Prosecutor William C. Hartley Jr. Appointed to Supreme Court Committee

The Indiana Supreme Court has appointed Wabash County Prosecutor William C. Hartley Jr. to serve as one of four new members added to its Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure. His term will continue through June 30, 2022.

The 13-member Supreme Court committee reports to the court with recommendations and proposed amendments to court procedures. It also serves to review the Indiana Rules of Evidence.

Prosecutor Hartley is a 1993 graduate of IU-Kokomo and received his J.D. from Valparaiso University in 1996. He has served as Wabash County Prosecutor since 2003, is a former chairman of the Indiana Prosecuting Attorneys Council and serves as a member of the IPAC board of directors.

William C. Hartley, Jr.
