces bond portfolio duration by .2 years.

a) Fair Value Hedges:

- At the inception of the derivative transaction; and
- At termination.

b) Cash Flow Hedges:

How much of the change in cash flows or present value of cash flows of the hedged item(s) was hedged by the change in cash flows or present value of cash flows of the derivative, both:

Column 20 – Value of One (1) Point

This represents the monetary value of a one (1) point move in a futures position published by the exchange.

This monetary value of one (1) point is utilized in the calculation of the futures' variation margin.

* Column 21 through 25 will be electronic only. ****

Column 21 – Legal Entity Identifier (LEI)

Provide the 20-character Legal Entity Identifier (LEI) for any counterparty as assigned by a designated Local Operating Unit. If no LEI number has been assigned, leave blank.

Columns 22 through 25 are for derivatives with financing premiums

Report the total, undiscounted (contractual) cost to acquire/enter into the derivative.

Column 23 – Unpaid Undiscounted Premium Cost

Report the undiscounted (contractual) cost to acquire/enter into the derivative unpaid by the reporting entity.

Column 24 – Fair Value of Derivative, Excluding Impact of Financing Premiums

Reflect the fair value of the derivative adjusted to exclude the impact of discounted future settled premiums. For example, if the fair value of the derivative reported in column 16 has been reduced due to expected cash outflows representing the reporting entity's future payment of financing premiums, the consideration of those future premium cash outflows shall be removed from the reported fair value of the derivative captured in this column.

(At acquisition, a derivative may be reported with a net zero fair value in column 16 as the value of the derivative and the net present value of future financing premiums owed from the acquisition of the derivative may offset. The fair value reported in column 30 shall reflect the fair value of the derivative without an offset for the future financing premiums.)

Column 25 – Unrealized Valuation Increase/Decrease, Excluding Impact of Financing Premiums

Reflect the unrealized gain or unrealized loss reported for the derivative adjusted to exclude the impact from discounted future settled premiums. SCHEDULE DB – PART D – SECTION 1

COUNTERPARTY EXPOSURE FOR DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS OPEN
DECEMBER 31 OF CURRENT YEAR

Counterparty Exposure to any one counterparty is the exposure to credit risk associated with the use of derivative instruments with that counterparty. This section displays the Book/Adjusted Carrying Value exposure and Fair Value exposure to each counterparty, net of collateral. Also displayed is the total potential exposure for each counterparty for Schedule DB, Parts A and B.

On the first line, show the aggregate sum for exchange traded derivatives, also known as listed derivatives or futures (Line 0199999999). (Exchange-Traded Derivatives are executed over a centralized trading venue known as an exchange and then booked with a central counterparty known as a clearing house.)

On the next six lines, show separately six groups of OTC (over-the-counter) derivative counterparties by NAIC Designation. (Lines 0299999999 through 0799999999)

Then show the aggregate sum for centrally cleared derivatives. (Line 0899999999) This line is used to show centrally cleared derivatives that are not considered exchange-traded.

The final line will show a total of all derivatives listed in the lines above. (Line 0999999999)

Within each group, list the counterparties or central clearinghouses in alphabetical order.

For each counterparty with a master agreement, show on a second line, if applicable, totals for derivative instruments not covered by the master agreement.

Use additional lines, as needed, if multiple master agreements with the counterparty exist that do not provide for netting of offsetting amounts by the reporting entity against the counterparty upon termination in the event that the counterparty defaults.

Show subtotals for each group.

If a reporting entity has any detail lines reported for any of the following required groups, it shall report the subtotal amount of the corresponding group with the specified subtotal line number appearing in the same manner and location as the pre-printed total.

Aggregate Sum of Exchange-Traded Derivatives	0199999999
Over-The-Counter
Total NAIC 1 Designation	0299999999
Total NAIC 2 Designation	0399999999
Total NAIC 3 Designation	0499999999
Total NAIC 4 Designation	0599999999
Total NAIC 5 Designation	0699999999
Total NAIC 6 Designation	0799999999
Aggregate Sum of Central Clearinghouses (Excluding Exchange-Traded).....	0899999999
Total (Sum of 0199999999, 0299999999, 0399999999, 0499999999, 0599999999, 0699999999, 0799999999 and 08999999).....	0999999999

Column 1 – Description of Exchange, Counterparty or Central Clearinghouse

The first line for the Aggregate Sum of Exchange-Traded Derivatives.

On subsequent lines, show the name and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission’s Legal Entity Identifier (LEI), if an LEI number has been assigned, for the counterparty or central clearinghouse.

Include the name and the LEI of the central clearinghouse and the derivatives clearing member, where appropriate.

Column 2 – Master Agreement (Y or N)

For OTC counterparties, indicate “Y” if:

1. The reporting entity has a written International Swaps and Derivatives Association (ISDA) master agreement with the counterparty that provides for the netting of offsetting amounts by the reporting entity against the counterparty upon termination in the event that the counterparty defaults, or if such netting provisions of an ISDA master agreement are either incorporated by reference in transaction confirmations or are otherwise contractual provisions to which derivative instrument confirmations with the counterparty are subject, or if the reporting entity has a written non-ISDA master agreement with the counterparty that provides for the netting of offsetting amounts or the right of offset by the reporting entity against the counterparty upon termination in the event that the counterparty defaults; and
2. The domiciliary jurisdiction of such counterparty is either within the United States or if not within the United States, is within a foreign (non-United States) jurisdiction listed in the Purposes and Procedures Manual of the NAIC Investment Analysis Office as eligible for netting.

Column 3 – Credit Support Annex (Y or N)

For OTC counterparties, indicate “Y” if:

The reporting entity has an additional annex to the International Swaps and Derivatives Association (ISDA) master agreement called a Credit Support Annex (CSA). The CSA agreement with the counterparty provides functionality of collateral postings against net counterparty exposure in excess of a threshold amount. This limits the net exposure the reporting entity has to a derivative counterparty in the event of a counterparty default.

Column 4 – Fair Value of Acceptable Collateral

Leave blank for the aggregate reporting of Exchange-Traded Derivatives (Line 0199999999).

For OTC counterparties, show the Fair Value of acceptable collateral pledged by the counterparty.

For central clearinghouses, this amount would be the net positive variation margin received by the reporting entity.

“Acceptable collateral” means cash, cash equivalents, securities issued or guaranteed by the United States or Canadian governments or their government-sponsored enterprises, letters of credit, publicly traded obligations designated 1 by the SVO, government money market mutual funds, and such other items as may be defined as acceptable collateral in the Purposes and Procedures Manual of the NAIC Investment Analysis Office. For purposes of this definition, the term “letter of credit” means a clean, irrevocable and unconditional letter of credit issued or confirmed by, and payable and presentable at, a financial institution on the list of financial institutions meeting the standards for issuing such letter of credit published pursuant to the Purposes and Procedures Manual of the NAIC Investment Analysis Office. The letter of credit must have an expiration date beyond the term of the subject transaction.

For Columns 5 and 6, Book/Adjusted Carrying Values that are debit balances on the balance sheet are positive numbers; those that are credit balances are negative numbers.

Column 5 – Contracts with Book/Adjusted Carrying Value > 0 (i.e., debit balance on balance sheet)

On the first line, show the aggregate sum for exchange traded derivatives that have a positive Book/Adjusted Carrying Value.

For futures, this equals the sum of the positive cumulative variation margin for highly effective futures (Part B, Section 1, Column 15), plus the sum of the ending balance of all cash deposits with brokers (Part B, Section 1, Broker Name/Net Cash Deposits Footnote – Ending Cash Balance).

On subsequent lines, show the sum of the Book/Adjusted Carrying Values of all derivative instruments with the counterparty or central clearinghouse that have a positive statement value.

Column 6 – Contracts with Book/Adjusted Carrying Value < 0 (i.e., credit balance on balance sheet)

On the first line, show the sum of the statement values in parentheses () of all exchange traded derivatives that have a negative Book/Adjusted Carrying Value.

For futures, this equals the sum of the negative cumulative variation margin for highly effective futures (Part B, Section 1, Column 15).

On subsequent lines, show the sum of the Book/Adjusted Carrying Values in parentheses () of all derivative instruments with the counterparty or central clearinghouse that have a negative Book/Adjusted Carrying Value.

Column 7 – Exposure Net of Collateral (Book/Adjusted Carrying Value)

For the aggregate reporting of Exchange-Traded Derivatives (Line 0199999999), show amount in Column 5.

For OTC counterparties, if no master agreement is in place, show the sum of the Book/Adjusted Carrying Values of all derivative instruments with the counterparty that has a positive Book/Adjusted Carrying Value, less any Acceptable Collateral (Column 5 – Column 4).

For OTC counterparties with a master agreement in place and central clearinghouses, show the net sum of the Book/Adjusted Carrying Values of all derivative instruments, less any acceptable collateral (Column 5 + Column 6 – Column 4).

This amount should not be less than zero.

For Columns 8 and 9, market values that would be debit balances on the balance sheet are positive numbers; those that would be credit balances are negative numbers.

Column 8 – Contracts with Fair Value > 0 (i.e., debit balance on the balance sheet)

Show the sum of the market values of all derivative instruments that have a positive market value.

Column 9 – Contracts with Fair Value < 0 (i.e., credit balance on the balance sheet)

Show the sum of the market values in parentheses () of all derivative instruments that have a negative market value.

Column 10 – Exposure Net of Collateral (Fair Value)

For the aggregate reporting of Exchange-Traded Derivatives (Line 0199999999), show amounts in Column 8.

For OTC counterparties, if no master agreement is in place, show the sum of the market values of all derivative instruments with the counterparty that has a positive market value, less any acceptable collateral (Column 8 – Column 4).

For OTC counterparties with a master agreement in place, exchange-traded derivatives and central clearinghouses show the net sum of the market values of all derivative instruments, less any acceptable collateral (Column 8 + Column 9 – Column 4).

This amount should not be less than zero.

Column 11 – Potential Exposure

Show the potential exposure for Parts A and B for Exchange-Traded Derivatives in aggregate (Line 0199999999) and for each OTC counterparty and central clearinghouse.

Column 12 – Off-Balance Sheet Exposure

For Exchange-Traded Derivatives (Line 0199999999), show Column 11.

For central clearinghouses:

Show [Column 5 + Column 6 – Column 4 + Column 11] – Column 7 but not less than zero.

For OTC counterparties:

If Column 2 = yes; show [Column 5 + Column 6 – Column 4 + Column 11] – Column 7 but not less than zero.

If Column 2 = no; show Column 11.

Optional: If there is no master netting agreement, companies may still encounter double-counting in cases where a premium is received for an off-balance sheet derivative transaction, such as an interest rate swap. In such cases, report “no” in Column 2 and calculate off-balance sheet exposure on a contract-by-contract basis using the first formula.

* Column 13 will be electronic only. ****

Column 13 – Legal Entity Identifier (LEI)

Provide the 20-character Legal Entity Identifier (LEI) for any counterparty as assigned by a designated Local Operating Unit. If no LEI number has been assigned, leave blank.

COLLATERAL FOR DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS OPEN
DECEMBER 31 OF CURRENT YEAR

Under derivative contracts, collateral may be pledged to exchanges, counterparties, clearing brokers or central clearinghouses by the reporting entity as well as pledged by the exchanges, counterparties, clearing brokers or central clearinghouses to the reporting entity. This section displays the collateral pledged by the reporting entity in the first table and the collateral pledged to the reporting entity in the second table.

Each exchange, counterparty, derivatives clearing member or central clearinghouse may be listed more than once in each of the tables. For example, if initial and variation margin are posted at the same exchange; if more than one type of security is pledged to the same counterparty; if more than one corporate bond is pledged by a central clearinghouse; etc.

SCHEDULE DL – PART 1

SECURITIES LENDING COLLATERAL ASSETS

Reinvested Collateral Assets Owned December 31 Current Year (Securities lending collateral assets reported in aggregate on Line 10 of the asset page and not included on Schedules A, B, BA, D, DB and E.)

This schedule should include a detailed listing of reinvested collateral assets that were owned as of the end of the current reporting year. For Schedule DL, reinvested collateral assets are collateral currently held as part of a securities lending program administered by the reporting entity or its agent (affiliated or unaffiliated) that can be resold or repledged. This is the currently held collateral, meaning original collateral if it is still in the original form received or the newly invested asset resulting from the disposal and/or reinvestment of the original collateral. See SSAP No. 103R—Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities for accounting guidance.

Include reinvested collateral assets from securities lending programs where the program is administered by the reporting entity's unaffiliated agent (i.e., collateral is received by the reporting entity's unaffiliated agent that can be resold or repledged). These securities will be reported in aggregate on the Assets page, Line 10.

For reinvested collateral assets from securities lending programs where the program is administered by the reporting entity's affiliated agent (i.e., collateral is received by the reporting entity's affiliated agent that can be resold or repledged), the securities may be reported on Schedule DL, Part 1 if reported in aggregate on the Assets page, Line 10 or reported on Schedule DL, Part 2 if reported in other investment schedules (e.g., Schedules A, B, BA, D, DA and E), but not both.

Reinvested collateral assets reported on Schedule DL, Part 1 are excluded from other investment schedules (e.g., Schedules A, B, BA, D, DA and E).

Bonds, preferred stocks and common stocks are to be grouped separately, showing a subtotal for each category.

Securities borrowing and securities lending transactions shall be shown gross when reported in the Schedule DL. If these transactions are permitted to be reported net in accordance with SSAP No. 64—Offsetting and Netting of Assets and Liabilities, the investment schedule shall continue to provide detail of all transactions (gross), with the net amount from the valid right to offset reflected in the financial statements (pages 2 & 3 of the statutory financial statements). Disclosures for items reported net when a valid right to offset exists, including the gross amount, the amount offset, and the net amount reported in the financial statements are required per SSAP No. 64—Offsetting and Netting of Assets and Liabilities.

Bond Mutual Funds – as Identified by the SVO and Exchange Traded Funds – as Identified by the SVO, which are described in the Investment Schedules General Instructions, are to be included in SVO Identified Funds.

If an insurer has any detail line reported for any of the following required categories or subcategories, it shall report the subtotal amount of the corresponding category or subcategory, with the specified subtotal line number appearing in the same manner and location as the pre-printed total or grand total line and number:

NOTE: See the Investment Schedules General Instructions for the following:

- Category definitions for bonds and stocks.
- Code column list of codes and definitions for securities not under the exclusive control of the reporting entity.
- Flow chart for determining the NAIC designation for structured securities.
- List of stock exchange names and abbreviations.

Column 1 – CUSIP Identification

CUSIP numbers for all purchased publicly issued securities are available from the broker's confirmation or the certificate. For private placement securities, the NAIC has created a special number called a PPN to be assigned by the Standard & Poor's CUSIP Bureau. For foreign securities, use a CINS that is assigned by the Standard & Poor's CUSIP Bureau: www.cusip.com/cusip/index.htm.

For Lines 0199999 through 7799999, if no valid CUSIP, CINS or PPN number exists, then report a valid ISIN (Column 11) security number. The CUSIP field should be zero-filled.

The CUSIP reported for this column should be determined in a manner consistent with the instructions of other schedules for the lines shown below:

Lines 0199999 through 7099999	Schedule D, Part 1, Column 1
Lines 7199999 through 7399999	Schedule D, Part 2, Section 1, Column 1
Lines 7499999 through 7799999	Schedule D, Part 2, Section 2, Column 1
Line 8899999	Schedule BA, Part 1, Column 1
Line 9199999	Schedule E, Part 2, Column 1

The CUSIP number should be zero-filled for the following lines:

Real Estate (Schedule A type)	8699999
Mortgage Loans on Real Estate (Schedule B type).....	8799999
Short-Term Invested Assets (Schedule DA, Part 1 type).....	8999999
Cash (Schedule E, Part 1 type).....	9099999
Other Assets.....	9299999

Column 2 – Description

Give a complete and accurate description of all bonds and preferred and common stocks as listed in the Valuations of Securities.

For Bond Mutual Funds – as Identified by the SVO and Exchange Traded Funds – as Identified by the SVO, enter complete name of the fund.

For Certificate of Deposit Account Registry Service (CDARs) or other similar services that have a maturity of greater than one year, individually list the various banking institutions that are financially responsible for honoring certificates of deposit.

Enter “^” in this column for all assets that are bifurcated between the insulated separate account filing and the non-insulated separate account filing.

If assets are not under the exclusive control of the company as shown in the General Interrogatories, they are to be identified by placing one of the codes (identified in the Investment Schedules General Instructions) in this column.

If the security is an SVO Identified Fund designated for systematic value, Principal STRIP bond or other zero coupon bond, certificates of deposit under the FDIC limit or a TBA (To Be Announced) security and is not under the exclusive control of the company, the “*”, “@”, “$” or “&” should appear first, immediately followed by the appropriate code (identified in the Investment Schedules General Instructions).

Separate Account Filing Only:

If the asset is a bifurcated asset between the insulated separate account filing and the non-insulated separate account filing, the “^” should appear first and may be used simultaneously with the “”, “@”, “$” or “&” with the “^” preceding the other characters (“”, “@”, “$” or “&”) depending on the asset being reported, immediately followed by the appropriate code (identified in the Investment Schedules General Instructions).

* Columns 8 through 11 will be electronic only. ****

Column 8 – Fair Value Hierarchy Level and Method Used to Obtain Fair Value Code

Whenever possible, fair value should represent the price at which the security could be sold, based on market information. Fair value should only be determined analytically when the market-based value cannot be obtained.

The following is a listing of valid fair value level indicators to show the fair value hierarchy level.

“1” for Level 1

“2” for Level 2

“3” for Level 3

The following is a listing of the valid method indicators to show the method used by the reporting entity to determine the Rate Used to Obtain Fair Value.

“a” for securities where the rate is determined by a pricing service

“b” for securities where the rate is determined by a stock exchange.

“c” for securities where the rate is determined by a broker or custodian. The reporting entity should obtain and maintain the pricing policy for any broker or custodian used as a pricing source. In addition, the broker must either be approved by the reporting entity as a counterparty for buying and selling securities or be an underwriter of the security being valued.

“d” for securities where the rate is determined by the reporting entity. The reporting entity is required to maintain a record of the pricing methodology used.

“e” for securities where the rate is determined by the unit price published in the NAIC Valuation of Securities.

Enter a combination of hierarchy and method indicator. The fair value hierarchy level indicator would be listed first and the method used to determine fair value indicator would be listed next. For example, use “1b” to report Level 1 for the fair value hierarchy level and stock exchange for the method used to determine fair value.

The guidance in SAP No. 100R—Fair Value allows the use of net asset value per share (NAV) instead of fair value for certain investments. If NAV is used instead of fair value leave blank.

Column 9 – Source Used to Obtain Fair Value

For Method Code “a,” identify the specific pricing service used.

For Method Code “b,” identify the specific stock exchange used.

The listing of most stock exchange codes can be found in the Investment Schedules General Instructions or the following Web address:

www.fixprotocol.org/specifications/exchanges.shtml

For Method Code “c,” identify the specific broker or custodian used.

For Method Code “d,” leave blank.

For Method Code “e,” leave blank.

If net asset value (NAV) is used instead of fair value, the reporting entity should use “NAV” to indicate net asset value used instead of fair value.

Column 10 – Legal Entity Identifier (LEI)

Provide the 20-character Legal Entity Identifier (LEI) for any mortgagor, issuer or counterparty as assigned by a designated Local Operating Unit. If no LEI number has been assigned, leave blank.

Column 11 – ISIN Identification

The International Securities Identification Numbering (ISIN) system is an international standard set up by the International Organization for Standardization (ISO). It is used for numbering specific securities, such as stocks, bonds, options and futures. ISIN numbers are administered by a National Numbering Agency (NNA) in each of the respective countries, and they work just like serial numbers for those securities. Record the ISIN number only if no valid CUSIP, CINS or PPN exists to report in Column 1.

The ISIN reported for this column should be determined in a manner consistent with the instructions of other schedules for the lines shown below:

- Lines 0199999 through 7099999 Schedule D, Part 1, Column 1
- Lines 7199999 through 7399999 Schedule D, Part 2, Section 1, Column 1
- Lines 7499999 through 7799999 Schedule D, Part 2, Section 2, Column 1

The ISIN number should be zero-filled for the following lines:

- Real Estate (Schedule A type) 8699999
- Mortgage Loans on Real Estate (Schedule B type)..... 8799999
- Other Invested Assets (Schedule BA type)..... 8899999
- Short-Term Invested Assets (Schedule DA, Part 1 type)..... 8999999
- Cash (Schedule E, Part 1 type)..... 9099999
- Cash Equivalents (Schedule E, Part 2 type)..... 9199999
- Other Assets..... 9299999

General Interrogatories:

1. The total activity for the year represents the net increase (decrease) from the prior year-end to the current year-end.
2. The average balance for the year is the average daily balance.

Average daily balance: Total of daily balances divided by the number of days. Always calculate based on a 365/366 day year. If data is missing for a given date (e.g., weekend, holiday), count the previous day's value multiple times. The actual day count for the year (365/366) would serve as the denominator in the average calculation.

For Schedule DL, reinvested collateral assets are collateral currently held as part of a securities lending program administered by the reporting entity or its agent (affiliated or unaffiliated) that can be resold or repledged. This is the currently held collateral, meaning original collateral if it is still in the original form received or the newly invested asset resulting from the disposal and/or reinvestment of the original collateral. See SSAP No. 103R—Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities for accounting guidance.

For reinvested collateral assets from securities lending programs where the program is administered by the reporting entity's affiliated agent (i.e., collateral is received by the reporting entity's affiliated agent that can be resold or repledged), the securities may be reported on Schedule DL, Part 2 if reported in other investment schedules (e.g., Schedules A, B, BA, D, DA and E) or reported on Schedule DL, Part 1 if reported in aggregate on the Asset page Line 10, but not both.

Reinvested collateral assets reported on Schedule DL, Part 2 are included in the other investment schedules (e.g., Schedules A, B, BA, D, DA and E).

Bonds, preferred stocks and common stocks are to be grouped separately, showing a subtotal for each category.

Securities borrowing and securities lending transactions shall be shown gross when reported in the Schedule DL. If these transactions are permitted to be reported net in accordance with SSAP No. 64—Offsetting and Netting of Assets and Liabilities, the investment schedule shall continue to provide detail on all transactions (gross), with the net amount from the valid right to offset reflected in the financial statements (pages 2 & 3 of the statutory financial statements). Disclosures for items reported net when a valid right to offset exists, including the gross amount, the amount offset, and the net amount reported in the financial statements are required per SSAP No. 64—Offsetting and Netting of Assets and Liabilities.

Column 1 – CUSIP Identification

CUSIP numbers for all purchased publicly issued securities are available from the broker's confirmation or the certificate. For private placement securities, the NAIC has created a special number called a PPN to be assigned by the Standard & Poor's CUSIP Bureau. For foreign securities, use a CINS that is assigned by the Standard & Poor's CUSIP Bureau: www.cusip.com/cusip/index.htm.

For Lines 0199999 through 7799999, if no valid CUSIP, CINS or PPN number exists, then report a valid ISIN (Column 11) security number. The CUSIP field should be zero-filled.

The CUSIP reported for this column should be same for the security as reported in other schedules for the lines shown below:

Lines 0199999 through 7099999.....	Schedule D, Part 1, Column 1
Lines 7199999 through 7399999.....	Schedule D, Part 2, Section 1, Column 1
Lines 7499999 through 7799999.....	Schedule D, Part 2, Section 2, Column 1
Line 8899999.....	Schedule BA, Part 1, Column 1
Line 9199999.....	Schedule E, Part 2, Column 1

The CUSIP number should be zero-filled for the following lines:

Real Estate (Schedule A).....	8699999
Mortgage Loans on Real Estate (Schedule B).....	8799999
Short-Term Invested Assets (Schedule DA, Part 1).....	8999999

If assets are not under the exclusive control of the company as shown in the General Interrogatories, they are to be identified by placing one of the codes (identified in the Investment Schedules General Instructions) in this column.

