Celebrate 100 Years of Indiana State Parks

This year marks the centennial for Indiana State Parks. The first state parks in Indiana were McCormick's Creek and Turkey Run, which opened in December, 1916. Richard Lieber, a German-American businessman and conservationist, had convinced Governor Samuel M. Ralston to initiate the state park program during the state's

Nonprofit leader selected to lead Indiana Library Federation

Indianapolis, IN. - Lucinda Nord was selected to lead the Indiana Library Federation, the state association for academic and public libraries, school librarians and trustees of public libraries. Nord will join the Federation in late June, as the Federation plans its fall conference when renowned author James Patterson will be the keynote speaker.

Nord is a recognized leader with Indiana's nonprofits, having served as the first executive director for Indiana 2-11 Partnership, and most recently, as Vice President of

National Safety Month

June is National Safety Month, sponsored by the National Safety Council

From the National Health Information Center:

Injuries are a leading cause of disability for people of all ages – and they are the leading cause of death for Americans ages 1 to 44. But there are many things people can do to stay safe and prevent injuries. Make a difference: Spread the word about ways to reduce the risk of injuries. Encourage communities, workplaces, families, and individuals to identify and report safety hazards.

How can National Safety Month make a difference?

We can all use this month to raise awareness about important safety issues like:

- Medication safety and prescription painkiller abuse
- Driving, biking, and working safely
- First aid and emergency preparedness

Preventing slips, trips, and falls

Everyone can get involved in reducing the risk of injuries. Together, we can share information about steps people can take to protect themselves and others. How can you help spread the word? We've made it easier for you to make a difference. This toolkit is full of ideas to help you take action today. For example:

Midwestern Roots 2016

Indiana Association of United Ways.

Robyn Young, ILF Board President, said, "Our board is excited to have someone with her statewide nonprofit experience to lead work with members across Indiana. We look forward to exploring new collaborations and initiatives under her leadership."

Nord has led many statewide efforts for United Ways. In public policy, Nord advanced legislation for quality child care, 2-1-1, and tax policies to support working families and charitable organizations. Programmatically, Nord steered projects such as Kindergarten Camps, free tax preparation, the ALICE project and disaster recovery efforts in 2008 and 2012. To celebrate Indiana's 200th birthday, Indiana Association of United Ways launched the Indiana "Bicentennial" Public Art Project in over 60 counties under her leadership

A frequently requested presenter about nonprofit and human service issues, Nord also teaches at IUPUI-School of Public and Environmental Affairs.

In joining the Federation, Nord said, "Libraries are often the silent partners in collective community impact work—the safe gathering hub for individuals and groups, a facilitator of lifelong learning and the flower bed for sprouting ideas and innovations."

Located in Indianapolis, the Indiana Library Federation is comprised of members in four divisions: Association of Indiana School Library Educators, Indiana Academic Library Association, Indiana Public Library Association, and Indiana Library Trustee Association. Each year, the Federation serves over 2,000 members in all 92 counties and

Great Lakes Reads: A Center for the Book Collaboration

The Indiana Center for the Book, housed in the Indiana State Library, is pleased to announce “Great Lakes Reads,” a collaborative project of the Great Lakes state Centers for the Book: Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin, with acts as the state chapter of the American Library Association. See www.ilfonline.org.

InfoExpress Renewal Time

It is time to renew your subscription to the InfoExpress Courier. The service year runs from July 1 to June 30, and the window for renewing our statewide library courier is now open.

Public, Academic or Special Libraries have from now until August 1 to renew, and payment is expected to be received by the State Library by August 31st. For libraries that have not renewed by that date, service will end as of September 1. Service to any library, whose payment has not been received by October 1, will be suspended until full payment has been received.

School Libraries (K-12) are on a slightly different calendar. Their renewal requests should be submitted by September 1 and payment is due by September 30th to avoid the loss of service as of October 1. Service to any school library will be suspended effective November 1, until full payment has been received.

