

INDIANA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Andrea Zimmerman
Deputy Chief of Staff

Andrea Zimmerman was named INDOT Deputy Chief of Staff in January 2024. In this role, Andrea directs the agency's Legislative Affairs, Intergovernmental Affairs, and Business Engagement efforts.

Andrea joined INDOT as Legislative Director in August 2021. In this position, she directed the agency's legislative initiatives and served as a policy and research conduit between INDOT and the Indiana General Assembly.

Prior to joining INDOT, Andrea served from 2017 to 2021 as a Senior Legislative Assistant in the Indiana House of Representatives, where she worked with a variety of lawmakers on their policy initiatives, legislative research, and constituent communications. Through her connections at the House of Representatives, she has also volunteered on and worked as a Field Manager for various House election campaigns.

Andrea started her career as the Communications and Member Relations Coordinator for the Indiana Non-Public Education Association, overseeing the Association's external and internal communications, as well as its membership and grassroots advocacy efforts. She is an Indiana University alumna, graduating with bachelor's degrees in political science and communications. In 2020, Andrea also earned her master's degree from Indiana State University.

Andrea resides on the southeast side of Indianapolis with her partner, Stephen. In her free time, she enjoys trying new baking recipes, traveling, and reading.