If the security is an SVO Identified Fund designated for systematic value, Principal STRIP bond or other zero coupon bond, certificates of deposit under the FDIC limit or a TBA (To Be Announced) security and is not under the exclusive control of the company, the “*”, “@”, “$” or “&” should appear first, immediately followed by the appropriate code (identified in the Investment Schedules General Instructions).

* Columns 8 through 11 will be electronic only. ****

Column 8 – Fair Value Hierarchy Level and Method Used to Obtain Fair Value Code

Whenever possible, fair value should represent the price at which the security could be sold, based on market information. Fair value should only be determined analytically when the market-based value cannot be obtained.

The following is a listing of valid fair value level indicators to show the fair value hierarchy level.

“1” for Level 1

“2” for Level 2

“3” for Level 3

The following is a listing of the valid method indicators to show the method used by the reporting entity to determine the Rate Used to Obtain Fair Value.

“a” for securities where the rate is determined by a pricing service

“b” for securities where the rate is determined by a stock exchange.

“c” for securities where the rate is determined by a broker or custodian. The reporting entity should obtain and maintain the pricing policy for any broker or custodian used as a pricing source. In addition, the broker must either be approved by the reporting entity as a counterparty for buying and selling securities or be an underwriter of the security being valued.

“d” for securities where the rate is determined by the reporting entity. The reporting entity is required to maintain a record of the pricing methodology used.

“e” for securities where the rate is determined by the unit price published in the NAIC Valuation of Securities.

Enter a combination of hierarchy and method indicator. The fair value hierarchy level indicator would be listed first and the method used to determine fair value indicator would be listed next. For example, use “1b” to report Level 1 for the fair value hierarchy level and stock exchange for the method used to determine fair value.

The guidance in SAP No. 100R—Fair Value allows the use of net asset value per share (NAV) instead of fair value for certain investments. If NAV is used instead of fair value leave blank.

Column 9 – Source Used to Obtain Fair Value

For Method Code “a,” identify the specific pricing service used.

For Method Code “b,” identify the specific stock exchange used.

The listing of most stock exchange codes can be found in the Investment Schedules General Instructions or the following Web address:

www.fixprotocol.org/specifications/exchanges.shtml

For Method Code “c,” identify the specific broker or custodian used.

For Method Code “d,” leave blank.

For Method Code “e,” leave blank.

If net asset value (NAV) is used instead of fair value, the reporting entity should use “NAV” to indicate net asset value used instead of fair value.

Column 10 – Legal Entity Identifier (LEI)

Provide the 20-character Legal Entity Identifier (LEI) for any mortgagor, issuer or counterparty as assigned by a designated Local Operating Unit. If no LEI number has been assigned, leave blank.

Column 11 – ISIN Identification

The International Securities Identification Numbering (ISIN) system is an international standard set up by the International Organization for Standardization (ISO). It is used for numbering specific securities, such as stocks, bonds, options and futures. ISIN numbers are administered by a National Numbering Agency (NNA) in each of the respective countries, and they work just like serial numbers for those securities. Record the ISIN number only if no valid CUSIP, CINS or PPN exists to report in Column 1.

The ISIN reported for this column should be same for the security as reported in other schedules for the lines shown below:

- Lines 0199999 through 7099999 Schedule D, Part 1, Column 1
- Lines 7199999 through 7399999 Schedule D, Part 2, Section 1, Column 1
- Lines 7499999 through 7799999 Schedule D, Part 2, Section 2, Column 1

The ISIN number should be zero-filled for the following lines:

- Real Estate (Schedule A) 8699999
- Mortgage Loans on Real Estate (Schedule B) 8799999
- Other Invested Assets (Schedule BA)..... 8899999
- Short-Term Invested Assets (Schedule DA, Part 1)..... 8999999
- Cash (Schedule E, Part 1) 9099999
- Cash Equivalents (Schedule E, Part 2)..... 9199999
- Other Assets..... 9299999

General Interrogatories:

1. The total activity for the year represents the net increase (decrease) from the prior year-end to the current year-end.
2. The average balance for the year is the average daily balance.

Average daily balance: Total of daily balances divided by the number of days. Always calculate based on a 365/366 day year. If data is missing for a given date (e.g., weekend, holiday), count the previous day's value multiple times. The actual day count for the year (365/366) would serve as the denominator in the average calculation.

SCHEDULE E – PART 1 – CASH

This schedule shows all banks, trust companies, savings and loan and building and loan associations in which the company maintained deposits at any time during the year and the balances, if any (according to Reporting Entity’s record), on December 31 of the current year. Certificates of deposit in banks or other similar financial institutions with maturity dates of one year or less from the acquisition date and other instruments defined as cash in accordance with SSAP No. 2R—Cash, Cash Equivalents, Drafts, and Short-Term Investments should be reported in this schedule. All Cash Equivalents should be reported in Schedule E, Part 2. Long-term certificates of deposit are to be reported in Schedule D.

In each case where the depository is not incorporated and subject to government supervision, the word “PRIVATE” in capitals and in parentheses — (PRIVATE) — should be inserted to the left of the name of the depository.

Report separately all deposits in excess of $250,000 or less than ($250,000). Deposits not exceeding $250,000 or not less than ($250,000) in federally insured depositories may be combined. Deposits in foreign bank accounts may be combined to the extent that the amount on deposit does not exceed the lesser of $250,000 or the amount of the foreign guarantee. The amount combined should be reported opposite the caption, “Deposits in (insert number) depositories that do not exceed the allowable limit.” However, any reporting entity that does not maintain total deposits in any one depository of more than $250,000 is required to list its primary depository; and all entities must list all depositories where the total deposits or overdrafts (as represented by the absolute value) exceed 5% of the total cash as reported on Page 2 of the annual statement.

For Certificate of Deposit Account Registry Service (CDARs) or other similar services that have a maturity of one year or less, each individual banking institution providing a certificate of deposit should be reviewed separately to determine if the balance maintained by the reporting entity at that banking institution meets the criteria set forth above (i.e., does not exceed $250,000 or is not less than ($250,000) in federally insured depositories) when combining with other depository balances. If not, it should be listed individually on the schedule.

Cash in Reporting Entity’s Office should be reported in this schedule.

The total of all Cash on Deposit at December 31 plus Cash in Reporting Entity’s office (Total Cash, on a gross basis), less any applicable nonadmitted amounts (e.g., nonadmitted cash resulting from state-imposed limitations), should equal the parenthetical amount reported as cash on the Assets Page.

If the reporting entity has any detail lines reported for any of the following required groups, categories, or subcategories, it shall report the subtotal amount of the corresponding group, category, or subcategory, with the specified subtotal line number appearing in the same manner and location as the pre-printed total or grand total line and number:

Short Sales:

Selling a security short is an action by a reporting entity that results with the reporting entity recognizing proceeds from the sale and an obligation to deliver the sold security. For statutory accounting purposes, obligations to deliver securities resulting from short sales shall be reported as contra-assets (negative assets) in the investment schedule, with an investment code in the code column detailing the item as a short sale. The obligation (negative asset) shall be initially reflected at fair value, with changes in fair value recognized as unrealized gains and losses. These unrealized gains and losses shall be realized upon settlement of the short sale obligation. Interest on short sale positions shall be accrued periodically and reported as interest expense.

If a reporting entity has any detail lines reported for any of the following required categories or subcategories, it shall report the subtotal amounts of the corresponding category or subcategory with the specified subtotal line number appearing in the same manner and location as the pre-printed total or grand total line and number:

The Exhibit shall be filed as a supplement to each reporting entity's annual statement to the domiciliary Department on or before March 1. If a named executive officer (other than the PEO or PFO) served as an executive officer of the reporting entity (whether or not in the same position) during any part of the fiscal year with respect to which information is required, information shall be provided as to all compensation of that individual for the full fiscal year.

The term stock appreciation rights (SARs) refers to SARs payable in cash or stock, including SARs payable in cash or stock at the election of the registrant or a named executive officer. The term “equity” is used to refer generally to stock and/or options.
2. The terms “date of grant” or “grant date” refer to the grant date determined for financial statement reporting purposes pursuant to SSAP No. 104R—Share-Based Payments.

Column 3	–	Salary	The dollar value of the base salary (cash and non-cash) paid to the named officer or employee during the fiscal year covered.
Column 4	–	Bonus	The dollar value of any bonus (cash and non-cash) paid to the named officer or employee during the fiscal year covered.
Column 5	–	Stock Awards	For awards of stock, the aggregate grant date value computed in accordance with SSAP No. 104R—Share-Based Payments .
Column 6	–	Option Awards	For awards of options, with or without tandem SARs (including awards that subsequently have been transferred), the aggregate grant date value computed in accordance with SSAP No. 104R—Share-Based Payments .
Column 7	–	Sign-on Payments	All compensation received as a result of the acceptance of an employment offer.
Column 8	–	Severance Payments	Any termination, including without limitation through retirement, resignation, severance or constructive termination (including a change in responsibilities) of such executive officer’s employment with the reporting entity’s and its subsidiaries

Column 9 – All Other Compensation

All other compensation for the covered fiscal year that the reporting entity could not properly report in any other column. Each compensation item that is not properly reportable in other columns, regardless of the amount of the compensation item, must be included.

Such compensation must include, but is not limited to:

- Perquisites and other personal benefits, or property, unless the aggregate amount of such compensation is less than $10,000;
- All “gross-ups” or other amounts reimbursed during the fiscal year for the payment of taxes;
- Reporting entity contributions or other allocations to vested and unvested defined contribution plans;
- A change in control of the reporting entity;
- The dollar value of any insurance premiums paid by, or on behalf of, the reporting entity during the covered fiscal year with respect to life insurance for the benefit of a named officer or employee; and
- The dollar value of any dividends or other earnings paid on stock or option awards, when those amounts were not factored into the grant date fair value required to be reported for the stock or option award.

Part 3

Director Compensation

Reporting entities shall also disclose all compensation paid to, or on behalf of, all directors, other than full-time officers and employees of the reporting entity whose total compensation included service as a director and is disclosed under Part 2. Amounts disclosed must include all compensation paid for services on board and committees, as well as any other compensation for any other activity or service, such as consulting agreements.

LIFE, HEALTH AND ANNUITY GUARANTY ASSOCIATION MODEL ACT ASSESSMENT BASE RECONCILIATION EXHIBIT

The exhibit for any state, District of Columbia and Puerto Rico in which the company is licensed should be submitted to that jurisdiction. In addition, an exhibit should be prepared for any state, District of Columbia and Puerto Rico in which the company received any direct premiums or deposits. DO NOT SUBMIT exhibits for American Samoa, Guam, U.S. Virgin Islands, Canada, Northern Mariana Islands and other alien jurisdictions. A copy of each jurisdiction and a grand total page for the exhibits that are submitted should be sent to the state of domicile and the NAIC Support and Services Office.

Only companies that are members of the life, health and annuity guaranty associations should complete this exhibit. If a company is unsure if it is a member of a life, health and annuity guaranty association, it should contact the state life, health and annuity guaranty associations in its state of domicile or state(s) where it is licensed to write life, health and annuity business.

For the purpose of these instructions, references to Schedule T apply to the Life and Health blank and references to the Exhibit of Premiums and Losses apply to the Property blank.

The columnar headings correspond to the annual statement, Schedule T (Life or Health blank) or Exhibit of Premiums and Losses (Property blank) as follows:

Adjustments to the exhibit may be required by states that have not adopted the Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Association Model Act (#520).

PURPOSE OF THE LIFE, HEALTH AND ANNUITY GUARANTY ASSOCIATION
MODEL ACT ASSESSMENT BASE RECONCILIATION EXHIBIT

It is desirable to display on one page the various types of annuity considerations, deposit-type contract funds and other considerations received directly by the reporting entity, separated by state, as is currently reported in the applicable Schedule T or Exhibit of Premiums and Losses. However, it is not possible to use such data for state guaranty association assessments without further modification. This is because of: (a) the limits placed on certain considerations for assessment purposes, (b) the variations by states in designation of “funds” for assessments, and (c) other factors that are interpreted differently by the individual states.

As a result, the NAIC has developed a specific exhibit, the Life, Health & Annuity Guaranty Association Model Act Assessment Base Reconciliation Exhibit (“Base Reconciliation Exhibit”) which uses the state figures in Schedule T or Exhibit of Premiums and Losses as the starting point for development of the guaranty association assessment base (as defined in the NAIC Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Association Model Act (#520)). States should not use Schedule T or Exhibit of Premiums and Losses as the basis for guaranty association assessments, but instead use the Base Reconciliation Exhibit as the starting point.

Introduction

These instructions are intended to assist companies in completing the Life, Health and Annuity Guaranty Association Model Act Assessment Base Reconciliation Exhibit (Base Reconciliation Exhibit) and Adjustments to the Life, Health and Annuity Guaranty Association Model Act Assessment Base Reconciliation Exhibit (Adjustment Exhibit).

The Base Reconciliation Exhibit starts with premiums, deposit-type contract funds and other considerations as reported in the applicable Schedule T or Exhibit of Premiums and Losses and then makes necessary adjustments (both positive and negative) to establish the premium assessment base as defined by the current Model Act #520). The Base Reconciliation Exhibit must be completed for each state (as well as the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico) in which the company is licensed or does business.

Should you have questions about how to fill out the Base Reconciliation Exhibit, and the answers are not provided in the instructions below, you may wish to consult the Model Act #520, particular State Guaranty Acts, the Annual Statement Instructions manual, your company attorney, particular State Insurance Departments, or particular State Guaranty Association Administrators.

The Base Reconciliation Exhibit has four columns: Column 1 is for all individual and group life insurance premiums; Column 2 is for all individual and group allocated annuity amounts (whether called premiums, deposit-type contract funds, or other considerations); Column 3 is for all individual and group accident and health premiums; and Column 4 is for all unallocated annuity amounts (whether called premiums, deposit-type contract funds, or other considerations).

Not for Distribution

Base Reconciliation Exhibit

Premiums, Considerations and Deposits from Schedule T or the Exhibit of Premiums and Losses

Line 1 – These amounts must exactly match the amounts reported by your company on Schedule T or the Exhibit of Premiums and Losses for all lines of business.

Modifications to Premiums, Considerations and Deposits

Lines 2 through 10 are required to adjust amounts reported on your company's Annual Statement Schedule T to its Assessable Premium Base and are critical in transforming premium data prepared for Annual Statement purposes into data suitable for Guaranty Association purposes.

Line 2 – Enter any life, annuity or health premiums, deposit-type contract funds and other considerations, received by your company that were not reported on Schedule T or the Exhibit of Premiums and Losses and therefore not included in Line 1 above. The total of Line 2 should equal Line 2.1 + Line 2.2. Such amounts should be reported in the appropriate column based on whether such amounts relate to life insurance, annuity, accident and health, or annuity and deposit-type business. Include all amounts received for insurance contracts. Guaranteed investment contract receipts, universal life insurance deposits and any other amounts received by the company for covered contracts that were not reported on the company's Schedule T or the Exhibit of Premiums and Losses (sometimes referred to as FASB 97 deposit reporting), must be reported on Line 2. Annuity amounts entered on Lines 1 and 2 must include, but are not limited to, amounts received for immediate or deferred annuity contracts, structured settlement agreements, lottery contracts, group annuity contracts, guaranteed interest or investment contracts, deposit administration contracts and allocated or unallocated funding obligations. In addition, allocate by state and include on Line 2 amounts reported on the applicable Schedule T as Company Contributions for Employee Benefit Plans (Line 60 (Health blank) or 90 (Life blank) of Schedule T), Dividends Applied to Purchase Paid-up Additions and Annuities, Dividends Applied to Shorten Endowment or Premium-Paying Period, Premium or Annuity Considerations Waived Under Disability or Other Contract Provisions, and Aggregate Other Amounts Not Allocable by State.

Line 2.1 – Enter fees and charges for investment management, administration and contract guarantees from the Separate Account associated with variable contracts reduced by any contractholder dividends representing a return of such fees and charges. Specifically, in the case of variable annuity products, those portions of fees and charges paid to the general account with respect to living and death benefit guarantees, M&E charges and annual contract charges. In the case of variable life products with guaranteed death benefits, the portion of fees/charges paid to the general account would include the cost of insurance in addition to M&E charges and annual contract charges. Because the fees and charges are reportable by state, a reporting entity may use either a seriatim, i.e., specific contract identification, by state, or an allocation method. An appropriate allocation method would be to calculate a ratio of fee income to total variable premium for the product line and multiply the ratio by the state specific variable premium.

Line 2.2 – Enter any other life, annuity or health premiums, deposit-type contract funds and other considerations, received by your company that were not reported on Schedule T or the Exhibit of Premiums and Losses.

- The primary purpose of Lines 3.1 to 3.99 is to add back amounts that as a result of statutory accounting practices were deducted from the amounts reported on Line 1 or 2. For the most part these deductions represent current year benefit payouts, transfers, surrenders or withdrawals.

Enter any amounts deducted prior to determining amounts included in Lines 1 and 2. Companies reporting net amounts on Lines 1 and 2 must complete Lines 3.1 through 3.99 in order to provide gross premiums and deposits. Amounts reported on these lines should include transfers to separate accounts, GIC rollovers to other companies, surrenders, excess interest, and any other amounts deducted from or not included in the company's gross premium figures. Amounts that were reported as "Deposit-Type Contract Funds and Other Considerations" (Column 4) in the year of receipt and transferred in the current year to "Annuity Considerations" (Column 2), as individuals are "annuitized," are to be included on Line 3.3 of Column 4 if these amounts were deducted from the amounts reported on Lines 1 or 2.

As an example, most pension plan unallocated annuities provide for the purchase of an annuity payout benefit ("annuitization") for an individual. In the year of the receipt of the consideration for the unallocated annuity that consideration, subject to limitations, is to be included in the total assessment base reported in Line 11, Column 4. In the year of annuitization, the amounts transferred to fund the annuity payout benefits are to be included in the total assessment base reported in Line 11, Column 2. There should be no corresponding reduction to the total assessment base reported in Line 11, Column 4 for the amount transferred to fund the annuitization to the extent that such amounts would not have been included in an assessment base. When an annuity payout benefit is, pursuant to that contract, purchased for an individual from monies previously deposited with the Company, it is assumed that there is no new contract, rather it is an internal rollover of funds, i.e., no new funds have been received by the Company.

In order to correctly report amounts subject to assessment in Columns 2 and 4, companies should maintain transaction level detail for each deposit type contract. On a cumulative basis, the assessable premium can never be less than $0 on any given contract. For example, the following will illustrate the correct reporting of deposit type contracts that partially or fully annuitize in a model act state (i.e., assessable premium up to $5 million per unallocated annuity contract). The amount reported on Line 7.4 is a balancing amount such that the assessable premium for any unallocated contract never exceeds $5 million nor is less than $0 over the life of the contract. The same approach applies to any state that covers unallocated annuities, irrespective of the limits. In this example, there is a $50 million unallocated contract in Year 1 and the company reports $5 million in Column 4. If the contract is completely annuitized in year 2, the company must report $50 million in Column 2 as allocated premium and $50 million on Line 3.3 (as an add-back) in the unallocated premium column. The Company should report a deduction of $5 million on Line 7.4 in Column 4 in the second year, since it has reported the full $50 million received in Column 2 by the end of the second year. On a cumulative basis, $0 is reported in Column 4. The Company has not subjected to assessment more premium than it has received.

(Millions of Dollars)

Four additional examples will further illustrate the correct reporting of deposit type contracts that partially or fully annuitize in a model act state. In these examples, it can be seen that at any point in time, the Company has never included more in the assessable premium base (Columns 2 and 4 combined) than what was received by the Company over that period of time. Also, the Company never included more than $5 million of assessable premium in Column 4 at any point in time.

For Contract #4, the Company received $25 million of deposits and included $20 million in the assessable premium base ($15 million as annuity considerations and $5 million as deposit funds) over the five-year period. Contract #4 is different than Contract #1 in that after Year 2, only $3 million has been included in Column 4 since $7 million of the $10 million of deposits received has annuitized. For Year 3, $2 million is included in Column 4 bringing the cumulative total to $5 million, since a total of $15 million has been received, but only $7 million has annuitized.

You must provide a clear explanation of any amounts listed on Lines 3.501, 3.502, 3.503, etc. Line 3.99 (Total), should represent the difference between gross and net premiums for each column.

Line 4.1 – Transfer amounts received to fund annuity contracts qualified under Internal Revenue Code Section 403(b) (sometimes referred to as tax-sheltered annuities) from the Annuity Considerations column (Column 2) to the Deposit-Type Contract Funds and Other Considerations column (Column 4). This transfer line should be completed by companies that report 403(b) annuity amounts in the Life Contracts Annuity Considerations column 3 (Life blank) or Life & Annuity Premiums & Other Considerations Column 6 in part (Health blank) of Schedule T. All 403(b) amounts in that column should be transferred to Column 4 of the Base Reconciliation Exhibit, whether the 403(b) contract was issued to a governmental or non-governmental policyholder. The amount entered as a negative in the Annuity Considerations column must exactly match the amount entered as a positive in the Deposit-Type Contract Funds and Other Considerations column.

NOTE: In 1995, the NAIC adopted changes to Section 6.A(1)(b) and 6.A(1)(c) of the Model #520 which effectively reclassified contracts issued under a governmental retirement plan established under Section 401, 403(b) or 457 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code from the unallocated annuity to the allocated annuity account (Non-governmental 401 and 403(b) contracts funded by an unallocated annuity contract remain in the unallocated annuity account). Although now inconsistent with the adopted change, Base Exhibit, Line 4.1 must continue to be completed in accordance with the instructions in the preceding paragraph since no state has yet adopted this change. Changes to future annual statement instructions, forms or formula charts will be considered at such future date if and when adopted by individual state(s).

- Line 4.2 – Transfer any allocated annuity amounts included in the Deposit-Type Contract Funds and Other Considerations column (Column 4) to the Annuity Considerations column (Column 2), except for amounts received to fund annuity contracts qualified under Internal Revenue Code Section 403(b) contracts. This includes all allocated annuity contracts, regardless of whether the annuity is in deferred or payout status, whether the annuity is group or individual, and whether the annuity is qualified or non-qualified for tax purposes.

According to Model #520, an “unallocated annuity contract means any annuity contract or group annuity certificate that is not issued to and owned by an individual, except to the extent of any annuity benefits guaranteed to an individual by a reporting entity under such contract or certificate.” An annuity is considered allocated unless it is unallocated. Examples of unallocated annuity contracts might be guaranteed investment contracts, deposit administration contracts, and unallocated funding agreements where no contract or agreement issued by the reporting entity, nor any certificate issued by the reporting entity thereunder, guarantees individual benefits to specifically identified individuals.

Group annuities may be allocated or unallocated. (The term “unallocated” is synonymous with the term “group”.) A group contract or certificate that guarantees annuity benefits to an individual (this is not the guarantee typically found in a guaranteed investment contract or deposit administration contract which allows the pension trustee or administrator to purchase an annuity for a plan participant at a guaranteed purchase rate) should be considered allocated. In addition to contracts under which periodic payments are being made to individuals, group annuity contracts should be considered allocated if the reporting entity is obligated under the contract upon the request of an individual (or his or her beneficiary) to make either partial or full cash withdrawal payments, which may be subject to plan or statutory restrictions, to the individual (or his or her beneficiary).

The reporting entity will be considered to be obligated upon the request of an individual to make either partial or full cash withdrawal payments if withdrawals or death benefit payments are made from that participant’s account maintained (by the reporting entity or its designee) under the terms of the group annuity contract and regardless of whether such requests are submitted to the reporting entity directly by the individual (or his or her beneficiary) or indirectly through the plan trustee, administrator, sponsor or contract holder at the direction of the individual. As discussed in Line 4.1, the NAIC adopted a change to Model #520 that reclassifies governmental retirement plans established under Section 401, 403(b) and 457 of the Internal Revenue Code to the allocated annuity account. However, until adopted by a state legislature, 403(b) annuities should remain in the Deposit-Type Contract Funds and Other Considerations column (Column 4) to be consistent with existing statutes that require that these contracts be included with unallocated annuities for assessment purposes where applicable. Note that the amount entered as a negative in the Deposit-Type Contract Funds and Other Considerations column must exactly match the amount entered as a positive in the Annuity Considerations column.