The State Library is also pleased to announce that once again, the cost for the InfoExpress courier remains the same as last year. This is the final year of our current contract with NOW courier. ISL will strive to keep costs as low as possible in negotiating our next contract.

For the 2016-2017 service year the annual subscription cost for InfoExpress service will remain at $625 per delivery day. The State Library once again will provide an upfront subsidy of $525 for the first delivery day for qualifying

By now, you have hopefully heard of the Indiana State Library’s new initiative, SRCS (pronounced “Circs”). In short, it’s a statewide patron initiated request system that works with a variety of ILS systems. There are currently 167 libraries across Indiana who are participating in Phase #1 of SRCS’s rollout, with more expected to join during Phase #2 (projected to be late-fall). SRCS is scheduled to “go live” on August 15, 2016.

To prepare participating libraries for the launch, ISL offered five SRCS trainings throughout the state during the week of May 23. Led by Ruth Castillo of Auto-Graphics (vendor for the SRCS system), these trainings were an intense overview and offered attendees a hands-on opportunity to practice.

If you work at one of the participating libraries and missed the May trainings, however, never fear! ISL will be offering two more trainings this summer:

- On Wednesday, June 15th, the training will be held in the Huntington City Township Public Library, 255 West Park Dr., Huntington, IN 46750. Attendance will be capped at 48 people, and attendees are encouraged to bring a laptop or tablet so they can follow along with the presenter.
- On Thursday, June 23rd the training will take place in room B205 at the Ivy Tech Bloomington campus in the Connie and Steve Ferguson participation by the Ontario Book Publishers Organization. Created in 1977, the Center for the Book in the Library of Congress promotes books, reading, literacy, and libraries. For more information and a complete list of Great Lakes Reads, visit www.thefriends.org/greatlakes.

Books for the “Great Lakes Reads” list were selected by each state, and province, that borders a Great Lake. The chosen works, all by authors either from or residing in each location, highlight the state’s relationship with its lake and the communities surrounding it. Indiana’s selected book is Dune Boy: The Early Years of a Naturalist by Edwin Way Teale. Though the length of Indiana’s coastline on Lake Michigan is the shortest of all the Great Lakes states at 45 miles, scores of Hoosiers have appreciated the beauty, power, and drama that such a striking seascape provides.

Dune Boy explores the childhood of a young boy growing up surrounded by Indiana’s scenic lakeshore dunes at Lone Oak Farm. In this nostalgic account, Teale gives us an authentic picture of the way we were, the way we would like to have been. A classic, Dune Boy was distributed to over 100,000 soldiers during WWII. Edwin Way Teale went on to win the Pulitzer Prize for General Nonfiction in 1966 and the John Burroughs Medal for distinguished nature writing.

About The Indiana Center for the Book:

The Indiana Center for the Book is a program of the Indiana State Library and an affiliate of the Center for the Book in the Library of Congress. The Center promotes interest in reading, writing, literacy, libraries, and Indiana’s literary heritage by sponsoring events and serving as an information resource at the state and local level. The Center supports both libraries. This means that a library’s cost for a year’s worth of one-day-a-week courier service is just $100. Public libraries not meeting standards and privately funded libraries are not eligible for this subsidy. This subsidy is limited to one library per system. Branches are not eligible for this subsidy. The cost for these libraries would be the full $625 per day.

Additionally, select libraries may qualify for an additional $425 Resource Sharing Rate subsidy if they subscribe to a second day of service. In order to qualify for this second day subsidy, the library must meet one of the following criteria:

- Subscribes to 5-day-a-week InfoExpress service
- Subscribes to OCLC ILL System
- Is a net lender (Net lending status is defined as when the total number of items lent by a library divided by the total number of items borrowed is greater than 1.0. For public libraries, this figure is automatically computed as a part of the Annual Report.)
- Is a member of Evergreen Indiana who subscribes to 2 or more days of InfoExpress service.

These are the only subsidies offered on the courier service. Each additional day of service costs $625.