- Line 4.3 – Transfer any unallocated annuity amounts included in the Annuity Considerations column (Column 2) to the Deposit-Type Contract Funds and Other Considerations column (Column 4). The amount entered as a negative in the Annuity Considerations column must exactly match the amount entered as a positive in the Deposit-Type Contract Funds and Other Considerations column.

Development of Amounts Included in Lines 1 Through 5 That Should Be Deducted in Determining the Base

Lines 6 through 9.99 are deductions from assessable premium based on the Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Association Model Act (#520) provisions. Companies must be careful not to deduct the same premium or deposits on more than one line. For example, amounts deducted on Line 6.1 as non-guaranteed separate account deposits should not be deducted a second time on Line 7.3 if those separate account deposits represent unallocated annuity deposits for a pension plan contract in excess of $5 million. Companies may only deduct amounts on Lines 6 through 9.99 (except for amounts on Line 8) to the extent those amounts have been included on Lines 1 through 5 of the Base Reconciliation Exhibit.

- Enter amounts received for any portion of a policy or contract not guaranteed by the reporting entity, or under which the investment risk is borne entirely by the policy or contract holder. These amounts are those specified at the time of deposit as intended for deposit in separate accounts. Amounts entered on these lines are typically non-guaranteed separate account premiums. DO NOT INCLUDE on these lines amounts transferred to any guaranteed separate accounts. Two types of annuity contracts that should NOT be reported on Line 6 are: (i) modified guaranteed annuities, market-adjusted annuities, or other contracts where the amounts payable on at least one future date do not (or may not) depend solely on the investment performance of assets in the separate accounts, and (ii) guaranteed investment contracts issued to fund pension plans even if there are not mortality guarantees or only incidental mortality guarantees. Such contracts are not properly includable on Line 6 since the reporting entity retains an investment risk.

Amounts entered on Line 6 should correspond to amounts reported on the Annual Statement of Separate Accounts to the extent amounts are included on Lines 1 through 5 of the Base Reconciliation Exhibit. Specify deductions and indicate where such amounts were reported in the Annual Statement. Lines 6.1 – 6.99 should not include transfers to a separate account except to the extent such transfers represent current year premiums included on Lines 1 through 5 of the Base Reconciliation Exhibit. Companies must specifically identify deductions on Lines 6.01 through 6.99 and indicate where such amounts are reported in the Annual Statement (blue book) and where they are reported on Lines 1 through 5 of the Base Reconciliation Exhibit.

- Enter unallocated amounts that meet the descriptions provided on Lines 7.1, 7.2 and 7.3.

Line 7.1

- Allows a deduction for any unallocated annuity contract that is not issued to or in connection with a specific employee, union or association of natural persons benefit plan or a government lottery. An example of an appropriate Line 7.1 deduction would be amounts received to fund a municipal guaranteed investment contract.

Line 7.2

- Allows a deduction for any unallocated annuity contract issued to an employee benefit plan protected under the Federal Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC). Employee benefit plans protected by the PBGC are defined benefit plans only, and do not include defined contribution plans.

Line 7.3

- Allows a deduction for unallocated annuity premiums in excess of $5 million for unallocated government lotteries and for any unallocated employee, union or association of natural persons benefit plans that is not: (a) governmental retirement plan established under Sections 401, 403(b) or 457 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code, or (b) protected under the Federal Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation. Line 7.3 should only include those amounts in excess of $5 million. For example, for a $15 million guaranteed investment contract issued to an employee benefit plan, the company should report $10 million (i.e., amounts in excess of $5 million) on Line 7.3. Do not include on Lines 7.1, 7.2 or 7.3 amounts that have been reported as transfers or deductions on any other lines (e.g., Lines 4.2, 6, 7.1, 7.2 or 7.3).

Line 8 – Enter dividends and experience rating credits, but only if such amounts were not guaranteed in advance. Examples of items that might be reported on Line 8 include: (i) non-guaranteed amounts that constitute a return of premiums collected in the current year and paid out of divisible surplus; and (ii) non-guaranteed experience rating credits that were not already deducted in determining Lines 1 and 2. Excess interest should not be deducted as dividends.

Lines 9.01 – 9.99 – Enter any other deductible amounts with a clear explanation of the nature of such deduction on Lines 9.01, 9.02, 9.03, etc. An example of an appropriate deduction is the premiums received for the Federal Employee Health Benefits Plan contracts in the Accident and Health column (Column 3). Deductions are not permitted for premiums received for the Federal Employee Group Life Insurance. Line 9 should not be used as a substitute for deductions that are to be reported on any of the above lines. Deductions are not permitted in the first three columns for amounts received in excess of coverage limits specified in the Guaranty Laws (i.e., a reporting entity cannot deduct amounts received or contract values in excess of $100,000 related to allocated annuity contracts).

ADJUSTMENTS TO THE LIFE, HEALTH AND ANNUITY GUARANTY ASSOCIATION
MODEL ACT ASSESSMENT BASE RECONCILIATION EXHIBIT

To be filed on or before April 1.

Introduction

The purpose of the Adjustments to the Life, Health and Annuity Guaranty Association Model Act Assessment Base Reconciliation Exhibit (Adjustments Exhibit) is to collect premium information needed by State Guaranty Associations to make assessments. The Adjustments Exhibit must be prepared with the same care and accuracy that would be used in preparing the Annual Statement, since the information is being provided to the Guaranty Fund Associations.

These instructions are intended to assist companies in completing the Adjustments Exhibit. COMPANIES MUST READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY AND REFER TO THE RELEVANT GUARANTY ASSOCIATION ACTS, WHERE APPROPRIATE.

Only companies that are members of the life, health and annuity guaranty associations should complete this exhibit. If a company is unsure if it is a member of a life, health and annuity guaranty association it should contact the state life, health and annuity guaranty associations in its state of domicile or state(s) where it is licensed to write life, health and annuity business.

The Adjustments Exhibit has four columns: Column 1 is for all individual and group life insurance premiums; Column 2 is for all individual and group allocated annuity amounts (whether called premiums, deposits, or considerations); Column 3 is for all individual and group accident and health premiums; and Column 4 is for all unallocated annuity amounts (whether called premiums, deposits, or considerations). However, the Adjustments Exhibit requires annuity information only for states that have not adopted the most recent Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Association Model Act (#520). Companies are required to complete each line of the Adjustments Exhibit for all states, District of Columbia and Puerto Rico in which they were licensed or had business during the reporting year, except for those states that use the Base Reconciliation Exhibit for their respective assessment premium base (these states may be identified by referring to the respective assessment premium base formulas). DO NOT SUBMIT the Adjustments Exhibit for American Samoa, Guam, U.S. Virgin Islands, Canada, Northern Mariana Islands and other alien jurisdictions. If your company writes only life and/or accident and health insurance, there is no need to submit the Adjustments Exhibit (you may enter any miscellaneous adjustment your company may have to life and accident and health business on Line 9 of the Base Exhibit pursuant to the applicable instructions.)

Should you have questions about how to fill out the Adjustments Exhibit, and the answers are not provided in the instructions below, you may wish to consult the Model #520, particular State Guaranty Acts, the Annual Statement Instructions, your company attorney, particular State Insurance Departments, or particular State Guaranty Association Administrators.

Adjustments to the Base Reconciliation Exhibit

All Lines (except Lines 5.3, 6.4 and 9) of Column 4 (Unallocated Annuity Considerations and Other Unallocated Fund Deposits) and Line 2 of Column 2 (Allocated Annuity and Other Allocated Fund Deposits) must be completed for all states in which your company is licensed or did business during the survey year, except for those states that use the Base Reconciliation Exhibit for their respective assessment premium base. (These states may be identified by referring to the respective assessment premium base formulas). DO NOT SUBMIT the Adjustments Exhibit for American Samoa, U.S. Virgin Islands, Canada, Northern Mariana Islands and other alien jurisdictions.

Deductions related to unallocated annuity contracts MUST be detailed on Lines 3 through 9, where appropriate. Deductions on Line 10 related to amounts received on unallocated annuity contracts WILL NOT be allowed.

- Line 1 – Model Act Base
- The amount from Line 11 of the Base Reconciliation Exhibit should be transferred to Line 1 of the Adjustments Exhibit.
- Line 2 – All 403(b) annuities are included in Column 4 (Unallocated Annuity and Other Unallocated Fund Deposits) on the Base Reconciliation Exhibit and must be transferred to Column 2 (Allocated Annuity and Other Allocated Fund Deposits) for certain states that have not adopted the most recent Model #520 in its entirety. The amount to be transferred from Column 4 to Column 2 represents the amount of 403(b) annuity premiums included in Line 1 of the Adjustments Exhibit, regardless of whether it was originally reported in Column 2 or Column 4 of the Base Reconciliation Exhibit. Those companies that originally reported 403(b) premiums in Column 4 of the Base Reconciliation Exhibit must transfer such amounts to Column 2 even though no original transfer was required on Line 4.1 of the Base Reconciliation Exhibit.
- Lines 3.1 and 3.2 – Companies that have unallocated funding obligations that are not issued to or in connection with a specific employee, union, or association of natural persons benefit plan or government lottery (Line 7.1 of the Base Reconciliation Exhibit) must report such amounts on Lines 3.1 and 3.2. Line 3.2 should include any amounts reported on Line 3.1.
- Lines 4.1, 4.2, 4.3 and 4.5 – Companies that have unallocated funding obligations issued to fund government lotteries or employee, union, or association of natural persons benefit plans that are NOT: (a) governmental retirement plans established under Sections 401, 403(b) or 457 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code, or (b) protected by the Federal Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation must report such amounts on Lines 4.1, 4.2 and 4.3. Line 4.4 equals the sum of Lines 4.1, 4.2 and 4.3. Lines 4.1, 4.2 and 4.3 are mutually exclusive. Line 4.5 needs to be completed for Minnesota business only.
- Lines 5.1, 5.2, 5.3 and 5.4 – Companies that have unallocated funding obligations issued to fund governmental retirement plans established under Sections 401 and 457 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code must report such amounts on Lines 5.1, 5.2 and 5.3. Line 5.2 should include the amounts reported on Line 5.1. Line 5.3 needs to be completed for New Jersey business only. Line 5.4 needs to be completed for Minnesota business only.
- Lines 6.1, 6.2, 6.4 and 6.5 – Companies that have unallocated funding obligations issued to fund governmental retirement plans established under Section 403(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code must report such amounts on Lines 6.1 and 6.2. Line 6.3 equals the sum of Lines 6.1 and 6.2. Lines 6.1 and 6.2 are mutually exclusive. Line 6.4 needs to be completed for New Jersey business only. Line 6.5 needs to be completed for Minnesota business only.
- Lines 7.1, 7.2 and 7.3 – Companies that have unallocated annuity contracts issued to an employee benefit plan protected by the Federal Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (Line 7.2 of the Base Reconciliation Exhibit) must report such amounts on Lines 7.1 and 7.2. Line 7.2 should include the amounts reported on Line 7.1. Line 7.3 needs to be completed for New Jersey business only.
- Line 8 – Companies that have unallocated funding obligations issued to fund government lotteries must report such amounts up to $5 million per contract holder. This line should be completed for New Jersey business only.

- Line 9 – Companies that have unallocated funding obligations that fund employee or association of natural persons benefit plans in New Jersey in excess of $2 million need to report receipts up to $5 million per contract. This line should be completed for New Jersey business only.
- Line 10 – Aggregate Write-ins for Other Deductions
Enter the total of the write-ins listed in schedule “Details of Write-ins Aggregated at Line 10 for Other Deductions.”
- Line 11 – Represents the preliminary assessment base calculation for those states that have not adopted the most recent Model #520.

Details of Write-ins Aggregated at Line 10 for Other Deductions

The company must provide a clear explanation of the amounts included on Line 10. Amounts deducted on any other lines on the Base Reconciliation Exhibit or Adjustments Exhibit should not be reported here, since to do so would amount to a duplicate deduction. Line 10 should not be used as a substitute for deductions that are to be reported on any of the above lines. In addition, deductions are not permitted in the first three columns for amounts received in excess of coverage limitations specified in the Guaranty Laws (e.g., a reporting entity cannot deduct amounts received or contract values in excess of $100,000 related to allocated annuity contracts).

NOTE: Cross check for Adjustments Exhibit Lines 3.2, 4.3 and 7.1. Column 4

The aggregate amounts on Adjustments Exhibit Lines 3.2, 4.3 and 7.2 should equal the aggregate of the amounts on Base Exhibit Lines 7.1, 7.2 and 7.3 plus the amount reported on Base Exhibit Line 3.3.

SUPPLEMENTAL INVESTMENT RISKS INTERROGATORIES

This set of Supplemental Interrogatories is to assist regulators in identifying and analyzing the risks inherent in the entity's investment portfolio. The Supplemental Investment Risks Interrogatories apply only to general account assets. These lines were determined based upon the investment categories contained in the NAIC Statutory Statement and considered as invested assets. The reported amounts are to be consistent with net admitted amounts reported by the entity in the statement and supporting schedules, not on a consolidated basis. Compute the percentage calculations by dividing the reported amount by the total admitted assets reported in Line 1 of the Interrogatories unless otherwise indicated. It is recommended that the first step in responding to this set of Interrogatories is for the person preparing this document to read through the Interrogatories to gain an understanding of the reporting requirements.

All reporting entities must answer Interrogatories 1 through 4, 11 through 16, 18, 19 and, if applicable, 21 through 23. Answer each Interrogatory 5 through 10 only if the reporting entity's aggregate holdings in foreign investments as addressed in Interrogatory 4 equals or exceeds 2.5% of the reporting entity's total admitted assets. Answer Interrogatory 17 only if the reporting entity's aggregate holdings in mortgage loans as addressed in Interrogatory 16 equals or exceeds 2.5% of the reporting entity's total admitted assets. For Life and Fraternal blanks, responses are to exclude Separate Accounts. For the Property/Casualty blank, responses are to exclude Protected Cell Accounts.

If listing a Supranational, put Supranational and the union or member on the line (Example: Supranational – World Trade Organization).

The following definitions apply to interrogatories 4 through 10, unless otherwise defined by state statute.

Foreign investment: An investment in a foreign jurisdiction, or an investment in a person, real estate or asset domiciled in a foreign jurisdiction. An investment shall not be deemed to be foreign if the issuing person, qualified primary credit source or qualified guarantor is a domestic jurisdiction or a person domiciled in a domestic jurisdiction, unless:

- (a) The issuing person is a shell business entity; and
- (b) The investment is not assumed, accepted, guaranteed or insured or otherwise backed by a domestic jurisdiction or a person, that is not a shell business entity, domiciled in a domestic jurisdiction.

Domestic jurisdiction: The United States, Canada, any state, any province of Canada or any political subdivision of any of the foregoing.

Foreign jurisdiction: A jurisdiction other than a domestic jurisdiction.

Shell business entity: A business entity having no economic substance, except as a vehicle for owning interests in assets issued, owned or previously owned by a person domiciled in a foreign jurisdiction.

Qualified guarantor: A guarantor against which a reporting entity has a direct claim for full and timely payment, evidenced by a contractual right for which an enforcement action can be brought in a domestic jurisdiction.

Qualified primary credit source: The credit source to which a reporting entity looks for payment as to an investment and against which a reporting entity has a direct claim for full and timely payment, evidenced by a contractual right for which an enforcement action can be brought in a domestic jurisdiction.

Supranational: Entities with more than one sovereign government as a member Line 1 – Report the reporting entity’s total admitted assets as reported on Page 2 of the annual statement.

Report the total net admitted assets for the current year, Page 2, Assets, Column 3, excluding Separate Account, Protected Cell or Segregated Account business.

Line 2 – Report the single 10 largest exposures to a single issuer/borrower/investment.

Determine the ten largest exposures by first, aggregating investments from all investment categories (except the excluded categories) by issuer. The first six digits of the CUSIP number can be used as a starting point; however, please note that the same issuer may have more than one unique series of the first six digits of the CUSIP. For example, the reporting entity owns bonds issued by the XYZ Company of $500,000 and common stock of the XYZ Company of $600,000. In addition the reporting entity has a mortgage loan to the XYZ Company of $300,000. The total exposure to Issuer XYZ Company is $1.4 million ($500,000+$600,000+$300,000).

Excluding: U.S. government securities (Part Six, Section 2(a)), U.S. government agency securities (Part Six, Section 2(e)), those U.S. government money market funds (Part Six, Section 2(f)) listed in the Purposes and Procedures Manual of the NAIC Investment Analysis Office as exempt; property occupied by the company; and policy loans. Also exclude asset types that are investment companies (mutual funds) and common trust funds that are diversified within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, Section 5(b) (1)].

In Column 2, list the categories of securities that are included in the total for each issuer (e.g., bonds, mortgage loans, etc.)

Line 3 – Report by NAIC designation, the amounts and percentages of the reporting entity’s total admitted assets held in bonds and preferred stocks.

Report the total amount for each subcategory. The amounts reported in the bond subcategories should be consistent with the amounts reported in Schedule D, Part 1A, Section 1, Column 7, Lines 11.1 – 11.6. Schedule D, Part 1A, Section 1 is reported gross and will not tie to this line if any amounts are reported and not admitted for bonds and preferred stocks on the asset page.

Line 4 – Report the amounts and percentages of the reporting entity’s total admitted assets held in foreign investments (regardless of whether there is any foreign currency exposure) and unhedged foreign currency exposure.

Line 4.02 – Report the aggregate amount of foreign investments as determined by the rules or statutes of the state of domicile (regardless of whether there is any foreign currency exposure).

Line 4.03 – Report the portion of the aggregate amount of foreign investments that supports insurance liabilities denominated in that same foreign currency.

The amount reported in 4.03 should be included in all answers to Lines 5 through 10.

Line 4.04 – Report the amount of the insurance liabilities associated with the investments reported in 4.03 and that are denominated in the same currency.

Lines 5-10 should be answered only if the reporting entity’s aggregate foreign investments exceed 2.5% of total admitted assets (response to 4.01 is no). The NAIC designations for Lines 5, 6, 8 and 9 relate to country ratings, not investment ratings. If the country does not have a rating, include the investment in the NAIC-3 or below category.

Line 5 – Report the aggregate foreign investment exposure (regardless of currency exposure) categorized by the country’s NAIC sovereign designation. Aggregate foreign investments first by foreign jurisdiction and then by NAIC sovereign designation.

The sovereign ratings and designation equivalents are available on the NAIC Web site.

- Line 6 – Within each of the following three categories of NAIC country sovereign designations, which are available on the NAIC Web site (1, 2, and 3 or below), identify the two countries in which the company has its largest aggregate foreign investment exposures (regardless of currency exposure), and report the dollar value and percentage of company investments issued within each of those countries.
- Line 8 – Report the aggregate unhedged foreign currency exposure categorized by NAIC sovereign designation. Aggregate unhedged foreign currency exposures first by foreign jurisdiction and then by NAIC sovereign designation.
- The sovereign ratings and designation equivalents are available on the NAIC Web site.
- Line 9 – Within each of the following three categories of NAIC country sovereign designations, which are available on the NAIC Web site (1, 2, and 3 or below), identify the two countries in which the company has its largest aggregate unhedged foreign currency exposures, and report the dollar value and percentage of company investments issued within each of those countries.
- Line 10 – Report the 10 largest non-sovereign (i.e., non-governmental) exposures to foreign issuer/borrower/investment.
- Determine the ten largest foreign exposures by first aggregating investments from all foreign investment categories by issuer. See example in Line 10. If an investment does not have an NAIC designation, indicate the investment category, e.g., mortgage loan, in the NAIC Designation Column after first indicating any available NAIC designations for that issuer/borrower.
- Line 11 – Report the amounts and percentages of the reporting entity's total admitted assets held in Canadian investments, including Canadian-currency denominated investments, Canadian insurance liabilities ("Canadian Investments") and unhedged Canadian currency exposure.
- Line 11.03 – Report the aggregate amount of Canadian Investments that support insurance liabilities denominated in Canadian currency.
- The amount listed in Line 11.03 should be included in all answers to Line 11.
- Line 11.04 – Report the aggregate amount of the insurance liabilities associated with the investments reported in Line 11.03.
- Line 11.05 – Unhedged Canadian Currency Exposure
- If the reporting entity's aggregate Canadian investments exceed 2.5% of total admitted assets, answer this question.
- Line 12 – Report the aggregate amounts and percentages of the reporting entity's total admitted assets held in investments with contractual sales restrictions (defined as investments having restrictions that prevent investment from being sold within 90 days).
- Line 12.02 – The aggregate amount reported in this line is limited to investments with contractual restrictions. It does not include, for instance, investments that have procedural requirements to be met prior to sale or internal company restrictions.

Line 13.02 through 13.11 – Report the amounts and percentages of admitted assets held in the ten largest equity interests (including investments in the shares of mutual funds, preferred stocks, publicly traded equity securities, and other equity securities (including Schedule BA equity interests), and excluding money market and bond mutual funds listed in Part Six, Sections 2(f) and (g) of the Purposes and Procedures Manual of the NAIC Investment Analysis Office as exempt or NAIC 1).

Determine the ten largest equity interests by first aggregating investments included in this line by issuer. For example, the reporting entity owns preferred stock of the XYZ Company of $600,000 and common stock of the XYZ Company of $300,000. The total is $900,000 ($600,000+$300,000). The reporting entity also owns bonds issued by the XYZ Company of $500,000 that are excluded from this calculation because bonds are debt instruments. Other equity securities include partnerships and Limited Liability Companies (LLC) and any other investments reported in Schedule BA classified as equity.

Line 14 – Report the amounts and percentages of the reporting entity's total admitted assets held in nonaffiliated, privately placed equities (included in other equity securities) and excluding securities eligible for sale under Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) Rule 144a or SEC Rule 144 without volume restrictions.

Line 14.02 – The amount reported in this line is a subset of the Line 14 amount that excludes any public securities, any affiliated equity interests and any securities that can be sold under SEC Rule 144 or under Rule 144a without any volume restrictions.

Line 15 – Report the amounts and percentages of the reporting entity's total admitted assets held in general partnership interests (included in other equity securities).

Line 15.02 – Report the aggregate amount of all general partnership interests reported in Schedule BA. The amount excludes limited partnership interests or any LLC investments.

Lines 15.03 through 15.05 – Report the details of the three largest general partnership interests if the aggregate amount reported in Interrogatory 15.01 exceeds 5% of admitted assets.

Line 16 – With respect to mortgage loans reported in Schedule B, report the amounts and percentages of the reporting entity's total admitted assets.

Line 16.02 through 16.11 – The aggregate mortgage interest represents the combined value of all mortgages secured by the same property or same group of properties.

Report the details of the ten largest mortgage interests if the aggregate amount exceeds 2.5% of admitted assets.

The amounts reported in 16.12, 16.14 and 16.16 should be consistent with the corresponding subtotals reported in Column 8 of Schedule B, Part 1.

Line 17 – Report the aggregate mortgage loans having the indicated loan-to-value ratios as determined from the most current appraisal as of the annual statement date.

Line 17.01 through 17.05 – For each mortgage loan, determine its loan-to-value ratio and assign it to one of the five loan-to-value categories, separated into residential, commercial or agricultural. Aggregate the amounts for each category and calculate the percent of admitted assets.

- Line 18.02 through 18.06 – Report the amounts and percentages of the reporting entity’s total admitted assets held in each of the five largest investments in one parcel or group of contiguous parcels of real estate reported in Schedule A, excluding property occupied by the company, if the aggregate amount reported in Interrogatory 18.01 exceeds 2.5% of admitted assets.
- Line 19 – Report the amounts and percentages of potential exposure (defined as the amount determined in accordance with the Annual Statement Instructions) for mezzanine real estate loans.
- Line 19.01 – If the response is yes, the reporting entity need not complete the remainder of Interrogatory 19.
- Line 20 – Report the amounts and percentages of the reporting entity’s total admitted assets subject to securities lending agreements, repurchase agreements, reverse repurchase agreements, dollar repurchase agreements and dollar reverse repurchase agreements.
- Line 20.01 through 20.05 – Report the aggregate amount for each category at year-end and at the end of each quarter. Calculate the percentage of admitted assets at year-end.
- Line 21 – Report the amounts and percentages for warrants not attached to other financial instruments, options, caps and floors.
- Line 21.01 through 21.03 – Report the aggregate amount for each category and calculate the percentage of admitted assets. The amounts should also agree with amounts reported in Schedule DB.
- Line 22 – Report the amounts and percentages of potential exposure (defined as the amount determined in accordance with the Annual Statement Instructions) for collars, swaps and forwards.
- Line 22.01 through 22.04 – Report the aggregate amount for each category at year-end and at the end of each quarter. Calculate the percentage of admitted assets at year-end. The amounts should also agree with amounts reported in Schedule DB.
- Line 23 – Report the amounts and percentages of potential exposure (defined as the amount determined in accordance with the Annual Statement Instructions) for futures contracts.
- Line 23.01 through 23.04 – Report the aggregate amount for each category at year-end and at the end of each quarter. Calculate the percentage of admitted assets at year-end. The amounts should also agree with amounts reported in Schedule DB.

- A separate line shall be created for each combination of Guaranteed Death Benefit and Guaranteed Living Benefit.
 - See the illustration in the table below for an example.
 - For a category with only one guarantee, show “None” in the other column.
- Each contract/certificate shall be included in one and only one line.
 - For a contract with multiple living benefits, determine the most appropriate classification.

A separate chart shall be prepared for individual contracts and for group contracts with individual certificates. In each chart, show the amount of any reinsurance reserve credit being taken separately for treaties with affiliated captive reinsurers and for other reinsurers.

For purposes of this supplement, a Guaranteed Living Benefit (GLB) is defined as a contract/certificate, agreement or rider in which the insurance entity guarantees specified payouts during a defined period, which may include the lifetime of the insured(s). For VAs, these guaranteed payouts are typically made regardless of the performance of the contractual account value that is used to determine cash surrender values and/or withdrawal benefits.

Column 3 – Number of Individual (Part 1) Contracts or Group (Part 2) Certificates

Column 4 – Benefit Base For Guaranteed Death Benefit (Col 1)

Report the Benefit Base (defined in the contract/certificate) as of the valuation date as the basis for the guaranteed value. If no guarantee exists, enter $0.

Column 5 – Benefit Base For Guaranteed Living Benefit (GLB) (Col 2)

Report the Benefit Base (defined in the contract/certificate) as of the valuation date as the basis for the guaranteed value. If no guarantee exists, enter $0.

Note, for GLB and GMWB previously elected, show the guaranteed amount based on the prior elections. For GMAB, use $0 since this is not an income benefit. Disclosures for GMAB shall be provided in the AG 43 Memorandum.

- Column 9 – Account Value – Separate Account
- Column 10 – Reserve for Guaranteed Benefits (Total Reserve Less Base Adjusted Reserve)

Reserves calculated according to AG-43 and VM-21 are allocated to individual contracts or certificates following the guidance of Appendix 6 of AG-43 or Section 8 of VM-21. Report in column 10 the excess of this per policy reserve over the base contract reserve. For base contract reserve, the company may use CSV or Base Adjusted Reserve (defined in Appendix 3, A.3.2D of AG-43 or Section 5, B.4. of VM-21) for that contract or certificate.

- Column 11 & Column 12 – Percentage of Guaranteed Benefits Reinsured

Show percentage of the Guaranteed Benefit ceded to all reinsurers

- Line 3 – Total Net of Reinsurance

- Column 3 – Nature of Ownership
- Under the “Nature of Ownership”, state whether ownership of securities is “direct” or “indirect.” If the ownership is indirect (i.e., through a partnership, corporation, trust or other entity), indicate in a footnote or other appropriate manner the name or identity of the medium through which the securities are indirectly owned. The fact that securities are held in the name of a broker or other nominee does not, of itself, constitute indirect ownership. Securities owned indirectly shall be reported on separate lines from those owned directly and from those owned through a different type of indirect ownership.
- Column 4 – Number of Shares Owned at the End of Prior Year and Column 8 – Number of Shares Owned at the End of Current Year
- In the case of securities owned indirectly, the entire amount of securities owned by the partnership, corporation, trust or other entity shall be stated. There may also be indicated in a footnote or other appropriate manner the extent of the security holder’s interest in such partnership, corporation, trust or other entity.
- If a transaction in securities of the company was with the company or one of its subsidiaries, so state. If it involved the purchase of securities through the exercise of options, so state. If any other purchase or sale was effected otherwise than in the open market, that fact shall be indicated. If the transaction was not a purchase or sale, indicate its character, for example, gift, stock dividend, etc., as the case may be.
- Any additional information or explanation deemed relevant by the company should be included as a footnote or in other appropriate manner.
- Column 9 – Percentage of Voting Stock Directly and Indirectly Owned or Controlled at the End of the Current Year
- Report the percentage of voting stock directly and indirectly owned or controlled at the end of the current year by each director, officer and/or any other entity/person who directly or indirectly, own, control, hold with the power to vote, or hold proxies representing 10% or more of the voting interests of the entity. See SSAP No. 25—Affiliates and Other Related Parties for the definition of control.

MEDICARE SUPPLEMENT INSURANCE EXPERIENCE EXHIBIT

Medicare Supplement is defined as those forms which are qualified as Medicare Supplement under the Federal Certification Requirements or the NAIC Medicare Supplement Insurance Minimum Standards Model Act and Regulation, or that are filed under other state programs to satisfy separate form filing requirements for Medicare Supplement forms.

This exhibit should be completed on a direct basis and should include all Medicare Supplement insurance acquired through assumption of a block of business. In the event that a policyholder of the company relocates to another state, experience under that policy is to continue to be reported in the state in which the policy was originally issued. The nationwide aggregate earned premium on all Medicare supplement policies should be disclosed in the annual statement General Interrogatory related to Medicare Supplement insurance.

This exhibit is to be completed on a state basis.

In the event that a refiling of any state page is warranted, the amended page should be filed with the NAIC and with the state.

1. Experience on policies issued more than three years prior to the reporting year should be shown separately as indicated on the form. For example, for the reporting year ended December 31, 2018 (filed on March 1, 2019), experience on policies issued in 2015 and prior should be shown separately from that of policies issued in 2016 and later. For group insurance, the year of issue should be based on when the certificate was issued, if available. Otherwise, use the master policy year of issue.
2. Allocation of reserves on a state-by-state basis should rely on sound actuarial principles and be consistent as to methodology from year to year.
3. Include membership or policy fees, if any, with premiums earned.
4. Include mass marketed group insurance subject to individual loss ratio standards with individual.
5. Subtract dividends from premiums earned.
6. Do not adjust incurred claims nor premiums earned for changes in policy (additional) reserves.

Respond with “YES”, “NO” or “NA”, to indicate compliance with OBRA requirements.

Column 3 – Standardized Medicare Supplement Benefit Plan

Means the standard plans A-N as required by Section 9E of the Model Regulation to Implement the NAIC Medicare Supplement Insurance Minimum Standards Model Act. This includes all plans identified as A-N issued prior to a state's revisions to its regulatory program and identified as a standard plan at the time of issue. Policies issued prior to the effective date of this state's revisions to its Medicare supplement regulatory program pursuant to the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (OBRA) of 1990, and no longer offered in a state, should be designated with “P.” Policies not meeting either of these definitions should be designated with “O.” This includes policies issued in MN, MA, and WI (states that qualified for and received a waiver under federal law from the A-N requirements). A policy issued in these three states that did not require changes, as the result of modifications to the state regulatory program should be reported as “O.” All policies identified as “O” must be explained in Medicare Supplement General Interrogatory 4. Theoretically, a policy should never be identified as “O” except in those states receiving a waiver from the A-N requirements.

Column 7	– Date Approval Withdrawn	Means the date the policy form approval was withdrawn by the insurance department.

SCHEDULE F – REINSURANCE

NOTE: Certified reinsurer status applies on a prospective basis, and is determined by the state of domicile of the ceding insurer. As such, it is possible that a ceding insurer will report reinsurance balances applicable to a single assuming insurer under multiple classifications within Schedule S. For example, with respect to a certified reinsurer that was considered unauthorized prior to certification, balances attributable to contracts entered into prior to the assuming insurer's certification would be reported in the unauthorized classification, while balances attributable to contracts entered into or renewed on or after the assuming insurer's certification would be reported in the certified classification. Proper classification of such balances is essential to ensure accurate reporting of collateral requirements applicable to specific balances and the corresponding calculation of the liability for unauthorized and/or certified reinsurance.

Index to Schedule F

- Part 1 – Assumed Reinsurance
- Part 2 – Ceded Reinsurance

ID Number

Schedule F requires that the "ID Number" be reported for assuming or ceding entities.

Reinsurance intermediaries should not be listed, because Schedule F is intended to identify only risk-bearing entities.

Use of Federal Employer Identification Number

The Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN) must be reported for each U.S.-domiciled insurer and U.S. branch of an alien insurer. The FEIN should not be reported as the "ID Number" for other alien insurers even if the federal government has issued such a number.

Alien Insurer Identification Number (AIIN)

In order to report transactions involving alien companies correctly, the appropriate Alien Insurer Identification Number (AIIN) must be included on Schedule F instead of the FEIN. The AIIN number is assigned by the NAIC and is listed in the NAIC Listing of Companies. If an alien company does not appear in that publication, contact the NAIC Financial Systems and Services Department, Company Demographics Analyst at FDRCCREQ@NAIC.ORG for numbers assigned since the last publication or for information on having a number assigned.

Newly assigned numbers are incorporated in revised editions of the NAIC Listing of Companies, which are available semi-annually. The NAIC also provides this information to annual statement software vendors for incorporation into the software.

Pools and Association Numbers

In order to report transactions involving non-risk bearing pools or associations consisting of non-affiliated companies correctly, the company must include on Schedule F the appropriate Pool/Association Identification Number. These numbers are listed in the NAIC Listing of Companies. The NAIC Pool/Association Identification Number should be used instead of any FEIN that may have been assigned. If a pool or association does not appear in that publication, contact the NAIC Financial Systems and Services Department, Company Demographics Analyst at FDRCCREQ@NAIC.ORG for numbers assigned since the last publication or for information on having a number assigned.

Newly assigned numbers are incorporated in revised editions of the NAIC Listing of Companies, which are available semi-annually. The NAIC also provides this information to annual statement software vendors for incorporation into the software.

Alien pools and associations should be reported on Schedule F under the category “Other Non-U.S. Insurers” rather than under “Pools, Associations and Similar Facilities.” Pools and associations consisting of affiliated companies should be listed by individual company names rather than by pool or association identification.

Certified Reinsurer Identification Number (CRIN)

In order to report transactions involving certified reinsurers correctly, the appropriate Certified Reinsurer Identification Number (CRIN) must be included on Schedule F instead of the FEIN or Alien Insurer Identification Number (AIIN). The CRIN is assigned by the NAIC and is listed in the NAIC Listing of Companies. If a certified reinsurer does not appear in that publication, contact the NAIC Financial Systems and Services Department, Company Demographics Analyst at FDRCCREQ@NAIC.ORG for numbers assigned since the last publication or for information on having a number assigned.

Newly assigned numbers are incorporated in revised editions of the NAIC Listing of Companies, which are available semi-annually. The NAIC also provides this information to annual statement software vendors for incorporation into the software.

NAIC Company Code

Company codes are assigned by the NAIC and are listed in the NAIC Listing of Companies. The NAIC does not assign a company code to insurers domiciled outside of the U.S. or to non-risk bearing pools or associations. The “NAIC Company Code” field should be zero filled for those organizations. Non-risk bearing pools or associations are assigned a Pool/Association Identification Number. See the “Pool and Association Numbers” section above for details on assignment of Pool/Association Identification Numbers. Risk-bearing pools or associations are assigned a company code. If a reinsurer or reinsured has merged with another entity, report the company code of the surviving entity.

If a risk-bearing entity (e.g., risk-bearing pools or associations) does not appear in the NAIC Listing of Companies, contact the NAIC Financial Systems and Services Department, Company Demographics Analyst at FDRCCREQ@NAIC.ORG for numbers assigned since the last publication or for information on having a number assigned. Newly assigned company codes are incorporated in revised editions of the NAIC Listing of Companies, which are available semi-annually. The NAIC provides this information to annual statement software vendors for incorporation into the software.

Domiciliary Jurisdiction

In those parts of Schedule F requiring disclosure of the “Domiciliary Jurisdiction” for each domestic reinsurer or U.S. branch listed, the column should be completed with the state where the reinsurer maintains its statutory home office. For pools and associations enter the state where the administrative office of such pool or association is located. For alien reinsurers, this column should be completed with the country where the alien is domiciled. Enter the two-character U.S. postal code abbreviation for the domiciliary jurisdiction for U.S. states, territories and possessions. A comprehensive listing of three-character (ISO Alpha 3) abbreviations for foreign countries is available in the appendix of these instructions.

Lloyd's of London

The following procedure will apply as respects annual statement filings for 1995 and subsequent years:

Cessions to Lloyd's under reinsurance agreements having an inception date on or before July 31, 1995, and which are not amended or renewed thereafter should continue to be reported using the collective Lloyd's number, AA-1122000, on an aggregated basis, under "Authorized – Other Non-U.S. Insurers." As respects continuous reinsurance agreements, the anniversary date shall be deemed to be the renewal date of the agreement. Any revision of terms and conditions shall be deemed to be an amendment of the reinsurance agreement.

Cessions to Lloyd's under reinsurance agreements having an inception, amendment or renewal date on or after August 1, 1995, must be reported using the specific number of each subscribing syndicate as listed in the alien section of the NAIC Listing of Companies. Such syndicates should be listed individually, under "Authorized – Other Non-U.S. Insurers."

Syndicates for which an identification number does not appear in the NAIC Listing of Companies must be treated as unauthorized as respects cessions under reinsurance agreements having an inception, amendment or renewal date on or after August 1, 1995, and should be reported, on an aggregated basis, under "Unauthorized – Other Non-U.S. Insurers," using a new collective number, AA-1123000.

Reinsurance assumed from syndicates at Lloyd's should continue to be reported on Schedule F, Part 1 using the original collective Lloyd's number, AA-1122000.

Dates

All dates reported in Schedule F must be in the format MM/DD/YYYY. For example, December 31, 2011, should be reported as 12/31/2011.

Determination of Authorized Status

The determination of the authorized, unauthorized or certified status of an insurer or reinsurer listed in any part of Schedule F shall be based on the status of that insurer or reinsurer in the reporting company's state of domicile.

U.S. Intercompany Pooling Arrangements.

Participation in intercompany pooling arrangements, whereby assumed business written by any company participating in the pool is ceded first to the lead company and then redistributed among pool members, shall be reflected under the appropriate categories in Schedule F (e.g. cessions from participating affiliates to the lead company for that company and in the ceded schedule for the affiliates). Subsequent redistribution of the pooled business from the lead company to participating affiliates shall be reported in similar fashion (e.g. cessions to the affiliates in the ceded schedule for the lead company, and as an assumption from the lead company for each of the affiliates participating in the pool).

Cessions to unaffiliated reinsurers, whether prior to cession of the pooled business to the lead company or subsequent thereto, shall be reported in the usual manner in the ceded schedules for the company or companies effecting such cessions, or identified as parties to the reinsurance agreement under which such cessions are effected, as appropriate (e.g., both the initial cessions to the lead company and the subsequent cessions of pooled business from the lead company to the participating affiliates shall reflect any applicable cessions to unaffiliated reinsurers).

Alien Reinsurers Maintaining Beneficiary U.S. Trust Accounts

Certain alien reinsurers have established multiple beneficiary trust accounts for the purpose of collateralizing obligations arising in connection with reinsurance assumed from U.S. ceding entities, and have been granted authorized reinsurer status in a number of states. Ceding entities domiciled in a state that has granted such status to an alien reinsurer should report cessions to such reinsurer, using the appropriate Alien Insurer Identification Number under “Authorized – Non-U.S. Insurers” to the extent that obligations attributable to such cessions have been collateralized via the alien reinsurer’s multiple beneficiary U.S. trust account.

Amounts recoverable from such alien reinsurers that have not been collateralized via a multiple beneficiary U.S. trust account should continue to be reported under “Unauthorized – Other Non-U.S. Insurers.”

Captive Affiliate Line Category

For the purpose of reporting a reinsurer as captive affiliate on Schedule F, the captive affiliate line categories shall include affiliated non-traditional insurers/reinsurers.

Definition of Affiliated Non-Traditional Insurer/Reinsurer

This disclosure is intended to capture cessions to affiliated insurance/reinsurance entities that are subject to a financial solvency regulatory system separate from that generally applicable to traditional insurers and/or reinsurers in the ceding entity’s domestic jurisdiction. The definition of “Affiliate” is established in the NAIC Model Holding Company Act. An affiliated non-traditional insurer/reinsurer is an insurance or reinsurance company that reinsures risks only from its parent or affiliates, and is subject to a financial solvency regulatory system separate from that generally applicable to traditional insurers and/or reinsurers in the ceding entity’s domestic jurisdiction. For the purpose of annual statement reporting, this definition shall be presumed to include the following, subject to the cedant’s rebuttal to its domicile:

1. An affiliated insurance or reinsurance company licensed, authorized or otherwise granted the authority to operate in a single United States jurisdiction under any captive insurer law, special purpose insurer law, or other similar law separate from those applicable to traditional insurers and/or reinsurers.
2. An affiliated insurance or reinsurance company licensed, authorized or otherwise granted the authority to operate in any jurisdiction outside the United States under any captive insurer law, special purpose insurer law, or other similar law separate from those applicable to traditional insurers and/or reinsurers in that non-United States jurisdiction.
3. Any other affiliated insurance or reinsurance company that by law, regulation, or order, or contract is authorized to insure or reinsure only risks from its parent or affiliate.

SCHEDULE P

There are six parts within Schedule P, Part 1 provides detailed information on losses and loss expenses. Part 2 provides a history of incurred losses and defense & cost containment expenses. Part 3 provides a history of loss and defense & cost containment payments. Part 4 provides a history of bulk and incurred but not reported (IBNR) reserves. Part 5 provides a history of claims. Part 6 provides a history of premiums earned.

Schedule P is intended to display a summary containing ten years of historical data for all lines of business. The casualty lines of business will display ten years of historical data in their respective sections of Schedule P.

In those instances where a reporting entity files an amended annual statement as a result of a restatement of prior year earned premium, losses or loss adjustment expenses, Schedule P must be restated and included in the amended annual statement.

Schedule P includes only the data for the reporting entity identified on the Jurat page of the Annual Statement.

Earned premium is on a calendar-year basis. Losses incurred should be assigned to the year in which the event occurred that triggered coverage under the contract. This may be a date of accident (occurrence policies), a date of report (claims-made policies), or a policy issue date (tail policies).

Retroactive reinsurance should not be reflected in Schedule P. The transferor in such an agreement must record, without recognition of the retroactive reinsurance, its loss and loss adjustment expense reserves on a gross basis on its balance sheet and in all schedules and exhibits. The transferee in such an agreement must exclude the retroactive reinsurance from its loss and loss expense reserves and from its schedules and exhibits.

A discount implicit in tabular reserves may be included in Schedule P, Part 1. Schedule P, Part 2 is to be reported gross of ALL discounts. Otherwise, Schedule P is to be presented on a net-discounted basis. Information in Schedule P is to be reported on an undiscounted basis in order to make effective use of the triangles in Parts 2, 3 and 4. The reserves reported are expected to represent the ultimate amounts to be paid, including anticipated inflation. Also, work papers relating to any discount amounts must be available for examination upon request. The tabular reserve discount does not need to be shown separately. Discounting (including the discount in tabular reserves) is allowed only if expressly permitted by the state insurance department to which this Annual Supplement is being filed.

The reserves for unpaid losses and loss adjustment expenses should take into account the explicit or implicit impacts of the various factors affecting claim frequency or ultimate claim cost.

For guidelines on completing Schedule P, see examples immediately following the instructions for Schedule P, Part 6.

NOTE: Report all dollar amounts in Schedule P in thousands of dollars ($000 omitted), by either rounding or truncating.

SCHEDULE P – PART 1

Part 1 is the total of the workers compensation carve-out line.

The columnar headings provide instructions necessary for completion.

“Number of Claims Reported Assumed,” Column 12, should include the cumulative number of claims reported through the annual statement. “Number of Claims Outstanding Assumed,” Column 25, must be reported.

Cumulative subrogation received and losses and expenses paid should be reported for each specific year. For “prior,” report only subrogation received and losses and expenses paid in current year.

In Schedule P, Part 1, subrogation received should be reported net of reinsurance, if any. Loss payments are to be reported net of subrogation received.

Premiums earned and losses paid, unpaid, and incurred should reconcile with the Underwriting and Investment Exhibit. The work papers that show a reconciliation explaining reinsurance, discounting and subrogation adjustment should be available for examination upon request.

“Assumed” means reinsurance assumed, including from affiliated pooling agreements.

“Ceded” means reinsurance ceded on business so reported, direct or assumed.

Report cumulative amounts paid or received for specific years.

The loss adjustment expenses used to be divided in Schedule P in “allocated” and “unallocated,” which were terms that were never clearly defined. Effective January 1, 1998, a detailed definition of these expenses was adopted. The distinction is now between “Defense & Cost Containment” and “Adjusting & Other.” The loss adjustment expenses are separated with the intent of identifying the “Defense & Cost Containment” expenses as those, which are correlated with the loss amounts, and the “Adjusting & Other” as those expenses, which are correlated with claim, count or are general loss adjusting expenses. In projecting the necessary reserves for these expenses, actuaries use a different approach for each of the two types of expenses. It is the character of the expenses that is most important, not whether the expenses were internal or external to the reporting entity.

“Defense & Cost Containment” expenses include defense, litigation and cost containment expenses, whether internal or external. “Defense” means defense by the reporting entity in a contentious situation, whether a first party claim. The fees charged for reporting entity employees should include overhead, just as an outside firm’s charges would include. The expenses exclude expenses incurred in the determination of coverage. These expenses include the following items:

1. Surveillance expenses;
2. Fixed amounts for cost containment expenses;
3. Litigation management expenses;
4. Loss adjustment expenses for participation in voluntary and involuntary market pools if reported by accident year;
5. Fees or salaries for appraisers, private investigators, hearing representatives, reinspectors and fraud investigators, if working in defense of a claim, and fees or salaries for rehabilitation nurses, if such cost is not included in losses;
6. Attorney fees incurred owing to a duty to defend, even when other coverage does not exist; and
7. The cost of engaging experts.

“Adjusting & Other” Expenses are those expenses other than those above and which have been assigned to the “Loss Adjustment Expense” group in the Underwriting and Investment Exhibit, Part 4, Expenses. These expenses include the following items:

1. Fees of adjusters and settling agents (but not if engaged in a contentious defense);
2. Loss adjustment expenses for participation in voluntary and involuntary market pools if reported by calendar year;
3. Attorney fees incurred in the determination of coverage, including litigation between the reporting entity and the policyholder; and
4. Fees and salaries for appraisers, private investigators, hearing representatives, reinspectors and fraud investigators, if working in the capacity of an adjuster.

The foregoing list is not intended to be all-inclusive. We are relying on the reporting entities to use reasonable judgment in particular situations.

The “Defense & Cost Containment” expenses should be assigned to the accident year in which the associated losses were assigned. The “Adjusting & Other” expenses can be assigned in any justifiable way among the accident years. The preferred way is to apportion these expenses in proportion to the number of claims reported, closed, or outstanding each year.

Please Note: This instruction is intended solely to give guidance on reporting loss adjustment expenses in Schedule P in the annual supplement. It is not intended to provide guidance on the types of expenses to include in loss adjustment expenses. These definitions of Defense & Cost Containment expense and Adjusting and Other expense are not intended to affect insurance or reinsurance agreements or other contractual agreements.

Column 24 is equal to Column 13 – Column 14 + Column 15 – Column 16 + Column 17 – Column 18 + Column 19 – Column 20 + Column 21 – Column 22.

Column 28, “Net,” equals Column 26 – Column 27, which equals Column 11 + Column 24.

Column 32 and 33 require reporting of the discount, if any, included on any line in Page 3 on liabilities for unpaid losses and expenses, in regard to non-tabular losses and expenses. Columns 35 and 36 are the Column 24 unpaid losses and expenses net of the discount in Columns 32 and 33. Columns 35 and 36 must be completed and should agree with net balance sheet reserves after discount. If the reporting entity reports on a pooling basis, then the percentage of that pool reported herein should be entered in Column 34. If some of the business is pooled and some is not, leave Column 34 blank.

Report in Column 23 the estimated amount of anticipated subrogation that has been taken as credit (netted) in the reserves for unpaid losses and loss adjustment expenses reported in Column 24. (Note: Column 23 is a memo column only as the amounts contained therein have already been taken into consideration in Columns 13 through 20).

SCHEDULE P – PARTS 2, 3 AND 4

All amounts in Schedule P, Parts 2, 3 and 4 are reported net of reinsurance.

Schedule P, Part 2 provides a loss and expense development overview to test the adequacy of the reporting entity's reserves. Schedule P, Part 3 shows the payment patterns for cash flow projections, discounting calculations, and actuarial projections. Schedule P, Part 4 is an exhibit showing the historical bulk and IBNR reserves as reported. Part 4 does not show a development of these reserves, and it will not, by itself, provide a test of the adequacy of these reserves.

Schedule P, Parts 2, 3 and 4 have parallel formats and are the basic exhibits for actuarial and financial analyses. The same Line Titles that applied to Schedule P, Part 1 also apply to Parts 2, 3 and 4.

All amounts are to be reported net of subrogation paid and anticipated.

All amounts in Parts 2 and 4 must be reported gross of both tabular and non-tabular discounting.

In Part 2, the "Development" in Column 11 and 12 should be the current year less the first or second prior year, showing the (redundant) or adverse development.

Report all amounts in thousands of dollars ($000 omitted), by either rounding or truncating.

Loss Adjustment Expenses:

The triangles include only the "Defense & Cost Containment" loss adjustment expenses. The old Schedule P, Parts 2, 3 and 4 contained only the previously termed "allocated" loss adjustment expenses. Now the term "Defense & Cost Containment" is used. As before, the reason for this is that "Defense & Cost Containment" adjustment expenses correlate with loss amounts, but the "Adjusting & Other" adjusting expenses do not.

Bulk and IBNR Reserves:

The Bulk and IBNR reserves for losses and expenses are intended to include reserves for incurred but not reported claims, for reopened claims, for development on case reserves of reported claims, and for aggregate reserves on newly reported claims without specific case reserves. The Bulk and IBNR reserves are the actuarially determined reserves and are included in the losses unpaid and loss expenses unpaid reported in Schedule P, Parts 1 and 2.

These reserves include provision for "defense and cost containment" expenses, unlike the reserves reported in the Underwriting and Investment Exhibit, Part 3.

The Prior Line:

In Part 2, Line 1, Column 1, include the loss and expense reserves (case + bulk + IBNR) previously reported at year-end of the last year for all accident years prior to the last year. The subsequent development each year across Line 1 will relate to these reserves and will show the subsequent payments and outstanding reserves.

In Part 3, Line 1, Column 1, the amount entered should always be "zero." In Line 1, Column 2, the amount should be the loss and expense payments made in that year on the reserves reported in Part 2, Line 1, Column 1. (These payments should also have been included in Part 2, Line 1, Column 2.) In Line 1, Column 3, the amount should be the loss and expense payments made in that year and the preceding year on the reserves reported in Part 2, Line 1, Column 2. (These payments should also have been included in Part 2, Line 1, Column 3.) Columns 4 through 10 should continue to cumulate the payments in the same way and tie into the Part 2 "prior" line.

In Part 4, Line 1, Column 1, the amount entered should be the bulk and IBNR that was included in Part 2, Line 1, Column 1, (which should equal the case reserves plus the bulk and IBNR). In fact, the entire Line 1 should be the bulk and IBNR included in Part 2, Line 1.

The "prior" line can be reconciled with the immediately preceding year's annual statement by breaking down the accident years in the preceding annual statement and properly summing the parts.

SCHEDULE P – PART 5

Part 5 is a reporting of claim count information in one location, all of which should have been reported in the current or prior Annual Statements. Section 1 shows the number of claims closed with loss payment, as previously reported in Part 3, Column 12,. Section 2 shows the number of claims outstanding, as previously reported in Part 1, Column 26, for all years, since this information has always been required in Schedule P. Section 3 shows the number of claims reported, as previously reported in Part 1, Column 13.

All claim count information reported in Schedule P should be on a “direct and assumed” basis, and should reconcile. “Direct and assumed” means direct plus the proportion of a pool plus proportional reinsurance assumed. The same percentage used for dollar amounts should also be used for the claim counts.

SCHEDULE P – PART 6

For Schedule P, Part 6, the premiums to be reported are exposure or coverage year earned premium, recalculated each subsequent year to reflect audits retrospective adjustments based on loss experience, accounting lag, etc. Mechanically, the written premium file would be restated and the earned premium calculation repeated each year. Premium adjustments for policy periods that cover more than one calendar year should be proportionately distributed between the calendar years covered by the policy period. The objective is to develop earned premiums by calendar year of coverage consistent with the loss and Defense & Cost Containment expense by accident year.

A further objective is to determine a more accurate loss and Defense & Cost Containment expense ratio and to be able to project the earned but unbilled premiums, which may be an asset or liability. The reporting entity may use any method to recalculate the premiums, which will achieve this objective.

Example 1 in Exhibit B demonstrates how the sections would look if all years were retroactively determines and reported. Column 11 is for informational purposes and shows the distribution of premiums earned during the current year for the prior years. Premiums as reported in Schedule P, Part 1, Columns 1 or 2, are also shown at the bottom of the exhibit to demonstrate the relationship and to show how Part 6 reconciles with Part 1.

The Prior Line should show the earned premium adjustment for each respective year for prior years. For prior experience years (columns), Line 1 for a particular year of experience (x) can be determined from the prior year’s Schedule P, Part 6, as the sum of Lines 1 plus 2 for experience year (x) (column) minus Line 2 for the preceding year (x – 1).

Example 2 in Exhibit b shows the minimum reporting requirement, which are accident years 1997 and subsequent plus total current year earned premiums by accident year.

The same features are applicable for Section 2 on coded business.

SUPPLEMENTAL SCHEDULE O – PARTS 1 THROUGH 4

DEVELOPMENT OF INCURRED LOSSES

The purpose of this schedule is to test the adequacy of reserves held on various types of accident and health insurance. The schedule allows for the development of a five-year trend of losses incurred by a specific year group of claimants.

Schedule O, each part must be filled out for the Group Accident and Health, Credit Accident and Health, and Other Accident and Health lines for all companies which have those businesses. All accident and health business other than group and credit are meant to be included in "Other Accident and Health" lines. Examples of this type of business could include, among others, the waiver of premium benefit for life insurance or credit involuntary unemployment insurance. Those companies that use similar data to calculate claim reserves and liabilities for lines of business other than accident and health must include a similar exhibit for those lines. Report all dollar amounts in thousands ($000 omitted).

SUPPLEMENTAL SCHEDULE O – PART 1

CUMULATIVE NET AMOUNTS PAID POLICYHOLDERS

Show cumulative paid claims by year paid and year incurred. Claims incurred prior to the year shown on Line 2 should be included in the appropriate column on Line 1.

SUPPLEMENTAL SCHEDULE O – PART 3

SUM OF NET CUMULATIVE AMOUNT PAID POLICYHOLDERS AND CLAIM LIABILITY AND RESERVE OUTSTANDING AT END OF YEAR

Schedule O, Part 3 provides a claim cost development overview to show the adequacy of claim reserves for a particular incurral year at the end of that year and at the end of subsequent years. The entry in line X and column Y is the cumulative claims incurred during year X and paid through the end of year Y for claims incurred in year X, plus the reserve at the end of year Y for claims incurred in year X.

SUPPLEMENTAL SCHEDULE O – PART 5

RESERVE AND LIABILITY METHODOLOGY

Show the claim reserve and liability for each line of business. Indicate the methodology by which those items are calculated. For this purpose, the methodology can be either “Development,” “Standard Factor,” or “Other.” All coverages using the Development Method must be shown in a separate table in Schedule O – Parts 1 through 4. Report all dollar amounts in thousands ($000 omitted).

Column 1 – Methodology

Indicate for which lines of business actual claim run-out date is used in setting reserves. For those lines of business, Parts 1 through 4 of Schedule O must be completed. For other lines of business, Parts 1 through 4 are not needed.

Column 2 – Amount

Should equal the sum of Exhibit 6 (Claim Reserve), Line 16, Column 1, and Exhibit 8, Part 1, Total net of reinsurance, Line 4.4.

MEDICARE PART D COVERAGE SUPPLEMENT

NET OF REINSURANCE

The federal Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement, and Modernization Act of 2003 (MMA) created a prescription drug coverage, referred to as “Part D” coverage. This form is intended to capture information about the coverage net of reinsurance.

The form applies to the following stand-alone Medicare Part D coverage:

Stand-alone Part D coverage written through individual contracts;

Stand-alone Part D coverage written through group contracts and certificates; and Part D coverage written on employer groups where the reporting entity is responsible for reporting claims to the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS).

The form does not apply to:

Part D coverage that is provided through a Medicare Advantage plan (referred to as MA-PD); and

Employer coverage that is part of the employer’s comprehensive medical coverage and where the reporting entity does not provide claim data directly to CMS including instances where the employer and the medical provider are one and the same but the administration and reporting to CMS is handled by a third party vendor.

The statutory accounting treatment of Medicare Part D coverage is addressed by Interpretation 05-05 in the Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual (INT 05-05). Although most of the coverage is treated as an insured plan, a portion is treated as uninsured. Refer to INT 05-05 for specifics of the accounting treatment, as well as for definitions of many of the capitalized terms used below.

Group “Uninsured” would be only the aspects of any group coverage for which the entity has federal payments that are to be considered “Uninsured” per INT 05-05, e.g., payments for low income subsidy (cost-sharing portion) and the group plan is an insured plan. Group coverage where the basic coverage is uninsured is not reported in this supplement.

Since a reporting entity may offer multiple prescription drug plans (PDPs) with varying benefits, it is possible for a portion of the entity’s coverage to be subject to reinsurance coverage and another portion to be part of the Part D Payment Demonstration, where no reinsurance coverage is provided. Where there is reinsurance coverage, the corresponding funds received or receivable are reported in Lines 12.1 through 12.3.

- Columns 1 – Individual Coverage Insured and
- Columns 2 – Individual Coverage Uninsured

Report here the amounts for coverage written through individual contracts. Amounts treated as insured business pursuant to INT 05-05 should be reported in column 1. Amounts treated as uninsured business pursuant to INT 05-05 should be reported in column 2.

- Columns 3 – Group Coverage Insured and
- Columns 4 – Group Coverage Uninsured

Report here the amounts for coverage written through group contracts and certificates, including coverage of employer groups as described above. Amounts treated as insured business pursuant to INT 05-05 should be reported in column 3. Amounts treated as uninsured business pursuant to INT 05-05 should be reported in column 4.

- Column 5 – Total Cash

Report here the totals of Columns 1 through 4 for the indicated lines. This column is intended to measure the cash flow impact of the Part D coverage on the reporting entity (i.e., including both insured and uninsured business).

- Line 1 – Premiums Collected
- Line 1.11 – Standard Coverage with Reinsurance Coverage
- Report the Beneficiary Premium (Standard Coverage Portion), Low-Income Subsidy (Premium Portion) and Direct Subsidy amounts received for PDPs that are subject to Reinsurance Coverage. These amounts represent the premium as approved by CMS (including the effect of the “health status risk adjustments”) for the Part D coverages that qualify as Standard Coverage. Note that the actual coverage does not have to be identical to the “standard coverage” as defined by the MMA, but may instead be coverage approved as actuarially equivalent by CMS.
- Line 1.12 – Standard Coverage without Reinsurance Coverage
- Report the Beneficiary Premium (Standard Coverage Portion), Low-Income Subsidy (Premium Portion), Direct Subsidy and Part D Payment Demonstration amounts received for PDPs that are not subject to Reinsurance Coverage. These amounts represent the premium as approved by CMS (including the effect of the “health status risk adjustments”) for the Part D coverages that qualify as Standard Coverage. Note that the actual coverage does not have to be identical to the “standard coverage” as defined by the MMA, but may instead be coverage approved as actuarially equivalent by CMS.
- Line 1.13 – Standard Coverage, Risk Corridor Payment Adjustments
- Report any amounts paid to or received from CMS as Risk Corridor Payment Adjustments (based on where actual loss experience falls within the various MMA-defined risk corridors). Amounts paid to CMS should be reported as negative amounts; amounts received from CMS should be reported as positive amounts.
- Line 1.2 – Supplemental Benefits
- Report all other premiums received for Part D coverage. These will be the additional premiums that the PDP requires participants to pay for Supplemental Benefits.
- Line 2 – Premiums Due and Uncollected – Change
- Exclude any receivable or payable for Risk Corridor Payment Adjustments, which should be reported on Lines 4.1 and 4.2. Note that, per the reference in INT 05-05 to SSAP No. 84, receivables from CMS are not subject to the 90-day rule for non-admission.
- Line 4 – Risk Corridor Payment Adjustments – Change
- The reporting entity will need to estimate the Risk Corridor Payment Adjustment that is receivable (Line 4.1) or payable (Line 4.2) at year-end for each PDP, consistent with the reported experience through year-end. The receivable or payable should exclude any amounts already settled in cash, which should be reported in Line 1.13. An increase in a receivable or a decrease in a payable should be reported as a positive amount; a decrease in a receivable or an increase in a payable should be reported as a negative amount.
- Line 5 – Earned Premiums
- Earned premium = Premiums Collected +
Change in Due and Uncollected –
Change in Unearned and Advance Premium +
Change in Risk Corridor Payment Adjustments Payable/Receivable.
- Note that Lines 5.11, 5.12, and 5.2 will exclude any amounts associated with the Risk Corridor Payment Adjustments, whereas Line 5.13 relates solely to the Risk Corridor Payment Adjustments.

VM-20 RESERVES SUPPLEMENT – PART 1

Life Insurance Reserves by Product Type

($000 Omitted Except for Number of Policies)

This Supplement provides information on the reserves required to be calculated by Section VM-20 of the Valuation Manual. This includes the Net Premium Reserve and, as applicable, the Deterministic Reserve and the Stochastic Reserve. This Supplement also provides information regarding business where VM-20 of the Valuation Manual is not required to be applied. Only business issued on or after Jan. 1, 2017, valued by the requirements of VM-20 should be reported in Part 1. Companies that elect the three-year transition for some of their policies should not report those policies in this part. Companies that elect the three-year transition period for all of their business or are otherwise exempted from the requirements of Section VM-20 are not required to complete Part 1 of this Supplement pursuant to the instructions in Part 2 of this Supplement.

Part 1 of this Supplement breaks out, by product type, the prior year and current year reported reserves on a Post-Reinsurance-Ceded and Pre-Reinsurance-Ceded basis as defined in Section 8.D of Section VM-20 of the Valuation Manual. In addition, Part 1 of this Supplement shows, by product type for the current year, the Deferred Premium Asset, the Net Premium Reserve (NPR), the Deterministic Reserve (DR) and the Stochastic Reserve (SR), where the NPR, DR and SR are as defined in Section VM-20 of the Valuation Manual. This Supplement is intended to aid regulators in the analysis of reserves as determined under Section VM-20 of the Valuation Manual for both the prior and current year.

Section VM-20 of the Valuation Manual requires that the Post-Reinsurance-Ceded Reserve be determined by three product groups – Term Insurance, Universal Life with Secondary Guarantees and all other. The Term Insurance and ULSG should be reported on lines 1.1 and 1.2, respectively. Each of the other products reported on lines 1.3 – 1.8 should be determined as the sum of the policy reserves using the policy reserves determined following the allocation process of VM-20 Section 2. A similar process should be used for each of the pre-reinsurance-ceded reserves.

Section A: Columns 4 through 8 are to be completed if each of the reserves in Columns 4 through 6 (NPR, DR, SR) is calculated according to the requirements of Section VM-20 of the Valuation Manual.

Section B: Columns 9 through 12 are to be completed only if the reserves in Columns 9 and 10 (NPR, DR) are calculated according to the requirements of Section VM-20 of the Valuation Manual.

Section C: Columns 13 through 15 are to be completed only if the reserve in Column 13 (NPR) is calculated according to the requirements of Section VM-20 of the Valuation Manual.

Column 1 & 2 – Reported Reserve

Provide the reported reserve for the prior year and current year for each line item. Post-Reinsurance-Ceded is net of reinsurance ceded, and Pre-Reinsurance-Ceded includes reinsurance assumed and excludes any reinsurance ceded. Sections 2 and 8 in the Valuation Manual further describe the required reserve and treatment of reinsurance.

Column 4, 9 & 13 – Net Premium Reserve (NPR)

Report the Post-Reinsurance-Ceded and Pre-Reinsurance-Ceded Net Premium Reserve for the each product type. The Net Premium Reserve is defined in Section 3 in VM-20 of the Valuation Manual.

Column 5 & 10 – Deterministic Reserve

Report the Post-Reinsurance-Ceded and Pre-Reinsurance-Ceded Deterministic Reserve for each product type. The Deterministic Reserve calculation is defined in Section 4 in VM-20 of the Valuation Manual.

Column 6 – Stochastic Reserve

Report the Post-Reinsurance-Ceded and Pre-Reinsurance-Ceded Stochastic Reserve for each product type. The Stochastic Reserve calculation is defined in Section 5 in VM-20 of the Valuation Manual.

Column 7, 11 & 14 – Number of Policies

Report the number of individual life insurance policies by product type and by the required VM-20 methodology used as described in Section A, Section B and Section C above. The number of policies should be prior to any reinsurance ceded and include reinsurance assumed.

Column 8, 12 & 15 – Face Amount

Report the face amount of individual life insurance by product type and by the required VM-20 methodology used as described in Section A, Section B and Section C above. The face amount should be prior to any reinsurance ceded and include reinsurance assumed.

VM-20 RESERVES SUPPLEMENT – PART 2

Three Year-Transition Period

($000 Omitted Except for Number of Policies)

This section of the Supplement should be completed when a reporting entity has elected to apply the three-year transition provided in Section II, Sub-section C under Life Insurance Products of the Valuation Manual to some or all of its business. This Part 2 should include the values requested for the business for which the three-year transition has been elected and should not include values for any policies valued based on VM-20. This Part 2 allows the company to establish minimum reserves according to applicable requirements stated in Appendix A (VM-A) and Appendix C (VM-C), in the Valuation Manual, for business otherwise subject to VM-20 requirements and issued during the first three years following the Operative Date of the Valuation Manual. If a company does not elect the three-year transition, but elects to apply VM-20 to a block of business issued on and after the Operative Date, then such company must continue to apply the requirements of VM-20 to this block of business, as well as future new issues of this type of business.

A company that elects to apply the three-year transition for all of its products within the scope of VM-20 does not have to complete Part 1 of the VM-20 Supplement. If a company applies VM-20 to a product or products, then Part 1 of this VM-20 Supplement will need to be completed.

VM-20 RESERVES SUPPLEMENT – PART 3

Life PBR Exemption

This section of the Supplement should be completed by a company that has filed and been granted a Life PBR Exemption from its state of domicile.

If a company has been granted a Life PBR Exemption, the company must indicate the source of the Life PBR Exemption, which could be defined in a state statute, a state regulation or in the NAIC-adopted Valuation Manual. If the source of the granted Life PBR Exemption is not the NAIC-adopted Valuation Manual, the company must disclose the criteria of the state's Life PBR Exemption that the company has met, and the company must disclose the minimum reserve requirements that are required by the state of domicile. If the minimum reserve requirements of the state of domicile are the same as those specified in the NAIC-adopted Valuation Manual, the company may indicate: "Same as NAIC VM".

Companies whose individual ordinary life business is exempted from the requirements of VM-20 pursuant to a Life PBR Exemption are not required to complete Part 1 of this VM-20 Supplement.

VM-20 RESERVES SUPPLEMENT – PART 4

Other Exclusions from Life PBR

Questions 1 and 2 of this section of the Supplement should be completed by a company that has filed and been granted a Single State Exemption from the reserve requirements of VM-20 by its state of domicile pursuant to requirements similar to the optional Section 15 of the NAIC Standard Valuation Law (# 820). The response to question 2 should be “Yes” if the company has any business assumed that relates to issues outside the state of domicile.

Question 3 of this section of the Supplement should be completed by a company if all its life business is excluded from the requirements of VM-20 pursuant to Section II.B of the Valuation Manual.

Companies responding “Yes” to question 1 are not required to complete Part 1 of this VM-20 Supplement if all of their individual ordinary life business was covered under the Single State Exemption. Companies responding “YES” to question 3 are not required to complete Part 1 of this VM-20 Supplement.

LONG-TERM CARE INSURANCE EXPERIENCE REPORTING FORMS 1 THROUGH 5

These reporting forms must be filed with the NAIC by April 1 each year.

The purpose of the Long-Term Care Insurance Experience Reporting Forms is to monitor the amount of such coverage and to provide data specific to this coverage on a nationwide basis. Long-term care expenses may be paid through life policies, annuity contracts and health contracts. When the long-term benefits portion of the contract is subject to rating rules based on the Long-Term Care Insurance Model Regulation (sections on required disclosure or rating practices to customers, loss ratio and premium rate increases), the adequacy of the pricing and reserve assumptions is critical to meeting the expectation of those sections.

For life or annuity products where no portion is subject to these rating rules, the products are not being included in the reporting in these forms. Companies may use an assumption that long-term care benefits that are “incidental” regardless of the date of issue, may be excluded. Incidental means that the value of long-term care benefits provided is less than ten percent (10%) of the total value of the benefits provided over the life of the policy (measured as of the date of issue). If a policy form has had no policies in force and all claims on the policy form have been settled for more than one year, then the policy form is no longer reported on Forms 1, 2 and 4.

Form 1 focuses on the critical assumptions of morbidity and persistency while still presenting loss ratio data (without the level of detail in the original forms). As noted in the instructions specific to the form, prior-year values will be filled in over time. Only information as of 2009 and subsequent years is required on the form, unless it was required on the previous Long-Term Care Insurance Experience Reporting Forms. Companies are not required to supply information for spaces on the forms corresponding to any year prior to adoption of the forms, unless that information was previously reported. Form 2 focuses on the developing level of funds from the issue age premium basis and compares this to the active life reserve. As noted in the instructions specific to the form, prior-year values will be filled in over time. Form 3 focuses on the adequacy of claims reserves by presenting experience based on incurred years over the next several years. Because prior-year values should already be available; this form should be completed for at least the current and past four years. If available, all prior years should be completed. Form 4 is to include life and annuity products that are not exempt as outlined in the Long-Term Care Insurance Model Regulation. Form 5, which replaces the LTC Experience Form C, requires information at the state level. In addition to the considerable changes in the structure and purpose of the forms, the new forms are based on adding additional calendar years of experience to prior results. To more appropriately compare the actual results with expectations, the expected values are based on the exposure at the beginning of that year, not the original assumed sales distribution used when completing the original forms.

Because of the relatively small claim rates and variable length and size of long-term care claims, the statistical credibility of long-term care insurance experience is lower than the amount of credibility assigned to similar amounts of experience on other types of health insurance. This should be taken into account when reviewing experience and assessing the adequacy of reserves and the critical assumptions underlying them.

The Long-Term Care Insurance Experience Reporting Forms 1 through 5 should be filed whenever long-term care insurance has been sold, regardless of which annual statement has been filed. These forms are not only applicable to companies filing the life, accident and health annual statement. The list of the various annual statements is: life, accident and health, property/casualty, fraternal and health.

Include under the Individual portion both Individual policies and Group certificates if the group is approved by the state under statutes similar to Section 4E(4) of the Long-Term Care Insurance Model Act. Include under the Group portion group certificates if the group is approved by the state under statutes similar to Section 4E(1), (2) or (3) of the model act.

Experience for LTC insurance should be reported separately by stand-alone LTC policy form or by rider where experience is to be reported by form. Reporting by rider is applicable only to riders having distinct premiums for LTC coverage that are attached to products other than stand-alone LTC policies. Experience under forms that provide substantially similar coverage and provisions, that are issued to substantially similar risk classes and that are issued under similar underwriting standards, may be combined. If this option is utilized, the forms combined should be identified in the column captioned "Policy Form."

Claims incurred will need to reflect the loss of future premiums. These will occur because of the waiver of premium provision in the contract, waiver due to spouse's benefit status or other provisions in the contract that make it paid-up or not subject to collection of additional premiums for some future period. The claim incurred in each year will include the amount of the reserve established to reflect the loss of future expected premiums. The effect in future years will depend on the manner in which premiums from these policies are reported in following periods. If the assumption is that the policy is paid-up (no future premiums to be collected), the reserve and experience fund would be the paid-up value and future incurred claims will be only for LTC benefits. If the assumption is that future premiums (gross or net) will be considered as "paid by waiver," the reserve and experience fund will include in the reserve the present value of future premiums to be waived and the premium waived will be reported as both earned premium and a portion of the incurred claims.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM 1

OVERVIEW

Long-Term Care Insurance Experience Reporting Form 1 is intended to track actual claims and persistency against expected on a nationwide basis. Certain group business is reported separately from individual and some group business. (See Section 4(E) of the Long-Term Care Insurance Model Act.) Policy forms are grouped into three categories: comprehensive, institutional only or non-institutional. Yearly and cumulative comparisons are exhibited. Even though only policy form groupings are displayed, policy form level information should be kept. It may facilitate rating reviews by the regulators. If a policy form has had no policies in force and all claims on the policy form have been settled for more than one year, then the policy form is no longer reported on this form.

DEFINITIONS AND FORMULAS

Comprehensive

Policy forms that provide a combination of institutional or facility and non-institutional coverage. These include institutional only policies with non-institutional riders.

Institutional Only

Policy forms that provide institutional coverage only.

Non-Institutional Only

Policy forms that provide only non-institutional coverage.

Current

Current calendar year of reporting.

Example: For a specific policy form category, the first year of issue was 2001. This Form 1 is required starting for the year 2009 and the reporting year is 2011. The current year would be 2011.

Prior

The year immediately prior to the year of reporting.

Example: 2010

2nd Prior

Two years prior to the year of reporting.

Example: 2009

3rd Prior

Three years prior to the year of reporting.

Example: Blank, because the first year of reporting is 2009.

4th Prior

Four years prior to the year of reporting.

Example: Blank, because the first year of reporting is 2009.

5th Prior

Five years prior to the year of reporting.

Example: Blank, because the first year of reporting is 2009.

Form Inception-to-Date

Aggregate experience data since the adoption of this Form 1.

Example: Data from 2009 through 2011.

Actual and expected in force counts are sums of counts for all years since adoption of Form 1.

Total Inception-to-Date

Aggregate experience data since issuance of policies.

Example: Data from 2001 through 2011.

$${}_0\text{Paid Claims}_{i_y} \times v^{1/4} + {}_0\text{Case Reserve}_{i_y} \times v^{1/2} + {}_0\text{IBNR}_{i_y} \times v^{1/2}.$$

For $T>0$

$${}_0\text{Paid Claims}_{i_y} \times v^{1/4} + {}_1\text{Paid Claims}_{i_y} \times v^1 + {}_2\text{Paid Claims}_{i_y} \times v^2 + \dots + {}_T\text{Paid Claims}_{i_y} \times v^T + {}_T\text{Case Reserve}_{i_y} \times v^{T+1/2} + ({}_T\text{IBNR}_{i_y} \times v^{T+1/2})$$

This is the developed claim amounts for claims incurred during the specific calendar year. For each claim, the incurred claim equals the present values of all claim payments and the present value of any outstanding case reserve. This will be different from the reported financial incurred claims. The financial incurred claims, including the change in claim reserves that contains gain or loss due to reserve estimation different from actual payments for claims incurred in prior years.

For purposes of the present value calculation, assume all payments are made in the middle of the calendar year and the case reserve is at the end of the calendar year. The discount rate is the statutory valuation interest rate for case reserve. For the current calendar year, an Incurred But Not Reported (IBNR) reserve should be assigned. If a portion of the IBNR is held for years other than the current calendar year, the value in the parentheses should be used.

The total case reserves and IBNR equal the portion of the direct liability attributable to long-term care business from Exhibit 8, Part 2, Line 2.1 (life, accident & health and fraternal) plus the portion of the claim liabilities reported on Exhibit 6, Line 14 (life, accident & health) and Line 13 (fraternal) attributable to LTC business for life, accident & health and fraternal only. This amount includes accrued and unaccrued claims liabilities, which are incurred but not yet paid, both reported and not reported.

The incurred claims should be consistent with the claims exhibited on Form 3.

Column 3 – Valuation Expected Incurred Claims

The expected claim cost for an individual covered under a policy in force¹ at the beginning of the calendar year based on statutory active life reserve morbidity assumption. This is the interpolation of successive policy year expected claim costs for all coverages in force at the beginning of the year. Simple averaging is acceptable.

An acceptable approximation is the expected claim cost multiplied by an exposure adjustment, where expected claim cost is the sum of claim costs during the year based on the valuation morbidity assumption of each life in force at the beginning of the year. The valuation claim cost during the year is an interpolation of successive claim costs by policy year. Other approximations may also be acceptable. Any changes in method should be disclosed on the form.

The exposure adjustment is:

$$\frac{[\text{Actual Number of Lives In Force at Beginning of Year} - (\text{Expected Deaths} + \text{Expected Lapses}) \div 2]}{\text{Actual Number of Lives In Force at Beginning of Year}}$$

where Expected Deaths and Expected Lapses are based on valuation assumptions. They can be derived from a single average decrement rate combining deaths and lapses, or specific decrement rates applying to actual exposures. If there is no in force at the beginning of the year, the expected claim cost can be zero.

Column 4 – Actual vs. Expected Incurred Claims

Actual incurred claims as a percentage of valuation expected incurred claims.

Column 5 – Open Claim Count

Number of claims that have at least one benefit payment made during the year after the elimination period. For the purpose of including a claim in this count, payments that do not require satisfaction of the elimination period are excluded. Examples are payments of caregiver training benefits and optional care coordination benefits. For these examples, if the amounts paid are included as benefits under the policy, they should be included in the claim amounts but excluded from the claim counts. A claim should be included in the count, even though it has terminated by the end of the year.

- Column 6 – New Claim Count
- Number of claims that have at least one benefit payment made during the year after the elimination period but have no payments in previous years. If a claimant has prior claims, he or she should be counted if the current claim is considered as a new claim. For the purpose of including a claim in this count, payments that do not require satisfaction of the elimination period are excluded. A new claim should be included in the count even though it has terminated by the end of the year.
- Column 7 – Lives In Force End of Year
- Actual number of lives in force at the end of the year. Joint policies should be counted by number of lives.
- Column 8 – Expected Lives In Force End of Year
- Expected number of lives in force at the end of the year:
- $$\text{Actual Number of Lives In Force at Beginning of Year} + \text{New Issue Lives} - \text{Expected Deaths} - \text{Expected Lapses},$$
- where Expected Deaths and Expected Lapses are based on valuation assumptions. They can be derived from a single average decrement rate combining deaths and lapses or specific decrement rates applying to actual exposures. Joint policies should be counted by number of lives.
- Column 9 – Actual to Expected Lives In Force
- Actual number of lives in force as a percentage of expected number of lives in force at the end of the year.

NOTES

1. Form 1 applies to direct business only.
2. Prior years' figures, except for incurred claims, should be the same as the figures from prior years' Form 1.
3. Form Inception-to-Date figures, except for incurred claims, should be the corresponding figures from prior-year Form 1 plus the figures for the current year. No interest discounting is required to determine Form Inception-to-Date and Total Inception-to-Date figures.
4. If Incurred But Not Reported reserves must be allocated by policy form, the allocation should be based on paid claims and change in cash reserves.
5. Use the valuation assumptions corresponding to the current reserves being held. They are not necessarily the original reserve assumptions if strengthening or release of reserves has been made in the past. The assumptions for each year should be applied to the actual in-force (age, gender, plan distribution), not the distribution originally expected or issued.
6. An insurance company may use more refined methods in determining the required information than those described in the definitions and instructions. Methods must be consistent from report year to report year.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM 2

OVERVIEW

The purpose of Form 2 is to calculate a ratio of an experience reserve to the reported reserve by calendar year on a nationwide basis. Summary data by policy form is to be reported. Data for the current reporting year, as well as that reported in each of the prior two reporting years, is to be shown on Form 2.

The following formulae specify data by calendar duration (t) and calendar year of issue (n). Data at this detail is required for the calculation of the experience reserve, although only totals by policy form are illustrated. Experience data is notated by a superscript E to distinguish from valuation assumptions. The experience reserve reported in column 17 is developed from: 1) the experience reserve at the end of the prior reporting year (t-1); 2) valuation net premiums and interest rates; and 3) experience incurred claims, earned premiums, and actual persistency. The valuation net premiums used are the actual net premiums used for that reporting year. As an example, if a factor file method is used, the valuation net premiums used to calculate the reserve factors would be used for Form 2.

For 2009, the experience reserve (column 13) was calculated using the reported reserve as of the end of 2008 as the prior year's reserve. Similarly, for acquired business, the experience reserve as of the year-end following acquisition is set equal to the reported reserve as of that date. The experience reserve as of subsequent periods is developed from the first experience reserve reported in this form. If a policy form has had no policies in force and all claims on the policy form have been settled for more than one year, then the policy form is no longer reported on this form.

Experience and valuation data are reported by base policy form. Rider forms will be reported with the base forms to which they are attached.

Only summary data by reporting year is illustrated. The reporting company should have detail by calendar duration available upon request.

DEFINITIONS AND FORMULAS

Column 3 – Last Year Issue

For closed blocks of business, report the last year a policy was issued for the policy form. For open blocks of business, leave blank.

Column 4 – Earned Premiums

${}_tEP_n$ = The direct earned premium in calendar duration t for all business of Calendar Year of Issue (CYI) n. Include earned premiums only for the reporting year. Total direct earned premiums should equal direct earned premiums for LTC business from Schedule H, Part 1, Line 2 for life, accident & health, fraternal and property/casualty only.

Column 5 – Incurred Claims

${}_tIC_n$ = The experience incurred claims of all business of CYI n in calendar duration t for the reporting year.

${}_tIC_n^E$ = $[_t(\text{Paid Claims})_n] + [_tCLiab_n^E \times (1+i_n)^{-1/2} - ({}_{t-1}CLiab_n^E) \times (1+i_n)^{1/2}]$

Where:

${}_t(\text{Paid Claims})_n$ = The paid claims of all business of CYI n in calendar duration t for the reporting year. Paid claims is the total direct paid claims for LTC business from Exhibit 8, Part 2, Line 1.1 for life, accident & health and fraternal only.

i_n = The valuation interest rate for CYI n.

${}_t\text{CLiab}_n^E$ = The claim liability of all business of CYI n in calendar duration t for the reporting year. ${}_t\text{CLiab}_n^E$ is the portion of the total direct claim liability attributable to LTC business from Exhibit 8, Part 2, Line 2.1 (life, accident & health and fraternal) plus the portion of the claim liabilities reported on Exhibit 6, Line 14 (life, accident & health) and Line 13 (fraternal) attributable to LTC business for life, accident & health, and fraternal only. This amount includes accrued and unaccrued claims liabilities, which are incurred but not yet paid, both reported and not reported.

${}_{t-1}\text{CLiab}_n^E$ = The claim liability of all business of CYI n in calendar duration t-1 for the prior reporting year. ${}_{t-1}\text{CLiab}_n^E$ is the total direct claim liability for LTC business from Exhibit 8, Part 2, Line 4.1 (life, accident & health and fraternal) of the current year's annual statement plus the portion of the claim liabilities reported on Exhibit 6, Line 14 (life, accident & health) and Line 13 (fraternal) attributable to LTC business on the prior year's annual statement for life, accident & health and fraternal only. This amount includes accrued and unaccrued claims liabilities that were incurred but not paid at the prior year-end, both reported and not reported.

Column 6 – Loss Ratio

Column 7 – Annual Net Premium/Annual Gross Premium

The ratio of annual net premium to annualized gross premium.

Annual Net Premium = \sum (annual valuation net premiums for policies issued in calendar year n at the start of calendar duration t). Companies may report zero (0) for net premiums during the Preliminary Term period.

Annual Gross Premium = \sum (Annualized Premium In Force, including mode loadings for policies issued in calendar year n at the start of calendar duration t).

For calendar duration 0, the net premiums and gross premiums at issue should be used.

Column 8 – Current Year Net Premiums

At the detail level of CYI n and calendar duration t, Column 8 = Column 4 x Column 7.

Column 9 – In Force Count Beginning of Year

${}_{t-1}\text{IF}_n$ = The in force count in calendar duration t-1 for all business of CYI n at the end of the calendar year preceding the reporting year. In force Count Beginning of Years should equal in force end of prior year from the Exhibit of Number of Policies (Accident and Health Insurance, Line 1) for LTC business for life, accident & health and fraternal only.

Column 10 – New Issues Current Year

The new issues count during the reporting year. New Issues Current Year should equal issued during year from the Exhibit of Number of Policies (Accident and Health Insurance, Line 2) for LTC business for life, accident & health and fraternal only.

In Force Count End of Years should equal in force end of year from the Exhibit of Number of Policies (Accident and Health Insurance, Line 9) for LTC business for life, accident & health and fraternal only.

Column 12 – Persistency Rate

$(\text{Column 11} - .5 \times \text{Column 10}) / (\text{Column 9} + .5 \times \text{Column 10})$

Column 13 – Experience Policy Reserves

Where:

${}_tV_n^E$ = The experience reserve as of the end of the reporting year for calendar duration t, and CYI n.

${}_{t-1}V_n^E$ = The experience reserve as of the end of the prior reporting year for calendar duration t-1, and CYI n. For the first filing of this form, the experience reserve as of the second prior year is set equal to the reported reserve as of that date.

Line 7 – Current Year Total = Section C, Line 1 + Section C, Line 4

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM 3

The purpose of this form is to test the adequacy of reserves held on long-term care policies. This form allows for the development of a seven-year trend of losses incurred by a specific year group of claimants. This form is to be prepared on a nationwide basis.

Report all dollar amounts in thousands ($000 omitted).

Part 1 – Total Amount Paid Policyholders

Show paid claims by year paid and year incurred. Claims are on a direct basis, including transfers before any reinsurance. Claims incurred prior to the year shown on Line 2 should be included in Column 1.

The “Prior” values in these sections will not be directly comparable to prior statements, as the current year’s statement will include an additional incurred year’s values.

Transfer policies are defined as policies that are either purchased or sold, typically through assumption reinsurance. These policies will be recorded in these parts of this exhibit while the company owns them.

Part 2 – Sum of Total Amount Paid Policyholders and Claim Liability and Reserve Outstanding at End of Year

This section provides a claim cost development overview to show the adequacy of claim reserves for a particular incurral year at the end of that year and at the end of subsequent years. The entry in Line X and Column Y is the cumulative claims incurred during year X and paid through the end of year Y for claims incurred in year X, plus the reserve at the end of year Y for claims incurred in year X.

Claims are on a direct basis including transfers before any reinsurance. Claims incurred prior to the year shown on Line 2 should be included in Line 1, Columns 1 through 8.

The “Prior” values in these sections will not be directly comparable to prior statements, as the current year’s statement will include an additional incurred year’s values.

Transfer policies are defined as policies that are either purchased or sold, typically through assumption reinsurance. These policies will be recorded in these parts of this exhibit while the company owns them.

Part 3 – Transferred Reserves

Claim reserves for transfer claims (acquired or sold) are shown here, by claim incurred year, starting from the year of transfer. For sold business, the entries are positive. For acquired business, the entries are negative. For years after the transfer year, the reserves are increased with interest.

Claim reserves for the buyer are the reserves initially set by the buyer, not necessarily equal to the reserves for the seller.

Part 4 – Present Value of Incurred Claims (Interest Adjusted Development of Incurred Claims)

Because claim reserves for long-duration claims are generally discounted, the year-to-year comparison in Part 2 is misleading to the extent interest income on claim reserves is material. To show consistent values; paid claims; transferred reserves and claim reserves are discounted to a common point in time (assumed to be July 1 of the incurred year).

- Paid claims in the year of incurral are discounted one-quarter year.
- Paid claims subsequent to the year of incurral are assumed to be paid mid-year and discounted back to the midpoint of the incurred year.
- Outstanding claim reserves for a given incurred year plus transferred reserves from Part 3 are discounted from the valuation date to the midpoint of the incurred year.
- Negative results are possible for acquired business only. Negative results indicate downward development of ultimate claims.

If i_y = Incurred year
 T = Report year – incurred year
 v = Discount rate
 ${}_t\text{Paid Claims}_{i_y}$ = Paid claims during current or prior calendar year t from claims incurred in year i_y
 ${}_t\text{Case Reserve}_{i_y}$ = Case reserve at end of calendar year t from claims incurred in i_y
 ${}_t\text{Transferred Reserve}_{i_y}$ = Transferred reserve at end of calendar year t from claims incurred in i_y and $i_y, i_{y+1}, i_{y+2}, \dots, i_y + T$ t = $i_y, i_{y+1}, i_{y+2}, \dots, i_y + T$

then the Present Value of Incurred Claims for incurred year i_y :

For $T=0$

$${}_i\text{Paid Claims}_{i_y} \times v^{1/4} + {}_i\text{Case Reserve}_{i_y} \times v^{1/2} + {}_i\text{IBNR}_{i_y} \times v^{1/2} + {}_i\text{Transferred Reserve}_{i_y} \times v^{1/2}$$

For $T>0$

$${}_i\text{Paid Claims}_{i_y} \times v^{1/4} + {}_{i_y+1}\text{Paid Claims}_{i_y} \times v^{1/2} + {}_{i_y+2}\text{Paid Claims}_{i_y} \times v^{3/4} + \dots + {}_{i_y+T}\text{Paid Claims}_{i_y} \times v^{T+1/4} + {}_{i_y+T}\text{Case Reserve}_{i_y} \times v^{T+1/2} + ({}_{i_y+T}\text{IBNR}_{i_y} \times v^{T+1/2}) + {}_{i_y+T}\text{Transferred Reserve}_{i_y} \times v^{T+1/2}$$

If a portion of the IBNR is held for years other than the current calendar year, the value in the parentheses should be used.

The total case reserves and IBNR equal the portion of the total direct liability attributable to LTC business from Exhibit 8, Part 2, Line 2.1 (life, accident & health and fraternal) plus the portion of the claim liabilities reported on Exhibit 6, Line 14 (life, accident & health) and Line 13 (fraternal) attributable to LTC business for life, accident & health and fraternal only. This amount includes accrued and unaccrued claims liabilities that are incurred but not yet paid, both reported and not reported.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM 4

OVERVIEW

Long-Term Care Insurance Experience Reporting Form 4 is intended to track life insurance and annuity products that have long-term care benefits provided by acceleration of certain benefits within these products. Include only the products that are not exempt as outlined in the Long-Term Care Insurance Model Regulation (sections on required disclosure or rating practices to customers, loss ratio, and premium rate increases also defined as “incidental” at the beginning of these experience forms instructions). This form is not to include stand-alone LTC products. Individual and group business is separated in this form.

DEFINITIONS AND FORMULAS

Current

Current calendar year of reporting.

Example: For a specific policy form category, the first year of issue was 2001. This Form 4 is required starting for the year 2009 and the reporting year is 2010. The current year would be 2010.

Prior

The year immediately prior to the year of reporting.

Example: 2009

2nd Prior

Two years prior to the year of reporting.

Example: Blank, because the first year of reporting is 2009.

Total Inception-to-Date

Aggregate experience data since issuance of policies.

Example: Data from 2001 through 2009

- Column 1 – Number of Policies In Force
The total number of policies in force as of end of calendar year.

The total number of certificates as of end of calendar year.
- Column 3 – Death Claims

The total amount of non-claim reserves for these life insurance or annuity products.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM 5

OVERVIEW

For long-term care insurance reported in the Long-Term Care Insurance Experience Reporting Form 1, Form 2 and Form 3, these lines are the state's portion of the earned premium, incurred claims and number of in force count of lives at end of the year. A schedule must be prepared for each jurisdiction in which the company has long-term care direct earned premiums and/or has direct incurred claims. In addition, a schedule must be prepared that contains the grand total (GT) for the company.

DEFINITIONS AND FORMULAS

Policy forms should be grouped by individual and group and reported on Lines 1 and 2, respectively. The subtotals for these two classes (i.e., individual and group) must be provided. Line 3 is the sum of Lines 1 and 2.

Column 1 – Earned Premiums

Earned premiums reported should be the state amount that is included in the current year of Form 2, Part C, Column 4.

Grand Total Page:

Line 1 should equal the amount in Form 2, Part C, Column 4, Line 1.

Line 2 should equal the amount in Form 2, Part C, Column 4, Line 4.

Line 3 should equal the amount in Form 2, Part C, Column 4, Line 7.

For Line 4 “Actual total reported experience through prior year”, the amount will be Line 5 from the previous year's report.

For Line 5 “Actual total reported experience through statement year”: should be the state's allocated earned premium for the current year (as reported on Line 3) added to the state's cumulative experience through prior year (as reported on Line 4).

Column 2 – Incurred Claims

Incurred claims reported should be the state amount that is included in the current year of Form 2, Part C, Column 5. Incurred claims should be paid claims in the state plus a reasonable allocation of claim reserves less the reported allocated portion of the prior year's claim reserve. The allocation method should be consistent from year-to-year when estimating reserves for each state.

Grand Total Page:

Line 1 should equal the amount in Form 2, Part C, Column 5, Line 1.

Line 2 should equal the amount in Form 2, Part C, Column 5, Line 4.

Line 3 should equal the amount in Form 2, Part C, Column 5, Line 7.

For Line 4 “Actual total reported experience through prior year”, the amount will be Line 5 from the previous year's form.

For Line 5 “Actual total reported experience through statement year”: This should be the state's allocated incurred claims for the current year (as reported on Line 3) added to the state's cumulative experience through prior year (as reported on Line 4).

Column 3 – In Force Count End of Year

The In Force Count End of Year should be the state total used in calculating the In Force Count End of Year in Form 2, Part C, Column 11.

Grand Total Page:

Line 1 should equal the amount in Form 2, Part C, Column 11, Line 1.

Line 2 should equal the amount in Form 2, Part C, Column 11, Line 4.

Line 3 should equal the amount in Form 2, Part C, Column 11, Line 7.

Column 4 – Lives In force End of Year

Actual number of lives in force at the end of the year. Joint policies should be counted by number of lives. Once the state forms are completed, the Lives In force End of Year for all states (Grand Total State Page) LTC Form 5, Column 4, Line 01 should equal LTC Form 1, Column 7, Line A01 + A09 + A17 and Form 5, Line 02 should equal Form 1, Line B01 + B09 + B17. The number of lives for each state for individual policies should be based on the policies that were issued in that state. The number of lives for each state in group policies should be based on the certificates that were issued in that state.

ANALYSIS OF OPERATIONS BY LINES OF BUSINESS
INTEREST SENSITIVE LIFE INSURANCE PRODUCTS REPORT

Filing date: This exhibit is to be filed no later than April 1.

This exhibit shows Lines 1 through 33 of the Life and Accident and Health Blank, Analysis of Operations by Line of Business, for interest and non-interest sensitive life insurance products. The purpose of this exhibit is to reflect the amount of revenue and expense attributable to each of these classifications.

An interest sensitive life insurance product is any product under the provisions of which separately identified interest credits are made to the product. They are distinguished by the existence of an indeterminate product value from which specified periodic charges are deducted and to which specified periodic interest is credited at a rate not determined at issue.

For purposes of the classification of products between interest and non-interest sensitive products, apply the definition to the base policy. The allocation of amounts not directly allocable should follow the instructions for Analysis of Operations by Lines of Business page. Allocation of receipts and expenses between interest and non-interest sensitive products should be consistent with the primary line of business allocations.

The columns on the Interest Sensitive Life Insurance Products Report for the Analysis of Operations by Lines of Business are labeled as follows:

(References to present annual statement page totals are listed as needed.)

		Page	Column
Ordinary Life	– Interest Sensitive	6s	1

ANALYSIS OF INCREASE IN RESERVES
INTEREST SENSITIVE LIFE INSURANCE PRODUCTS REPORT

Filing date: This exhibit is to be filed no later than April 1.

This exhibit analyzes the development of life insurance policy reserves for interest and non-interest sensitive products by showing how the reserve may be traced mathematically from one year-end to the next.

An interest sensitive life insurance product is any product under the provisions of which separately identified interest credits are made to the product. They are distinguished by the existence of an indeterminate product value from which specified periodic charges are deducted and to which specified periodic interest is credited at a rate not determined at issue.

For purposes of the classification of products between interest and non-interest sensitive life insurance products, apply the definition to the base policy. The allocation of amounts not directly allocable should follow the instructions from Analysis of Increase in Reserves During the Year.

The columns on the Interest Sensitive Life Insurance Products Report for the Analysis of Increase in Reserves are labeled as follows:

(References to annual statement page totals are listed as needed.)

			Column
Ordinary Life	–	Interest Sensitive	1
	–	Non-Interest Sensitive	2
	–	Total (Page 7, Column 3)	3
Group Life	–	Interest Sensitive	4
	–	Non-Interest Sensitive	5
	–	Total (Page 7, Column 7)	6

Lines 2 through 6 and Lines 9 through 11 do not include amounts related to the VM-20 Deterministic/Stochastic portion of the reserves, which are reported on Line 6.1.

- Line 6 – Increase in Reserve on account of Change in Valuation Basis
 Enter appropriate amounts from Part A of Exhibit 5A, Changes in Bases of Valuation During the Year.
- Line 6.1 – Change in Excess of VM-20 Deterministic/Stochastic Reserve over Net Premium Reserve
 As the line item describes, this is the change in excess of any Deterministic/Stochastic reserve over the amount of the VM-20 Net Premium Reserve.
- Line 10 – Reserve Released by Death
 Entries should be made only in the columns involving life insurance. Enter terminal reserves released.
 Exclude Deterministic/Stochastic Reserves from the reporting of Reserves Released by Death
- Line 11 – Reserves Released by Other Terminations (Net)
 Enter reserves released by all causes in and other than by death in. The computation should be on a net basis so as to take account of revivals, increases, changes, etc.
 Exclude Deterministic/Stochastic Reserves from the reporting of Reserves Released by Other Terminations (Net)

CREDIT INSURANCE EXPERIENCE EXHIBIT

NOTE: The sections of these standardized instructions dealing with credit life coverages are not applicable to property and casualty companies. The sections of these instructions dealing with other than credit life and credit accident and health coverages are not applicable to life companies in those states that do not permit them to issue such coverages.

1. This exhibit must be filed with the NAIC by April 1 of each year. An exhibit must be filed for each state (jurisdiction). If the company does not write credit life, accident and health, unemployment, property or other insurance in a state or states, the forms may be filed indicating "NO" to the question on Page 1 of the exhibit. If "NO" is indicated, Pages 2 through 8 are unnecessary.
2. Data is to be reported for all life insurance, accident and health, unemployment, property or other insurance written in the state for which the exhibit is being prepared in connection with loans or other credit transactions entered into for personal, family or household purposes, under which the creditor is the primary beneficiary, without regard to the scope of any applicable credit insurance statute, the term of the insurance or the duration of the credit transaction, but excluding the following: insurance written on a non-contributory basis; insurance written in connection with agricultural loans or other agricultural credit transactions through banks or production credit associations, insurance written in connection with loans or other credit transactions secured by purchase money liens on residential real property, insurance written in connection with isolated transactions not related to a plan or agreement of the reporting entity for insuring the debtors of the creditor. In view of the differences between these specifications and those applicable to other annual statement exhibits, the data may not balance with the credit insurance data exhibited elsewhere in the annual statement.
3. The data reported is to be the direct business of the reporting entity only; reinsurance ceded is not to be deducted and reinsurance assumed is not to be included.
4. Copies of all work papers, calculations and other data used in preparing this exhibit, including forms used in the conversion of actual earned premiums to earned premiums at prima facie rates, must be maintained at the home office of the reporting entity and be available for examination by or submission to the respective insurance departments upon request. In addition, each company shall prepare a nationwide summary of the state exhibits, which shall also be available for submission to the respective insurance departments upon request.
5. Gross Written Premiums (Line 1.1 – Parts 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5)

Report gross premiums before deductions for dividends or experience rating refunds or credits.

6. Earned Premiums at Prima Facie Rates (Line 1.7 – Parts 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5)

As of December 31 of the reporting year, actual earned premiums are to be adjusted to the amount that would have been earned if all the insurance in force during the year had been written at rates actuarially equivalent to the current prima facie or statutory rates (the rates in effect at the end of the reporting year). Utilizing credit life, credit accident and health, credit unemployment, credit property or other credit insurance earned premium conversion worksheets, the conversion must be performed for each premium rate (or schedule of rates) which is not actuarially equivalent to the current prima facie rate and which had premiums earned during the year. (For the conversion of actual earned premiums on business for which prima facie rates have not been promulgated, see paragraph C., Special Instructions.) The earned premium conversion worksheets call for actual earned premiums at prima facie rates on Line A; this is for financing purposes only. If all actual earned premiums were written at rates actuarially equivalent to current prima facie rates, Lines 1.6 and 1.7 will be equal and earned premium conversion worksheets need not be completed. Earned premium conversion worksheets are not to be submitted with the exhibit, but are to be retained in accordance with Instruction 4.

- A. Credit Life, Credit Unemployment, Credit Property, or Other Credit Insurance Earned Premium Conversion Worksheet

Actual earned premiums are converted to prima facie earned premiums by using a conversion factor that is the ratio of the current prima facie rate to the premium rate actually charged.

B. Credit Accident & Health Earned Premiums Conversion Worksheet

Actual earned premiums are converted to prima facie earned premiums by using a conversion factor which is the average of the ratios of the current prima facie rates to the premium rates actually charged for 12, 24 and 36 month terms.

C. Special Instructions

In the absence of specific instructions adopted by an insurance department for the conversion of actual earned premiums on unregulated business in that state, the following shall apply:

1. For business written in states that have not promulgated any prima facie rates, actual earned premiums need not be converted; the amounts shown on Lines 1.6 and 1.7 will be equal.
2. For business written in states which have promulgated prima facie rates that apply only to insurance written in connection with transactions of specific durations (e.g., 10 years or less), the conversion factor for actual earned premiums on unregulated business (i.e., over 10 years), shall be based on the prima facie rate for regulated business, observing any class of business rate differentials, where applicable.

7. Other Incurred Compensation (Line 3.2 – Parts 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5)

Include all experience refunds, retrospective rate credits, or policyholder dividends (excluding amounts paid to insureds), and anything else of value provided as compensation. All amounts should be stated on an incurred basis, (i.e., amounts should equal paid amounts plus the change during the year in liabilities for incurred but unpaid compensation.)

8. Mean Insurance In Force (Line 5 – Part 1 only)

The average of the monthly amounts of insurance in force should be calculated and entered, without adjustment for reinsurance assumed or ceded. For joint coverage, the amount in force should equal twice the death benefit.

9. “Critical Period” Accident and Health Insurance

Report in the “Other” column of the appropriate page. For purposes of this exhibit, “critical period” insurance is that which covers loan payments for the lesser of (a) a specified number of months; or (b) the remaining duration of the loan. Coverages which are limited in number by statutory requirements should not be considered “critical period” coverages.

10. Part 4 Coverage Definitions

“Creditor Placed Insurance” means insurance that is purchased unilaterally by the creditor, who is the named insured, subsequent to the date of the credit transaction, providing coverage against loss, expense or damage to property as a result of fire, theft, collision or other risks of loss that would either impair a creditor’s interest or adversely affect the value of collateral. “Creditor Placed Home” means “Creditor Placed Insurance” on homes, mobile homes and other real estate. “Creditor Placed Auto” means insurance on automobiles, boats or other vehicles.

“Single Interest” means insurance that protects only the creditor’s interest in the collateral securing a debtor’s credit transaction.

“Dual Interest” means insurance that protects the creditor’s and the debtor’s interest in the collateral securing the debtor’s credit transaction. “Dual Interest” includes insurance commonly referred to as “Limited Dual Interest.”

“Credit Personal Property Insurance” means insurance written in connection with a credit transaction where the collateral is not a motor vehicle, mobile home or real estate and that:

1. Covers perils to the goods purchased through a credit transaction or used as collateral for a credit transaction and that concerns a creditor’s interest in the purchased goods or pledged collateral, either in whole or in part; or
2. Covers perils to goods purchased in connection with an open-end credit transaction.

11. Part 5 Coverage Definitions

GAP insures the excess of the outstanding indebtedness over the primary property insurance benefits in the event of a total loss to a collateral asset. Primary property insurance refers to the underlying P&C insurance policy insuring the property, such as automobile physical damage insurance. For reporting experience in the CIEE, "Personal GAP" refers to contributory coverage for which the borrower pays the premium for the insurance and receives a certificate or policy of coverage.

"Credit Family Leave" provides a monthly or lump sum benefit during an unpaid leave of absence from employment resulting from specified causes, such as illness of a close relative, adoption or birth of a child. If the Credit Family Leave benefit is included with the involuntary unemployment benefit without a specific identifiable charge, Credit Family Leave experience may be included with the Involuntary Unemployment Experience in Part 3.

12. Part 6 Coverage Definitions

This exhibit is to be completed on a nationwide basis. The expense definitions follow those used in the Insurance Expense Exhibit.

Types of coverage include student accident, sports accident, travel accident, blanket accident, specific accident or accidental death and dismemberment (AD&D).

Administrative Services Only (ASO) and Administrative Services Contract (ASC)

An uninsured accident and health plan is where an administrator performs administrative services for a third party that is at risk, but has not issued an insurance policy. The health plan bears all of the insurance risk, and there is no possibility of loss or liability to the administrator caused by claims incurred related to the plan. Under an ASO plan, claims are paid from a bank account owned and funded directly by the uninsured plan sponsor; or, claims are paid from a bank account owned by the administrator, but only after receiving funds from the plan sponsor that are adequate to fully cover the claim payments. Under an ASC plan, the administrator pays claims from its own bank accounts, and only subsequently receives reimbursement from the plan sponsor.

SUPPLEMENTAL HEALTH CARE EXHIBIT – PARTS 1, 2 AND 3

The purpose of this supplemental exhibit is to assist state and federal regulators in identifying and defining elements that make up the medical loss ratio as described in Section 2718(b) of the Public Health Service Act (PHSA) and for purposes of submitting a report to the HHS Secretary, as required by Section 2718(a) of the PHSA. The supplemental exhibit is also intended to track and compare financial results of health care business as reported in the annual financial statements. Thus, the numbers included in this supplemental exhibit are not the exact numbers that will be utilized for rebate purposes due to possible revisions for claim reserve run-off subsequent to year-end, statistical credibility concerns and other defined adjustments. (See Cautionary Statement at www.naic.org/cnte_e_app_blanks.htm.)

A schedule must be prepared and submitted for each jurisdiction in which the company has written direct comprehensive major medical health business, or has direct amounts paid, incurred or unpaid for provisions of health care services. In addition, a schedule must be prepared and submitted that contains the grand total (GT) for the company. However, insurers that have no business that would be included in Columns 1 through 9 or 12 of Part 1 for ANY of the states are not required to complete this supplement at all. If an insurer is required to file the supplement, then the insurer must complete Parts 1 and 2 for each state in which the insurer has any health business, even if a particular state will show $0 earned premiums reported in Columns 1 through 9 or 12 of Part 1. Also, Part 3 must be completed for any state in which there are non-zero amounts in Columns 1 through 9 of Part 1. Companies should contact their domiciliary regulator to obtain a waiver of the filing if the only reportable business in Columns 1 through 9 are comprised of closed blocks of small group, large group or individual business that, if totaled across all states, does not equal 1,000 lives in total.

Run-Off and Reinsurance Business

Similarly, insurers in run-off (major medical claims incurred with zero major medical earned premiums) or that only has assumed and no direct written major medical business in any of the states are not required to complete this supplement. However, 100% assumption reinsurance with novation (or 100% indemnity reinsurance for administration of a block of business entered into prior to March 23, 2010 – see HHS Reg. 158.150 (a)(3)) is treated as direct business for purposes of this supplement (included as direct business for the assuming reinsurer and excluded from direct business for the ceding insurer). Otherwise, the reinsurance data required in this supplement is only for use if an insurer writes direct major medical business and also assumes and/or cedes such insurance.

If an insurer has direct earned premiums to include in Columns 1 through 9 or 12 of Part 1, but also has some business in run-off (major medical claims incurred for 2018 policy year and prior, with zero major medical earned premiums or no coverage in place), the run-off claims and expenses results should be reported in Part 1, Columns 1 through 9 or 12. (If an insurer files the supplement and has a state in which the only Columns 1 through 9 or 12 business is run-off business as defined above, the insurer can report the run-off business for that state as if it was other health business; i.e., because the MLR is meaningless to that state, report zero for Columns 1 through 9 or 12 and include the run-off business along with any other health insurance reported in the Other Health Business columns of Parts 1 and 2.)

The allocation of premium and claims between jurisdictions should be based upon situs of the contract. For purpose of this exhibit, situs of the contract is defined as “the jurisdiction in which the contract is issued or delivered as stated in the contract.” For individual business sold through an association, the allocation shall be based on the issue state of the certificate of coverage. When the association is made up of employers, it should be reported as large group or small group depending on the size of each employer. For employer business issued through a group trust, the allocation shall be based on the location of each employer. For employer business issued through a multiple employer welfare association the allocation should be based on the location of each employer.

Include only in this schedule the business issued by this reporting entity. Business that is written by an unaffiliated entity as part of a package provided to the consumer (e.g., inpatient written by this legal entity, outpatient written by unaffiliated separate entity) should not be included in this exhibit. Similarly, business written by an affiliated legal entity as part of a package provided as an option to the group employer (e.g., out of network coverage written by an affiliated entity and in-network coverage written via this legal entity) should not be included in this exhibit.

Comprehensive health coverage, Columns 1 through 3, includes business that provides for medical coverages including hospital, surgical and major medical. Include risk contracts and Federal Employees Health Benefit Plan (FEHBP), stand-alone plan and any other comprehensive plan addressed in PPACA and not excluded. Exclude mini-med plans, expatriate plans and student health plans, as these are reported in Columns 4 through 9. Stand-alone plans (e.g., stand-alone pharmacy) excluding Medicare Part D stand-alone addressed in PPACA and not excluded should be reported in the appropriate column that corresponds to the details of the plan.

Do not include business specifically identified in other columns (e.g., uninsured business, Medicare Title XVIII, Medicaid Title XIX, vision only, dental only business, Insurance Program (SCHIP), Medicaid Program Title XXI risk contracts and short-term limited duration insurance). Stop-loss coverage for self-insured groups should be reported in Part 1, Column 11 (Other Health Business).

SUPPLEMENTAL HEALTH CARE EXHIBIT – PART 3

This exhibit is intended to provide disclosure of expenses by major type of activity that improves health care quality, as defined below, as well as the amount of those expenses that is used for other activities, and reported separately for the comprehensive health coverage (individual, small group and large group business), mini-med plans (individual, small group and large group business), expatriate plans (small group and large group business) and student health plans.

This exhibit also shows the amount of qualifying HIT expenses, reported separately for the comprehensive health coverage (individual, small group and large group business), mini-med plans (individual, small group and large group business), expatriate plans (small group and large group business) and student health plans, broken down into the four categories of Quality Improvement expenses (see below); similarly, the Other than HIT qualifying Quality Improvement expenses are disclosed for each of the four categories of Quality Improvement expenses.

The definitions of Individual, Small Group and Large Group are found in the instructions for Part 1 and 2 of this supplement exhibit.

Improving Health Care Quality Expenses – General Definition:

Quality Improvement (QI) expenses are expenses, other than those billed or allocated by a provider for care delivery (i.e., clinical or claims costs), for all plan activities that are designed to improve health care quality and increase the likelihood of desired health outcomes in ways that are capable of being objectively measured and of producing verifiable results and achievements.

The expenses must be directed toward individual enrollees or may be incurred for the benefit of specified segments of enrollees, recognizing that such activities may provide health improvements to the population beyond those enrolled in coverage, as long as no additional costs are incurred due to the non-enrollees other than allowable QI expenses associated with self-insured plans.

Qualifying QI expenses should be grounded in evidence-based medicine, widely accepted best clinical practice or criteria issued by recognized professional medical societies, accreditation bodies, government agencies or other nationally recognized health care quality organizations.

They should not be designed primarily to control or contain cost, although they may have cost-reducing or cost-neutral benefits, as long as the primary focus is to improve quality.

Qualifying QI activities are primarily designed to achieve the following goals set out in Section 2717 of the PHSA and Section 1311 of the PPACA:

- Improve health outcomes including increasing the likelihood of desired outcomes compared to a baseline and reducing health disparities among specified populations;
- Prevent hospital readmissions;
- Improve patient safety and reduce medical errors, lower infection and mortality rates;
- Increase wellness and promote health activities; or
- Enhance the use of health care data to improve quality, transparency and outcomes.

NOTE: Expenses that otherwise meet the definitions for QI but were paid for with grant money or other funding separate from premium revenues shall NOT be included in QI expenses.

Column 1 – Improve Health Outcomes

Expenses for the direct interaction of the insurer (including those services delegated by contract for which the insurer retains ultimate responsibility under the insurance policy), providers and the enrollee or the enrollee's representatives (e.g., face-to-face, telephonic, Web-based interactions or other means of communication) to improve health outcomes as defined above.

This category can include costs for associated activities such as:

- Effective case management, care coordination and chronic disease management, including:
 - Patient-centered intervention, such as:
 - Making/verifying appointments;

- Accreditation fees by a nationally recognized accrediting entity directly related to quality of care activities included in Columns 1 through 5;
- Expenses associated with identifying and addressing ethnic, cultural or racial disparities in effectiveness of identified best clinical practices and evidence-based medicine;

- Health information technology expenses to support these activities (report in Column 5 – see instructions) including:
 - Data extraction, analysis and transmission in support of the activities described above; and
 - Activities designed to promote sharing of medical records to ensure that all clinical providers have access to consistent and accurate records from all participants in a patient's care.

Column 2 – Activities to Prevent Hospital Readmission

Expenses for implementing activities to prevent hospital readmissions as defined above, including:

- Comprehensive discharge planning (e.g., arranging and managing transitions from one setting to another, such as hospital discharge to home or to a rehabilitation center) in order to help ensure appropriate care that will, in all likelihood, avoid readmission to the hospital;
- Personalized post-discharge counseling by an appropriate health care professional;
- Any quality reporting and related documentation in non-electronic form for activities to prevent hospital readmission; and
- Health information technology expenses to support these activities (report in Column 5 – see instructions) including:
 - Data extraction, analysis and transmission in support of the activities described above; and
 - Activities designed to promote sharing of medical records to ensure that all clinical providers have access to consistent and accurate records from all participants in a patient's care.

Column 3 – Improve Patient Safety and Reduce Medical Errors

Expenses for implementing activities to improve patient safety and reduce medical errors (as defined above) through:

- The appropriate identification and use of best clinical practices to avoid harm;
- Activities to identify and encourage evidence-based medicine in addressing independently identified and documented clinical errors or safety concerns;
- Activities to lower risk of facility-acquired infections;
- Prospective prescription drug utilization review aimed at identifying potential adverse drug interactions;
- Any quality reporting and related documentation in non-electronic form for activities that improve patient safety and reduce medical errors; and

- Wellness assessment;
- Wellness/lifestyle coaching programs designed to achieve specific and measurable improvements;
- Coaching programs designed to educate individuals on clinically effective methods for dealing with a specific chronic disease or condition; and
- Public health education campaigns that are performed in conjunction with state or local health departments.

- Actual rewards/incentives/bonuses/reductions in co-pays, etc. (not administration of these programs) that are not already reflected in premiums or claims should be allowed as QI with the following restrictions:
 - Only allowed for small and large employer groups, not individual business; and the expense amount is limited to the same percentage as the HIPAA incentive amount limit;
- Any quality reporting and related documentation in non-electronic form for wellness and health promotion activities;
- Coaching or education programs and health promotion activities designed to change member behavior (e.g., smoking, obesity); and
- Health information technology expenses to support these activities (Report in Column 5 – See instructions).

Column 5 – HIT Expenses for Health Care Quality Improvements

The PPACA also contemplates “Health Information Technology” as a function that may in whole or in part improve quality of care, or provide the technological infrastructure to enhance current QI or make new QI initiatives possible. Include HIT expenses required to accomplish the activities reported in Columns 1 through 4 that are designed for use by health plans, health care providers or enrollees for the electronic creation, maintenance, access or exchange of health information, consistent with Medicare/Medicaid meaningful use requirements, in the following ways:

1. Monitoring, measuring or reporting clinical effectiveness, including reporting and analysis costs related to maintaining accreditation by nationally recognized accrediting organizations, such as NCQA or URAC; or costs for public reporting of quality of care, including costs specifically required to make accurate determinations of defined measures (e.g., CAHPS surveys or chart review of HEDIS measures) and costs for public reporting mandated or encouraged by law;
2. Advancing the ability of enrollees, providers, insurers or other systems to communicate patient-centered clinical or medical information rapidly, accurately and efficiently to determine patient status, avoid harmful drug interactions or direct appropriate care – this may include electronic health records accessible by enrollees and appropriate providers to monitor and document an individual patient’s medical history;
3. Tracking whether a specific class of medical interventions or a bundle of related services leads to better patient outcomes;
4. Reformating, transmitting or reporting data to national or international government-based health organizations for the purposes of identifying or treating specific conditions or controlling the spread of disease; or
5. Provision of electronic health records and patient portals.
6. ICD-10 conversion costs incurred up to .3% of earned premium related to quality improvement. (Refer to 45 CFR 158.150 of PPACA).

Exclude Costs associated with establishing or maintaining a claims adjudication system, including costs directly related to upgrades in HIT that are designed primarily or solely to improve claims payment capabilities or to meet regulatory requirements for processing claims (e.g., costs of implementing new administrative simplification standards and code sets adopted pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), 42 U.S.C. 1320d-2, as amended, including the ICD-10 conversion costs not related to quality improvement and ICD-10 conversion costs incurred that are in excess of .3% of earned premium that are related to quality improvement.

NOTE:

- a. Health Care Professional Hotlines: Expenses for health care professional hotlines should be included in Claims Adjustment Expenses to the extent they do not meet the criteria for the above defined columns of Improve Health Outcomes, Activities to Prevent Hospital Readmissions, Improve Patient Safety and Reduce Medical Errors, and Wellness & Health Promotion Activities.
- b. Prospective Utilization Review: Expenses for prospective utilization review should be included in Claims Adjustment Expenses to the extent they do not meet the criteria for the above defined columns of Improve Health Outcomes, Activities to Prevent Hospital Readmissions, Improve Patient Safety and Reduce Medical Errors, and Wellness & Health Promotion Activities, AND the prospective utilization review activities are not conducted in accordance with a program that has been accredited by a recognized accreditation body.

The following items are broadly excluded as not meeting the definitions above:

- All retrospective and concurrent utilization review;
- Fraud prevention activities (all are reported as cost containment, but Part 1, Line 1 includes MLR recognition of fraud detection/recovery expenses up to the amount recovered that reduces incurred claims);
- The cost of developing and executing provider contracts and fees associated with establishing or managing a provider network;
- Provider credentialing;
- Marketing expenses;
- Any accreditation fees that are not directly related to activities included in Columns 1 through 5;
- Costs associated with calculating and administering individual executive or employee incentives; and
- Any function or activity not expressly included in Columns 1 through 5.

NOTE: The NAIC will review requests to include expenses for broadly excluded activities and activities not described under Columns 1 through 5 above. Upon an adequate showing that the activity's costs support the definitions and purposes therein, or otherwise support monitoring, measuring, or reporting health care quality improvement, the NAIC may recommend that the HHS Secretary certify those expenses as Quality Improvement.

The sections for comprehensive health coverage (individual, small group and large group business), mini-med plans (individual, small group and large group business) and expatriate plans (small group and large group business) are defined as per the comprehensive health coverage (individual, small group and large group business), mini-med plans (individual, small group and large group business), expatriate plans (small group and large group business) and student health plans columns in Parts 1 and 2 of this supplement.

For questions on definitions, refer to the instructions for the Annual Statement Expenses Schedule (i.e., the Underwriting and Investment Exhibit, Part 2 for P and Health, and Exhibit 2 for Life and Fraternal), for the line references provided below. DIFFERENT FROM A/S EXPENSE REPORTING: For non-affiliated management agreements/outsourced services, report all amounts in the supplement's Line 1.2, 2.2, 3.2, 4.2, 5.2, 6.2, 7.2, 8.2 or 9.2 for Outsourced Services (not just those amounts less than 10% of total expenses). This exhibit is required to be filed no later than April 1. All capitalized terms used in Part 3 shall have the meanings ascribed to them in Part 1.

If the ceding company cannot determine the statutory accounting value of certain assets under the NAIC Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual after making a diligent effort to do so, the ceding company can report that asset using the value assigned to the asset for the purpose of determining the amount of reserve credit taken, provided, however, any such assets must be reported on a line separate from those assets valued in accordance with the NAIC Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual and the reporting entity shall provide a note indicating the basis for the valuation used.

INSTRUCTIONS

FOR COMPLETING SEPARATE ACCOUNTS ANNUAL STATEMENT BLANK

INDEX

The annual statement shall contain an alphabetized index on the last page of the hard copy statement which references the title and page number of all of the pages that are required to be included in that filing. The NAIC shall maintain, and place on its Website at www.naic.org/cmt_e_app_blanks.htm, the alphabetized index for all statement types that is required to be included in the hard copy of the statement. The above is only required on the March 1 filing, and specifically excludes any supplements.

GENERAL

The instructions for completing the general account are to be followed to the extent applicable. This supplement provides additional instructions that are unique to the Separate Accounts Blank as well as some that differ from those for the Life and Accident and Health Blank. Where there is a conflict with the Life Blank's instructions, use these instructions. The reporting date must be plainly written or stamped at the top of all pages, exhibits and schedules (and duplicate schedules) and also upon all inserted schedules and loose sheets.

Reinsurance of separate accounts business is subject to the same Transfer of Risk requirements for reinsurance accounting treatment as general account business. All reinsurance transactions involving separate accounts business, if any, must be reported as reinsurance transactions in the general account annual statement, including reinsurance premiums, deposits, benefits, withdrawals, Schedule S (for separate accounts modified coinsurance reserves), Schedule T and where applicable, the Notes to Financial Statements and Schedule Y, Part 2.

If the assuming company does not receive funds to be invested, such as with modified coinsurance or coinsurance with funds withheld, the assuming company must account for such reinsurance in its general account statement. If the assuming company receives funds to be invested in support of the reinsured variable benefit reserves, the assuming company must use its separate accounts statement for such reinsurance assumed.

The separate accounts statement reports only the operations of the separate accounts themselves. It assumes that the administration of the contracts is reflected in the general account statement – hence, administrative expense does not appear in the Separate Accounts Statement, premiums and considerations are net of loading, and the expenses and taxes are those associated with the separate account investment operations.

A separate distinct filing should be made for separate account products that are insulated from the general creditors of the general account and for separate account products that are not insulated (i.e., an insurance company with both insulated and non-insulated products in the separate account would submit two complete and different filings). Seed money and unsettled fees and expenses are allowed to be reported with the corresponding product (insulated or non-insulated).

When completing the insulated blank, a reporting entity should only include those assets that are legally insulated by state law or statute. Legally insulated assets shall be equal to the reserves and supporting contract liabilities of the separate account. Such assets provide legal protection to the separate account contract holder from the general account liabilities. All other assets within the separate account that are not legally insulated by state law or statute shall be included in the non-insulated blank.

Examples:

Scenario	Insulated S/A Blank	Non-insulated S/A Blank
Scenario 1: Separate Account Insulated Assets = Separate Account Liabilities (For example, 100% of investment proceeds, net fees is attributed to the contract holder.) 40 bonds at $100 par value = $4,000	The $4,000 issue is associated with an insulated product; thus the entire $4,000 would be reported in the insulated blank.	No amount .
Scenario 2: Separate Account Assets > Separate Account Liabilities resulting in a “due to” the General Account (For example, the contract specifies a ceiling on the investment return to contractholder; excess investment returns are retained by the reporting entity; the portion then retained by the general account is considered non-insulated.) 40 bonds at $100 par value = $4,000 Max to contractholder is $3,990	$3,990 of the issue is associated with an insulated product; thus, this amount would be included in the insulated blank.	The remaining $10 is due to the General Account; the $10 would then be reported under the non-insulated blank.
Scenario 3: Separate Account Non-insulated Assets = Separate Account Liabilities (For example, the asset supporting the contract was not approved by the state as a legally insulated product.) The reporting entity owns 15 bonds at $100 par value that do not support an insulated product. 15 bonds at $100 par value = $1,500	No amount.	The $1,500 issue would be reported under the non-insulated blank.

Receipts other than income from investments are handled as a transfer from the general account. Similarly, amounts providing for the payment of benefits, including surrender benefits and various other payments, appear as transfers from the separate account to the general account. When eventually paid, these items are reported in the general account statement. The assets and liabilities are strictly those which arise from the operations of the separate accounts themselves, i.e., policy and contract reserves and items related to the making of investments, including investment expenses and taxes due or accrued. Unpaid transfers due the general account, such as surplus, contractual benefits, or contractual charges, would also appear on the liability page.

The format of the annual statement has been designed to facilitate data capture. Therefore, do not change the captions for pre-printed items, lines, or columns and do not insert write-ins between pre-printed items, lines, or columns (however, these requirements do not apply to the signature lines on the Jurat Page). An entry for which there is no specific pre-printed line title must be reported with an identifying title (for example, Deferred option income) in the appropriate schedule for each applicable page or section thereof entitled DETAILS OF WRITE-INS AGGREGATED AT ITEM (or ON LINE) _____ FOR _____. These write-in lines should be reported in descending order. The statement provides a limited number of lines for write-ins in each applicable section. These pre-printed write-in detail schedules should not be modified.

If there is not sufficient room in a write-in detail schedule to accommodate all write-ins to be reported therein, companies shall report the write-in detail overflow on pages sequentially numbered beginning with Page 21, followed by 21.1, 21.2, etc. In such instances, companies shall carry the summary of write-in overflow lines from this page to the prescribed line in the original write-in detail section.

Each overflow write-in section should adhere to the following example:

1697	Summary of remaining write-ins for Line 16. (Lines 1604 through 1696) (Assets, Line 1698)	$ 300,000

More than one detail section overflow may be entered on one page. However, the items should remain in page number order.

Whenever a reporting entity amends, changes, or otherwise modifies any previously filed information, the reporting entity should submit such changes with a new annual page, completed in all respects, along with new annual statement pages for all pages of the annual statement that contain information different from the most recently filed pages. The amendment, change, or modification should be filed with the NAIC as well.

EXHIBIT 6 – GUARANTEED INSURANCE AND ANNUITY PRODUCTS

Lines 1 through 4

– Liabilities Associated with Guarantees

Include: Separate account liabilities for products where:

2. The policyholder's or contractholder's separate account funds are guaranteed as to principal amount or stated rate of interest or stated index.

Exclude: The separate account liabilities for guaranteed benefit features offered with variable benefit products which are minimal, such as annuity purchase rates.*

Line 5

– Total Liabilities Not Associated With Guarantees

Include: Separate account liabilities for products where:

1. The separate account benefits available to the policyholder or contractholder are determined by the non-guaranteed investment performance and/or market value of the investments held in the separate account, (i.e., the benefits are variable).
2. The benefits are variable but the product contains minimal guarantee features, such as annuity purchase rates.*

The separate account liabilities for the variable benefit portion of products that contain guarantee features. Where the liabilities for such features are held in a separate account,* then the liability for the guaranteed benefit portion of such products should be reported in Lines 1 thru 4.

* NOTE: Although the NAIC Model Variable Contract Law generally requires reserves for guaranteed benefits to be held in the general account, there may be circumstances where the liability for guaranteed benefits offered with variable products is held in a separate account. For example, an actuarial guideline is currently being developed that will interpret the application of the NAIC Model Standard Valuation Law to variable annuities with guaranteed living benefits. It has not yet been determined whether the guideline will specify that reserves for these living benefits be held in the general account (as is required for minimum guaranteed death benefits according to Actuarial Guideline XXXIV) or in a separate account. All such reserves for guaranteed living benefits that are held in a separate account should be reported in Lines 1 thru 4, even if minimal.

INTEREST MAINTENANCE RESERVE

Interest Maintenance Reserve (IMR) requirements for investments reported in the Separate Accounts Statement are applied on an account by account basis. If an IMR is required for a separate account, all of the investments in that separate account are subject to the requirement. If an IMR is not required for a separate account, none of the investments in that separate account are subject to the requirement.

An IMR is required for separate accounts valued at book but is not required for separate accounts valued at market. For example, separate accounts for traditional variable annuities, or variable life insurance do not require an IMR because assets and liabilities are valued at market.

If an IMR is required for investments in the Separate Accounts Statement, it is kept separate from the General Account IMR and accounted for in the Separate Accounts Statement.

The instructions for completion of the IMR for the Separate Accounts Statement are incorporated in the instructions for completion of the IMR of the General Account Statement. Refer to those instructions for guidance.

ASSET VALUATION RESERVE

Asset Valuation Reserve (AVR) requirements for investments reported in the Separate Accounts Statement are applied on an account by account basis. If an AVR is required for a separate account, all of the investments in that separate account are subject to the requirement. If an AVR is not required for a separate account, none of the investments in that separate account is subject to the requirement (except to the extent that such investments represent the company’s capital and surplus interest in those investments).

Whether or not an AVR is required for separate account assets depends primarily on whether the reporting entity or policyholder/contract holder suffers the loss in the event of asset default or market value loss. An important exception to this is when specific state regulation provides an alternative to the AVR.

An AVR is required for separate account investments unless:

1. The asset default or market value risk is essentially borne directly by the policyholders, or
2. The regulatory authority for such separate accounts already explicitly provides for establishment of a reserve for asset default risk where such reserves are essentially equivalent to the AVR.

For example, assets supporting traditional variable annuities and variable life insurance do not require an AVR because the policyholders/contract holders bear the risk of change in the value of assets. However, an AVR is required for that portion representing the company’s equity interest in the investments of such a separate account, (see money interest, for example). Assets supporting typical modified guaranteed contracts or market value adjusted contracts do require an AVR because the company is responsible for credit related asset loss. Another category of contracts requiring an AVR is contracts with book value guarantees similar to contracts generally found in the general account.

An example of the exception referred to in (2) above are contracts with market value separate accounts funding guaranteed benefits where state regulation provides alternatives to the AVR.

The following criteria are presented to assist in determining when an AVR or an IMR are required for investments in the Separate Accounts Statement:

Assets	Liabilities	Does Co. Suffer Asset Loss?	If Yes, Any Other Provision?	AVR*	IMR	Example Product
Market	Market	No	--	No	No	Variable Annuity
Market	Market	Yes	No	Yes	No	Modified Gtd. Annuity
Market	Market	Yes	Yes	No	No	MV S/A funding Gtd. Benefits
Book	Book	No	--	No	No	--
Book	Book	Yes	No	Yes	Yes	GIC in S/A
Book	Book	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	--

* However, an AVR is required for that portion representing the company’s equity interest in the investments of such a separate account.

 But not less than adjusted cash surrender value.

 You must establish an AVR reserve unless there is a statutory requirement for the equivalent of an AVR reserve for such products.

If an AVR is required for investments in the Separate Accounts Statement, it is combined with the General Account AVR and accounted for in the General Account Statement. Worksheets supporting the separate accounts portion of the reserve are included in the Separate Accounts Statement.

When the AVR Default Component covers assets valued at market, use one of the following two methods (applied consistently by separate account) to determine when a gain or loss (net of capital gains tax) is credited or charged to the AVR:

1. A gain or (loss) is recorded as for the general account rules, i.e., upon sale of an asset which has changed more than one designation category or upon asset default. Once an asset is in default, all subsequent market value changes are reflected in the AVR, or
2. A similar procedure to Method 1 above is followed but, additionally, a gain or (loss) is recorded whenever an asset held changes by more than one designation category. As there might be more than one such event for a particular asset, e.g., a two designation downgrade followed by subsequent sale of the asset, the amount charged the AVR is net of any prior amounts charged for that asset.

When an AVR is required for the company's equity or capital and surplus interest in the investments of a particular separate account that does not otherwise require an AVR, the AVR requirement is based on the company's equity interest as of the statement date, expressed as a percent of total assets of the particular separate account. Once the equity interest percentage has been determined, it is applied to the realized and unrealized capital gains and losses of the investments of that particular separate account to determine the amounts to be included in the separate accounts data used for development of the current AVR. If the company's equity interest in all such separate accounts is less than 1/10th of 1% of the company's total admitted assets, the equity interest in the investments of such separate accounts is exempt from AVR requirements.

The instructions for completion of the AVR for the Separate Accounts Statement are incorporated in the instructions for completion of the AVR of the General Account Statement. Refer to those instructions for guidance.

Part A: Positions in Options, Caps, Floors, Collars, Swaps and Forwards*

Part B: Positions in Futures Contracts

Part C: Positions in Replicated (Synthetic) Assets

APPENDIX

INSTRUCTIONS FOR USE OF BARCODES

It is the responsibility of the company to prepare and utilize barcodes correctly.

The upper right-hand corner of the jurat page, and other pages and forms as identified on the Document Identifier Codes listing, will be the location of a 17-digit barcode symbol. The barcode standard to be utilized is the 3 of 9 (or 39) methodology. The barcode should be printed using at least a 24-point font. In addition to the barcode symbols, the name of the reporting entity, the year, and the document code should be printed on the barcode label. When the barcode is printed as part of the page rather than an affixed label, the reporting entity's name need not be printed above the barcode.

The barcode consists of the entity identifier (5 digits), the year (YYYY-4 digits), the document identifier (3 digits), the state code (2 digits), if state specific page, the data indicator (1 digit) and a filing type identifier (1 digit).

This 17th digit should utilize the following codes:

- 0 to represent the annual filings
- 1 to represent the March quarterly filing
- 2 to represent the June quarterly filing
- 3 to represent the September quarterly filing
- 4 to represent the Health Maintenance Organization's fourth quarter filing
- 5 to represent amended annual filings
- 6 to represent amended March quarterly filing
- 7 to represent amended June quarterly filing
- 8 to represent amended September quarterly filing

For filings of a reporting entity, the entity identifier is the NAIC company code number.

The year is represented as the last four digits of the filing year. For the 2018 annual statement due March 1, 2019, the year would be 2018.

The document identifier represents what page, schedule, exhibit, etc., is being filed. The respective identifiers for those documents requiring a barcode are included on the document identifier listing.

The state code represents if the document identifier can be filed for each individual state (e.g., the state business pages). The two-digit code would be the same as used on Schedule T. If it is not a state-specific form, the state code is 00. The state code Other is 58, and the code for Grand Total is 59. If the reporting entity has nothing to report on any state-specific supplemental schedule or exhibit, the barcode included in the Supplemental Exhibits and Schedules Interrogatories should contain a state code of 59.

The data indicator represents if the document contains data. For filings containing data place a one (1) in this field. If the document is a NONE, place a zero (0) in this field.

The filing type identifier is used to indicate the filing of NAIC filing components or state mandated (state specific) filing requirements other than those required by the NAIC. For NAIC filing requirements, the type code is 0. For state filing requirements, the type code is 1.

If forms which are required to have a separate barcode as identified on the Document Identifier Codes listing are bound in the statement, these forms MUST have the barcode affixed to them. If a reporting entity submits with the March 1 filing a page requiring a barcode and that page has not been completed due to a later filing date, the barcode should not be affixed for the March filing. If the filing includes a page listing none schedules (and the state in which you are filing permits such a filing) and any of these schedules fall within that listing that requires a barcode, the barcode must be placed to the right of the name of the page, exhibit or schedule. On those forms which are completed on a by-state basis and are marked none because the company does not write that type of business or that particular state page is none, place the appropriate identifier with the data indicator of zero (0). State pages which have values reported must use the appropriate state barcode identifier from Schedule T. If any state requires the filing of a none “by-state basis” page, the name of the appropriate state must still be printed on the hard copy after “For the State of _____.”

A listing of the Document Identifier Codes can be found at www.naic.org/cmt_e_app_blanks.htm.

The reporting entity is required to affix the appropriate barcode next to the respective Supplemental Interrogatory using the document identifier code provided. Note that it is only Supplemental Interrogatories to which the reporting entity has responded “NO” that it does not have to file a particular exhibit or form, and for which the physical page or form is marked none that the appropriate barcode be affixed. For supplements that are state specific, the only instance a barcode should be affixed is when that type of business is not written at all in any state.

GENERAL EXPENSES AND TAXES, LICENSES AND FEES

General expenses include virtually all of the expenses of a life insurance company other than benefits to policyholders, commissions, and taxes, licenses and fees.

The statutory financial statement provides for two broad categories of general expenses (1) insurance, subdivided into life insurance, accident and health insurance, and all other lines of business, and (2) investment. In addition, the Analysis of Operations by Lines of business requires allocation of general expenses to more detailed lines of business. The Summary of Operations classifies the investment expense portion of general expenses as an offset to investment income while classifying general insurance expenses separately in the expense section of the summary.

Report expenses incurred by the reporting entity for uninsured accident and health plans on a gross basis by type of expense; however, administrative fees and expense reimbursements relating to uninsured business are reduced in the general expense and general insurance expenses are to be reported in the Summary of Operations net of such fees and reimbursements.

Classification of Expenses

Note the following points with respect to specific classifications of expenses:

Exhibit 2 – General Expenses

Line 1 – Rent

Rent expense includes, in addition to rent paid for leased properties, an estimated amount that represents “rent” for properties owned and occupied by the company. Report the offset to this amount as investment income. Net rents received for property under sublease against rent expense.

Line 2 – Salaries and Wages

Salaries and wages, in addition to virtually all direct payments of compensation to employees, salaries and wages should include all payments to directors for attendance at board or committee meetings.

Line 3 – Contributions for Benefit Plans for Employees and Agents

The instructions for “Contributions for benefit plans for employees and agents” provide for payments of past service costs to be excluded from general expenses, if reported in surplus. This relates to the practice followed by some companies of reporting past service cost as a surplus item rather than as an expense. The alternative treatment still exists.

Line 4.1 – Legal Fees and Expenses

Legal fees and expenses should include the cost of outside counsel as well as court costs and similar payments to the extent that these costs do not relate to the claims or investment functions. Exclude salaries and expenses of in-house counsel.

Line 4.2 – Medical Examination Fees

Medical examination fees relate to costs incurred in connection with the issuance of policies, reinstatements, policy changes, and applications for employment, but not to medical fees incurred in connection with the welfare of employees or the settlement of claims.

- Line 4.5 – Expense of Investigation and Settlement of Policy Claims
- The classification entitled “Expense of investigation and settlement of policy claims” relates to payments to outsiders for adjusting and settling claims. It does not include payments to employees engaged in this function.
- Line 5.1 – Traveling Expenses
- Exclude from “Traveling expenses” those expenses properly chargeable to the caption “Real estate expenses” or those expenses that the reporting entity would properly classify as agency expenses. Include costs relating to company owned automobiles, including depreciation.
- Line 5.2 – Advertising
- Advertising should include all costs relating to advertising for new insurance business except salaries and expenses of an advertising department.
- Line 5.5 – Cost or Depreciation of Furniture and Equipment
- The general practice with respect to “Cost or depreciation of furniture and equipment” is to either (1) charge depreciation to this expense classification and write off the remaining asset balance to surplus as a nonadmitted asset; or (2) to charge expenditures for furniture and equipment directly to expense, in which case, those expenditures would be included in this classification.
- Line 6.6 – Sundry General Expenses
- Report as general expenses, amounts paid to agents for administering group, credit, or individual blocks of business.
- Line 9.1 – Real Estate Expenses
- Real estate expenses include all costs except salaries and wages of company employees that relate to real estate, whether occupied by the company or not.

Exhibit 3 – Taxes, Licenses and Fees

Taxes, licenses and fees general include all payments to federal, state, local and foreign governments with the exception of federal income taxes.

Functional Costs

General expenses are not to be reported on a functional basis unless specifically permitted and then only if (1) services are independently organized; (2) rent, salaries and wages, and other major items of direct expense are charged to the functions; and (3) adequate accounting for the functional classifications is maintained. Those expense classifications that companies may specifically report on a functional basis are rent, salaries and wages, other employee and agent welfare and printing and stationery.

Allocation of Expenses

As stated above, companies must allocate general expenses to life insurance, accident and health insurance or investment expense. The all other lines of business category should include the corporate overhead line of business where that normal designation exists. In addition, the Analysis of Operations by Lines of Business requires allocation of general insurance expenses to more detailed lines of business. The Annual Statement Instructions discuss the allocation of receipts and expenses to lines of business.

The Annual Statement Instructions state that the company shall employ those principles and methods that reflect the actual incidence of cost by lines of business. Companies should consider the relative time spent, the extent of usage, and the varying volume of work performed. The instructions further state that companies should base the allocations upon objective measurement rather than estimates unless the cost of the measurement clearly outweighs the benefit derived. Where estimates are used, individuals familiar with the nature of the activity should make these estimates and thoroughly responsible persons should review these estimates.

The Annual Statement Instructions also state that companies should not use general indices such as premium volume, number of policies and insurance in force unless the incidence of cost is closely related to the indices or there is no more appropriate basis. In no event should such indices be used to distribute claims costs to secondary lines of business.

Taxes, licenses and fees are generally allocated to the same line of business as the items to which the specific tax, license or fee relates. For examples, premium taxes would follow the allocation of premiums while real estate taxes would be classified as an investment expenditure. As with general expense, the overriding allocation principle should be that of reasonableness.

General Expenses Due or Accrued

The amount included in the balance sheet under this caption represents the company's liability for general expenses applicable to the current year that are unpaid at year-end. There are a number of guidelines to consider with respect to whether an item represents a liability of the company at the statement date. Distinguish between (1) bills for items purchased or services rendered, and (2) the recognition of accruals for such things as payroll. With respect to accruals, the liability should be established so that each period bears its pro rata share of the expense even though no bill has been received. Accrual payroll, for example, represents the cost for the period from the last payroll to period-end.

Generally, the liability for purchases of supplies and materials should be established as of the receipt date or shipment date, if FOB. If a company has an irrevocable contract as of the statement date, the liability must be established even though the supplies or materials have not been received.

Taxes, Licenses and Fees Due or Accrued

Taxes, licenses and fees that are unpaid but applicable to the accounting period should be accrued and reported as a liability in the balance sheet. With respect to premium taxes and state income taxes, the amount accrued should relate to the related premiums or taxable income recorded in the period, less prepayments of those taxes. Payroll taxes accrued should include all unpaid taxes applicable to salaries and wages that have been paid, plus taxes applicable to accrued payroll.
